There were thirteen children born to them, seven of whom are still alive. In the spring of 1882 they moved to Manitoba with their young family and took up land at Balmoral. IMMIGRANT BOYS WERE WELCOMED.

On the arrival of the International Limited on Tuesday afternoon, fifteen lads who stepped off were welcomed by Major Dr. E. Ming, the Councillors and Members of the Board of Commerce. The boys, who are all British born, arrived in Halifax on board the Antonia, and were brought to Canada by the British Immigration and Colonization Association of Canada.

This was the first occasion of a group of boys coming to the Counties of Lennox and Addington and Prince Edward, and it was decided that they should be given a special welcome.

The boys were taken in cars to the Town Hall, where the Mayor, Councillors, the Clergy, J. W. Robinson, President Board of Commerce, Mr. Laughland, Representative of the Department of Agriculture of the Province of Ontario, and officials of the Department of Colonization and Development and Canadian National Railway Officials all joined in welcoming the newcomers.

In the speeches of welcome the boys were advised to stick to their jobs even though at times there were strong feelings of homesickness and discouragement. The farmer employers were urged to be patient and sympathetic and to remember that everything was new and strange to the boys.

The farmers who had made application for the boys were all on hand, and after a number of pictures had been taken, the lads were taken to Caton's Restaurant, where lunch was served. When this was over many legal formalities were complied with and the boys started for their new homes with their employers. The boys were placed in Lennox and Addington and five in Frontenac.

Mr. M. J. O'Brien, who was in charge of the boys, was accompanied by several Canadian National Railway officials, including the official photographer. Mr. Jos. Foster, of the Immigration and Colonization Department had charge of the placing of the boys in this district.

ST. PATRICK.

On the eighth day of March it was, some people say,
That St. Patrick at midnight he first saw the day;
While others declare 'twas the ninth he was born
And 'twas all a mistake between midnight and morn.

For mistakes will occur in a hurry and shock,
And some blamed the baby and some blamed the clock.
Till with all their cross-questions sure no one could know
If the child was too fast or the clock was too slow.

Now the first faction fight in owld Ireland, they say,
Was all on account of Saint Patrick's birthday.
Some fought for the eighth; for the ninth more would die;
And who wouldn't see right, sure, they blackened his eye!

At last, both the factions so positive grew
That each kept a birthday, so Pat then had two,
Till Father Mulcahy, who showed them their sins,
Said, "No one could have two birthdays, but a twins."

Says he, "Boys, don't be fightin' for eight or for nine;
Don't be always dividin', but sometimes combine;
Combine right with nine, and seven-teen is the mark,
So let that be his birthday."

BANQUET OF BOARD OF COMMERCE

The spacious Assembly Hall of Union Lodge No. 9, A. F. & A. M. was the scene of a delightful and educative function last Thursday night, it being the occasion of the monthly banquet of the Napanee Board of Commerce. The Association was particularly honored in having for its guests the Warden, members and officials of the County Council of Lennox and Addington which is holding its March session this week and for its special speaker, Mr. J. B. Reynolds, M.A., President of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. Despite the inclemency of the weather the banquet was largely attended, there being 125 present.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the large assemblage sat down to a most sumptuous repast during which Walters' four-piece Orchestra rendered several pleasing numbers which received generous applause. After full justice had been done to the many good things provided, a half hour was spent in Community Singing in which all joined heartily.

Mr. J. W. Robinson, President of the Napanee Board of Commerce, very capably presided as chairman, and first called upon Mr. Geo. E. Smith, of Kingston, who kept the gathering in splendid humor by his witty and original stories.

The chairman then called upon Mr. Wilfred S. Wilson, chairman of the Publicity Committee, who gave a splendid and concise report of the workings of the Chamber of Commerce and gave several valuable suggestions that will not only be beneficial to the agriculturists themselves but to the community at large. Mr. Smith then gave two very choice readings, after which the chairman was called upon Mr. J. A. Laurhland, District Representative of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, who, in a brief speech, referred to the Live Stock Train which will be in Napanee on Monday afternoon next, and issued a very cordial invitation to all to be present as the Department of Agriculture considers the exhibit a highly educational feature. Mr. Laurhland also gave some valuable suggestions which would undoubtedly be very beneficial to the community.

Owing to the absence of the Warden, Mr. A. J. Smith, through a slight indisposition, Mr. J. S. Johnson, Reeve of Adolphustown, gave a brief address in which he, on behalf of the County Council, expressed thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for the kind invitation extended to the Council to be present. The chairman in reply, expressed his pleasure in having the members of the Council present, and then called upon Dr. G. W. Morden, who, in a brief speech, introduced the speaker of the evening, and who referred to the many years he had known Mr. Reynolds, and his many fine associations with the speaker of the evening.

Mr. Reynolds in rising to speak received a very warm welcome and in a few introductory remarks complimented the Napanee Chamber of Commerce on bringing together such a gathering as was before him and said that such gatherings were entirely up to date. It had been his pleasure to speak to many gatherings similar to this one, and in addressing audiences he was always careful to come with praises from the O. A. C., remarking that in an address which he addressed in Saskatoon he found that twenty-two were present, twenty-five in Edmonton, and at the present gathering four.

He also complimented the town of Napanee on having such a worthy citizen as Dr. Morden as Principal of the Napanee Collegiate Institute. The subject that he wished to speak on was "The relations that should exist between farmers and other interests".

The speaker was firmly convinced among farmers and townspeople are that the points which are common of much more importance than the points which distinguish and separate them. A favorite subject a few years ago was the "Independence of the Farmer".

The speaker states that "we are to-day losing a considerable measure of our independence." The inter-dependence of farmer and townspeople deserves emphasis more than ever to-day. In 1914 the farmer regarded with suspicion the city interests. What a contrast to-day.

The speaker attended a Grain Growers' Convention held in Winnipeg in 1920 and among the speakers was a representative of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and the chief freight agent of the C. P. R., both of whom spoke on the common interests between the banker and the farmer showed that all should work with one another. The town cannot survive without the country, socially and economically, and just as truly the country cannot exist without the larger centres.

Mr. Reynolds then dealt with rural depopulation, saying that it has in no way meant rural decline. The following figures were quoted by the speaker to prove the above statement :—

In 1921 although there were 69,-000 fewer people in rural Ontario than in 1891 and 900,000 more people in urban Ontario, to the amazement of the world the farm lands in 1893 were valued at $600,000,000, while in 1921 the valuation was $881,000,000. Other figures : Farm buildings, 1893, $200,000,000; 1921, $579,000,000. Implements, 1893, $57,000,000; 1921, $161,000,000; live stock, 1893, $118,000,000; 1921, $214,000,000.

The speaker next referred to the Dairying Industry which was one of the most important and profitable of any industry.

The farming community in the past 20 years deserved the highest respect, for there is in no more honorable calling. Many farmers to-day are still strongly opposed to education such as given at the Agricultural Colleges, clinging to the old idea that a theoretical man cannot instruct the practical farmer. The speaker was pleased to say that this idea was gradually disappearing. He found his audience that farming is built on a solid foundation.

Mr. Reynolds, who is a charming speaker and thoroughly knows his subject, was tendered an ovation on taking his seat.

E. J. SEXSMITH AT ROTARY CLUB, KINGSTON

Addressed Weekly Meeting on Relationship Between Rural and Urban Districts.—Co-operation Necessary for Development and Welfare of the Dominion.

Advising a closer co-operation and co-relationship of ideas between the farmer and the city dweller in both social and commercial life, E. J. Sexsmith, M.P. for Lennox, spoke to the regular weekly meeting of the Rotary Club, Kingston, which was held Saturday, at the British American Hotel on the subject "The Respective Relations of Rural and Urban".

In opening his address Mr. Sexsmith stated that he was very glad to be able to speak to the Rotary Club on a subject of the nature that he chose. "There is a natural cleavage between the rural and urban and although it has no foundation it still exists," he said. Every business man was trying to break down this barrier and since the war a greater co-operation had grown up.

Co-Operation is Essential

The question which was facing the sincere and intelligent thinker of to-day was "How best can we promote the knowledge that co-operation is essential?"

The speaker dealt with this great question under two separate and distinct heads, first the social and then the commercial relations. It must be remembered, he said, that the rural and the urban life was absolutely bound together.

The first thing to do was to start in the home for example is a powerful factor. The children were constantly taking in impressions and from those impressions gained their knowledge and opinions on all subjects. The school was also a place where example was most powerful and the speaker stated that the school teacher had a great influence over tre lives and characters of the children under her.

Interchange of ideas through social gatherings where both the rural and the urban mixed together would do much toward the erasing of the false standards that had arisen, declared Mr. Sexsmith. He cautioned, however, against the advertising of the fact that the city dweller had more advantages than rural people, stating that inevitability and equality were the things to work for.

Commercial Relations.

A readiness to pass opinions on the other fellow's business before one looks at it from the right viewpoint, a natural cleavage and a lack of the necessary co-operation, were among some of the things that hindered greater progress in the tearing down of barriers between rural and urban life, especially as it effected business relations. Independence was another quality that was hard to overcome in a business way. Club gatherings and the interminging of the rural and urban interests in the Chambers of Commerce and the Boards of trade had a wonderful and helpful influence. The annual fair should receive the full support of every one for it was an influence with far reaching effects.

In conclusion Mr. Sexsmith made a patriotic appeal for the people of to-day to reach down and assist the rising generation. "Let us not forget that up about us now and in the near future will be the men who control the destiny of this country. It is a glorious heritage, this country of ours, and we must do everything to keep it the best country to live in, in the world. We have a precedent and example, it is for us to continue."

A hearty vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Rotarian "Ted" Weller, and seconded by Rotarian "Sid" Smith, being endorsed by the entire club.

A request for Co-operation

Made by the Department of Public Highways

The highways of the Province represent an investment within the last 10 years of over $160,000,000. It is the people who have paid for these roads. It is the people's money which will be used to maintain them.

To conserve this public property, The Highways Act provides against overloading of vehicles at this season of the year, and driving at excessive speeds.

To secure voluntary co-operation of users of the roads, the Highways Department proposes to place before the people, through the columns of the press, the reasons why regulation of the use of the road is in the interest of the motorist and the public generally.

The law provides that during March and April trucks (outside cities and towns) "shall not be loaded in excess of one-half the carrying capacity of such vehicle as registered with the Department, without obtaining a permit as provided in Section 31."

Compliance with the law is urged on all drivers and owners, but while co-operation is requested in the public interest, notice is given here that infractions of the law will be dealt with vigourously according to the law.

The Hon. George S. Henry, Minister — S. L. Squire, Deputy Minister

THE WEEK IN THE LEGISLATURE

Toronto, March 21st.—There has been a perfect flood of petitions laid upon the table of the Legislature recently, from church and other organizations, relative to the proposed Temperance Act amendments. A common form has been the request that the Government "make no change in the Act except such as will strengthen it". It is for the House and public to judge, now that the Bill has been introduced, but the Government is convinced, and most people will agree, that the numerous provisions of the measure brought down by Hon. W. F. Nickle on Thursday will go a long way toward removing some of the farcical features of the Act and restoring respect for law and order. In moving first reading of the bill, the Attorney-General said:

"Broadly speaking, the principles underlaying the measure are these: The Government thinks the time has come when we should get away from mere theoretical principles and meet this problem as a practical problem in a sound, common-sense way. In the debate on the Address I said the present limitation in the O.T.A. was artificial, onerous and certainly not scientific. The Government feels that increasing the alcoholic content from 2½% proof spirits to 2½ absolute alcohol by volume is in the general interests of temperance, and as I said on a previous occasion, the Government has been filled with alarm at the rapid extension of whiskey and alcohol drinking in Ontario. Therefore, while the Government respects the principle of the Act in sale, making it an offence to sell liquor that is intoxicating, the Government is of opinion that 2½% alcohol in beer does not make that beverage intoxicating, and therefore the Government takes the responsibility of submitting an amendment to the Act to permit regularity of such sale.

"My desire is to get away from much of the hypocrisy that has characterized the administration of temperance legislation, not only in this province but in other countries. You cannot brush the tide back with a broom, but sometimes, if you can catch the tide at the ebb, you may to an extent control it as it rolls in; and I believe to-day, if we have wise temperance legislation and the co-operation of the province in the administration of this law, we will obtain a better temperance spirit than prevails to-day, when coercion and compulsory abstinence have made, in many countries where the people are against the law, almost a rebellion against law and order in the broad acceptance of the term."

Sale of the so-called 4.4 beer is to be more restricted than was forecasted. It will be sold on a dual permit system, having regard to the individuality of the applicant and the nature of the premises. Its sale will be permitted, in the words of the Attorney-General, in standard hotels and well conducted restaurants and cafeterias, for consumption on the premises, and by genuine grocery stores for delivery. It will not be sold to those under 18 years of age. As had been anticipated, the number of prescriptions for liquor which a doctor may issue without coming under review by the license board is to be reduced from 50 to 30. In addition, the board may prohibit any druggist from supplying liquor on the prescription of any physician which, in the wholesale druggists in future must obtain their supplies from the license board direct. Among the drastic provisions of the Bill is one setting a fine of $5,000 in the case of a brewer convicted of infringing the Act, and he may be required to give a bond of $10,000. If a permit-holder, other than a brewer, offends, he is to be subject to fine or imprisonment, without alternative, for a first or subsequent offence, and upon second offence his premises may be closed for three months and placarded. On the other hand, a relaxation in the present law which brought "Bear, bear!" from members of the House when it was explained, is to be made from $200 to $50 the minimum fine for "having or drinking" liquor in a public place. There have undoubtedly been cases where this hardship because magistrates had no option in cases of technical or unwitting infractions. Another move to avoid discrimination against those who have little means is in the extension of the time allowed for appeal from a magistrate's judgment in an O.T.A. action, 10 days to 20. Debate will come upon the second reading of the bill, and Premier Ferguson has promised to give ample notice of the date.

* * *

When W. E. Raney, K.C., Progressive Leader, unexpectedly and in violation of an arrangement between the leaders, introduced on Tuesday an amendment to the budget motion, he started something he probably was not prepared for. One result is that the debate goes over until next week. The immediate outcome was to break down upon Mr. Raney's head the first real attack to which his group has been subjected this session. Things had been going pretty smoothly. The Conservatives had refrained from mentioning the Peter Smith case, and it remained for his former colleague to revive the whole controversy centering about the Home Bank secret commissions. Mr. Raney in his amendment took the remarkable course of moving censure upon the Public Accounts Committee of last year for "failure to make adequate investigation" of the commissions. It must be remembered that Mr. Raney himself was a member of the committee, but took no part in its work; and, on the other hand, that Manning Doherty, R. H. Kemp and other members of the U. F. O. group did take an active part in the committee investigations and concurred in the report that was presented to the House at the closing day of last session. So obviously was the amendment a political move, that even Benjamin Bowman and Leslie Oke, U.F.O. members, rose on Thursday and declared they would vote against it. Mr. Oke, who is member for East Lambton, said:

"I cannot feel that all the blame can be attached to one administration and let the other go scot-free. Any suspicion having arisen, Mr. Drury should have been on the alert. This amendment would relieve the treasurer of the late government of all responsibility. I was a member of the public accounts committee and sat through all the sessions, and I know of no instance where anything was held up or not gone into. (Applause). The amendment is more for political purposes than to get to the bottom of what has happened."

Upon the same evening, E. Proulx (Lib., Prescott) said he did not see how he could vote for the amendment, unless it exhibited some real desire to re-open the investigation and bring new evidence before the committee. Personally, he was a member of the committee and thought its work finished.

Mr. Raney's speech had been carefully prepared and typed. There was just one thing overlooked. After being forced by the Speaker to withdraw an objectionable phrase used in regard to Hon. Mr. Price, Provincial Treasurer, Mr. Raney naturally omitted some language of the same kind that he had farther along in the prepared speech, but forgot to inform his newspaper organ in Toronto and that faithful newspaper reproduced the full text, including some interesting passages not uttered in the House. A striking feature of the debate was that William Finlayson, (Con., East Simcoe), who had been away attending the funeral of Senator Bennet, dropped into the House in time to hear part of Mr. Raney's speech. At its close, he immediately took the floor and without preparation, except for the fact that he was chairman of the public accounts committee last year, began a smashing reply which was not concluded until adjournment of the debate Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Finlayson carried the war into Africa by pointing out that while Mr. Raney specifically condemned as "imprudent" the Ridout transaction of 1923, in which $100,000 was wasted in the placing of Treasury Bills in New York, the ex-attorney-general was himself responsible for that very deal. He recalled that D. K. Ridout was a Toronto insurance man, not a broker, but a close friend of the late J. Walter Curry, who though a Liberal had been leading valuable support to Mr. Raney in the Legislature. He came to the Parliament Buildings and made an offer, which was accepted, for $10,000,000 of six-months' Treasury Bills; placed them within a day or two, and pocketed $100,000. Mr. Finlayson suggested that somebody in New York cleared another $100,000, while the Bank of Montreal was accustomed to handle such business for 1-64th of one per cent. Mr. Raney, the records show, presided at the meeting of Cabinet council which approved the deal, and personally signed the order. Evidence before the public accounts committee later showed that Ridout had lent Walter Curry $3,000 in legal tender, without security. Mr. Finlayson closed this part of his speech in these words:

"The Ridout transaction was fathered and authorized by the late attorney-general, and he must be responsible for it. It is up to him to investigate this toll-gate and see what became of the $200,000, and explain to the House and Government why this money was thrown away and this fund, created immediately prior to an election, and money handed over to a Liberal whom he appointed to office as registrar in this city. I suggest when these matters are heard and the House and country are satisfied as to these facts, then perhaps the late attorney-general may come back and we may forget the inaccuracies he has been guilty of. I apologize to the House for bringing in the names of Mr. Curry and Peter Smith, but neither of these were mentioned until Mr. Raney attempted to hide behind his late colleague."

* * *

There has been a curious tendency, not so much in the House as on the part of Liberal newspapers, to criticize the Government because commercial concerns with which George Eccleston (Muskoka) and Hon. James Lyons, (Sault Ste. Marie) are connected, sold goods to certain departments, as shown by last year's public accounts. The whole matter arose chiefly by reason of Premier Ferguson's decision to ask all members to refrain from having business relations with the Government. They are in no danger of disqualification under the law, thanks to an amendment to the Legislative Assembly Act which was passed, not under a Conservative Government but in 1897. This exempts members who hold shares in incorporated companies. What has happened now is that the Prime Minister has called upon members, notwithstanding the protection of the Act, to observe the intended spirit of it by avoiding "appearance of evil" in future, and they have agreed, although in one case it is quite a serious matter commercially.

The teacher was endeavouring to make clear to the youngsters the grammatical tense. "My father has money", she pointed out, "is in the past tense." "Now Emily, what tense would you be employing if you should say, 'My father has money'?" "That would be pretence," said Emily very seriously.

"After taking Two Bottles my wife made rapid progress back to health"

Catnol is one of the finest remedies ever discovered for use by the weak and ailing. There is no time in a woman's life when it is so necessary to safeguard her health. Not only should she protect her own health, at a most trying time, but she must consider also the health of the unborn child. Read what Mrs. Perry,—whose health was sadly run down before baby was born, was suffering from nervousness and indigestion, and nothing on her stomach. She went into one of our stores, Crawford's Drug Store, and told him to give me something for my wife. He recommended a bottle of Catnol, recommended it highly, and told me that after taking a bottle or two my wife made rapid progress. The colour came back to her cheeks and her appetite was restored. Catnol is invaluable to women as it serves as a useful tonic, soothing, strengthening, without a drug. As a bodybuilder, and a wonder worker in all run down conditions I think there is any medicine equal to Catnol." Mrs. Perry, 227-10th Street, Brandon, Man. 5-24

MINING DEVELOPMENTS IN YUKON TERRITORY

New Discoveries of High-Grade Silver-Lead Ore Made in Mayo District.

The past year has been one of many new developments in silver-lead mining in the Mayo district, Yukon territory. The chief development has been the discovery of high-grade ores on Galena hill, which lies across the valley of Christal creek from Keno hill. The discoveries lie between those of Keno hill and the Silver King mine on Galena creek, the latter being the original producer of high-grade ore in the Mayo district. The ores are similar in character to those of Keno hill.

On Keno hill, Treadwell Yukon Company, Limited, completed their drainage tunnel, which was to tap the vein at a depth of 500 feet. This tunnel has been connected up to No. 2 shaft. Lateral development along the vein is now proceeding. The Treadwell Company also landed at Mayo before the close of navigation in Stewart river, the machinery for a mill of 100 tons a day capacity. Sufficient concentrating ore is in sight for this mill for several years.

The Onek Mining Company, now reorganized as the Reserve Mining Company, did a small amount of prospecting on its claims, the Fisher and Lone Star claims. Several individuals were prospecting their claims on Keno hill during the summer and a small production from this source is looked for next spring. It is also interesting to note that some work is being done on the Lookout group on Lookout mountain.

Some prospecting has been done in the Beaver River district, which lies some fifty miles to the north of Keno Hill area. Ore deposits have been found at a number of points here, chiefly McKay hill, Silver hill, and Grey Copper hill. These discoveries, however, have proved to be low-grade ore, which cannot be worked under present conditions.

Young Brown at college found himself rather short of money, and accordingly he wrote his father the following letter:

"Dear Pater,—I am writing for a decisive rather sooner than I expected; but, you see, several bills have come in at once—books, laboratory fees, games subs, etc. Please send me $50 as soon as possible.

"Your affectionate son."

The father replied:

"My Dear Son,—I received your letter to-day, and am sending you the cheque you asked for. I was at college myself once, you know.—With love. "Dad."

"P.S.—Is she good-looking?"

THE AWAKENING.

By Archie McNeely.

Spring; Spring! On every hand
Sol's miracles we see;
The snow is melting from the land,
To form a mighty sea.

The budding trees are swelling out;
The robins have returned.
Released, is now, the farm-boy's shout,
For which his heart has yearned.

The bawling calf donates his share;
Is glad, at spring's expense:
He pokes his tail high in the air,
And races 'round the fence.

The holes appear on high and lin,
Up comes a woodchuck's head;
Awakened by a voice within,
"Tis spring, 'tis spring"; it said.

And loudly, overhead, the crow
Croakes out his hoarse delight,
The balmy winds, that now do blow,
Have freed him, overnight.

The rooster, on the farm-yard gate,
Crows challenge to the world;
Happy is he till autumn late,
For then, the axe is whirled.

The music of the earth around,
Is wakened by "Stir Spring".
It loosens up the frozen ground,
And makes the birds to sing.

The fiery sun hath warmed the heart
Of every living thing.
And all are forced to take their part
In welcoming this Spring.

But we are like the skies grown grey,
When'er we fret and frown,
Spoiling the pleasures of the gay,
And spreading gloom around.

Come! Let us try with might and main,
To spread a little cheer,
We'll banish gloom and peace will reign,
Then will "our" sphere be here.

Our chilly air will soon be gone,
And loved ones seem more dear,
Our good was hid, our dark sides shone,
But now: "Our Summer's here."

SUGGESTS GUNS AS POSTMEN

Englishman Cites War Tests as Argument for Plan That Seems to Have Possibilities.

New uses have been found for many things that were invented largely or entirely for war. Submarines may yet assist us in peace time for certain purposes in connection with salvage, aircraft planes as a means of rapid transportation factories for the manufacture of sewing machines. Of these things we have heard much, but what of that first and foremost instrument, the shell?

Men are being demobilized in millions, but shells in hundreds of millions.

A shell has all the points that go to make a good servant and a reliable messenger. It is quick, punctual, certain, secure, not unromantic, can travel in all weather, can carry a heavy load 5, 10, 20 or 25 miles, brooks no outsiders on its journey, and is moreover, available in unlimited quantity and abundant supply that it is little short of an act of folly to relegate to the scrap heap or cap museum, without fair investigation of its potentialities, our vast and wonderful array of artillery.

Every one is familiar with the system of collecting and receipting customers' payments in big shops. The money is put into balls which roll along overhead wires to the cashier's desk, where they are unscrewed, the money taken out and the ball sent rolling back with the change and the receipt.

Here is an army of messengers, each of whom is a rolling ball. Do not think that my suggestion that shells should be used likewise is altogether new.

When a brigade is "going over the top" one of the gun teams of the Stokes mortar battery is sometimes told off for a "mysterious purpose." They have been attached, with their gun, to headquarters, and supplied with a strange-looking kit that contains nothing but a receive messages, which they fire to battalion headquarters across the barrage. The shell contains a smoke cartridge, and when it falls the stream of smoke shows the position so that the battalion signallers can dash from their cover to pick it up.

This method was improvised to meet certain contingencies; it contains, however, the seeds of infinite extension and elaboration. Instead of the casual Stokes gun, imagine that we are going to use a 9.2 howitzer, which is accurate to a yard in 12 miles—so accurate indeed that a shell could be deposited upon a target at the appointed spot without the aid of a smoke stream to advertise its position—and can carry her a hasciic scribbled note, but a mail of 2,000 or 2,000 letters.

Air Current to Grade Coal.

An interesting method of grading fine coal by means of an air current is in use at an English colliery. The coal is delivered to the washery by a bucket elevator and discharged onto shaking screens. The grading apparatus is fixed immediately over the delivery chute of the elevator, the mixed coal allowed to flow over a hinged weir plate. Immediately under this plate is an orifice through which a powerful current of air is drawn by means of a centrifugal fan. The size of the opening is capable of adjustment by means of a sliding plate. The passing stream of coal is brought nearer to or kept farther from the section by adjusting the hinged weir plate, so that any desired proportion of small coal can be drawn off. A deflecting plate is fitted into the receiver, which serves to throw the larger pieces of coal to the bottom; the fine dust, passing with the air through the fan, is finally collected in cyclone separators.

Sir Douglas Haig's Popularity.

The prime factor in Sir Douglas Haig's great popularity among the British armies was undoubtedly the interest he always showed in the boy soldiers. During the many inspections in France it was the invariable practice of nearly all generals—Kitchener and French included—to hurry along the ranks until they came to the old soldiers with the rows of campaign ribbons on their breasts. Sir Douglas Haig always singled out the youngest boys for his attention. You could see them flush and stammer and straighten up with pride at being noticed by the commander in chief. Nor did he ever omit in these early days his special word of thanks "to all those who have left their benches, shops, and offices to help us professional soldiers to see it through."

Incidence of Flu.

An interesting example of the incidence of influenza was given by Sir St. Clair Thomson. In a sanitarium for consumptives seven miles from the nearest town there was an outbreak of influenza. There were 100 consumptives and about 100 on the domestic staff. Among those of the consumptives who caught the disease none had any complications, and none died; several of the cases among the staff proved fatal. Sir St. Clair Thomson said that the consumptives probably escape because the systems were already organized to fight disease and they could be considered in the same position as vaccinated people.

By Sea and Land.

"Yes," said the mermaid. "Prohibition is surely a success. Even the ocean is entirely 'dry.'"

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC BONDS

In this week's issue our readers will notice an advertisement of Bonds of the Government of the Argentine Republic. This is the first time that Bonds of a Foreign Government have been announced for subscription in this district. The event is note-worthy because it marks the entrance of Canadian investors into the world's financial markets. These Bonds which are advertised by the well known firm of R. A. Daly & Company, Toronto, are part of the issue recently floated in New York.

The Argentine Republic is the most prosperous of the South American Countries. It has the greatest foreign trade. Its leading city, Buenos Ayres, is one of the most beautiful capitals in the world. The population of the Argentine is larger than that of Canada, and the average wealth of its people is very high, about $1,353. per capita. The total debt is very low only $133. as compared to Canada's $350.

The credit of the Argentine ranks high in the money markets of the world. It is a tribute to Canada's growing importance in these markets when the Bonds of a great country like the Argentine are offered in Canada.

SOFT WOOD MADE BEAUTIFUL

Proper Application of Finishing Methods Gives All the Effects of More Costly Material.

Beautiful wood floors, approximating in effect and finish the oak and maple floors found in the best typeof homes, can be developed, with the aid of proper finishing methods and materials, in such woods as pine, fir, and cypress, says a bulletin of a large American company. These so-called "soft" woods are very durable and possess not a little natural beauty of grain.

Hardwood effects are secured on soft woods by staining with an oil wood stain, consisting of a permanent color pigment in an oil vehicle. These stains are particularly adapted to use on the soft woods. The effect is completed by applying a thin coat of shellac and finishing with two coats of prepared wax or floor varnish.

The first step toward obtaining the desired finish is to sandpaper the wood smoothly. The stain should then be applied freely with a brush, and, after being allowed to stand for about five or ten minutes, buffed off with a cloth. When the stain has dried for 24 hours the shellac and wax or varnish may be applied as described.

A deeper effect than that procured by the method outlined may be obtained by the use of a darker stain over the oil wood stain. Both should, of course, correspond in color. Often it is difficult to determine upon the best finish for a floor in the absence of expert advice.

Aviators' Dangers.

Air service doctors have discovered that airmen who have been experts will, on occasion and for a period, make all manner of mistakes in landing.

With a smooth lawn before them they will do a "pouched egg" and crash the machine on its tail or will take the ground before they mean to.

These accidents are attributed to a particular sort of weariness of eye muscles as well as eye nerves. The eye fails to convey to the brain a proper eye picture of the ground or other objects.

The eye fails very much as the muscles of an untrained athlete fail. Many exercises for the eye have been designed which will remedy this defect.

"THE GOLDEN SHELL"

PALMERO THE LOVELIEST CITY IN EUROPE.

Lies In Glorious Saucer-Like Hollow, Set Round With Charming Hills —Orange and Lemon Groves— Notwithstanding Its Beauty It Has Its Drawbacks.

Palermo, according to many experienced travellers, is the loveliest city in Europe, if not in the world. Certainly it is the most beautiful town of the beautiful Mediterranean.

It lies in such a glorious saucer like hollow, set round with charming hills and a sapphire-blue sea, that the name has long been given it of "The Golden Shell." Its orange and lemon groves, its magnificent rose gardens, its pleasant streets, its fine buildings, its ancient cathedral, its multi-colored scenes of nature and humanity all combine to make Palermo as near a dream-city as one is likely to find this side of the Far East.

Of course, it has its drawbacks. There are terrific vendettas; there are brigand bands not far beyond the suburbs; there is constant friction between the official authorities and the peasantry of Sicily, and there is no love lost between the Italian pure and simple and the Sicilian.

But, for all that, the tourist, the traveller, the visitor, the stranger will be warmly welcomed by the sunny folk of Palermo if only he comes as a friend and remains such. Then they will show him enthusiastically the attractions and curiosities of beautiful, charming Palermo.

He will see herds of cows and goats being driven round the city early each morning, and milked at each house in turn. So that the Sicilian is sure of getting milk fresh and clean, for the animal is milked specially for him, there and then.

Strangely enough, when a cowherd or goatherd goes round in the morning with the milk, he carries a big old-fashioned, often quite useless, gun slung across his shoulder. The custom appears to be merely a relic of olden days, but it seems strange to an Englishman, all the same, to see a milkman carrying such a weapon.

If you chance to have rooms at any big hotel you will find your morning exit from it beautified by a regular array of flower-sellers. They will even stand in a crescent; shave all the way down the drive to the gates and their exuberant show of roses, supported on poles of all sorts of shapes and anchors, harps, wreaths, crosses—makes such a glorious exhibition as few other towns can equal.

Orange-sweets, curls and crown skinned, merry-eyed lads will offer you, with smiling faces and alluring glances, oranges as big, as sweet, and as golden as ever you will see in this world at something like three a penny!

Palermo's streets abound in public fountains, for the ancient Saracens brought water to the city by enormous pipes which still stand there good as ever. So much water is to Palermo, and so little found on the high ground below, that one must see such day processions of peasants, with their donkeys, coming from the mountains to carry back a supply of water.

The main street, which runs right from the harbor to Monreale, seven miles up in the hills, is as straight as a die, one of the very longest and straightest roads in the world. It runs right through the high Piazza Nuovo, or New Gate, above which, on the top of the King and Duke's palaces. When you stand in the room of the palace above this gate as the writer did—and look out of the window towards the harbor, then turn right and look out at the opposite window, you can actually see the whole seven miles of this wonderful road to Monreale.

The famous climbing roses and ramblers round the royal domain hang down over the wall for a long distance into this street, it runs alongside the gardens. Thus one sees a splendid blaze of all sorts of colored roses adorning the wall outright, until they resemble the "Hanging Gardens of Babylon," when at their best.

The Marriage Service.

Two women reformers, Miss Maude Royden and Mrs. Creighton, endeavored to induce the House of Laity to accept amendments to the marriage service in connection with the revision of the Church of England prayer book.

They proposed to substitute, "Will thou love him and comfort him?" for "Will thou obey him and serve him?" "With all my worldly goods I thee endow." They also proposed that the bride should give the bridegroom a ring. All the proposals were rejected by 114 votes to 84.

Not Vaccination.

"See that the ring is big enough. People have peculiar ideas about weddings, and the duties of the clergy," writes an English vicar in his parish magazine. "Does marriage at a registrar's office only last seven years?" was the curious question asked here a few days ago, he adds. The answer was, "No, it is for life." "A wedding was all fixed up some time ago," he says, "before I was consulted, but banns put up, for the time of the morning service, and the bride could not see why the service of the church could not be put off for her wedding."

Breaking It Gently.

The young editor had just founded a new magazine—one of those highbrow things that stay over-long and uncut pages—and was eager for appreciation.

"What do you think of it?" he asked the celebrated literary critic to whom he took a specimen copy.

"Well," replied the other, weighing it, but warily, "the stuff you rejected must certainly have been rotten."

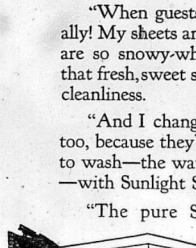
"When guests come, especially! My sheets and pillow cases are so snowy-white, and have that fresh, sweet smell of perfect cleanliness.

"And I change them often, too, because they're really easy to wash—the way I wash them —with Sunlight Soap.

"The pure Sunlight suds quickly search the dirt right out, and leave every single thread sweet and clean. Only a light rubbing may perhaps be necessary at times. Then a good rinse and everything is as spotlessly white as your heart could wish.

"For clothes, dishes and general housework I always use Sunlight. Every bit of Sunlight is pure, cleansing soap, and so it is really economical—and my, how it does clean! Sunlight is so easy on the hands, too!" Lever Brothers Limited, the largest soap firm in the world, make Sunlight.



WISE AND OTHERWISE

"If I were to die I wonder if you would remember me for long."

"I think so, dear,—the doctor says my indigestion is incurable."

"What nonsense all this is about men getting on their knees when they propose. My husband didn't do any such thing."

"He did when he proposed to me!"

RAILWAYS START MOVEMENT TO PROTECT FORESTS

Management of Canadian National Holds Meeting. — Discuss Forest Fires as Related to Railway Operations—Federal and Provincial Officers Attend.

The change of attitude on the part of the railway companies in Canada towards forest protection was fully exemplified at a conference which took place in Toronto recently. Entirely on the initiative of the management of the Canadian National Railway Company, a meeting was held in that city for the purpose of discussing intimately the various problems in forest fire protection as related to railway operations. In attendance at the meeting were the general manager of the Central Region, the general superintendent, Mr. William Kilby, Chief of Fire Protection, and many other railway officials, all of whom are keenly interested in the work. Also there were present numerous officers from the provincial and federal forestry services, and other men, notable among whom was Dr. C. D. Howe, Dean of the Forestry School at Toronto University.

Ten years ago such a meeting would hardly have been thought of. At that time the railways were one of the principal sources of forest fires. As a result of excellent regulations promulgated by the Board of Railway Commissioners in 1912, and with the consistent efforts made by the various companies to comply with such regulations, an entire change has been wrought. Although railways operating through forested regions still cause fires, the number of such fires has been very greatly reduced; also those fires which do occur are brought rapidly under control. The net result is that instead of being a primary agent in the source of fire troubles, the railways the list. now occupy the position well down

In former years there was perhaps a tendency on the part of the railways to evade, so far as possible, the responsibility for forest fires. It has become increasingly evident, however, that a railway company which fully shoulders its responsibilities for fire protection work can show very favourable results in all reduction the amount of damage claims made against it. Moreover it has come to be appreciated that the forest is a most important factor in supplying the railways with commodities for freight hauls, and the railways now recognize that it is of paramount importance that the protected regions throughout which they operate must, at all costs, be kept in a productive state in order that the freight revenues may be maintained.

The management of the National Railways is to be commended for the constructive way in which they are seizing the importance of forest protection, and the excellent manner in which they are striving to enforce upon their employees the great part which the railway employee can play in forest fire protection. Similar meetings have been held at other important points throughout Canada, and have resulted in much good work in advancing the cause of forest protection.

A SCHOOL GROUNDS COMPETITION

A competition in the ornamental planting of rural school grounds is being inaugurated by the Canadian Horticultural Council. The purpose of the competition is to encourage the planting of such ornamental and hardy shrubs as will not suffer for lack of attention during the vacation period. The abundance of native shrubbery available locally in many parts of the Dominion and the finer things, equally as hardy, obtainable from the nurserymen, give encouragement to the Council and the promise of a charming transformation in the school grounds of the country.

The competition, though Dominion-wide, is divided provincially. Nine silver cups have been secured for award one in each province to the rural school accomplishing the greatest degree of beautification in its grounds during the year. The cup will become the property of the school winning it three times, not necessarily in succession. With each cup the Council will also give an award of merit certificate, which may be framed and kept by the school as a permanent record.

To enter the competition the schools are required to submit a photograph of the building and grounds and an application of entry to the chairman of the provincial committee, or to Mr. L. F. Burrows, Secretary of the Canadian Horticultural Council at Ottawa. Each of the committees, which will be conducted under the immediate charge of the Provincial Department of Education, are available from the Secretary of the Canadian Council at Ottawa, or from any of the following chairmen of provincial committees: British Columbia, Prof. F. E. Buck, University of British Columbia, Vancouver; Alberta, Prof. Geo. Harcourt, University of Alberta, Edmonton; Saskatchewan, Dr. F. C. Patterson, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon; Manitoba, Prof. F. W. Broderick, University of Manitoba, Winnipeg; Ontario, Prof. A. H. MacLennan, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph; New Brunswick, A. G. Turney, Provincial Horticulturist, Fredericton; Nova Scotia, Prof. Shaw College of Agriculture, Truro; Prince Edward Island, J. A. Clark, Dominion Experimental Farm, Charlottetown.

(Issued by the Director of Publicity, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.)

Nation-wide Fame. There is scarcely a corner of this great Dominion where the merits of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil have not been tried and proved. It is one of the world's most efficient remedies for sore throat, lame back and many other ailments arising from inflammation. Rubbed on the skin its healing power is readily absorbed, and it can also be taken internally.

FUR FARMING INDUSTRY IN CANADA EXPANDING

General Increase in Number of Farms and Animals is Reported. Its Development.

A general expansion in the fur farming industry in Canada is reported by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The number of fur farms operated in 1923 was 1,240, an increase of 214 over the previous year. The total value of these farms was $8,424,964, the stock of 40,125 animals being valued at $6,235,668, an increase in the value of the farms of $634,860; in the number of animals of 9,343, and in the value of stock of $461,515. The revenue derived from the sale of live animals and pelts during 1923 totalled $2,175,151, an increase of $657,626.

Fox farming forms the most important branch of this industry. Of the 1240 fur farms in operation 1,179 were devoted to raising foxes. The revenue derived from the sale of live animals and pelts during the calendar year 1923 was $2,159,898, 6,433 animals and 8,963 pelts were disposed of. This was an increase of $653,676 in value over 1922 when 4,113 live animals and 5,601 pelts were sold. The exports of live animals during the fiscal year 1923-24 totalled 3,329 with a value of $717.

The shipment of pelts out of the Dominion in the same period amounted to 144,471 valued at $4,-025,238, an increase in the number of pelts of 74,882 and in the value of $2,159,722. The 1922-23 figures were 1,513 live foxes valued at $385,150 and 69,649 pelts at $1,885,616.

The earliest authentic record of the raising of foxes in captivity in Canada comes from Prince Edward Island, where about forty-five years ago a number of foxes were raised on a farm near Tignish. The beauty of the fur of the silver fox and the consequent high prices realized from the sale of the pelts, caused attention to be directed chiefly to this breed—a colour phase of the common red fox which has been established through experiments in breeding carried on by the pioneer fox farmers. After 1890 there came a period of rising prices for furs, and the fox farming industry grew rapidly in Prince Edward Island. In 1913 an enumeration by the Provincial Commissioner of Agriculture showed 277 fox farms in that province with a total of 3,130 foxes. While experiments were being carried on in Prince Edward Island, attempts at raising foxes in captivity were also being made in other provinces, the records showing that foxes were successfully bred in Quebec in 1898, in Ontario in 1905, and in Nova Scotia and in 1906. Fox farming is now carried on in all provinces of the Dominion and the number of farms is steadily increasing. The latest statistics (1923) showed Canada with a total of 27,383 foxes, of which 25,186 were silver foxes.

Although the fox has proved the most suited to domestication, other kinds of fur-bearing animals are being raised in captivity—mink, raccoon, skunk, marten, fisher, beaver, and muskrat. Karakul sheep, from which are obtained the furs known as "Persian Lamb", "astrachan" and "broadtail", are being raised successfully in Canada as are also chinchilla rabbits. In 1923 the number of farms engaged in the raising of fur-bearing animals other than foxes, was 61, compared with 49 in the previous year. Raccoon farms are the most numerous of the miscellaneous class, mink farms coming next. A few of the fox farms also raise miscellaneous fur-bearing animals in addition to the foxes.

In All Canada Not a Village

But Can Tell of Genuine Relief by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec Man Tells How Quickly They Built Him Up and Brought Him Back to Perfect Health.

St. Fulgence, Que., March 23rd. (Special)—That there is not a village or postoffice in Canada that cannot provide a case of genuine relief by Dodd's Kidney Pills has been shown again and again. In this little village many people bear grateful testimony to the wonderful healing powers of this simple remedy. Mr. Philippe Gagnon is one of these.

"Your pills are very good," Mr. Gagnon states. "I have suffered a long time with kidney trouble and six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me so much good that I intend continuing the treatment until I am completely relieved of my trouble. I tell all my friends who suffer with kidney trouble to take them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills simply strengthen and heal the kidneys. The work of the kidneys is to strain all the waste matter out of the blood. If the kidneys are out of order they fail to do their work, and the waste matter remains in the blood, causing serious diseases.

Put the white of an egg, a big tablespoonful of powdered gelatin, a cupful of water, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, three of lemon juice and a little stick cinnamon is a saucepan with the rind of half a lemon. Beat with an egg beater until the mixture reaches the boiling point, pull to the side of the stove, cover and leave for ten minutes. Strain through cheesecloth, add a third of a cupful of sherry and pour into two long-stemmed glasses or small molds to harden.

George Carter, of 26 Earlscourt avenue, Toronto, has sixteen relatives fighting for the King in France. Before the battle of Marne there were seventeen, but a nephew with the Fusiliers was killed in that engagement, and two others have been wounded recently.

Mother-of-Pearl.

From the waters of the northwest coast of western Australia a total of 26,440 hundredweight of mother-of-pearl shell was fished, at an average selling price last year of $1,250 a ton.

One Good Cow is worth Two Poor Ones

RELIABLE statistics show that the average cow produces only 3,000 lbs. of milk and 100 lbs. of butter in a year.

By the careful selection of better-grade animals for your herd and better feeding, the yearly production of milk and butter can be doubled easily, resulting in increased profit to the dairy farmer.

Weed out the culls, breed by a good sire and save your best heifers.

Funeral of Teacher.

Impressive indeed was the service at the United Church, Picton, on Friday afternoon, at the funeral obsequies of the late Miss Elizabeth Dunkley. The I.O.D.E., of which deceased was a valuable member, attended in a body, as did also the Public and High School Boards. The centre aisles of the auditorium of the large church were entirely filled with school children, who marched under the direction of their respective teachers. The floral offerings were magnificent. Rev. J. J. Meller had charge of the service. A beautiful duet was most pathetically rendered by Mr. F. A. Waldon and Mrs. (Dr.) Philp. Miss Dunkley was a former teacher at Morven school, and was well known in this vicinity.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ENTERTAIN MEMBERS OF COUNTY COUNCIL

An event of great interest to both townspeople and the farmers of the County was the banquet held on Thursday last in the Masonic Banquet Hall, by the Napanee Chamber of Commerce, in honor of the Lennox and Addington County Council. Among the 125 members and guests who attended were a large number of farmers who are members of the Napanee Chamber of Commerce, and the entire programme of the evening was devoted to agricultural topics. The feature was an address by Mr. J. B. Reynolds, President of the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph. During the splendid dinner Charlie Walters' Orchestra furnished an excellent musical programme, after which everybody joined in community singing for a while.

Mr. George Smith, of Kingston, who is well known in town, was called upon several times and provided some good entertainment in the form of stories and recitations. He has a great fund of humor and was heartily applauded on each occasion.

Mr. J. W. Robinson, President, presided at the meeting, and called upon Mr. Winfred S. Wilson, Chairman of the Publicity Committee, and Mr. J. L. Laughland, Secretary of the Agricultural Committee, and these officers reported on several matters of interest to farming community which will be undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. F. S. Boyes then introduced the members of the County Council with a few appropriate remarks, and Mr. J. S. Johnson on behalf of the Warden and Councillors, responded, and thanked the officers and members of the Chamber of Commerce for their hospitality.

Dr. Morden, Principal of Napanee Collegiate Institute, then introduced the speaker of the evening, and referred to the excellent work of Mr. Reynolds in the field of agriculture and education.

Mr. Reynolds on rising to speak was greeted with enthusiastic applause, and in his opening remarks complimented the Chamber of Commerce in bringing together the people of the town and country in meetings of this kind, and said that he had often spoken at gatherings such as this, and he was sure that a better understanding between rural and urban people would be the result of such meetings. He also said that wherever he went, to speak he noticed graduates from the O. A. C., and in this district he saw at least four farmers who had at one time attended the Agricultural College at Guelph.

Mr. Reynolds stated that the interdependence of the farmer and the townspeople is more marked to-day than ever before, and that the town cannot survive without the country either economically or socially, and that the confidence of the farmer on the town for many things is just as material. The speaker compared agricultural conditions to-day, particularly in Ontario, with those of thirty years ago, and gave some very interesting statistics regarding production, yields, and prices. He stated that although there are now 60,000 less farmers in Ontario than thirty years ago, and 800,000 more people living in towns and cities in Ontario, this rural depopulation does not mean a decline in agriculture but rather an improvement in farm conditions and better yields of crops for with a smaller number of farmers a greater urban population is being supplied with farm produce. The Agricultural College is a big factor in assisting farmers to improve their conditions, and farming should be held in high respect as a calling both by the farmers themselves and by all others in the community.

Laymen's County Missionary Banquet in Napanee

Over two hundred men attended the County Missionary Banquet given in Grace Church on Wednesday evening. A sumptuous repast was provided by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society of Grace Church. During the banquet splendid music was rendered by a sixteen-piece orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Byrne Blacke.

Mr. E. J. Corkill very efficiently acted as chairman during the evening, and, in his chairman's address, welcomed the laymen from all parts of the County. Musical items were given by Mr. Reginald Wiseman, Mr. J. Caldwell, and a quartette composed of Messrs. C. and B. Black, Gerald Smith and J. H. Craig.

The event of the evening was an address by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Arnup, of Toronto, on "The World Missionary Conference," held at Washington. Rev. W. R. Tanton briefly welcomed the speaker. In the course of his address, Dr. Arnup referred to the fact that five thousand delegates from all parts of the world spent six days in a close and intensive study of the world missionary situation. The speaker went on to deal with the difficulties and problems of the present world missionary situation and finished with a challenge to every man to commit himself to the great task of christianising the world.

During the evening Mr. G. W. Gibbard paid a fitting tribute to three missionaries who had gone from this district to the foreign field: Mrs. Edmunds (nee Loretta Wilson), in China; Miss Olive Hambly, of Japan, now home on furlough; and Rev. Roy McWilliams, at present in Japan.

Rev. A. J. Terrill closed the evening's program with a brief address, and all joined in singing the Doxology.

Y. P. S. BANQUET

On Monday evening, at 6.30, the losing side in an attendance contest at the Young People's Society of St. Andrew's Church, served a banquet to the Society, and had as their guests the members of the Session and the Board of Managers, with their wives, and the Presidents of the other organizations of the church. The tables were prettily decorated in red, the color designating the losers, and in jellies and garnishings the same color predominated. Great credit is due Mr. J. M. Thomson and his committee for the excellence of the food and service, and which was enjoyed by about eighty.

A toast list, interspersed with musical and literary numbers, followed the supper, Mr. E. J. Corkill being a very jolly toastmaster. There were solos by Mrs. Valleau, Mr. Marr and Mr. Caldwell; a piano duet by Misses Katherine Henderson and Beatrice Milligan; readings by Miss Ruby Fair and Mr. Marr, and a couple of songs specially written for the occasion, in which all joined.

The toast to "The King", proposed by Mr. Corkill, was responded to by all singing the National Anthem. A toast to "Our Society" proposed by Mr. Laughland, in which he stressed the importance of the training of young people in the church, and paid tribute to the success of the officers and members of the society, and the co-operation of the members. Mr. MacKenzie, the President, responded, making a unique comparison between the resources of Canada and the work in the Society. The great wheat crops correspond with the devotional meetings, in which are given the sustaining food for our spiritual life; the mines, to the missionary enterprise taking light into the dark corners of the earth; the forests, fisheries and other resources, to the citizenship and literary work, which in both instructive and constructive, the great publicity owned railway system may be linked up with the former member of the congregation, Charlie Lee, now in China, who is carrying the gospel to his fellow-countrymen. A toast to "The Winners" was proposed by Mr. Henderson, who gave the Latin derivation of the word toast which was from toasts or burn, but said he would not thus attack the winners. He quoted from the classics where many great characters are indeed to all who seek the lowest depths by way of their offices. Mr. Malcolm Corkill, as leader of the "Losers", responded, congratulating his opponents on the splendid supper served, and expressing regret that the Pastor, Rev. A. J. Wilson, was unable to attend.

Reports by the Convenors of the different committees told of the various activities of the Society. The Devotional meetings provided highly educative addresses on the religions of the Bible, by Rev. Mr. Wilson. The Literary Committee, with Malcolm Corkill as Convenor, arranged for the address on "Venice", accompanied by pictures, by Dr. Marsden, and at the Christmas season presented Vandyke's story of "The Other Wise Man", and splendid pictures. The Citizenship Committee arranged for addresses by Mr. Henderson, Mr. Corkill, Mr. Laughland, and one to be given by Mr. MacGillivray, on subjects relating to Canada and duties of its citizens. The Missionary Committee had charge of five meetings, the programs consisting of papers on the study book, "The Clash of Colour", two pageants and missionary songs and readings, a set of slides on "India" with accompanying lecturette. The offerings provided for a Christmas box to St. Paul's Hospital, Hearst, Ont.; followed by a box for the bazaar at same Hospital, both of which were supplemented by generous donations. A letter and book were sent Charlie Lee in China, and his reply expressed great appreciation and is an inspiration for further work among his people. The Social Committee served a supper in the Society at its opening meeting last September, and on a fifth Monday of any month arranged very jolly evenings of games and contests and the like at refreshments. Prizes were given by Miss Gardner in a most happy little speech.

It is the general opinion that the losers were efficient hosts and hostesses and the winners very appreciative guests.

Smith, of Frankford, is in the employ of the Strathcona Hotel.—We are glad to have Mr. Smith in our midst again.—Mr. W. J. SELBY

The W. M. S. held an open meeting on the evening of March 19th, when despite unfavorable weather and roads, there was a splendid attendance. The varied, interesting and elevating program was followed by refreshments and a social hour. This social evening was preceded by a dog's quilting, after which tea was served and a good sum realized. These quilts are for sale and are on exhibition at the local store. With several Life membership fees and the usual generous Easter offering the Society will finish the year, having reached its objective. The members of this fine Auxiliary, under the Presidency of Mrs. Jos. Tate, are to be commended for the character of their programmes throughout the year, and the sustained interest in this branch of church work.

On Friday evening, the Rustlers of Selby League tendered a banquet to their opponents and victors, the Boosters. For the past three months the young people have been energetically striving to promote League ideals and to make their meetings real community affairs, helpful to and attractive to all. To this end, a contest was organized and the members divided into two groups, Hustlers and Boosters, under Miss Wessel and Miss Mary Denison. Each one, who attended punctually or assisted in the programme on any way won credits for his side, while a new member was a most valuable asset. Need it be added that League became vitally important

Her Friends Gave Her-Up

"I was badly run down after having 'flu, pneumonia and pleurisy," writes Mrs. Baxter

To have 'flu alone is surely bad enough, but to have 'flu with pneumonia and pleurisy is in most cases fatal. Even 'flu itself after it has run its course leaves the system in a weakened, depressed, nervous, run-down condition, but few are able to fight 'flu, pneumonia and pleurisy, and live to tell the tale. No wonder Mrs. Baxter was given up when she had 'flu, pneumonia and pleurisy. No wonder after having had these dreadful afflictions she was terribly run down. The mystery is how she ever survived. But we will let Mrs. Baxter tell you her story in her own way.—"I want to tell you what Carnol has done for me and mine. I was badly run down after having 'flu, pneumonia and pleurisy. My sister advised me to try Carnol. She used it both for herself and her daughter and both were completely relieved. I have now taken five bottles of Carnol and can say I never enjoyed better health. My daughter is also taking it for a spring tonic. I advised a neighbour to give it to her little girl who has had bronchitis from birth and she is getting well. We all praise your wonderful medicine and only hope it will do as much for others as it has done for me and mine. A long life to Carnol"—Mrs. E. E. Baxter, R.R. No. 2, St. John Corner, New Brunswick.

Carnol is a wonderful tonic and gives marvelous results in all weakened and run down conditions, because its ingredients are the finest tissue, nerve and blood builders, and are known to every doctor in the medical profession. Full particulars of which will be found in every circular accompanying a bottle of Carnol. Price $1.00 per bottle, at Wallace's. e 6-24

MORE CORRUNDUM THAN GOLD IN BELL ROCK MINE SAYS OWNER

Mrs. Williams, of Verona, Disclosed That Much is an Interview—Will Mine 300 Tons of Quartz This Summer—Is Well Posted on Mineralogy—Once Walked 200 Miles to Compare Quartz Specimens—Is a Unique Figure.

That Mrs. Williams, of Verona, who owns the mining property located near Bellrock, about which so many stories of fabulous wealth have been circulated lately, does not share in the belief that the mine carries the degree of wealth which has been attributed to it by many, and that she does not even claim that the quartz carries gold in any large or highly paying quantity is evident from statements which she made to a representative this week. In an interview, during which she freely discussed the mine and many things about it, she told many very interesting things about her experiences and made certain claims which go to show that she has devoted much time and ability to a study of mines and minerals and has made an exhaustive study of the mineralogy of Frontenac and Hastings in particular, and of world mining insofar as it relates to the kind of minerals which are to be found in those districts.

More Corrundum Than Gold

Incidentally she revealed the fact that she believes that the quartz found on her property on lot 14 in the 13th Concession of Portland Township is richer in corundum than it is in gold or silver though she claims that it carries quantities of both the latter, and as justification for her belief she stated that she had arranged to have 300 tons of the quartz mined during this summer the contracts being in the hands of a very well-known Bell Rock resident who has had much experience in mining. Whether she had a market for the quartz, just what she intended doing with it or how much she was getting for it, she did not divulge. She was not giving away any business secrets.

Lady Geologist.

Forty years have slipped into the past since Mrs. Williams first took an active interest in mining. Her interest started when it became known that there was mineral of unknown value on the lot on which she lived, which lies almost directly west of Verona, about two miles distant from that village, and part of which is submerged under the waters of Bull Rock Lake. Prospectors had made a number of trips over the land and left behind them the telltale holes which they had dug. What they discovered they kept to themselves but shortly afterwards, men versed in mining affairs made visits to the farm and later on made overtures for the purchase of the property. Realizing that she could not handle her property to the best advantage without a knowledge of what the prospecting showed, Mrs. Williams started to acquire a knowledge of mineralogy which would give her at least an even chance with the experts who were dealing with the mining chances in that section. With her to decide was to act, and she procured the best works on mining that she could get, and she made such an extensive study of these that she was soon able to prospect and decide as to values and proportions as any one else in the district. Among the works she studied were those of the late Dr. G. W. Miller, who was in those years connected with Queen's School of Mining. To-day Mrs. Williams, despite her many years, can discuss minerals, their properties, modern methods of treating them, their monetary values, their uses and their distribution with a keenness and a certainty which is remarkable. She knows to a nicety the technical names of ores, and the acids used in reducing them, and can give offhand the proportions in which they appear in quartz of known values, and she talks knowingly of the kinds of minerals and their value, which are found on any claim of any size within a radius of one hundred miles.

Walked 200 Miles

One of the things which she related and which shows the thoroughness with which she set about the task of establishing the value of the mineral on the farm happened about twenty years ago. At that time she had become convinced that the quartz bore more corrundum than any other mineral which was unindustrial, but that time a report reached her of a valuable mineral of great mineral which was being worked on a property in the rear of Hastings County. It was upwards of one hundred miles away and the roads were none too good, but she believed that she could get some needed information from that mine. So she quietly set out alone and on foot and walked all the way there and back, two hundred miles through a country, much of which was uninhabited, and the return of which were the roads more than merely passable. The information I gained on that trip was worth the trouble," she said.

Won't Sell For a "Song"

At various times samples of the mineral from the mine have been assayed, but she has not yet announced just what the assays showed though she intimated that there was plenty in the quartz to warrant the mining of it, provided a market could be found for it. It may be years before those who own the mineral will be willing to pay more than the "any cent" for which Mrs. Williams will demand. As several offers for the mine have been made she has cut 200 tons of the quartz this summer. What does she intend to do with it? She does not seem reasonable to think that she intends to leave it on the surface after going to the expense of getting it out. But Mrs. Williams is not enlightening anyone as to her further plans, and in the meantime residents of Verona and Bell Rock districts are awaiting results.

Whatever may be the result, one thing is certain and that is that few counties can boast of a woman, bent with the toil of over half a century, who has so intimate a knowledge of mines and minerals and geology as has this aged lady whose years are many and doings her neighbors know so little about, to some extent, an enigma to those who have known her all her life.

CONCLUSIONS REACHED FROM RECENT ECLIPSE

Dominion Observatory Party Devoted Attention to Magnetic and Wireless Effects

There are three classes of problems connected with total eclipses of the sun. The first class deals solely with the times of the different "contacts" of sun and moon, the second with physical condition on the sun (chromosphere, prominences, corona), the third with the effects of solar radiation on the earth.

The problem of "lunar theory," dealing with the motion of the moon, is one of the most abstruse in astronomy, and has not yet been fully solved. Though it is possible to compute with great exactitude the effects of all known gravitational forces, the moon apparently refuses to be absolutely bound by them, exemplified by the fact that it was several seconds late in keeping its appointment with the sun on January 24th last. Hence the observation of the "contacts", or instants of beginning and ending of the partial and total phases of an eclipse, is important for throwing light on these obscure deviations.

Phenomena of the second class are present at all times, but it is difficult and in the case of the corona impossible, to study them except when the full glare of sunlight is cut off at the time of eclipse.

Problems of the third kind deal mainly with magnetic and wireless effects. It is well known that otherwise in solar radiation, such, for example, as those connected with sunspots, have a very marked effect on terrestrial magnetism. It is also considered that solar radiation, through ionization of the upper atmosphere, has a good deal to do with conditions affecting transmission and reception of radio signals. It is therefore of importance, in both cases, to examine into the results of the cutting off of this radiation at times of eclipse.

In the case of the eclipse of January 24th it was known that conditions for visual or photographic observations would probably be quite unfavourable, both on account of the low altitude of the sun, with accompanying atmospheric disturbances, and because the chances were about two to one against a clear sky. It was therefore decided that the Dominion Observatory party should concentrate its energies principally on magnetic and wireless effects, while an attempt would also be made to observe the times of contact if the weather should be clear. This seemed the more rational since a co-operating party from the University of Toronto was making plans for photographic records of the corona, so that by the two Canadian parties practically the whole range of investigation was provided for. Both parties were located at Long's Corners, a few miles south of Hamilton, in the middle of the belt of totality. As it turned out, clouds entirely prevented all the visual and photographic observations planned.

The magnetic observations were distributed over three days, exactly the same program being carried out on the day of the eclipse and on the preceding and following days, so as to afford a basis of comparison. Readings of magnetic declination (variation of the compass) were made every minute for about six hours on each day. The instruments and observers were housed in a large tent partially heated by a non-magnetic copper stove. Similar observations were made by other organizations at various points both within and without the zone of totality. Until all these observations have been reduced and compared it will be impossible definitely disentangle the eclipse effects, if any, from the constant variations to which the magnetic elements are always subject. All that can yet be said is that certain deviations from the normal curve showed themselves about the time of the eclipse, somewhat similar to effects that have been found at previous eclipses.

This was the first occasion on which eclipse effects on wireless receiving conditions have been investigated by scientific methods. As was perhaps to be expected in a first attempt, there does not appear to be a thorough agreement in the conclusions arrived at by the investigators. So far as the Dominion Observatory party is concerned, the general conclusion is that the shadow of the moon exerts the same kind of influence on radio reception as does the shadow of the earth; that is, the effects approximated to night conditions. On certain wave-lengths, where the most marked night effects are shown, the eclipse effect was also greatest; on both shorter and longer waves the effect was not so marked.

Toronto Mother Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ontario.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a specific for backache, and after continuance. A friend put in my door a circular telling about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I read it all and decided to try it, and got a bottle of Vegetable Compound right away. I once began to feel the benefit of it. I was full of aches and pains at times and thought I had every complaint, but I can truthfully say that it certainly did me good. I can always speak highly of it, and I tell all the other women I meet about it, and selling if they will only give it a trial. Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies are splendid for constipation. You are welcome to use my name in any way it will help any one."—Mrs. [illegible] Woodley, 643 Quebec Street, Toronto, Ontario.

The expectant mother is also considered carefully this letter from Mrs. Westwood. It is but one of a great many, all telling the same story—benefit results.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for use during this period. The experience of other women who have found this medicine blessing is proof of its great merit. Why not try it now yourself?

THE WEEK IN THE LEGISLATURE

Toronto, March 28th. — With but ten working days left, if the Legislature is to close by Easter, there will be quite a batch of important business to be dealt with during the coming week. Adjournment by Good Friday is believed quite possible, however, with night sittings. It is hoped now that the sub-committee of nine appointed by the private bills committee may arrive at a solution of the church union controversy and amalgamate the "pro" and "anti" bills so that there need be no debate in the House. There is to be a "field day" on the agricultural enquiry committee's report, and several interesting, if somewhat "academic" resolutions remain on the order paper.

* * * *

The Government's bill amending the Ontario Temperance Act went through second reading early today, in the small hours of Friday morning. W. E. Raney, K.C., Progressive Leader, in the course of a three-hour address, moved an amendment that the bill be referred to a select committee to determine if beer with 2.5 alcoholic content by volume is intoxicating. The division bells rang at 1.40 a.m., after a dozen members had participated in the debate, and Mr. Raney's amendment was lost on a vote of 74 to 29, four Liberals and the two Liberites present voting against it. A division being demanded on the main motion, for second reading, the vote was 70 to 24, as four Conservative members withheld support: Messrs. Acres, Bedford, Patterson and Sweet.

* * * *

Amendments to the bill will no doubt be proposed in committee of the whole. In fact, Karl Homuth, (Labor, S. Waterloo), though he did not stay for the divisions, announced a batch of amendments which the Labor group proposes to introduce. Mr. Homuth took the curious course of attacking the bill as "a backward step" and then declaring that with amendments it would be made quite a workable Act. The proposed changes of the Labor group consist chiefly of restrictions in sale, the Chief Seller the confining of distribution to standard hotels. The other Labor members, Peter Heenan, of Renfrew, and J. F. Cullen, Rainy River, voted for second reading of the bill, as did the four Liberals alluded to previously: Proulx, Vellier, Magwood and Pinard. In addition, A. Belanger (Lib., Russell), states that had he been present he would have voted for the bill.

* * * *

Hon. W. F. Nickle, in moving second reading, made another glib presentation of the aims of the new legislation, and in conclusion said: "The object of the Act is to endeavor to restore respect for law and order by removing the resentment engendered by the feeling that there is class distinction, and permitting greater facility of appeal to wean the people from demoralized alcoholic beverages with all their attendant dangers, not only in regard to organic injury but from drunkenness induced by absorption of such liquors; to make the way of the bootlegger intensely hard, and to bring to him a realization that sharing with the State by way of fine the fruits of his illicit traffic will not gain him immunity; traffic more, but that he may know that deprivation of liberty is the punishment for an offence which society abhors. I quite realize that the evils of intemperance cannot be overcome in a day. Education and enlightenment are necessary, and if the temperance forces of the province would devote their attention to continuing a campaign of education, with the desire to improve conditions, rather than seeking to overthrow the government whose principles are not foursquare with the idealist theories of their leaders, a decade would show an advance that would be startling and gratifying.

* * * *

Mr. Raney, who absented himself during Mr. Nickle's speech and part of Mr. Sinclair's, to prepare his own effort, devoted most of his attention to attack upon scientific authorities quoted by Mr. Nickle. He also enunciated the theory that "if a glass of nine per cent. beer has a kick, two glasses of the Attorney-General's 4.4 per cent. will have just the same kick." Presumably, though Mr. Raney did not go so far, four glasses of 2.5 would produce the same damage. Mr. Nickle called the Progressive Leader to task several times on his own authorities, and this was quite lively. If somewhat technical argument, evidently for a couple of hours, with spectators crowding the galleries of the House. Mr. Raney concluded with a charge that the Attorney-General had been "deceived" as to the qualities of the new beer, and asked withdrawal of the Bill.

* * * *

"Intolerance is as dangerous as intemperance," is the view of Earl Rowe, member for Simcoe South, and junior Conservative Whip, who voted against the Government on the O.T.A. issue in the debate on the Address, but on Thursday night announced support of the bill. He explained that his attitude on the former occasion had been in fulfilment of statements he made in the election campaign. "Now," he said, "the verdict of this House has been strongly in favor of changes in the Temperance Act, and the bill had sufficient endorsement to be considered on its temperance merits only. I have carefully considered the matter, and feel that in the interests of true temperance and promotion of respect for temperance laws in this province, that I am heartily in accord with the bill, and will give it my full support."

* * * *

In delivering the closing help of his budget speech, in the early part of the week, Hon. W. H. Price made extended reference to the Home Bank bond purchases and secret commissions of 1919. On Friday morning, at the initial meeting of the Public Accounts Committee, W. E. N. Sinclair moved to summon Peter Smith, former treasurer; Charles Matthews, ex-deputy, now serving imprisonment, and several former Home Bank directors, in connection with the Home Bank affair, which motion the committee laid over for a week. In view of this, Col. Price's remarks in the House may be quoted briefly:

"If we go over the evidence of Fleming and everyone who appeared before the committee, I think we will conclude there is no evidence except suspicion. Now, Mr. Speaker, I don't know of any more evidence than there was who sit opposite have talked as if the Government had evidence it would not bring forth. I say to you there is no evidence I know of. Mr. Clarkson has sworn he has no more evidence, that he has investigated everything. I have no records in the Home Bank. The Government has no records at its disposal. There is nothing more that we have that we can bring before the committee. If a man casts suspicions upon what someone else does, let him bring forth the evidence."

* * * *

In Premier Ferguson's speech toward close of the budget debate, there was another exposure of U. F. O. affairs, when the Prime Minister produced the documents to show that Peter Smith, late treasurer, supplied $15,000 to purchase, through Aemilius Jarvis, junior, a controlling interest in the Oshawa Reformer. This was in 1922, at the time the J. J. Morrison interests had won a fight or control of the Farmers' Sun, and the premier intimated that the Oshawa deal was with a view to carrying on propaganda for Drury, Raney, Doherty & Co., through J. C. Ross, who was ousted as editor of the Sun and went to the Reformer. Mr. Jarvis has now turned in the stock, as well as $4,000 of Saskatchewan bonds, held by him for Peter Smith, and the securities will be treated as partial restitution to the province. An interesting feature of the disclosure was a denial by Mr. Raney that there had never been a meeting to discuss control of the Sun. Thereupon L. W. Oke, U.F.O. member for East Lambton, rose to inform the House that there had been such a meeting, and several U.F.O. directors were at it. He gave their names.

* * * *

There was a sequel to the incident on Wednesday, when Mr. Raney rose to say neither he nor Mr. Drury had known about the newspaper deal. Some lively passages with the premier ensued, in the course of which Hon. Mr. Ferguson dropped this remark: "I said yesterday, 'there is another $19,000 or $20,000 found. Give us time and we will find some more of it.' I have a fairly good idea where some more is and propose to recover it for the Province of Ontario."

* * * *

In advancing his bill authorizing collection of a three-cent tax on gasoline need for highway purposes, Hon. George S. Henry promptly disposed of Mr. Sinclair's suggestion that some of the revenue might be used to wipe out the provincial deficit. The Minister pointed out that estimated revenue of the department, even with the new tax, is only about $8,000,000, and expenditure in the last fiscal year was over $11,000,000. The bill was reported by committee on Friday afternoon.

* * * *

The redistribution bill, for adjustment of provincial ridings to meet the changed population conditions, has been given first reading, in skeleton form, and will be sent to a special committee of 15, representing all parties in the House. Large cities will gain a number of seats, and certain rural ridings will be wiped out. Hon. George Henry, who, it is understood, will be chairman, intimates that county boundaries will not be disturbed. The membership of the House (111) is not likely to be altered.

THE KEEPING QUALITIES OF APPLES.

The most important end of apple growing to-day is quality production and it is the first consideration if the industry is to prosper. The three years' investigations carried on by the Department of Agriculture to ascertain the probable reasons for apples spoiling in transit or shipment has revealed, among other things, that apples produced on young trees were poorer shippers and keepers than those grown on either older trees; that apples produced on clay loam have better keeping qualities than those grown on either heavy clay or sand. Rough handling is, however, the cause of greatest loss and amounts to from ten to fifteen per cent. of the crop marketed by the average grower.

* * * *

While a menagerie was visiting a small village the schoolmaster took some of his scholars to see the animals. After showing them around they at length came to the lion's cage just as the keeper was in the act of feeding them. The schoolmaster looked at the animals feasting for a few minutes; then, turning to the keeper, he said, "Suppose one of these ferocious beasts was to break loose and hurl itself among us with all its force, what steps would you take?"

"The longest I could!" said the keeper and the boys tittered.

THE DEFICIT APPEARS

As has been expected the King Government really has a deficit on the financial year. This is the real point in the Budget Speech delivered by Hon. J. A. Robb. He claims a surplus of $1,832,000, but as he arrived at this by treating as a loan cash advances to the Canadian National Railways and the Government Merchant Marine, there is actually a deficit of $16,204,000 on the year's operations.

Nor is this all. If the same method of arriving at the state of the finances had been followed as was followed by Hon. W. S. Fielding there would, as Sir Henry Drayton has pointed out, be a deficit of $80,000,000 for the new bond guarantees for the Canadian National represent $64,000,000.

Proof that a surplus does not exist is to be seen in the admission of Mr. Robb that during the year the net national debt has been increased by $15,763,838. Last year he said that the debt had been reduced by the amount of the surplus. It follows that this year there really is having been no surplus, the debt has naturally been increased to this extent.

Some remarkable figuring has been done in order to arrive at the pretended surplus. In the first place it is admitted that total revenue for the year will be $52,800,000 below that for the year 1923-24. As at the end of February it was $55,000,000 below that for the corresponding eleven months of the preceding year, it will be seen that the estimate is very optimistic. But let it go at that.

The total estimated expenditure Mr. Robb puts at $342,177,000, or only $1,845,076 below that for the preceding year, according to his own figures. And yet with an expenditure almost equal to that of the preceding year, and with nearly $53,000,000 less to meet it, Mr. Robb figures out a surplus of $1,832,000. Can you beat it?

But not satisfied with this Mr. Robb says that $4,000,162, in the form of bank interest, which Greece and Roumania have promised to pay on their loans, should be added to the $1,832,000. This money had not been received; all that the Government has is these countries' promise to pay, and yet it is treated the same as money in the treasury.

The Home Bank directors got into trouble through including overdue interest in their statements of assets, and yet here is the Government doing the same. When a Government adopts such methods it is easy to see where it will land the country.

Mr. Robb's remarks respecting the way the Budget was prepared last year showed the correctness of Conservative criticism as to the means by which the surplus of $35,000,000 was arrived at. He admitted that during the fiscal year 1923-24 the total requirements of the railways had been met out of ordinary expenditure and so had been a factor in producing the deficit of $21,000,000 that year. But he said that the Government could afford to do so as it had received $36,000,000 from the British Government that year.

This supports the arguments of the Conservatives they pointed out last year that the Government got its alleged surplus by leaving out of account the money procured for the Canadian National Railways through the guarantee of bonds. This year the Government went even further, it left out of consideration the cash advanced to the railways and the Merchant Marine.

It should be borne in mind that small as is the surplus that the King Government claims, it has been arrived at through estimates that are almost certain to remain unrealized. Last session the Government estimated that the total loss in revenue through the tariff reductions and the cutting of the sales tax would not exceed $26,000,000; but now Mr. Robb admits that it will be at least double that figure.

One hour to destroy

Weeks and weeks to repair

The destruction to a road which can be done in one hour at this season of the year by an over-loaded truck or a high-powered passenger car travelling at excessive speed may take weeks of work to repair.

Even hard roads suffer under heavy weights when water lurks in road foundations, as it does during wet spring months. Foundations become "fractured" and road surfaces break. Wheels sink into gravel and macadam roads, which now are soft and porous.

To prevent needless damage, The Highways Act provides that during March and April trucks (outside cities and towns)

"shall not be loaded in excess of one-half the carrying capacity of such vehicle as registered with the Department, without obtaining a permit as provided in Section 31."

As the cost of repair of roads is falling more and more on the users, it follows that owners and drivers will consult their own interest by keeping their loads and speeds well within the legal limit at all times. They are here urged to do so.

In view of this public notice of the provisions of The Highways Act, further notice is given that its penalties will be rigorously enforced against those who disobey.

Called thee to their sunny home,
And we know that thou art waiting

Oh, we long to hear the singing
Of that bright immortal throng,
Hear the gold harps gladly ringing
In that happy land of song.
Gone, but not forgotten.

When Paint Causes Wood to Warp.

Coatings of equal moisture resistance should be applied to all surfaces of a wood product which would give dissatisfaction if it were to warp in service. Tests at the forest products laboratory, Madison, have shown that even when wood is properly kiln dried, one coating entirely prevents it from picking up or giving off moisture and, consequently, from swelling and shrinking under the influence of varying atmospheric conditions.

Varnish, shellac, and other moisture-resistant finishes merely decrease the rate at which the moisture changes in wood occur. The higher the grade and the better coats applied, the slower will be the moisture changes.

Unequal coatings on opposite surfaces of a wooden article cause unequal rates of change in moisture content and hence unequaled shrinkage on the two sides of the piece. The result is that the wood tends to cup or twist out of shape.

TO PRESERVE OLD LANDMARK

Creation of National Monument Area Assures Security to Posterity of Famous Multan Tree.

The Multan tree, landmark of the old Mullan trail, the first highway connecting Montana and Idaho with the coast, will be preserved to posterity through the creation of a national monument area by the president.

On July 4, 1861, Capt. John Mullan, leader of the party having charge of the survey and construction of the Mullan trail from Walla Walla, Wash., to Fort Benton, Mont., closed his work at the connecting point of the roads from the east and west, at the head of the Fourth of July canon, between Wallace, Idaho, and Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. There he marked appropriately a huge white-pine tree, which since that time has been known as the Mullan tree. Tourists seeking souvenirs of their jaunt along the Yellowstone trail have damaged the ancient tree so much that forest service officers have found it necessary to take steps to protect it, and to accomplish this, have submitted a petition proposing that a national monument area be created, which has been approved.

"Am I never to have my way about anything?" demanded Mr. Meek.

"Oh, yes," answered his wife, sweetly. "When we agree you may have your way, but when we disagree I'll have mine."

MORE OR LESS A MYSTERY

Few Seem to Know the Real Facts Concerning the So-Called Monkey of Mons.

Are you acquainted with the monkey of Mons?

If not, you may discover brought home from Belgium a replica—a tiny silver figure with one clawish hand posed reflectively against its chin and with a look of dejection in its deepset eyes. In showing it to a friend he mentioned that, like a number of officers who had been to Mons, he carried the thing as a mascot. The friend told a woman about it, and she, being unacquainted with the mystery of Mons, asked a soldier who had been there.

"Never heard of it, but you can't judge by me, as I was only in Mons a couple of days—got great coal mines there, though."

Another soldier who had been to Mons long enough to go sightseeing was impressed mainly by the cathedral of St. Waldrup—"built in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries; Gothic architecture, and—the monkey must have been there, of course, but—"

Then the woman extended her inquiry to a private who had hobbled around Mons for two hours while waiting for a car.

"Sure I saw it! Bronze statue in a street—or maybe it was one of those gargoyle things on the church wall, but, anyhow, I saw it—at least it looked like a monkey, though I wouldn't be willing to swear to it."

Which is the why of this cry:

"Are you acquainted with the monkey of Mons?"—Washington Star

Doctor—Have you taken every precaution to prevent spread of contagion in the family?

Rastus—Absolutely, doctah, we've even bought a sanitary cup an' we all drink from it.

ANNUAL MEETING OF NAPANEE GOLF CLUB

The annual meeting of the Napanee Golf Club was held on Tuesday evening last, in the Town Hall, and was attended by a large number of members, including some of the ladies. The following officers were elected for the year 1925:

President—Mr. W. A. Daly.
Vice President—Mr. M. P. Graham.
Secty.-Treas.—Mr. T. B. German.
The Board of Governors will be composed as follows: Mr. W. C. Smith, Mr. J. W. Robinson, Mr. Geo. W. Gibbard, Mr. T. B. Wallace, Dr. T. M. Galbraith and Mr. D. B. White.

The ladies of the Club are to have a ladies' meeting at 3.30 p.m., on Saturday, at the Armouries, when they will select their officers and committees.

The work of getting the course in shape has been under way now for about two weeks, and some of the more enthusiastic members have had several rounds already. It is expected that the course will be in good condition for playing early in April, and a number of improvements are being considered, which will be carried out during the coming season. Napanee has one of the finest nine-hole golf courses in Ontario, if not in Canada, in respect to its natural layout and interesting natural hazards. During the past few years the grounds have been greatly improved, and each year sees a number of new members becoming actively interested in the game.

It was decided to extend the privileges of the Club to any tourists passing through Napanee, and to arrange to bring to their notice the availability of the local course to any tourists who might be interested. This might give some tourists an opportunity to become interested in our town, and the Club itself might benefit from the fees received.

The question of the Quinte District Cup matches was also discussed, and these matches with Belleville, Trenton and Picton, are to be played as usual. There will also be other matches with these and several other towns in this district, and a series of local tournaments throughout the summer amongst the members of the Club. Mr. W. J. Wiggins was re-elected Captain for the year, and committees were appointed to look after the greens, entertainments, club house, and matches.

IOLANTHE

Or the Peer and the Peri

SYNOPSIS

Iolanthe is a fairy, who, twenty-five years ago, broke the fairy laws by marrying a mortal and was condemned to death. The Fairy Queen, however, changed the sentence to banishment. As the opera opens the Queen is induced to pardon Iolanthe. Her son, Strephon, a shepherd, is in love with Phyllis, a ward in Chancery, whom he has decided to marry without the Lord Chancellor's consent. The Peers also ask to marry Phyllis, and she, becoming jealous of Iolanthe, whom no one believes is Strephon's mother, decides to marry one of them. The Fairy Queen, to avenge Strephon, makes him a member of Parliament, where he makes things most uncomfortable for the Peers. Phyllis and Strephon are reconciled, and induce Iolanthe to intercede with the Lord Chancellor, who has decided to marry Phyllis himself. Iolanthe reveals herself as his lost fairy bride and is again doomed to death by the Queen. But the Lord Chancellor finds a way out of the difficulty and all ends happily.

"IOLANTHE" is to be produced by the Napanee Musical and Literary Club in the Armouries on a date to be announced later.

SATISFIED WITH DOG'S MEAL

Westerner in New York Proved He Knew a Good Thing When He Saw It.

A man and wife moved to New York from the West—a sane, conservative American man and wife, glad to money and knowing the worth of it—and brought one family dog along, paying $5 extra fare for the dog, by the way, on the train. They went to a large and gorgeous hotel and in the due course of time the dog needed sustenance.

"Ring for a waiter," said the husband, "and we'll get the dog some scrap."

The floor waiter came and when asked to bring some food for the dog explained with some earnestness that he was the floor waiter and not the dog waiter, but would inform the dog waiter of the desires of the dog. The dog waiter arrived in course of time and the predicament of the dog was explained to him. The dog waiter wrote down the order carefully and departed. Presently he returned bearing a silver tray on which were displayed daintily various articles of food—some vegetables, some meat and a cracker or two.

"What's that?" asked the husband, examining the contents of the tray with interest.

"The service for the dog, sir," the waiter replied.

"How much is it?"

"One dollar, sir."

The husband took the tray.

"Get the dog a bone," he said. "I'll eat this. It's the best-looking meal I have seen in the place, and the cheapest."—Samuel G. Blythe, in Saturday Evening Post.

KNIFE ENDED ALL SQUAWKING

Pets of Clemenceau No Longer Created Disturbance, After Undergoing a Slight Operation.

M. Clemenceau's love of pets, of which much has appeared in the press since his recent visit to London, once involved him in trouble with his neighbors. Twelve years ago, during his first term as premier, he had a number of peacocks and storks installed in the gardens attached to the ministry of the Interior. There are no trees in these gardens, only lawn and flower beds, which is M. Clemenceau's opinion lack animation—hence the peacocks. But other people living in the Place Beauvau complained that these birds were too animated, their cries being so persistent as to render sleep impossible.

Things reached such a pass that the prefect of police was asked to indict his official superior for disturbing the peace of his neighbors, who were all the more indignant because M. Clemenceau went home every night to sleep at his flat in the Rue Franklin, far out of the range of the peacocks' cries. However a scandal was averted by the premier allowing a slight operation to be performed on the vocal chords of his pets, which, without otherwise injuring them, rendered them incapable of squawking.

And Still Eggs Are High!

The hens need a walking delegate. Regarding the beaks of the poor unprotected fowls seems to be the motto of poulterer's long suit. Witness the modern working day of an unhappy hen on an up-to-date chicken farm, where as many as 18,000 eggs are hatched at one time.

Electric light has done it. The lights burn steadily until 10 p. m. At 4 a. m. they are turned on gradually until their full glare wakes the hens. The poultry then sit up and rub their eyes and think. "How short the nights are getting! Yet it's certainly daylight. Well—just one dirned day after another!" Nights are short. The touching innocence of the hen victimizes it to the extent of getting only six hours' sleep a night. Eight-hour day? Why, the chicken works as long as the farmer!—The Nation's Business.

Stopped Anyway.

While motoring with four girls my clutch got out of order and it was necessary for the girls to get out and push in order to get the car in motion. On the way back it was arranged that when we got to the home of the girl where they were all staying they would jump off while the car was moving slowly, thus to prevent my stopping and being stalled again. Imagine my horror when they all jumped off backwards and falling over in a bunch rolled into the ditch. I surely had quite a time explaining my seemingly ungentlemanly act to the girls' parents, who had witnessed the incident from the porch.—Exchange.

Dog Saves Feline Chum.

Deuce, an Irish terrier, proved at a fire in the pet shop at 270 Livingston street, Brooklyn, that the term "cat and dog life" sometimes means the opposite of hate, combat and commotion. Deuce had been living in suity with seven blooded cats in the shop for several weeks. When the fire started he saved himself, and then watched the firemen rescue the cats. Apparently he counted them, for when the men stopped rescue work after bringing out the sixth he dashed into the burning shop and came out carrying the seventh by the scruff of its neck. Deuce had to open a case to do it. When he released the cat on the sidewalk, the latter purred and rubbed against his legs, until the shop owner gathered up both animals and took them away.

Depressing Personality.

"There comes Blithersby."

"I see him. Let's avoid him."

"Why?"

"He's the worst crepe hanger I know. Every time he hears me start to talk about buying a new motor car or taking a little trip to Florida or Cuba he wants to tell me how many fatalities die every day in Europe."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Boy Scouts' Equipment.

Chief Sea Scout James A. Wilder of Honolulu has aroused the Boy Scouts of America until 30 sea scout centers have already acquired training ships, 16 cities now have shipping boards, and 63 others are following suit. It is probable that training ships for this branch of scouting will soon be sailing the oceans and rivers of America.

DENBIGH

Mrs. M. Ready, her daughter, Annie, and her son, Bert, enjoyed a pleasant evening visiting with friends at Slate Falls last week.

Mrs. Rodgers, Reeve, has arrived home from Florida, where he attended County Council and transacted the business last week.—Dentist again a few busy days at the Denbigh House with local patrons.

Most of the farmers are now more or less busy with their sugar bushes and all report very good flows.

Charles Both is enjoying an extended visit with friends in Toronto and Kitchener.

As the lecturer paused after a well-rounded period, a blear-eyed man arose and inquired :

"Shay, how long have you been lecturin'?"

"About four years, my friend," was the reply.

"Well," remarked the questioner, as he sank down, "I'll stick around; you must be near through."

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Prudence—"Do you think kissing is an dangerous as they say?"

Bertie—"Well, it has put an end to a good many bachelors."

No matter how deep-rooted the corn may be, it must yield to Holloway's Corn Remover if used as directed.

Old Lady—Oh, conductor, please stop the train. I dropped my wig out of the window.

Conductor—Never mind, madam, there is a switch just this side of the next station.

As a vermicide an excellent preparation is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. It has saved the lives of countless children.

Suspicious Wife—"Where have you been all the evening?"

Husband—"I've been talking business with Tom Baker."

"Yes! And I suppose that is baking powder sprinkled all over your shoulder?"

Miller's Worm Powders work so effectively that no traces of worms can be found. The pests pass away in the stools without being perceptible. They make an entire and clean sweep of the intestines, and nothing in the shape of a worm can find lodgement there when these powders are in operation. Nothing could be more thorough or desirable than their action.

"Am I never to have my way about anything?" demanded Mr. Meek.

"Oh, yes," answered his wife, sweetly. "When we agree you may have your way, but when we disagree I'll have mine."

Your Asthma, Too. The efficacy of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy is not something that is merely to be hoped for; it is to be expected. It seldom fails to bring relief, and in many individual cases it will do the same. So universal has been the success of this old-famed remedy that every one afflicted with this disease owes it to himself to try it.

Mistress—"Sarah, you were entertaining a man in the kitchen last night?"

Sarah—"That's for him to say, mum. I was doing my best with the scraps I could find."

Simple and Sure.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is so simple in application that a child can understand the instructions. Rub it on freely. Only direction is to rub, and when used as a dressing to apply. The directions are so plain and unmistakable that they are readily understood by young or old.

Miner—"Ever been down in a cage before, mister?"

Nervous Visitor—"No. Gives one a queer feeling, doesn't it?"

Miner—"Naw! It's only the feelin' you'd give 'ee if the rope broke." (Long pause). "I did once."

Cheapest Of All Oils.—Considering the quality of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil it is the cheapest of all preparations offered to the public. It is to be found in every drug store in Canada from coast to coast and all country merchants keep it for sale. So, being easily procurable and at extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it.

Barber—"You're next, sir. Hair cut?"

Peppery—"Yes, and, here, put this in your pocket for yourself."

Barber—"Thank you, sir. I don't often get my tip before I begin, and I appreciate——"

Peppery—"I don't want you to consider that a tip. It's busy money."

The two girls were enjoying a private chat, and Gwendoline was all excitement over Adelaide's account of her elopement.

"How romantic!" exclaimed the former, "but weren't you afraid of the ladder slipping?"

"Oh, no," replied Adelaide, "mother was holding it."

A London boy told the teacher that his sister had measles. The teacher sent him home and told him to stay there until his sister had recovered.

After he had skipped joyfully away another boy held up his hand and said :—

"Teacher, Jimmy Dolan's sister what's got the measles lives in Liverpool."

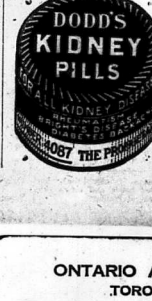
MacTavish had been invited to spend an evening at a friend's house immediately after a wireless game.

At its conclusion the host said, "Well, Mac, what could a Scotman desire better than that? Singing, instrumentalists, a talk on blue bottles, flowers, and dance music—all for nothing."

"Yes," said MacTavish, "but we didna have any acrobats."

A canny Scot got on a tramcar intending to make the full journey, costing threepence, but only took a penny ticket, and renewed it twice at the end of each stage. On the last stage the conductor remonstrated with him, saying he ought to have taken out a three penny ticket at the beginning of his journey, and saved unnecessary trouble.

"Aye, nae !" said the Scot. "Had I done sae, maybe the car had jumped doun, I micht hae lost ma thruppence, an' it is, I canno lose mair than ae penny !"



Workers Choose Woman Editor.

Another woman has quickly followed Miss Margaret Bondfield, first woman chairman of the general congress of the British trade unions, into important office within the councils of the British labor movement. Miss Barbara Wootton has been chosen editor of the Highway, the organ of the Workers' Educational Association.

She is a newcomer to the labor fold, having joined the staff of the joint research and information department of the trades union congress less than two years ago. Miss Wootton continues as lecturer in the department of social economics at Bedford College. She distinguished herself in that branch of learning at Girton and Cambridge, where she won awards never attained before or since by a student. Her papers on social legislation and unemployment insurance have been hailed as classic by the British association in the last two years.

England Has Ice Cream Habit.

The ice cream habit has found lodgment in the British brain. One bears on all sides of the mushroom growth of many small ice cream companies in English pleasure resorts and population centres. England now consumes 400,000 gallons of ice cream per year, which is about one twelve-hundredth of the amount consumed in the United States, the American total running about 500,000,000 gallons.

CONSERVING CANADA'S BIG GAME

In a recent report from the superintendent of Nemiskam National Park, officials of the Canadian National Parks Branch, of the Department of the Interior, have been informed that the herd of antelope now confined in Nemiskam park totals 235. This indicates a natural increase of 55 animals within the past year or a total increase of 193 since 1915. That the efforts put forth in the conservation of this nearly extinct mammal should meet with such success is indeed highly gratifying to those who fostered the project. It would appear that success had at last crowned the repeated attempts made to preserve the species by propagation in captivity.

The history of Nemiskam National park is an interesting chapter in the story of wild life conservation. Overcoming what appeared to be insurmountable difficulties, forty-two antelope were enclosed in a fenced area in southeastern Alberta in 1915 and, in contrast to previous experiments, continued to thrive in captivity. Their welfare and propagation, which was at first a matter of speculation, now seem to be definitely assured.

The antelope of the North American continent, as the prized trophy of the hunter and from the ravages of predatory animals, suffered such depletion in numbers that the extinction of the species was freely predicted by naturalists and conservationists. Dr. Wm. T. Hornaday, in "Our Vanishing Wild Life," published in 1913, prophesied that the antelope would be "one of the first species of North American big game to become extinct."

At that time Canada's supply of antelope seedstock was being severely reduced. It was estimated that not more than one thousand were in the entire Dominion and this estimate was based on authoritative data obtained from Provincial Government officials and others intimately acquainted with the species. Alberta had the largest portion of the remnants, there were a few in Saskatchewan, while Manitoba had practically none.

That this condition was realized by the Federal Government officials is evidenced in the steps that were taken to secure protection for the antelope. From 1921 onwards the Dominion Government, through the Department of the Interior and acting in conjunction with officials of the Provincial Governments and sympathetic associations, had been endeavouring to formulate plans which would effect the enactment of protective measures.

One of the chief obstacles in the path of the conservationists was the natural temperament of the animals. They are delicate, capricious, and easily upset. Of a highly nervous disposition, the least excitement is apt to have a deterrent effect on them and in a great many instances the shock of capture, even when this captivity meant enclosure in spacious areas, was so great as to result in the early demise of the captives. Their fleetness of foot made capture by pursuit impracticable, and weather conditions, impairing speedy flight, were sought as an aid.

From time to time officials investigated reports of herds in different localities. Expert advice was sought and while in some instances the size of the herds did not warrant action, in others climatic and topographical conditions were adverse. The antelope moved about from time to time seeking pasturage of their own particular choosing with the result that the investigators often reached the ground to find their quarry had departed.

In February of 1915 authentic reports that a fairly large herd had been located in southeastern Alberta caused an attempt at herding the animals into a corral to be made but without success. However it was the means of furnishing invaluable information for attempts made at later dates. The idea of capture by herding was abandoned for the conclusion that the establishment of a herd depended on the enclosing of the animals in an area of their own choosing.

Later in the year another herd of antelope—possibly part of the herd on which the unsuccessful attempt had been made in the spring—was located in an area that was known as one of their early summer habitats. The fact they were feeding on compressed approximately 5,000 acres and was already partly surrounded by a good post and barb wire fence. With all possible speed, and caution the barb wire was replaced by a higher fence of woven wire and the antelope were successfully and securely confined by a fence that was both antelope and coyote proof. The work was accomplished without disturbing the animals and forty-two of them were captured in this area of their own selection.

The reserve thus established was named Nemiskam National park in 1922 and it contains all vegetation peculiar and necessary to the antelope diet as well as an abundant water supply. It is situated a short distance from the town of Foremost and the supervision of the herd is in the hands of a resident caretaker.

Subsequently, experiments have been carried out in transporting some of the animals to other localities, but small success has attended these endeavours. Antelope have been taken from Nemiskam park to Buffalo National park in Northern Alberta, but although some of them survived the excitement of transportation, propagation has been of little consequence.

While small numbers of antelope still roam at large in Alberta and Saskatchewan they are constantly diminishing and the safeguarding of the herd in Nemiskam National park, besides being a heritage for the Canadian people, may mean the salvation of this gentle, graceful, and interesting mammal.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cleared Up Joseph Lessard's Kidney Trouble

Quebec Man Tells How and Why He Is Now Enjoying All His Old-time Health and Vigor.

St. Leon, Que., March 20th. (Special)—"It gives me pleasure to tell you, how satisfactory your Dodd's Kidney Pills have been to me," Mr. Lessard states in an interview. "I have had boils for the past eight months and have spent over $60 for treatments, which did not relieve me of them. After taking five boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills my boils have disappeared. I also had violent pains in my kidneys and they have also gone with the boils. I am now feeling fine and am quite well. I would like to recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all persons who suffer with similar complaints to my own."

Dodd's Kidney Pills stimulate and strengthen weak kidneys. You will be surprised how quickly they begin to cleanse and purify, to soothe and heal the kidneys at the same time backaches, rheumatism and other disorders caused by impure blood, disappear.

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 1

Tea as a Beverage

Tea first became known in China nearly 3000 years before Christ. In that country tea was greatly prized, both for its remarkable qualities as a beverage and for the almost religious ceremony attached to the drinking of it. Up to the sixth century, tea was used only for medicinal purposes. Even in the seventeenth century it cost $25.00 to $50.00 per pound. All tea caddies were constantly kept under lock and key. Today when even fine quality like "SALADA" costs less than one-third of a cent per cup, it is not surprising that the consumption of tea is increasing tremendously.

Protection for Cottages and Boathouses

For years past much annoyance and serious loss has been sustained by owners during the fall and winter months, owing to the actions, during that period, of persons of burglarious intent breaking into summer cottages and boathouses along the shores of the Bay of Quinte and along the banks of the Napanee river. Not only has large quantities of goods been stolen, but wanton damage has been done to the property molested.

The winter just closing has been no exception to the rule here, as there is probably not a single summer house on either side of the river that has not been feloniously entered, goods stolen and damage perpetrated. One reason why these marauders are so bold is due largely to the fact that many of the owners do not care individually to assume the trouble and expense of prosecution, but they are almost unanimous in the feeling that some drastic measures must be taken to put a stop to this nuisance and that steps thereto be taken without delay.

There has been some discussion of this matter amongst the owners interested, in the Napanee river and the likelihood of the formation of a protective association to care for cottages, boats and boathouses and for the prosecution of all offenders against the rights and property of the members.

LACROSSE

A meeting of all interested in Canada's National Game—Lacrosse—will be held in the Town Hall, Deseronto, on Good Friday, April 10th, 1925, commencing at 2.30 p.m. At this meeting the following matters will be brought to the attention of the delegates:

1. The formation of an Eastern Ontario Lacrosse Association, and election of officers.

2. The creating of a bantam series for boys under ninety pounds in weight.

3. That "midgets" in future will mean all boys under 18 years of age and not over 118 pounds in weight.

4. That the present "juvenile" series, as conducted by the O.A.L.A. be changed in this league to "junior", age limit nineteen years first of January, 1925.

5. To affiliate with the O.A.L.A. if the delegates so desire, but if not, to go alone".

Delegates with voting powers will be confined to two for each team of a club, but everybody interested in our grand old game will be made heartily welcome.

Donations of trophies for competition in the various series will be thankfully received.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Wm. M. Baird.

It is but seldom that the quiet community of Anderson is stirred by anything out of the usual, but on Monday, the 23rd March, 1925, Mrs. W. M. Baird, who for upwards of 60 years had been an honoured and beloved resident in the locality, passed away.

She lived to the ripe old age of nearly 88 years. This in a measure is not to be wondered at, for while trouble is more or less the common lot of all people, Mrs. Baird, for more than half a century had been visited time and again with many serious afflictions, sufficient to break up many a more robust one.

Mrs. Baird, whose first husband died in Glasgow, Scotland, was left with three small children all alone in that far off land. Her parents were in Canada and naturally her thoughts turned this way, and being a woman of outstanding courage, she gathered her few burns around her and started for this land. Arriving here she settled down within two miles of the spot where she died.

In the course of time she married Mr. W. M. Baird, of Anderson, a union which proved in every way a blessing to themselves and it overflowed and enriched the whole country side. The dark cloud again settled down on this brave little woman, when Anderson she was widowed for the second time, for after a lingering illness, Mr. Baird passed away.

As is often said, "Every rose has its thorn", so every night has its day, and while our heroine was so sorely bereft, she was now surrounded by her children, all of whom could and did comfort their sorrowing mother. The children are Mrs. John Joyce, of Napanee; Mr. James Cuthill and Mr. W. W. Baird, and Mr. Sam Baird (stepson), of Napanee.

The recent years of her life has been shadowed by much serious affliction. Many times of late her life has been despaired of, but her time had not yet come and in a slight way she revived. The grim monster, death, was not to be defeated, for he had laid his hungry hands upon her and seven months ago she was again laid low.

Speculation did not believe that there could be sufficient vim and will to ever-ride this storm, for when one would look at such a frail bark, truly it did not appear to be anything to build upon, but there was a stubborn physical resistance hidden away in that beautiful and delicate form that no eye could see. was now more apparent to all challenge was made to kindness, tenderness and medical watchfulness, and none of these things were lacking.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Baird secured the services of Nurse Mercer, who for seven long weary months, day and night, watched with loving and tender vigil, responding to every call, with all the though: and patience of which human nature is capable. Her bedside was constantly brightened by the presence of her children and grandchildren, all of whom she dearly loved. A wide range of neighbours and friends were ever calling and enquiring as to her welfare. The last few hours, however, threatened to be her last, but with both to patient and children, when the family physician, Dr. Stratton, was summoned, and for hours he sat by the bedside, watching and treating his patient. The result that Mrs. Baird passed away like a child falling into sleep, to the express comfort of all.

On Wednesday the funeral took place to Anderson Church. The crowd was immense, the feeling of respect for the deceased was intense, the sorrow and sympathy for the bereaved was sincere and cordial. The Anderson Choir sang very sweetly the selection, "Dear Jesus Care". The Pastor, Rev. W. H. Truscott, conducted the services. And it not been for sickness, the Rev. A. J. Wilson would have assisted, but he was called away. The remains were taken to Merven and were borne to the grave by Messrs. Parks, Baldwin, Sills, Card, Nugent and Moore.

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH, BATH

Which, on Saturday, was burned to the ground. This Church was erected in 1793, and has been in continuous use as a place of worship ever since.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, BATH, BURNED

St. John's Anglican Church, at Bath, the oldest place of worship in continuous use in Ontario, was burned to the ground on Saturday afternoon, and a place of marked historic interest had disappeared from view. This little church building was erected by United Empire Loyalists in 1793, but a wedding record in the office of the Synod of Ontario shows that Bath had a place of worship prior to 1787.

The Rector of Bath, Rev. W. G. Swayne, B.A., is deeply affected by the loss of the historic edifice. Its workings and parishioners deplore the fire which destroyed the building in which many of them had worshipped since childhood. The church was founded by the late Captain Fairfield. He was given the choice of the site, for this reason, according to a record at present in the possession of Mr. Swayne.

All records, communion vessels, altar equipment, pews and other furniture were saved.

The church was one of the finest rural places of worship in this part of the country. It was frame, with roughcast exterior. The building was in excellent condition, many of the windows being in memory of departed parishioners. All were destroyed.

It appears that the fire was caused by a spark which had blown from the grass burning in the graveyard, surrounding the church. It is thought that it lodged at the basement of the structure on the northern side, and ignited in the wall. When the blaze was discovered it had worked up to the roof, and all efforts to control it failed through lack of fire fighting apparatus. Indeed, it is fortunate that the public school, across the road, and adjacent dwellings were saved, as sparks were blown onto buildings in the vicinity for some hours. The Rector, with his parishioners and friends, worked well into the night, but the bright sun of Sunday morning shone only on the charred beams, pieces of the bell, and particles of material which entered into the erection of the church. In March, 1919, the south wall and the roof were damaged by fire from the same cause.

Grass Burned as Precaution.

It appears to have been the practice to burn the grass in the churchyard, as a precaution against fire. It was thought safer to remove the thick grass in this manner than to run the risk of it being fired by sparks from smokers passing by. When Mr. Swayne and his assistants commenced work on Saturday afternoon there was practically no wind, and it appeared an opportune day for the burning. Every precaution had been taken, and the burning in the immediate vicinity of the church had been completed. The wind freshened and a spark apparently found its way into the graveyard.

The fire was so intense that for a time it was feared the whole village would be wiped out. Trees or ten houses and barns did catch fire, and was only due to the good work of the fire fighters that they were saved.

Interior and Memorials.

While the exterior of St. John's Church retained its original appearance, the interior was modernized in every way. Owing to the untiring efforts of Rev. A. L. McTear, the Rector at that time, the whole interior was redecorated and repainted. The beautiful wall and ceiling decorations, mottoes and monograms were the work of Eugene Hopkins and were suitable and artistic in every way. At that time the pulpit was also extended across the chancel were refaced with polished oak and a screen of hand carved oak was placed in position. This was made up of five arches, two of which extended toward the back, the whole topped with an oak cross. New altar rails, choir stalls, and pulpit were also erected.

The bell in the tower was a memorial to the late Rev. F. F. Dibb, a former rector, placed there after his decease. Its sweet tones ever rang out the remembrance of a faithful minister.

Church Will Be Replaced Soon.

The congregated members will lose no time in starting the work of building a church to replace the historic one which was destroyed. It is evident from the fact that a meeting has been called for Easter Monday, at which plans will be discussed with a view to arriving at concentrated action in the work. The parishioners are deeply affected by the loss of the church which was a connecting link with the glorious traditions of the past, but they intend to erect another edifice, which, while it will lack the associations, will keep alive the spirit which animated their forefathers in the olden days. They are deeply grateful for the many expressions of sympathy which have come to them from outside and the many offers of assistance of which they may take advantage later.

OBITUARY

Miss Marjorie Joyce.

On Friday afternoon last the funeral service of the late Marjorie Joyce called forth warmest tokens of sincerest sympathy and regret and floral offerings of great beauty and profusion testified to the large circle that shared a common sorrow.

Marjorie was born in North Fredericksburgh, where she lived many ago. Later, sojourning in Napanee, she studied in the Collegiate, and was greatly beloved for her genial social qualities. She delighted to help in the activities of Grace Church, of which she was a member. She labored in the work of the Choir, and gladly assisted in whatever work was in the interest of the children and young people.

In her second year of energetic training at the Rochester Homeopathic Hospital, she came home on leave. Her fellow workers wrote much about her ability, and acceptability. The rest cure not proving immediately effective, she spent a short time in the Mowat Hospital at Kingston. For the last eight months she dwelt happily with her father, and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft Joyce, in a beautiful, new cottage among the fragrant pines at Sandcroft. Her sister, Jessie, came home, and gladly gave unremitting care. On the evening of Tuesday, March 31st, the long, patient fight came to an end that was peace.

The brothers, Sheldon and Arthur, returned from Rochester, and the remaining two of which there are four. At the funeral service, held at the Bancroft home, Pastor, Rev. A. J. Terrill, spoke feelingly of the zest of life, of the considerateness of others, and the high courage that continued to the earthly end, and in which she showed Christian fortitude. The remains were laid to rest in Riverside cemetery.

The young people of the community, by whom she has been much respected, have been deeply moved by this decease. Especial sympathy is felt for the family because of the recent death of Mrs. Baird, the mother of Mrs. Joyce.

NEW FACTORY TO LOCATE IN NAPANEE

Negotiations have been carried on for some time by the Chamber of Commerce, through their Executive, towards the securing of a factory to locate here, and the whole matter was brought to a successful termination on Monday evening, when the Town Council concurred in the matter.

The firm above referred to is Messrs. Ross & Miller, who are engaged in the manufacture of Fox and Dog Biscuits, being the only institution of this kind in the Dominion of Canada. At present they are located in Charlottetown, P.E.I., and are desirous of moving to Ontario for the reason that they will be near the source of supply of raw material and can get better shipping facilities and give prompte service to their customers. Their business is spreading and will continue to grow, as at present there are over seven hundred fox farms in Ontario.

The town has agreed to erect a two-storey solid brick building, 50x100 feet, to cost about $14,000.00 completed, and Ross & Miller will install an oven coating around $6,000.00 which, together with other necessary machinery, will bring their investment up to about $12,000.00. They will employ from ten to fifteen hands. The building will be located just north of the Farmers' Dairy, and the present sewer and water mains can be tapped for the purposes of the biscuit factory. The contract for the erection of the building has been let which will carry the interest charges, and will be started at once. The factory is to be completed by June 15th.

The money for the erection of the building will be secured on very favorable terms, the principal to be repayable at the end of ten years, when Messrs. Ross & Miller have agreed to purchase the building at the original cost price. In the meantime the rent will carry the interest charges, and the town, for the first ten years, will benefit from the business by to the extent of from $2,000 to $2,000.00 a year, after which the property will start flowing into our treasury the usual taxes on a building of this nature.

It looks like a good start and will, no doubt, be instrumental in bringing other industries to Napanee, thanks to a live Chamber of Commerce and a Town Council that are willing to back up our business men.

Nothing Else Builds Him Up So Much

So Says Mr. Allan McMullin of Dodd's Kidney Pills

Nova Scotia Man Was Unable to Move in His Bed, But Dodd's Kidney Pills Brought Him Relief.

Upper Grand Mira, N.S., April 6th. (Special).—"I am more than thankful to Dodd's Kidney Pills, because they have helped me so much", states Mr. McMullin, a well known and highly respected resident of this place. "I knew I could not live without them. Before I started taking Dodd's Kidney Pills I was so bad I could not move in my bed. I was suffering with rheumatism, lumbago and pains in my back. I could not rest day or night. I had to turn myself in bed with straps. After the first box of Dodd's Kidney Pills I noticed a great improvement. I am sorry I did not start taking them ten years ago. I will never be without them if I can get them. I cannot find anything which builds me up so much."

It is statements like the above that have made Dodd's Kidney Pills a household remedy throughout Canada.

ROBBERS AT DESERONTO

A well planned robbery was frustrated by some quick thinking and quicker action on the part of Mr. Louis Aziz, dry goods merchant of Deseronto, when two men forced their way into his back door between 12.30 and 1 o'clock on Sunday morning. At 12.30 a car drove into town and parked at the south side of the Stewart House. Two men alighted, leaving the engine running and proceeded to the Aziz store. They rapped loudly at the front door and receiving no answer went around to the back door and continued their raps.

Mr. Aziz, who lives over the store, came down the back stairs and asked what was wanted. "We want to buy a shirt for Sunday" was the reply. Mr. Aziz answered that it was after hours and that he did not want to open up his store. The men continued their pleas that they be sold a new shirt, so the dry-goods man opened his door, to be greeted with an instant demand to hand over all his money.

He parleyed with the men and said that all he had on him was $6.00 which he would gladly hand over, and he told them that he would have his wife bring down some more money as he had up stairs. In calling to her in his own Syrian language he did not tell her to bring down the money but rather that he was being held up and to get help. She rushed to the front window and opened it, screaming for Mr. Fitchett, who lives above his store next door.

The robbers hearing how that they had been fooled, took revenge on Aziz and struck a heavy blow at him with an iron bar three feet long. The blow which was aimed at his head fortunately missed its mark but struck on the man's shoulder. The sting of a blow meant fight to Aziz and at once his foot shot out, striking the nearest robber and knocking him out of the doorway. Aziz slammed his door shut and bolted it, leaving his assailants on the outside.

Mr. Fitchett was soon on the scene as was Night Policeman Alex. Wilkins, who was returning from his rounds in the west part of the town. The robbers had disappeared by this time, Chief of Police Bowen, who had been at a nearby restaurant, also arrived at the store in a short time but nothing could be done then to locate the robbers. The car had left the town in the direction of Napanee.

Mr. Aziz saw one of the robbers very plainly. He was medium build, had about two weeks growth of beard on his face and wore blue plasters. The other man was of about the same size. The one with the glasses is thought to be one who had been seen in a nearby town on previous occasions. The car, it is thought was the same one that was parked in town the night of the Shannon Jewelery Store robbery. No definite connection between the two cases has been established, but the police are inclined to follow the theory that they are both the work of the same gang.

THE WEEK IN THE LEGISLATURE

Toronto, April 4th.—At a single sitting, extending a half-hour past midnight, Thursday, the Legislature passed the Temperance Act amendments through committee stage. Some nine changes were proposed by W. E. Raney, Karl Homuth and others, but with only limited support, and the bill now stands for third reading, having suffered no amendments in committee except a few of minor character offered by Hon. Mr. Nickle himself. Two sections added to the Temperance Act, at the Attorney-General's suggestion permit advertising of 4.4 beer and protect from penalties those who unwittingly offend by using prescriptions which are not exactly in technical form. Pressed by W. E. N. Sinclair for information about the regulations which are left to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, Mr. Nickle told the House that permits for sale of the new beverage would be granted to persons of suitable character operating hotels, well-conducted restaurants, and, for consumption off the premises, grocery stores which serve the public. General sale on Sundays will not be permitted, and some such closing hour as 11 o'clock on weekdays will be laid down. Grocery stores will be expected to, observe reasonable business hours. As to date of the Act going into effect, it was decided to leave this to proclamation after the royal assent, so that regulations might be completed and permits prepared and due notice given.

* * *

Mr. Raney's amendments displayed a curious turn of logic. The Progressive Leader moved first to exempt from operation of the "beer clauses" all those 374 municipalities which up to September 1st, 1919, had passed local option by-laws. When this was rejected—five Liberals voting with the Government—Mr. Raney moved to exempt all municipalities which in the plebiscite of last October voted to retain the O.T.A. This also fell by the wayside, and Government supporters, including Wm. Finlayson, (East Simcoe) took occasion to point out that Mr. Raney's position led right up to the proposition that localities which last October voted "wet" should have their way, and a patchwork system created in which law enforcement would be impossible. Thirdly, Mr. Raney moved to substitute "2½ proof spirits" in the beverage definition for "2.5 alcoholic content by weight". In other words, he proposed to go below the original O.T.A. definition, and C. R. McKeown (Deseronto) inquired if the former attorney-general was not guilty of a "breach of faith", since the people did not vote on this point. Later Raney tried unsuccessfully with amendments to restrict sale of 4.4 beer to standard hotels; to issue permits only to those of British birth or naturalization, and, toward the close Peter Heenan (Kenora) asked the Government to consider making the age limit 20 instead of 18. Mr. Nickle thought young men above 18 would desire to obtain the new beverage if they wanted it, and noted that 18 was the "cigarette age". In the course of remarks supporting his amendments relating to the beer clauses, Mr. Raney made the admission that "the remaining clauses are designed to strengthen the prohibitory features of the Temperance Act".

Thanks to the labors of the subcommittee of nine engaged in settlement of the church union problem, the private bills committee on Thursday and before them an amalgamation of the Rankin and Manitoba unionist and "anti" bills (No. 18) which was finally reported by the committee to the House. It gives some prospect, at least, of a measure of satisfaction to the conflicting elements of the Presbyterian Church, and although there is some talk of its being held up in the Legislature by members sympathetic to the "anti" side, that appears rather doubtful. In the words of Hon. Mr. Nickle, the bill now provides for creation of an Ontario commission to deal with cases of congregational leadership, where all the churches in a community have voted either one way or the other; and in relation to Knox College, the building goes to the Presbyterian Church, and the endowment of $350,000 left to determination of a Dominion commission. For three years there will be joint occupancy of the college and equal sharing of the funds by unionists and the continuing church. As to the chattels, it was agreed in 1852, when there was but one Parliament, and the Legislature has that it has no legislative authority. Trustees are to be nominated during the summer week in connection with the trusts created by the amended bill. This applies both to the Ontario commission and Knox University trustees.

Public Accounts Committee held two sessions during the week, and on Friday ex-Premier Drury was examined at some length on the Home Bank loan of 1919; the Ridout $10,000,000 treasury bill transaction of 1923 and the Jarvis-Pepall purchases of succession duty free bonds in England, at a discount. Both matters the former Premier threw little new light on any of these, saying that he was not an expert, and had left matters to the heads of departments. He agreed to the appointment of Andrew Pepall to watch the deal in England for the treasury because Peter Smith recommended it, and admitted to Col. Price that it was an ill-advised action. He said he did not think he knew personally that the Bank of Montreal was at all times buyer in succession duty free bonds for the province, and agreed that it might have been a good thing to have had the Bank buy the bonds for which Jarvis paid as high as 109 and 110. The ex-premier was questioned by H. M. MacBride as to why he took his full salary in 1923 when he had made it known at the beginning of his term that he would accept only Sir James Whitney's salary of $9,000.

Mr. Drury explained that he had an expensive election campaign, and was very sorry he had not taken the $12,000 throughout. Matthews, former treasurer and deputy, in accordance with Mr. Sinclair's motion, instead of bringing the men to Toronto.

Hon. James Lyons made a noteworthy speech in the House on Wednesday in support of his bill granting a further $5,000,000 for Northern Ontario Development. He mentioned the need for roads at Fort Frances, Batchewana, Thunder Bay, Killarney and Sioux Lookout, and the work already done between the head of the lake and Kenora to the Manitoba boundary.

"All parts of Northern Ontario have been treated on an equal basis", said the Minister. "We have had due regard to the need for roads, and have spent money as we thought required. As far as the Government is concerned, 'political roads' are gone forever. We are not going to stand for members representing districts coming into the department with a tomahawk on their shoulder and demanding this or that done for personal reasons. We propose to deal with every case on its merits, and I want to refer particularly to statements made by the member for Renfrew (Mr. Beamish) because I think perhaps he is the greatest sinner in that regard, in the House. I hold in my hand an advertisement of a meeting at the head of the lakes to be addressed by 'Fighting Peter Heenan'. It may be that after a few more battles we shall see advertisements of 'One-eyed Fighting Peter Heenan', or 'One-Thumbed Fighting Peter Heenan'. If there is to be public misrepresentation and abuse and bluffing of public officials behind their backs, and accusing members of what they would not be accused, this tasmanian certainly carries off the championship."

At a meeting of the standing committee on agriculture, Major J. F. B. Pelford introduced a delegation from the Northumberland-Durham Apple Growers' Association, who repeated a request made on previous occasions that a testing station be established in that district, for determining the best varieties of apples to grow and for conducting a demonstration orchard. Competitors from British Columbia is keenly felt, and it was also pointed out that experimental work is being carried on all the time in the States. There are a number of Western varieties of apples which it is believed would do well in the apple belt of Ontario, but the growers would like official reports thereon. Hon. John S. Martin said that he had an opportunity to use 50 acres of the land acquired in connection with the Boys' Home at Bowmanville, and promised to find out if the soil were suitable for the purpose of a testing station. He proposed to look into the matter personally right after the session closed, as that definite action is at last in prospect.

There was a full-dress debate in the House on Tuesday, on the report of the agricultural inquiry committee, and the chairman, Hon. David Jamieson, all other members of the committee and certain members of the House contributed various suggestions. In the course of his contribution on this occasion, Hon. J. S. Martin, Minister of Agriculture, said:

"So far as the agricultural problem in Ontario is concerned, it is infinitely better than a year ago. The price of hogs is up; grain prices have much increased, and best of all, there is a different feeling among the farmers of the province. They can now look ahead hopefully. They know conditions are better and they are going to be better, and all I say to them is this, and I believe they realize it: if any of them are talking about selling out or leaving the farm, this is not the time, just when things are beginning to improve and they can see light ahead."

Premier Ferguson has introduced one bill in the House which is not intended to pass at this session. It is his "Act to provide for Township Boards of Public School Trustees". The move is favored in some quarters, but it is the premier's intention to have the provisions of this bill circulated throughout the province before it becomes law, so that public feeling may be fully sounded. Its main provisions are given below:

"From and after the coming into force of this Act, all the public schools in every township shall be administered by a board of trustees to be known as 'The Township Board of Public School Trustees for the Township of ..... (name township)..... and such board is hereinafter referred to as 'a township board'".

A township board shall consist of not less than three nor more than ten members to be elected from the school areas in the township determined in the manner hereinafter provided:—

1. In a township containing only one school section, the section shall constitute the school area and the township board shall consist of three trustees to be elected by the electors in the area;

2. In a township containing only two school sections, each section shall constitute a school area and the board shall consist of three members, one to be elected by the electors in each of the areas separately and the third by the electors in the areas combined;

3. In a township containing not less than three nor more than ten sections, each section shall constitute a school area and the township board shall be composed of as many members as there are such area, electing one member.

1. The township board shall determine the schools which the pupils shall respectively attend within the township.

2. A township board shall admit to any school within the township any non-resident pupil if the inspector reports that the accommodation is sufficient for the admission of such pupils and that the school is more accessible for him than any school in the township in which the pupil resides.

3. When a pupil resident in one township attends school in another township, the township board of the township in which the pupil resides shall each year pay to the township board of the township where he attends school the cost of the education of such pupil.

The members of the township board shall be paid for their attendance at meetings the same rate per day, and at the same rate per mile for travelling, as members of the council are paid for their attendance at meetings of the council and its committees.

When Women Were Slimsdel.

Nagging women of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries with a tongue "as keen still as the sharpest heads when they were haled before the Dureess Court or Westminster in England.

The court, constituted in 1595, and finally established in 1601, was principally concerned with prosecuting and trying within its jurisdiction, and "The Westminster City Ghost" by W. H. Manslee, tells its story, with extracts from its official records, now published for the first time.

Women were women in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries much as they are now, but turpeyed were surgeons, and had no doubt about the right of way to God for them.

They ordered recipes to be "scridled" with an iron bauble simpered over the face and having a projection that was forced into the mouth and clamped down the tongue.

But there were other ways. In 1611, Maudlin Preston having "misbehaved herself in scolding and abusing of her neighbors with most reproachful speeches," it was "ordered by the court that according to the ancient custom of the city she should be fastened to a boat's layie and so be drawne through the water on the other side of the Thames."

Whether the reprocalcitrant Maudlin was killed or carried by reason of such treatment does not appear, "the business as in a court of justice was not to be trifled with. Mary Beam, who had before been sent to Bridewell after gate house in Westmr into Temple Bar and so back again to Westmr."

Dew of Evening.

Many who have soulfully gone "where early the dew" will be interested to learn that the dew does not "fall" at all. What happens is that a warm day heats the earth, and as the cool night chills it, the earth has to give off the heat. If it does this fast enough the rising heat leaves a cold belt of air just above the ground. The cold belt of air cannot retain its moisture as it could when warm, and so deposits it on the nearest surface than can conveniently hold it, generally the grass. A few feet higher up, however, the air, being less affected by the earth's coldness, is warmer, and can hold its moisture, which therefore has no cause to find a lodging on the leaves of trees. That is why on cool days the leaves are often dry, the grass is covered with dew.

Was a Yeller.

The young mother had just read in a new book that every baby is surrounded by a halo, the color of which is determined by the temperament of the person. When her husband came home she tackled him on the subject. "After settling the colors of all her neighbors' halos to her satisfaction she remarked:

"And what about baby, Alfred? What color is he, do you think? Pink, I imagine, because he's the pink of perfection."

"He may be pink when I'm away," replied Alfred, "but when I'm home he's a mighty loud yeller.

ONTARIO

To Truck Owners and Drivers

Provisions against overloading at this season provided by The Highways Act will be rigorously enforced. Avoid penalty by obeying the law.

To save the highways from unnecessary damage during the wet spring months when foundations are easily fractured and road surfaces broken, The Highways Act provides that during March and April trucks (outside cities and towns)

1. shall not be loaded in excess of one-half the carrying capacity of such vehicle as registered with the Department, without obtaining a permit as provided in Section 31.

The attention of every truck owner and driver is called specifically to this provision. In their own interest the Department urges their co-operation in obeying the law. In view of this public statement of the law, they are notified that persons prosecution will follow neglect or refusal to do so.

While the whole of the people of Ontario have contributed to the building of highways in the past, it may be expected that the cost of repairs and maintenance will fall more and more on those who use the roads. The traffic which does most damage, naturally will be expected to pay most.

Therefore, it is in the interest of every truck owner and driver to see that his loads and speeds are kept well within the legal limit at this season of the year.

BETTER IN EVERY WAY

After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ingomar, N. S.—"I took your medicine for a run-down condition and inward troubles. I had pains in my right side so bad at times that I could not walk any distance. I saw about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and have taken five bottles of it. I am better in every way and you can use my letter to help other women." — Mrs. ALVITA M. PERRY, Ingomar, N. S.

Nervous Breakdown Relieved

Toronto, Ontario.—"It is pretty hard to explain your feelings in nervous troubles. I felt low spirited, had pains in my head and eyes, was always crying, and did not want to go anywhere. I did knitting and fancy work, and I would get irritable after a few minutes of work. I have been in Canada five years and have been this way ever since I came. I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I sleep better and it seems to make me eat, and I must say I am feeling more jolly. I have great faith in in your medicine because of what it has done for my husband's sister and she recommended it to me." — Mrs. A. SMITH, 10 Bellelgh Avenue, Todmorden, Toronto, Ontario.

All druggists sell this dependable medicine, and women suffering from these troubles so common to their sex should give it a trial now.

The Breeder that Raises Dollars

Ask your county agent or agricultural college what part brooding plays in making poultry profits. And what part hatching plays, too.

They'll tell you they're the first steps toward success. And they'll very probably recommend Buckeye Incubators and Buckeye Coal-Burning or Oil-Burning Brooders. They'll tell you that they hatch more eggs, raise more chicks, insure bigger poultry profits for you.

Then ask us for the new Buckeye Catalog—a most complete and valuable book on poultry raising. Tells how to feed, cull, get more eggs in winter and market for high prices.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear daughter, Alma A., who died Easter Sunday evening, April 12th, 1914.
In a graveyard sweetly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave;
Lies the one we loved so dearly
In her lonely silent grave.
She will never be forgotten,
Never shall her memory fade;
Sweetest thoughts will always linger
Around the grave where she is laid.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Sunday morning last Mr. Geo. Richmond was taken completely by surprise, when immediately after the opening exercises in the Methodist Sunday School, Mrs. M. Windover rose and read the following address:

Mr. Richmond,—As another school year is drawing to its close, we, as a class, wish to express to you our most sincere appreciation of your faithful services as our teacher, and hope that the very cordial relationship which has existed during the last three years may continue for many years to come. Your thorough and prayerful study of the Word of God, and your application of it to our individual lives has made our assembling here on the Sabbath Day worth while. Not only in the class, but in your daily Christian life have we noted that spirit of cheerful willing service.

As a token of best wishes from your class, we ask you to accept this fountain pen and Bible commentary, which as a student and teacher may you live long to enjoy.

Signed in behalf of the Kinship Class of Selby Sunday School.

MRS. M. WINDOVER.
MR. IRVINE JACKSON.
MR. W. J. WINTERS.

April 8th, 1925.

Mr. Irvine Jackson took great pleasure in offering Mr. Richmond the fountain pen and Peake's Commentary, gifts which were a pleasant reward for conscientious effort. The teacher of the Kinship Class responded in the earnest manner which has endeared him to his co-workers, thanking the forty members of his class who were present, and assuring them of the joy their appreciation afforded him.

EASTER STREET WRAPS PROVE THEIR SMARTNESS IN MANY WAYS

The "border", how cleverly it transforms this Easter's Coat from those of last year. Flaring borders, embroidered borders, pleated borders, and fur-trimmed borders are one and all exceptionally smart. Nor are "borders" the only new signs in Spring Coats. By their small up-standing collars, high colors, color combinations, you will know them. The tailored effects is also another theme. The Prince of Wales type is exceedingly popular. Every type of coat calls for its own particular fabrics.

ZEEBRUGGE — A TRULY WONDERFUL PICTURE

AT WONDERLAND, MONDAY AND TUESDAY, APRIL 20th AND 21st.

All heroes—"Zeebrugge" is, simply and in three words, a great film. The producers have splendidly refused to introduce drama, yet it is intensely, inherently dramatic.

There is no handsome "naval officer" striking heroic attitudes; no round-eyed heroine. There is no sob stuff—except a sob of pride in the glory of it all.

The printed page can never give complete comprehension of what the bottling up of Zeebrugge meant. The all-seeing eye of the moving picture camera explains it all, reveals it all.

The Glorious "Mutiny". — First there are scenes of the havoc wrought by the German submarine pirates (actual films of the events, captured during the war from a German submarine).

You should have heard the excited burst of applause on the first night at the Marble Arch Pavilion when the British destroyers dash to the scene of the torpedoing.

Then we see the planning and preparing of the attempt to bottle the pirates up in their lair; the assembling of the ships, the setting out, that glorious "mutiny", the disappearance of the surplus crews when the time came for them to return and "miss the show", the laying of the smoke screen by the C.M.B.S., and then the assault.

More Gripping Than a Drama. — What follows is a series of scenes that will grip British audiences as no drama has ever done. You see the old Vindictive run herself against the Mole, and the masses of waiting men swarm on the "brows" and down the ladders; you see the C3 blow herself up under the Mole bridge, and finally the actual entry and sinking of the blockships in the canal.

The order to withdraw is given and the last you see is the fleet disappearing, its work accomplished, and a white ensign fluttering in the distance, while a faint outline of Nelson pervades the screen.

"Zeebrugge" is a purifying bath of distilled patriotism, and all who experience it will be the better and serener for it.

The film is being shown at Wonderland Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, April 20th and 21st. 15a

THE LITTLE CLODHOPPER

On Thursday evening, April 2nd, 1925, the Odessa Community Club presented their very popular play, "The Little Clodhopper", at Union Church, to a crowded church.

This laughable farce in three acts, with musical numbers throughout, has been very much enjoyed wherever presented, and the caste have many invitations to nearby towns to give their play. It has been very well received at Odessa, Trenton, Wilton, and Union, and they expect to present same in several places in the near future.

Mrs. Walter J. Snider, as the Little Clodhopper was inimitable in her part, and made a splendid Little Judy.

Mr. Courtland Snider, as the snappy book agent, brought a great deal of credit to a very hard part and a whole lot of pep.

Mrs. Shelley Denyes, as the scheming Mrs. Chiggerson-Boggs, filled her difficult role admirably.

Mr. Deane Babcock, as the innocent little city lamb under his doting mother's thumb, as absolutely superb and made a great hit.

Mrs. Courtland Snider, as the movie star, was up to her usual standard and her role much enjoyed by all.

Mr. Walter J. Snider, as Ocey Gump, the hired man, brought roars of laughter from the audience, and he took his part as only Walter could.

Mrs. Ernest Wright, as Julietta Bean, the boardinghouse keeper and the sentimental old maid, did her part exceptionally well, and the duet between "Ocey and Julietta" "Husbands and Wives", was one of the funniest parts in the play.

Guests at Miss Bean's birthday party, Sally and Billy, Miss M. Storms and Mr. Jas. Robson; Deacon Hardtack, Mr. Nelson Smith; cousin Jemimy Jiblets, Mrs. Clarke Boyes; John and Liza, Clarke Boyes and Thora Emberly. Several musical numbers are given at the party.

All who have seen this very funny play have more than enjoyed it and many have seen it the second time. You are assured of an evening's solid laugh if you take in "The Little Clodhopper".

For a good lasting job, you require a Varnish that will dry hard, give a good rich gloss, that won't darken hardwood floors, that will stand up in most severe water test, and that is right in price. Coquille fills these requirements perfectly. For sale at Wallace's, Napanee Agents.

SYMPTOMS OF POISONINGS IN DOGS AND THEIR ANTIDOTES

L. L. Taylor, in Rod and Gun in Canada for April.

At this time of the year the poison fiend begins his nefarious practice of scattering poison. The following hints are intended to be of assistance where a veterinary surgeon's aid cannot be obtained. No time should be lost in securing his services if at all available.

Arsenic is a common form of poisoning due in the majority of cases to dogs eating vermin bait.

Symptoms—The animal is decidedly restless and anxious with excessive action of the lips, increased salivation, vomiting, a dark colored diarrhoea and acute abdominal pain. Pulse is at first strong and bounding, later becoming very weak and irregular. Temperature is subnormal, and the extremities cold. Convulsions and great prostration occur, followed by collapse in from three to six hours.

Antidote: Give an emetic as follows: zinc sulphate grains XV. water three ounces; one or two teaspoonfuls every ten minutes until vomiting occurs. Follow with one or two ounce doses of magnesium sulphate every twenty minutes. Finally give starch gruel, milk, white of egg or lime water.

Phosphorus is another poison used extensively in vermin bait.

Symptoms: About an hour after receiving the poison acute colicky pains are evident, together with profuse salivation, vomiting of dark green matter having a strong garlicky odor, bloody diarrhoea followed by convulsions and coma. If the animal be placed in a dark room, the breath, vomitus and evacuations will have a luminous appearance. Death seldom occurs before the second day. A disease of the liver frequently results from this form of poisoning.

Antidote: Give one or two teaspoonfuls of the following mixture every fifteen minutes: cupri sulph grains XV., water two ounces. Finally give starch, syrup, honey or one half teaspoonful doses of oil of turpentine (gallic) every half hour. No fats, oils, milk or eggs must be allowed.

Strychnine is one of the most common forms of poisoning and very often proves fatal despite every effort.

Symptoms: There is uneasiness, an anxious appearance, and panting, followed by acute muscular spasms at intervals which affect the whole body, stiffening the limbs and causing the animal to fall to the ground. The jaws are locked, the lips drawn back producing a characteristic sardonic grin, the spine is arched or curved, breathing very difficult, eyes prominent and the heart action tumultuous. After a convulsion the muscles relax, and there is an interval of quiescence until another paroxysm occurs. Death comes during one of the spasms, and is due to asphyxia.

Antidote: Give an emetic as in Arsenic. Follow with from two teaspoons to one tablespoonful of the following mixture every two hours: Chloral hydrate one dram, potassium bromide four drams, syrup aurantii two ounces, water six ounces. Keep as quiet as possible.

Carbolic Acid. Dogs are often poisoned by licking wounds to which carbolic dressings have been applied.

Symptoms: When the acid has entered the mouth, white patches will appear wherever it has come in contact with the membranes; if absorbed generally, the animal will appear greatly distressed, and convulsions followed by paralysis of the hind-quarters will occur, the pulse will be barely perceptible, temperature subnormal, and the urine very highly colored.

Antidote: Give alcohol, gin, or whiskey in one or two ounce doses. As a purge give sodium sulphate two drams, water three ounces. Follow with starch, oils, lime water.

Poisoning from Garbage. Symptoms: All the symptoms arise from the eating of decomposed meat, fish, etc., containing toxic bodies are far too varied and numerous to be mentioned here. Some of the more common ones however, are violent and bloody diarrhoea, vomiting, intense thirst, high temperature, acute abdominal pains, dizziness and stupefaction.

Antidote: Give an emetic followed by one-half to two grain doses of calomel every half hour until purgation commences. Hot applications to the abdomen are often beneficial. Mustard plasters may be applied. Finally give stimulants, wine, spirits of wine, brandy.

ON A BIG LINER.

There Are Quite a Number of Shops on a Ship.

That there are quite a number of shops on a ship is not generally known to the average reader.

The two most important are the butcher's "shop" and the baker's These are busy at all hours of the day, but there is no need for the services of a cashier in either of them.

Carcasses are taken on board whole and are placed in cold storage. To see the butchers, with their heavy, fur-lined coats and overalls, getting out the day's meat ashore one think of an expedition to the Pole; and though the sun is pouring down with tropical heat upon the decks or awnings above, down here, in the bowels of the ship, the temperature is well below zero.

In contrast, a short distance away, with all windows open to the torrid, heat-laden air, the bakers ply their trade in cotton singlet and chequered "ducks," for they are a busy crowd if men and hot rolls are required for breakfast—not a dozen or two, but hundreds of them.

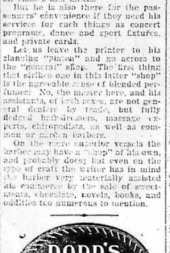
Then the preparing of "sweets" for lunch or dinner is more often than not the task of the bakery, besides the baking of bread, cake, and other and more luscious things from the adept hands of the pastry-cook.

Deep below, in a cabin all to himself, fiercely working with his pipe in his mouth, is the printer. He is another worker, for each section of the vessel has a different menu, and in the first and second classes there are three meals each day which require the preparation of such cards, not omitting afternoon tea, which means that the printer has to turn out many hundreds of menus in a day, including all classes and meals.

But he is also there for the passengers' convenience if they need his services for such things as concert programs, dance and sport fixtures, and private cards.

Let us leave the printer to his peculiar "pi-ing" and turn across to the "principal" shop. The first thing that catches one in this latter "shop" is the agreeable absence of liberated perfumery. No, the master here, and his assistants, of which there are not general duties to trade, but fully trained hairdressers, manicurists, barbers, chiropodists, as well as electrician or marcel curlers.

On the large passenger vessels the barber-shop may have a "shop" of his own, and probably does; but even on the type of craft the writer has in mind a barber very materially assisted his customers' fair sex and gentlemen, chocolates, novels, books, and oddities too numerous to mention.



Tea is no longer a luxury, but a part of our daily meals. For that reason just as great care should be used in its selection as in any other article of food. To safeguard yourself and family serve Daly's Good Tea on all occasions. For sale at Wallace's.

Long Standing Asthma. Many have suffered so long from asthma and have tried so many so-called remedies they think that there is no real help for them. They should read the letters received by the manufacturers of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy from hundreds of cases once as desperate as their own. Even in long-neglected cases this famous preparation brings prompt help.

It Will Relieve a Cold.—Colds are the commonest ailments of mankind and if neglected may lead to serious conditions. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will relieve the bronchial passages of inflammation speedily and thoroughly and will strengthen them against subsequent attack. And as it eases the inflammation it will usually stop the cough because it allays the irritation in the throat. Try it and prove it.

Two small boys once halted before a brass plate fixed on the front of a house, wherein was inscribed in bold characters the word "Chiropodist."

"Chirropodist!" remarked one of them perplexedly. "What's that?"

"Why," replied his companion, "a chirropodist is a chap what teaches canaries to whistle."

Cuts and Bruises Disappear. — When suffering from cuts, scratches, bruises, sprains, sore throat or chest and any similar ailment, use Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil should be in every medicine chest ready for the emergencies that may always be anticipated.

While on a visit to the Highlands a gentleman went to hire a carriage for the purpose of taking his family over a drive. He looked at a vehicle and inquired how many it would hold. The proprietor scratched his head thoughtfully.

"Well," he said, "it hauds four generally, but sin' if they're wee anes—three."

Certain morbid conditions must exist in the stomach and intestines to encourage worms, and they will exist as long as these morbid conditions permit them to. To be rid of them and spare the children suffering, use Miller's Worm Powders. They will correct the digestive irregularities by destroying the worms, conditions favorable to worms will disappear, and the child will have no more suffering from that cause.

The negro's impecuniousness is monumental. You get the perfect example of it in the Police Court scene where the Magistrate, exasperated, but trying hard to be fair in an all too obvious case, says :—

"Well, course it is an unanswerable question, except to Rastus, who, without the flicker of an eyelid, says : "Jedge, Ah was jest a testin' mah will-power."

Two young women, evidently strangers to each other, were seated at the same table in a popular restaurant.

One of them had already finished her lunch, and the other had just arrived and was about to begin.

The girl who had finished leaned back in her chair, producing a silver cigarette-case and lighting up.

The other appeared to resent this and icily inquired :

"I suppose you do not object to my eating whilst you smoke?"

The first girl regarded her for a moment and then returned brightly :

"Oh, no, not a bit, as long as I can hear the orchestra."

An old Scotsman, travelling from the land of his birth down to Birmingham, decided, that as the weather was bitterly cold and the trains badly heated, he would take a bottle of whisky with him, and every time he felt chilly he'd just have a nip.

At once he proceeded to deliver a well-intended lecture on the evils of the fiery strong drink. He pointed out that he was now seventy years of age and had never tasted liquor in his life.

"Weel, weel," turned his fellow passenger, "ther's no need to worrit, ma guid mon, for ye're no goin' to begin the noo."

ONTARIO WHITE PINE FOR BRITAIN'S WARSHIPS.

The photograph shows one of four trainloads of virgin white pine logs cut from the Egan limits in Preston and Clancy Townships in the Algonquin Park District, which were sent recently via the Canadian National Railways to Quebec for shipment to England on the order of the British Admiralty. The timber was hand hewn by the J. R. Booth Company of Ottawa and it is the first shipment sent from Ontario in the memory of lumbermen. In some instances the timber was three feet in diameter and in no case was it less than two feet through. The shipment required 120 flat cars and aggregated 120,000 cubic feet of timber.

TWO BRITISH INVENTORS.

One Invested Loom and Other Dyes Process.

British technicians recently celebrated the centenary of the death of Dr. Edmund Cartwright, the inventor of the power loom which began a revolution in textile manufacture, the story is one of the founders of industry. Dr. Cartwright was a Quaker of Leicestershire, born in 1743, and he took up mechanical engineering for his recreation. He wrote poetry, composed waltz music, and also took experiments in mechanics, but until he was 60 years of age he had no idea of his invention. A visitor to a Derbyshire, where Arkwright had erected the first spinning factory, is reported to have remarked that if Cartwright could be given a loom at once, he would "spin with it." Cartwright, energetic and stubborn, would be driven by an ambition. "I had never seen a loom in my life," he wrote, "nor was I acquainted with any person who had ever seen one, or knew anything of the principle." Nevertheless, after his factory was burned down, he set to work to construct a loom at once, and within four years of the time he had no idea of it in connection with it, had produced a machine which, according to Baines, "would weave 100 pieces of calico in the time that a single handloom weaver could produce one piece." In 1785 he built a factory to utilize his invention, but many difficulties arose which led to his becoming bankrupt. He would have died in poverty—the fate of so many inventors—had not Parliament voted him in 1809 a gift of £10,000 as a reward for his contribution to British progress. With the money he bought a small farm in Kent, where he spent the rest of his days.

In Cartwright's case the economic benefits of his inventive genius went mainly to his own country, which got a long start in the textile trade. Great Britain was not so fortunate in another great branch of industry. Nearly seventy years ago a young British chemist, William Perkin, discovered a process of extracting dyes from coal tar, but it remained for German enterprise to exploit it. Germany capitalized British brains and built up her dye industry, which before the war almost dominated the world. Sir William Perkin died in 1907 full of years and honors, but the profits of his discovery had been passed to a foreign land. The British dye industry is now being recreated, and by a stroke of fortune it has enlisted the services of Sir William's son, William Henry, himself a chemist of achievement and renown.—Toronto Globe.

The Phoenix.

Several fire insurance companies are named after the phoenix the fabulous sacred bird of the Egyptians. According to the story told to Herodotus, the bird came from Arabia every 500 years, bearing the body of his father embalmed in a ball of myrrh, and buried him in the temple of the sun. Herodotus says the pictures of the bird represent it with golden and red plumage, closely resembling an eagle in size and shape. According to Pliny, there is only one phoenix at a time, and he, at the close of his long life, builds himself a nest with twigs of cassia and frankincense on which he dies. From his corpse is generated a worm which grows into the young phoenix, says the old writer.

Tacitus says that the young bird lays his father on the altar in the city of the sun, which is called Hes. But the most familiar form of the legend is where the Phoenix is described as an Indian bird which subsists on air for 500 years, after which, feeling his wings with spices, he flies to Heliopolis, enters the temple there, and is burned to ashes on the altar. Next day from the ashes phoenix is already feathered. On the third day the phoenix is full grown, and he salutes the priest and flies away.

"The easy-way—wash clothes with less rubbing"

Mrs. Experience gives her method of getting clothes spotlessly white, mercifly by soaking.

"It's so easy, really! There's no hard rubbing, so wearing on clothes—no boiling, no toiling over washtubs. Here's the way I do my weekly wash.

"I merely soap the clothes lightly with Sunlight Soap, roll them up tightly and put them to soak for 30 minutes or an hour. That's all. Sunlight dissolves all dirt and greasiness so that in rinsing, the dirt just runs away. A pure soap like Sunlight rinses away quickly and completely; an impure soap stays and injures the clothes.

"The dishes and all housework, Sunlight is excellent and really economical, too, because every bit of it is pure, cleansing and more good news—Sunlight keeps the hands soft and comfortable." Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto, make it.

THE TREATMENT OF GRAIN FOR SMUT

(Experimental Farms Note.)

The smut diseases of grain are of considerable importance and every farmer should know how to combat them for the sake of his own crops as well as those of his neighbours. The treatments which have been devised are comparatively simple and should find a place in the routine of every farm. The following is a list of the common smut diseases of grain crops, with the treatments for each; this is followed by a detailed description of the treatments.

Wheat—Stinking Smut or Bunt—Thorough fanning of the seed grain will remove most of the smut balls. This should be followed by the formalin dip or sprinkle, which give perfect control. Copper carbonate dust is giving good results and is easier of application, but it has not been tested sufficiently to warrant general recommendation.

Loose Smut.—This disease cannot be controlled by seed disinfection because the fungus spores are not carried on the surface of the seed, infection being produced by a small part of the fungus buried within the grain. Hot water treatment is the only means of control.

Barley.—Covered Smut.—Formalin dip or sprinkle.

Loose Smut.—This is similar to the loose smut of wheat and can only be controlled by the use of the hot water treatment.

Oats.—Smut.—Use the dry formaldehyde treatment, or the formalin sprinkle. In the case of hulless oats, either of these treatments causes a serious loss in germination of the seed, and copper carbonate dust should be employed.

Corn.—Smut.—This disease is not transmitted in or on the seed grain, but is carried over in the soil from one year to the next and spreads in the field from infected to healthy plants, producing the smut "boils" on any part of the plant. A strict rotation, and as far as possible, the collection and burning of the "boils" are the only means of controlling its spread.

Treatments.

Formalin Dip.—Fill bags half full of grain. Add one pint of formalin (40% formaldehyde) to 40 gallons of water, immerse bags in the solution for ten minutes, moving them up and down so as to drive out the air bubbles. Remove the bags and allow to drain and then spread out the grain to dry. Be sure not to replace the grain in the bags used for the seed before treatment, but either new bags or once that have been soaked in the solution and dried. The solution does not lose strength by use.

Formalin Sprinkle. — Dilute one pint of formalin (40% formaldehyde) with 40 gallons of water. Mix well by shovelling over. When the grain is evenly wetted, pile it again and cover with clean bags for two hours, then spread it out to dry and put into clean bags. Forty gallons of solution is sufficient for 40 to 50 bushels of seed. If seeding is done soon after the treatment, adjust the drill to allow a free flow of seed, or the stand will be too thin.

Dry Formalin Method.—Dilute one part of formalin (40% formaldehyde) with one part of water and spray this solution on the grain, shovelling over at the same time. One quart of solution to 50 bushels of grain. Cover the pile with bags or blankets for five hours. The seed can then be sown without drying.

Copper Carbonate Dust. — Two ounces of finely divided copper carbonate is used per pound of seed. The seed and dust are put into a barrel and the open end covered by tying a piece of canvas or a sack over it. The barrel is then rolled around on the floor until the dust has been thoroughly distributed over the seed. This treatment can be done at any time prior to sowing.

Hot Water Treatment.—This is a difficult treatment unless there is a live steam used in the dairy on the farm, or unless there is a cheese factory nearby, where the use of steam could be done. The bags of grain are placed in water and live steam turned in until the temperature is raised to 127 degrees F. Enough steam is then run in to maintain a temperature of 124 degrees to 127 degrees for ten minutes. The bags are then taken out and drained and the grain spread out to dry.

Mrs. Leeman says : "Carnol saved my life—many thanks to Carnol"

But read her letter. It tells her story better than we can.—"I feel it my duty to write you about your wonderful medicine Carnol. In January I had an operation for appendicitis. The pain I suffered before the operation and the loss of blood afterwards left me so weakened and run down that I wasn't able to go about on my feet. I just had to lie around all the time. The doctor said I was to take iron for my blood for I was so thin. I had anaemia and folks said I had only a short time to live. Carnol saved my life —many thanks to Carnol. I have gained about ten pounds in three months. After every meal I used to have indigestion and heartburn so bad that the pain was intense. A dose of Carnol would give me immediate relief. Now I am absolutely cured of both. I had severe headaches and pains across my back and they have also disappeared.

"This is how I started using Carnol. I asked a friend about Carnol. She said it was awfully good. Her doctor had recommended it to her to take after she had been in bed for months and she was completely cured. I called up our druggist and asked him about Carnol. He recommended it but said he was just out of it and wanted me to take a bottle of beef, iron and wine, but I said, 'No, I want Carnol.' So he said he would send and get me some. Just as soon as it came I commenced to take it and it has renewed my blood and given me a wonderful appetite. I never have to take a laxative with this medicine. I cannot recommend your medicine highly enough. It is just exactly what the system needs."—Mrs. Wilson H. Leeman, Ivanhoe, Ont. 9-24

Lady Warwick told many good electioneering stories. As everybody knows, her sympathies are with the Labor cause, and in the past she has often canvassed for Labour candidates.

Once, when thus engaged, she knocked at the door of a house in a mean street. Her knock was answered by a sever-looking matron, who stood with arms akimbo regarding her in no friendly spirit.

"May I see Mr. Blank?" she asked.

"You can't," replied the matron.

"But I want to see what party he belongs to," pleaded Lady Warwick.

"Well, take a good look at me," retorted the matron, "I'm the party what he belongs to."

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 2

Tea Production Today

If the Chinese, who first discovered tea, had realized the possibilities of the trade and had studied the nature and requirements of the plant, China might still be the largest tea producing country. Centuries of neglect, however, stunted the growth and caused the quality to deteriorate. In the mountains of Ceylon and India, tea was found to flourish. Scientific methods of cultivation and manufacture were introduced with remarkable results. Now the finest tea grown in the world and by far the largest quantity comes from these countries. "SALADA" is mainly blended from flavoury India and Ceylon teas.

PAUL'S
For a bedroom, one would seek above all else, a restful paper. Warmth of color or richness of design are desirable, but they must be blended in a soothing harmony with the coloring of draperies, floors and furniture. It is exactly this flexibility of design and coloring in Wallpaper that enables women of taste to add so much beauty to their homes at so very moderate a cost. Let us show you what we can do for that bedroom that has been bothering you.

Confirmation at St. Mark's.
The annual Confirmation Service held in St. Mark's, Deseronto, on Palm Sunday, April 5th, under the most perfect climatic conditions, was most impressive and reverent. Seven candidates, well prepared, and who took their part most intelligently in this beautiful service, were presented by the Rector, Rev. C. E. S. Radcliffe, B.C.L., to the Bishop of Ontario for the Apostolic Rite of Laying on of Hands. After the reading of the Preface and Scripture passages, the Bishop delivered a powerful and well thought out address as well as giving the newly confirmed instructions on living a practical Christian life. Rev. Canon Jones, Secretary of Synod and Bishop's Chaplain, carried the Bishop's Pastoral Staff. The musical portions of the service were well rendered by the Organist and Choir, and during the offertory Mrs. Dale sang as a solo to a beautiful setting, in fine voice, "Glory to Thee My God This Night". Many pleasing comments were heard on all sides from the large congregation present, who thoroughly enjoyed the dignified and devotional service. The much admired flowers on the altar were the gift of Mrs. Herbert Hall, wife of the People's Warden, and were thoroughly appreciated. The people of Deseronto always look forward with pleasure to the Bishop's visits.

Address and Presentation

On Friday, Mar. 27th, the young people of Tamworth gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Stinson, and, after reading the following address to Mr. and Mrs. W. Reginald Owens, presented them with many beautiful gifts.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Owens.

We, the young people of Tamworth, have assembled here this evening to express to you our sincere wishes.

It was with a mingled feeling of regret and joy that we heard of your marriage,—regret that we will lose you, Florence, from our midst, and joy that you have found a helpmate to paddle your canoe. You will be greatly missed in our village activities, where your cheerful happy spirit was so contagious that you were loved by all, but we cannot expect to have you with us always.

As a token of esteem, accept these strings, which, when followed, will supply you with many of the necessities of the homemaker.

We wish you both many years of unbounded joy and prosperity.

Signed on behalf of the young people of Tamworth.

TWO MEN BADLY HURT IN MOTORCYCLE SMASH

Trio on Machine Collide With Automobile. — George Bott, Formerly of Napanee, in Critical Condition.

Following a collision between a motor car and a motorcycle at Bloor and Shaw streets, Toronto, at 5.5 last evening, George W. Bott, aged 22, of 53 Kenilworth Avenue, who was riding in a side-car attached to the motorcycle, was pinned underneath the side-car, and when picked up was found to have received a fractured skull and possible internal injuries. He was taken to the Western Hospital, where his condition was reported to-day to be critical. George Bott, was formerly a Napanee boy, being in the Dominion Bank here before going to Toronto.

William Wansborough, 6 Gilborce Avenue, York Township, driver of the motorcycle, is also in the Western Hospital, suffering from a compound fracture of the right leg. Albert Cleland, 5 Baker street, a third passenger on the motorcycle, who was riding on a carrier back of the driver, escaped any serious injury by jumping off just before the collision. He was able to go home.

Wansborough told the police that he was driving east on Bloor street at the time of the accident. At Shaw street a motor car going north on Shaw, driven by Albert Mantrop, 92 Arlington Avenue, collided with him. Both drivers were examined to get clear of each other when the two vehicles came together and the motorcycle and side-car were thrown several feet.

Bott was pinned under the side-car. He was picked up in a semi-conscious condition and along with Wansborough was carried to the office of Dr. Ellis, 849½ Bloor street West. After being treated both men were removed to the Western Hospital.

Witnesses told the police that the accident took place almost at the centre of the intersection. Detectives Skinner and Todd made an investigation and the driver of the motor was not held.

Lennox Townships Are Now in Frontenac for Provincial Elections

Portland, Loughboro', and Bedford Added to Addington — Frontenac Vote Increased

By the Redistribution Bill which received the approval of the Legislature just before it closed, there will be considerable change in the district ridings of Frontenac, Lennox and Addington. The chief changes mean that the old riding of Lennox disappears, the townships of that riding, Bath, Richmond, Napanee, Adolphustown, North and South Fredericksburgh, Ernesttown and Amherst Island, are added to Frontenac now represented by Mr. A. M. Rankin, and the townships of Portland, Loughboro and Bedford are added to the present riding of Addington, represented by W. D. Black, Kingston Township, Pittsburg, Storrington, Howe Island and Wolfe Island remain with the district county.

By this change the electoral vote in the new Frontenac riding will be slightly increased, for there are more voters, according to the lists, in the added townships in that riding than there are in those which are lopped off and added to Addington, so far as can be seen there will not be any very violent change in the political complexion of the new electoral districts.

THE WEEK IN THE LEGISLATURE

Toronto, April 10th.—In deference to the wishes of private members anxious to get away to their farms and business, without returning after Easter week-end, the Government achieved completion of all business on the eve of Good Friday, and did it without denying consideration to any important legislation. Indeed, it was found possible to permit discussion of various more or less academic resolutions. A. Bolanger, (Lib., Russell) was given opportunity to continue his discussion of French-English training schools, and on the last day of the session the House, after pretty well cleaning up the order paper, listened to F. W. Wilson, of Windsor, speak to his resolution calling for sale of liquor in stores under a local option plan. It had been intimated that W. E. Raney, Progressive Leader, proposed to divide the House on the sessional indemnities Bill, the Cabinet Ministers' salary increase, the Temperance Act amendments and the beverage tax bill. When the time for third reading of these came, he moved to amend only the O.T.A., by proposing the six months' hoist. It was necessary to halt a meeting of the Public Accounts Committee in order that members might vote, and the division resulted 67 to 18 against the amendment. Five Liberals and two Labor men voted with the Government.

* * *

The redistribution committee's report was presented to the House toward the close of Wednesday night's sitting. Its contents have pretty well been forecasted, except that in its desire to refrain from cutting down rural representation too much, the committee increased the House membership by one, making it 112. The rural ridings which disappear are East Middlesex, Center Grey, West Bruce, one of the Norfolks, Center Huron, one of the Wellingtons. The Northumberlands are merged, and the two Durhams made one. Frontenac, Lennox and Addington become two seats instead of three. There is slight readjustment in Lambton and Simcoe and the Wentworths. Additional seats are given Windsor, Ottawa, Hamilton, and for the City of Toronto proper 15 seats. The bill, of course, does not come into effect until after next session.

* * *

In connection with sessional indemnities, the debate on second reading of the bill disclosed a curious desire on the part of certain Progressive members to go on record against the increase and at the same time not to prejudice their position in regard to receiving the $2,000. Premier Ferguson caustically suggested that it would not like to make any man go home with the cheque which he had promised his constituents he would not take it, and perhaps it would be well to give instructions that cheques for only $1,400 be issued in such cases. However, there was no division called for, nor amendment proposed in committee. Mr. Raney refrained even from moving the "six months' hoist" upon third reading. Premier Ferguson very frankly told the House that members found themselves committed to many expenses by reason of their position, including contributions they were called upon to make in their own ridings. Leslie W. Oke, (U.F.O.), East Lambton, admitted that he had changed his views as to what he would do, since coming to Toronto, and M. M. MacBride, South Brant, said that his experience was that members had to work 365 days a year on public business. In regard to the increase in Cabinet Ministers' salaries, the premier said he did not feel that he could call upon able men to devote full time to these positions at the present rate of remuneration. The Government took full responsibility for the measure, and from his contact with public opinion during the last recess the premier said he believed the people would concur.

The final skirmish on Church Union took most of Wednesday evening in the House, when a batch of amendments on behalf of the Presbyterian Church Association were proposed in Committee of the Whole by R. L. Brackin, Col. John A. Currie, W. G. Weichel, M. M. MacBride and others. Three amendments of some importance were carried. Nonconcurring congregations are to stand in the same relation to any new church as in the case of those adhering to the Presbyterian Church in Canada before passage of the bill. No rights in cases arising from union are to be affected by the bill, and Queen's and Knox College are to be property of the continuing Presbyterians, instead of the unionists, as originally provided. Amendments which failed to carry included the following proposals: that the term "negotiating churches' should include the phrase 'General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada'; that the Ontario bill should be in accord with the Ottawa bill as it stands now or will be with amendments; that the Church Property Commission should have its powers extended; that Knox College should be given absolutely to the anti-Unionists as other colleges are given to the Unionists, and that the books in the library of Knox College should be property of the anti-unionists. In this last case the chairman of the committee, C. R. McKeown, Durham, cast the deciding vote. Hon. W. F. Nickle announced he personnel decided upon for the property commission and library trustees, and in regard to the former three said they had not yet given their acceptance. Upon third reading, Thursday afternoon, Col. Currie moved an amendment which would have the effect of making Knox library a public library, but upon Premier Ferguson pointing out that legislation to this effect could be obtained at any time upon request, the mover withdrew his amendment.

When the House was passing the Main Estimates under estimates, and the vote for Normal Schools was under discussion, Peter Heenan enquired about the possibility of a Normal in the north country, and Premier Ferguson said "The representations made by many people up there, and also by the Legislative Secretary for Northern Ontario (Mr. Keefer) we are having inspectors make a survey, and while I do not know that, taking the aggregate, we should build any more normal schools at the moment, yet we recognize the isolated condition and the long distance up there, and I am inclined to think if such a step were taken an institution of moderate size might be put up there some time, but the Government have not reached the conclusion they should do it as yet."

'Investigations of the Public Accounts Committee, carried on right up to the close of the session, brought to light a curious situation in regard to administration of the Highways Improvement Fund. There were references by the Government auditor, A. H. Walker, to missing books and missing pages, and countless vouchers which could not be found. For over two years, he reported no cash book had been kept in the department, nor any book of record of expenditures. The disclosures, from an accounting standpoint, were sensational, and evidently impressed even Mr. Biggs, former head of the department, who was present at the sittings. As to dishonesty, it appeared only in minor matters, the auditor thought, and of $323,000 for which vouchers were missing, he had checked up, after eight months' work, all but $5,172, and this appeared to apply to pay-lists. The situation which brought about the chaotic situation was due to the fact that lump sums were paid from Consolidated Revenue into the Highways Improvement Fund and there dispensed by the highways department subject to no audit by the treasury's auditor until the end of the year, when, of course, the money had been spent. Indeed, at the end of 1922, there had been spent $1,200,000 more than the auditors had been advised, and there was from 1921 what Mr. Walker described as a "consistent overdraft" at the bank, notwithstanding the province had funds in various banks at the time. The whole situation is being remodied, Hon. W. H. Price explained, by legislation which will provide for a continuous audit.

OBITUARY

Robert Tate.

The sad news was received on Monday of the death of Robert Tate, who met with an accident on Monday afternoon, April 6th, 1925, and died a few hours later in a New York hospital. The remains were brought to Napanee Wednesday night, where a large number of neighbors and friends were awaiting the arrival of the body, and then taken to the home of his brother, Joseph Tate, Selby, Ont., where the funeral service was conducted by the Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, on Thursday, at 2 p.m., and interment made in Camden W. cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by a number of old acquaintances, who met to pay their last respects.

The deceased was born in Camden, 53 years ago, residing in Allentown for a number of years, thence going to New York, where he was manager of a lumber yard for a number of years, until the time of his death.

Mr. Tate is survived by three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Martin Ansley, of Toronto; Mrs. H. F. Bell, Moscow; Mrs. J. S. Galbraith, Vernon, B.C., and Joseph Tate, Selby, Ont.

Mrs. Ansley, of Toronto, and her daughter, Mrs. Grant Heels, Barrie, Ont., and Miss Kathleen Galbraith, of Guelph, attended the funeral.

EXPORTS OF CHEESE TO BRITAIN.

In the last three years, according to figures given in the Dominion Dairy News Letter, Great Britain has imported 939,783,200 lbs. of cheese, of which Canada supplied 331,145,588 lbs., New Zealand 464,046,900 lbs., the Netherlands 66,062,720 lbs., Italy 21,699,664 lbs., Australia 20,930,000 lbs., the United States, 9,699,424 lbs., and other countries 23,561,104 lbs. A gratifying feature is that Canada's exports of cheese to the mother land increased each year. The same is true of our exports in January this year compared with the corresponding month in 1922 and 1923. Another satisfying feature is that the appreciations for the best Canadian cheese usually run from four to eight shillings per long hundredweight higher than for New Zealand. In the first two weeks of February this year the quotation for Canadian cheese per 112 lb. was 96/- to 100/- shillings and for New Zealand 92 to 96 shillings.

The Oil for the Athlete.—In rubbing down, the athlete will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil an excellent article. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

A thousand dollars a mile

The public pays when overloaded trucks break down road surfaces

To prevent the unnecessary destruction of public property, the law provides that during March and April trucks (outside cities and towns) shall not be loaded in excess of one-half of their rated carrying capacity.

When a road is asked to bear a load which is too heavy, or driven at too great a speed the surface is broken and the foundation is "churned up." Disintegration follows. Repair costs are often more than $1,000 a mile.

Water lurks in the foundations of all roads at this season of the year and the surfaces of all gravel and macadam roads are porous and soft.

The Department requests the voluntary co-operation of truck owners and drivers, but this does not affect in any way the enforcement of The Ontario Highways Act. Infractions will be penalized even more rigorously than before.

Maintenance and repair of roads fall largely on the users of the roads. In justice they should fall most heavily on the traffic which does most damage to the roads. That damage will be lessened if each individual truck owner and driver will suit his load and his speed to the conditions of the road, and keep well within the limits of the law.

"I suppose it has taught the people a lesson around here."
"Yes. The place now fairly swarms with mushroom seekers."

Miller's Worm Powders will not only expel worms from the system but will induce healthful conditions of the system under which worms can no longer thrive. Worms keep a child in a continual state of restlessness and pain, and there can be no comfort for the little one until the cause of suffering be removed, which can be easily done by the use of these powders, which are very effective.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of my dear Brother, Bert Moon, who departed this life on May 2nd, 1924.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

God, in his wisdom, has re-called
The boon-his love had given;
And though the body moulders here
The soul is safe in Heaven.

Sadly missed by his sister, Mrs. Perry Parks. 16ap

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of E. N. Glass, who passed away on April 18th, 1924.

Perfect be thy rest, dear husband,
It's sweet to breath thy name;
In life we loved each other, dear,
In death we do the same.

It's sweet to know we'll meet again,
Where parting is no more;
And that the one I loved so well,
Has only gone before.

50 CLEVER SPRING HATS TO GO ON SALE
Saturday Morning, April 18th, at 9 O'clock
$3.29 Each

This Sale was planned for weeks ago—our millinery staff has been exceptionally busy all week putting on the final touches. Each is an individual, exclusive model, completely different from its neighbor. Featured are particularly clever Ready-to-Wear models; others have been artistically trimmed in our own work-rooms. Both lines represent the season's best shapes, trimmings and colorings. The quality of fabrics and straws, as well as the character of the workmanship is far above the ordinary standard for hats at $3.29. In fact, you are not buying these hats, but rather beautiful hats, worth in many, many instances twice the sale price. The entire list, too, includes all the most important Spring shades that will blend or harmonize with your Spring wardrobe. We urge for your own good, all women and misses who have not as yet chosen, to at least investigate the opportunities afforded in this specially planned Sale of Spring Millinery.

SPECIAL $3.29 PRICES ARE OBTAINABLE ONLY ON SATURDAY

Discriminating Women "Choose Navy Blue" Tailored Suits

Other shades appear, have their days of popularity and then fade from the picture. But "Navy Blue" holds its own season after season,—chosen because it fits in for most any occasion—preferred for its stability—admired for its stay-put appearance.

Our Women's and Misses' Suit Department is now showing a magnificent assemblage of new Spring Suit Models. These garments portray advanced tailored Spring styles. They also emphasize the newer thoughts in inlaid ornamentations. Only the finest and the purest of all wool yarns have been used in the producing of these superlative garments. If chosen at Robinson's, you need not pay more for good suits. Priced from $27.50 to $59.50.

Matrons' Coats, in Black and Navy Blue. All Sizes. Varied Styles

Even in a season when bright colors are so fashionable, it is surprising to note "the demand" for Blue and Black Coats.

Styles here, as in all coats, follow Fashion's preference for straight lines. Some garments are as straight as a string, while others introduce below-the-knee flares. For older women are coats possessing inverted pleats, skilfully placed so as to produce extra fulness.

Best quality fabrics are used in producing our Navy and Black Coats. You will like the finish and the workmanship they possess. Linings, too, are carefully chosen for appearance, wear and suitability. Poiret Twill, Tricotine and Charmeen weaves are outstanding. Are all moderately priced.

Velvet Hall Runners

Very attractive patterns, in Oriental designs, beautiful colorings, in shadow effects. Will harmonize with your decorations. Have a closely woven pile, very fine wool. Will give you lasting service and retain their colors. Moderately priced. 2 ft. 3 in. by 7 ft. 6 in., 2 ft. 3 in. by 9 ft., and 2 ft. 3 in. by 10 ft.

Brussels Stair Carpet

Carpet experts advise using Brussels Carpets for stairs. They will wear longer than any other carpet at a similar price. Easy to clean, made from a very fine long wool. The patterns are mostly conventional designs. The width is 27 inches, and the prices are $3.00 and $3.25 per yard. New patterns this season.

A Supreme Collection of Silk Dresses $25.75 Each

This very important collection of Silk Dresses offers you the opportunity of replenishing your wardrobe at a very moderate and inexpensive cost. These dresses are exclusively created in the prevailing models from the very finest of richly finished, beautifully colored materials. "Exclusiveness" finds expression in trimmings, handwork, color, color combinations and head embroideries. No two dresses here are alike. Several have been imported from Paris, France; others come from leading Canadian makers. Many splendid colors from which to choose. Assorted sizes. See this collection.

Neverfade Linen Dresses for Street and Sport Wear

Our Summer stocks are arriving. The first shipments to reach us were the "Linen" contingent. These decidedly attractive frocks are made from genuine Irish Linen that is positively guaranteed not to fade and not to shrink. It is also non-crushable. The quality of this linen is unusually soft and exceedingly heavy. "Styles" in Linen Dresses are exceptionally attractive. Lines show a preference for tailored effects. Ornamentation favors lace combinations, pleated panels, scalloped edges, collar drawn work and color combinations. Procurable in shades of Tan, Bark, Cadet, Jade, Apple Green, Apricot, Tea-Rose, and White. Priced from $10.00 up.

"Borsalino" Hats for Men, "Italian"

Regular $7.50. Clearing Price $5.00.

We are discontinuing the "Borsalino" agency, and to clear the balance of these famous Italian hats, we will sell them at $5.00 each, which is considerably below the cost price. There are about eighteen hats left, and the sizes are well assorted, mostly Dark Greys and Beaver shades. You save $2.50 on each hat.

Young Men's First Long Pant Suits, at $10.00 to $15.00

When our buyer was in Montreal a few weeks ago he picked up some broken lots of Suits, one or two of a kind, from our real good manufacturers, at prices that enable us to give you regular $15.00 to $22.50 suits for from $10.00 to $15.00. Mostly sizes 34, 35, 36, 37, but there are a few in sizes 38, 39 and 40. Remember these are good honest cloths in up-to-date staple styles.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of the late George Allan, who was instantly killed in an auto accident, on April 21st, 1924.

Short and sudden was the call
Of one dearly loved by all;
The blow was great, the shock severe
We little thought his death so near;
And only those who loved can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.

Sadly missed by all.
Mr. and Mrs. Luther Clark and Family. 16ap

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear grandfather, Martin W. Bredshaw, who passed away on April 20th, 1923.

We cannot clasp your hand, dear grandpa,
Your face we cannot see;
But let this little token tell
We still remember thee.

Sadly missed by your grandchildren.

In loving memory of Husband and Father.

Rest, dear husband, your work is done,
Your willing hands will toil no more;
No more your kindly voice will speak
Sleep on, beloved husband, sleep.
But dearest father how we miss you,
Since to Heaven you have gone;
But we know that you are happy
With the angels round your throne.

Deeply mourned by Wife and Children. 16a

The financial reports for the year from the various church societies which were satisfactory, were read and adopted. The Church Wardens, Delegates, Sidesmen and Auditors were re-elected to office. Hearty votes of thanks were tendered to the different church organizations for good work done during the past year. A Vestry meeting was held at the proper time this year, but nearly a month earlier than last year.

—The Easter services at St. Mark's Church, Deseronto, were very bright and enjoyable. The Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. were well attended, and a large number made their Easter Communion. The music at the Midday Celebration and in the evening was of a high order and the organist and vested choir entered into the spirit of the great Festival. The Easter anthem was "He is Not Here", in which Mrs. Dale rendered the solo portions very musically and with great expression. At present the proper Psalms were chanted with excellent precision by the choir. The beautiful lilies on the altar, with the white hangings and uplifting services during the day combined to impress on the congregation the festal because triumphant note of the Queen of Festivals "O Death Where is Thy Sting, O Grave Thy Victory".

OBITUARY

John S. Fralick.

Early on the morning of April 8th, just after the break of day, while the birds were yet singing their morning songs, the gates of Heaven opened to admit the soul of another of Morven's oldest and most highly respected citizens, in the person of the late John S. Fralick, aged seventy-eight years and five months, who was born and lived a life-time upon the farm on which he died, as did three generations of Fralicks before him. The late Mr. Fralick, being the youngest son of a family of nine children, assumed the responsibilities of the home at a time when it was not so easy a task as at present. He was of a strong ambitious nature, and with the help of a loving self-sacrificing helpmate, in the person of Miss Catharine Bell, daughter of the late Wm. E. and Mercy Bell, who became his wife in the year 1878, he has been able to leave a farm and home so equipped that it stands as a monument to a life of industry and thrift. Years ago, under the pastorate of the late Rev. Robert Pope, he was soundly converted to God, and ever since his critical operation of seven years ago, has often expressed his readiness to depart this life wherever or whenever the call came. He had enjoyed splendid health until last fall, when a general breaking up overcame him, and the weak condition of his heart compelled him to keep his bed, which he did from January 1st until the end. There are left to mourn his loss, his wife, and their only son, George E., and his wife; a sister, Miss Emmeline, who lives with them, and another sister, Mrs. Harriet Perry, of Detroit, Mich. The brothers and sisters, who have predeceased him, are James and H. V., of Napanee, Miles, of California; Mrs. Jas. Thayer, Wisconsin; Mrs. J. J. Detlor, Hamilton, and Miss Eliza, Napanee.

The funeral was held in the White Church, on Friday, the service being in charge of the Pastor, Rev. W. R. Merrick, assisted by Rev. D. N. Lovelace, Rosencath. The Fourth Line choir rendered appropriate music, after which the remains were placed in the vault by the side of his loved brother-in-law, the late S. P. Bell, to await interment later.

The Brooder that Raises Dollars

Ask your county agent or agricultural college what part brooding plays in making poultry profits. And what part hatching plays, too.

They'll tell you they're the first steps toward success. And they'll very probably recommend Buckeye Incubators and Buckeye Coal-Burning or Oil-Burning Brooders. They'll tell you that they hatch more eggs, raise more chicks, insure bigger poultry profits for you.

Then ask us for the new Buckeye Catalog—a most complete and valuable book on poultry raising. Tells how to feed, cull, get more eggs in winter and market for high prices.

"Owe my life to Carnol," says Mr. Sinclair

Following a railway accident, after other medecines failed, he got relief from two bottles of Carnol.

The following letter needs no comment from us. We leave Mr. Sinclair to tell you about his experience in his own words,—"I was very much run down and nervous following a railway accident some years ago. Medicines failed to give me any real help, so I decided to try Carnol. I did not have any faith in patent medicines, but a friend of mine said Carnol was far superior to any other of the so-called patent medicines. Give it a trial" he said, 'and let me know the results.' I am glad to say this wonderful medicine has done for me what no other medicine has done, and it therefore gives me great pleasure to give this evidence in favor of Carnol. I would advise all business men who feel, after the strenuous life of the world, that they need a building up tonic, to take Carnol. It is only by giving it a fair trial that they will know its splendid qualities."

After using the first bottle I noticed a marked improvement. My appetite improved and after the second bottle I could eat like a horse, even raw potatoes and onions would be as welcome as apples. I slept like a log and after a refreshing sleep, I was able to take up the strenuous work of the hustling insurance agent. This work calls for considerable nervous energy in closing business and I can say, with confidence, Carnol has no superior in the medicine line. I would suggest that your company give this letter a most conspicuous place, so that everyone may know what a great medicine is before the public as a restorative tonic and flesh builder. I say, with all confidence, I owe my life to Carnol. Nothing equals this medicine."—Gordon M. Sinclair, Chatham, N.B. 1-24

THE KING SURPLUS IS A DEFICIT

The King Government has surpassed itself this year in its endeavour to convince its party supporters that they have a surplus. A simple review of their own figures will show how they attempt to hoodwink the public.

Now Mr. Robb figures as follows :

Revenues	$344,000,000
Expenditures	342,177,000
Fictitious surplus ..	$ 1,823,000

This amount might be used to reduce the public debt, as Hon. Mr. Robb pointed out, but out of cash they had paid to our National Railways the amount of $18,027,000, which has not been considered in the ordinary Expenditures.

Therefore, from the Government figures and from the mouth of the Hon. Mr. Robb, we submit and affirm that the true statement should be :

Expenditures as above ..	$342,177,000
Cash to Can. Nat. Railways	18,027,000
	$360,204,000
Revenue as above	344,000,000
Deficit	$ 16,204,000

This simple statement proves the attempt of the Government to hoodwink, to mislead and deceive the people.

Besides, Mr. Robb had to admit having borrowed and spent $81,000,000 more by endorsing the bonds of the Canadian National Railways. These bonds the country alone must pay.

The Public Debt.

Hon. Mr. Robb next proceeded to twist figures for purely partizan purposes and for political reasons, in his treatment of our National Public Debt. He admits that there will be an increase of $15,750,838.00 to the Public Debt, and we submit for our readers the methods he adopts to get this amount :

Cash to Can. Nat. Railways	$ 18,027,000
To Can. Govt. Merchant Marine	963,000
To Quebec Harbour Commissioners	609,000
Total Amount	$ 19,227,000

Hon. Mr. Robb does not wish to add even this amount to the debt so he ingeniously deducts the surplus of $1,823,000. Further he deducts the amount of $4,004,162, made up of interest due on amounts loaned by us to European Countries, which interest has never been paid. The Government got these Countries to add the interest to their debt and now treat it as cash receipts. Such financial stepping is pretty high, in fact as Peter Smith, in all his financial life, never committed such an absurd and criminal farce. Who ever accepted I. O. U.'s as cash?

Therefore, Hon. Mr. Robb figures for addition to the Public Debt for this year as follows :

Cash to Can. Nat. Railways	$ 18,027,000
To Can. Govt. Merchant Marine	900,000
To Quebec Harbour Commissioners	609,000
The real increase is	19,527,000
He then deducts from this the fictitious surplus	1,823,000
	$ 17,704,000
Further he deducts the interest which was never paid	4,000,162
Fictitious increase of Mr. Robb	$ 13,703,838

We leave it to the public to say whether the National Debt has been increased by $13,703,838, or by $19,527,000. If other, it must be the latter amount.

We now propose to show that this Government and Hon. Mr. Robb are misleading in these statements regarding the Public Debt.

So far as a debt is concerned we beg to ask if there is any difference between a cash loan and a guaranteed loan. Hon. Mr. Robb says the cash loan only should be added to the National Debt, but simply to keep the debt down in appearance to the Public, he compiles the guaranteed debt as another question. The people must realize now that they are paying up two debts under the King Government.

1. The real National Debt which on Mar. 31st, 1924, amounted to $2,417,783,274.18
2. The Railway debt ;

Let us see what change the King Government has made in this Debt by guaranteed Loans. Mr. Robb's figures are :

Last year's vote	$ 56,527,000
Further estimates this year	7,500,000
	$ 64,027,000
Vote for branch lines and terminals	18,000,000
	$ 82,027,000

Surely no man can deny that this debt has been added this year. Does it make any difference whether you keep this amount in a separate book or not? This country owes it and is the guarantor for the repayment.

In spite of Mr. Robb's juggling, we submit his own figures as a deficit of $16,204,000 and that the public debt has been increased not by $13,703,838, but by the huge sum of $82,027,000, making a total increase to our debt of $98,231,000 at least.

HEALTH FADS SEEM FOOLISH

After All, Their Devotees as a Rule Lie Down and "Die Like Anybody Else."

Twenty years ago I knew a man called Jiggins, who had the health habit, observes Stephen Leacock in the Dallas News.

He used to take a cold plunge every morning. He said it opened his pores. After this he took a hot sponge. He said it closed the pores. He got so that he could open and shut his pores at will.

Jiggins used to stand and breathe at an open window for half an hour before dressing. He said it expanded his lungs. He might of course have had it done in a shoe shop with a boot stretcher, but, after all, it cost him nothing this way. And what is half an hour?

After he had got his vest on Jiggins used to hitch himself up like a dog in harness and do shoulder exercises. He did them forward, backward and sidaside up.

He could have got a job as a dog anywhere. He spent all his time at this kind of thing, in his spare time at the office he used to lie on his stomach on the floor and see if he could lift himself up with his knuckles. If he could then he tried some other way until he found one that he couldn't do. Then he would spend the rest of his lunch hour on his stomach, perfectly happy.

In the evenings in his room he used to lift iron bars, cannon balls, heavy dumb bells and haul himself up to the ceiling with his teeth.

He liked it.

He spent half the night slinging himself around the room. He said it made his brain clear. When he got his brain perfectly clear he went to bed and slept. As soon as he woke he began clearing it again.

Jiggins is dead. He was, of course, a pioneer: but the fact that he dumbbelled himself to death at an early age does not prevent a whole generation of young men from following in his path.

They are ridden by the health cults.

They make themselves a nuisance.

They get up at impossible hours. They go out in all kinds of weather and run barefoot before breakfast. They chase around barefoot to get the dew on their feet. They hunt for worms. They eat grass. They snort. They won't eat meat because it has too much nitrogen. They won't eat fruit because it has too much sugar. They never committed such an absurd and criminal farce. Who ever accepted I. O. U.'s as cash?

Therefore, Hon. Mr. Robb figures for addition to the Public Debt for this year as follows :

Cash to Can. Nat. Railways ..... $ 18,027,000
To Can. Govt. Merchant Marine 900,000
To Quebec Harbour Commissioners 609,000
The real increase is $ 19,527,000
He then deducts from this the fictitious surplus 1,823,000
$ 17,704,000
Further he deducts the interest which was never paid 4,000,162
Fictitious increase of Mr. Robb ..... $ 13,703,838

We leave it to the public to say whether the National Debt has been increased by $13,703,838, or by $19,527,000. If other, it must be the latter amount.

We now propose to show that this Government and Hon. Mr. Robb are misleading in these statements regarding the Public Debt.

So far as a debt is concerned we beg to ask if there is any difference between a cash loan and a guaranteed loan. Hon. Mr. Robb says the cash loan only should be added to the National Debt, but simply to keep the debt down in appearance to the Public, he compiles the guaranteed debt as another question. The people must realize now that they are paying up two debts under the King Government.

1. The real National Debt which on Mar. 31st, 1924, amounted to $2,417,783,274.18
2. The Railway debt ;

Let us see what change the King Government has made in this Debt by guaranteed Loans. Mr. Robb's figures are :

Last year's vote ..... $ 56,527,000
Further estimates this year 7,500,000
$ 64,027,000
Vote for branch lines and terminals 18,000,000
$ 82,027,000

Surely no man can deny that this debt has been added this year. Does it make any difference whether you keep this amount in a separate book or not? This country owes it and is the guarantor for the repayment.

In spite of Mr. Robb's juggling, we submit his own figures as a deficit of $16,204,000 and that the public debt has been increased not by $13,703,838, but by the huge sum of $82,027,000, making a total increase to our debt of $98,231,000 at least.

A gushing Society lady said to the famous but meticulous novelist : what is your opinion of life?"

He answered with his characteristic slowness and pomposity of speech: "Life, Madam—if—ah—so I may call you—if—ah—the predicament which precedes death."

"Buy only pure laundry soap — it's real economy"

says Mrs. Experience

"Many women, I've found, choose their laundry soap merely because it is extra hard or because the bar is big and bulky—regardless of the soap's quality.

"As for myself, I always insist on Sunlight Soap, because I learned many years ago that it is more economical to use only pure laundry soap, and I believe that Sunlight is the only pure laundry bar soap made in Canada. Every bar of Sunlight carries a $5,000 Guarantee of Purity.

"And as every bit of Sunlight is pure cleansing soap, it cleans quickly with very little rubbing, and a little of it goes a long way. For washing clothes, dishes and general household use give me Sunlight every time. Sunlight doesn't make the hands rough and red, either." Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto, make Sunlight.

Many old machines which you may think are skimming clean actually waste a pint of cream a day. This is 20 cents wasted each day or $73 a year. On this basis the Melotte would pay for itself in eighteen months.. Stop this waste at once by using a Melotte.

Life of a Collier.

A Scottish correspondent of the Yorkshire Post living in a colliery district, writes: The sentimental pity extended on to "poor devil who never sees the light of day" is sheer rubbish, and when uttered by union leaders is merely clap-trap. I meet plenty of our local miners coming home daily between two and three in the afternoon, having done their shift from 7 a. m. and probably earned $5 in the meantime. If you stopped one of these men to commiserate with him on his "dreadful" employment, he would stare at you in amazement, and wonder what on earth you were talking about. At a smoking concert some months ago one of our miners sang a song called "Down in the Mine." It drew a lurid picture of a miner's life, and one line referred to his "toiling for a bare existence." The miners roared with laughter, in which the singer joined.

Novel Counter-Claim.

A novel plea was put forth by Ele. Sigurdson, an Icelander, described as an accountant, who was committed for trial at the Guildhall, London, charged with embezzling money he was longing to his employers. When the chief bookkeeper of the firm was called to the colors, Sigurdson was engaged at $12 a week, and later it was discovered that smaller sums had been paid into the bank than had been received. Questioned, he agreed that he had used about $1,000 for his own purposes, and after arrest added: "I have a hefty counter-claim against them for inciting a young man to commit forgery." He went on to argue that by not keeping a sufficient check on him the firm had induced him to use their money, and that he had a claim for damages against them.

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 3

Mountain-Grown Teas Best

The tea plant grows best in the pure cool atmosphere of a mountain tea garden. The higher the garden, the finer and more delicious the flavour of the tea. This is purely due to the clear sunshine on a high mountain side, partly to the more invigorating air, partly to the more frequent rainfall and perfect drainage. The largest and roughest leaf grown at an elevation of 7000 feet is much superior in flavour to the tiniest tip grown only 2000 feet above sea-level. All teas used in the "SALADA" blends are grown from 4000 feet to 7,500 feet elevation. The trademark "SALADA" is a guarantee of quality.

Dogs Poisoned.

If those who have never owned a dog and know nothing of what it means to lose such a faithful friend and companion, would think twice before spreading poison for rats in conspicuous places, a great deal of unhappiness would be avoided. Two dogs have recently been the victims of poisoning in Napanee. Their sufferings were indescribable. A little care and thought would prevent such cruelty.

A. C. Burrows Succeeds Late Dr. Miller as Provincial Geologist.

Alfred Cranville Burrows, M.A., B.Sc., was on Wednesday appointed by Order-in-Council Provincial Geologist of Ontario in succession to the late Dr. W. G. Miller. Mr. Burrows was a former pupil and associate of Dr. Miller's. He is a son of Frederic Burrows, of Toronto, formerly public school inspector for Lennox and Addington.

He received his early education in Napanee and graduated from Queen's University, being awarded a medal in mineralogy for that year. He is also a medalist in geology.

He was appointed Provincial Assayer in 1902 and held that position until 1907. His first field experience was in the year 1900 in Northern Ontario. "His appointment is a reward of merit and recognizes the principle of promotion in the public services of the province," said Mr. McCrea.

Mr. Burrows is a member of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy and Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada and member of the American Society of Economic Geologists.

EASTER AT ST. MARY MAGDALENE

The Easter festival had been prepared for by Lenten services, both Sunday and week-day, at which the attendance and interest were well maintained throughout the season. The climax came on Good Friday evening, when the church was filled to its capacity for Stainer's "Crucifixion". This beautiful and devotional presentation of the events of the day had been carefully prepared by the Choir, under Prof. Baird's direction, with the assistance of some members of other choirs. Its rendering was most effective, from both the musical and the spiritual points of view. The solo parts were admirably rendered by Mr. J. Deacon, of Belleville, and by Mr. C. Waite, and the choruses maintained a fine blending of all the parts. The Cantata was preceded by an Organ Recital by Prof. Baird.

Large congregations were present on Easter Day, especially in the morning, the number of communicants at the two morning services being higher than the record for any other single day in the history of the congregation. Flowers, music and sermons were all in keeping with the spirit of the day.

The annual Vestry meeting was held on Monday, and statements were given of the various funds, showing a prosperous condition of the financial side of the Church's affairs.

RECEPTION.

A reception of much interest was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McKinley, Seeley's Bay, Friday evening, April 10th, at 8 o'clock, in honour of their daughter, Laura Thelma, who was united in marriage to Charles Detlor, Tamworth, April 9th, at Napanee, Rev. Mr. Tanton officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Detlor motored to the latter's home and arrived late Friday afternoon and entered the house amid showers of confetti and rice. As the guests arrived they were received at the door by Miss Vina Leadbeater, cousin of the bride. At eight o'clock fifty guests sat down to the tables beautifully decorated with carnations, tulips and Easter lilies, where they partook of a sumptuous supper served by the Misses Vina Leadbeater, Mildred Leadbeater, Mary Moorehead and Percy Dorner.

The centre of the table was a scene of admiration, where a wedding cake made by the bride's grandmother, who is seventy-eight years of age, was most beautifully trimmed.

The many friends departed about one o'clock, leaving behind them heartiest congratulations and many lovely presents.

NATURE teaches that in the time of plenty we should lay in a store for the lean months. The thrifty housewife "puts up" fruit and berries in the Summer when they are cheap so as to have regal fare for Winter months. MONDAY AND TUESDAY
One Show Only at Eight o'clock

Although the late war is relatively out of favor as a screen topic, and has been for some considerable time, no such ban could possibly apply to a film spectacle like "ZEEBRUGGE," a British super production that comes to Canada endorsed by the Sovereigns of Great Britain and the highest naval authorities.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

The terrible white slave traffic in the South Sea Islands is graphically, vividly depicted in "THE PAINTED LADY," the new William Fox special production, which brings DOROTHY MACKAILL and GEORGE O'BRIEN, with a big supporting cast.

The other feature is the Paramount production, "THE CITY THAT NEVER SLEEPS." Is the modern girl safer in the full glare of the bright lights than behind the drawn curtains of society homes? Indirectly that question is answered in powerful, compelling fashion in this picture. Admission—Adults 25c, children 15c.

April Chesterfield Suite Display

Selection

Some time ago we inaugurated a new system of buying our Chesterfield Suites. We felt that living room furniture was not only something made to be admired, but also to be used. In executing our new system, we have bought only from firms of national reputation; and now have on our floors, Suites that excel in many points.

With these reliable firms behind us, we ask you to call and see not only Living Room Furniture that appeals to you in looks, but also has Quality, Charm, Comfort, Grace, Refinement and exceptional decorative value.

Construction

The frame work on which our upholstered furniture is built is strong. We guarantee that they will give you service as they should. These frames are of exceptional strength and solidity. Made of well kiln-dried Canadian hardwood, properly planed and dressed to give longer life, and also additional strength. When we say hardwood we mean such woods as oak, birch, or maple—not soft or cheaper wood or elm, ash, or gum. No substitutes are used. The frames are strongly braced and glued.

"Important Hidden Qualities"

Not only were we interested in the firms, and frame construction, in the selection of our Chesterfield Suites, but also in the Hidden Qualities. For it is these hidden qualities that can so easily deceive you.

All our Chesterfield Suites in stock have the same material on the outside of the arms and outside back as they have on the inside of the arms or inside of the back.

The Upholstering Springs used in our Suites are springs of a heavy high-carbon wire, flexibly interlocked—wide; we emphasize on this wide coil, because a narrow coil will easily buckle. A wide coil requires much more wire and is more flexible and durable, and with the same number of springs used in the seat construction, there is much less space between the tops of the springs over which the sheeting and filling is placed.

The Springs are set on steel crimp wires, securely fastened to the hardwood frames. Tops of springs are securely fastened by steel interlocking wires, arranged so as to form a soft, flexible top. These wide coils are tied with extra heavy spring twine, each spring tied with eight knots, which assures a customer that they are buying a Suite that has rigid springs.

The Spring Edge of these Chesterfields are all made with an Improved Wire, and also double stuffed and closely stitched with heavy sheeting over springs.

The Springs being cross-tied into place and covered with a ten-ounce canvas, to which they are sewed. Then a filling is securely sewed into place, which has the second filling of canvas laid over, and these two canvases are quilted. Then the second filling is sewed into place over the outside canvas cover. A generous layer of finest white cotton felt is finally added before the outside cover is then put on.

The Cushions are filled with patented spring made of a multitude of fine steel coils, firmly and flexibly interlocked. They are heavily padded and will hold their shape. These are sewed in canvas covered with white cotton of finest quality. The main feature of cushions made as above, is that the springs are silent.

ALL filling materials in our Chesterfield Suites are of germ-cured. Note, Cotton Fabrics, such as Velours and Tapestries, are immune from moths, and all of our present stock of Mohair Chesterfield Suites are Eulanized — the most effective germicide known to science.

It is also our wish to bring before you that only new, clean and sanitary materials are used in the manufacture of these Suites. The fillings, the covers, the cottons, the webbing, the springs, the twine, the frame—all brand new. This, of course, is of great importance to the customer, because upholstered furniture made of second-hand material can prove a menace to the health of every member of your family.

We feel that a home is only a real home when its furnishings are chosen for the future as well as the present. Unsubstantial, cheaply made furniture is wholly at variance with the true basis of home building—permanency.

The Chesterfield Suites we will have on exhibit are our suggestions for those homes where lasting quality means most. The honesty of the workmanship on these Chesterfields counts as much in such surroundings as does the beauty of their design and upholstery.

And now we feel that we can vouch for the fineness of the construction of our Chesterfield Suites. We can assure you of excellent service from them all. Every piece offers these hidden qualities we have already told you about.

You can have your choice; every Suite on our floor is within your reach. We want you to come in and let us show you these charming Chesterfield Suites.

TOWN COUNCIL

Monday night's session of the Council was a short one. The business before the Board was light, consequently adjournment took place early.

The full board was present—Reeve Graham, Councillors Dunbar, Howitt, Jewell, MacGregor, Roy and Simpson.

Mayor Ming occupied the chair.

Coun. MacGregor moved a vote of thanks and appreciation to the Women's Institute for the waste paper receptacles they are providing, to be placed at important intersections in the town. One will also be placed in the Harvey Warner Park. This will be an experiment along the line of keeping the streets free from waste paper and like rubbish that pedestrians throw away indiscriminately.

Reeve Graham reported that the Street Committee intend building a cement culvert across the road running through Clarkville near the boundary.

A Local Improvement By-law was passed to make extensions to the sewers on Bridge street and on Graham street. For this work 12-inch sewer pipe will be needed. And the Street Committee was authorized to call for tenders for same.

Chairman MacGregor, of the Finance Committee, reported that his Committee investigated the articles of contract between the town and the contractor for the Miller-Ross Biscuit Factory, and recommended that the signatures of the Mayor and Clerk be placed to the contract.

A By-law was introduced and passed, appointing J. G. Fennell Assessor for the Town of Napanee for the year 1925, at a salary of $250.00.

In painting, there are three things to consider,—price, covering ability and wear. In a cheap paint you pay less per quart, but that's all. B. & H. English Paint will actually cover one-third to one-half more, looks better and will wear longer, and is undoubtedly cheaper in the end. The price is $1.50 quart, at Wallace's.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

Croydon, April 15th, 1925.

Mr. Albert Hughes,
Croydon, Ont.

Dear Brother,—We, the Officers and Members of L.O.L. No. 490 desire to extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in your bereavement. No doubt you will miss your dear mother very much, as she was always so attentive in her home. You will miss the ready welcome waiting you there. You will also miss her pleasant smile when visiting you. As days go by you will feel sad and lonely, but when you think of the suffering she endured so patiently during her last illness, we trust you will be resigned to the will of God who doeth all things for the best. At the same time accept our sympathy, and we sincerely hope you may receive comfort and solace from the fact that although you are separated here for a time, we all have our hopes so founded on the eternal that we may meet again, in that Celestial City, where parting is no more.

In Faith, Hope and Charity, we will remain as members of a religious Brotherhood.

SOCIAL EVENING AND ADDRESS

About thirty of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. John Galt met at their home on Monday evening last to spend a social time with them before their departure for their new home in Bethany. After spending some time in games and music, an address was read by Mr. Schuyler French, after which a dainty lunch was served.

To Mr. and Mrs. Galt.

Dear Friends,—We, your neighbours and friends, have learned with much regret that you are about to leave us and return to your old neighbourhood.

While we regret very much to lose you, we feel sure you must feel that it is for the best, and we can only hope that your highest expectations will be realized, and certainly you can depend on the best wishes of your friends in Pleasant Valley following you wherever you go.

While regretting our loss, we are sure that it will mean a happy reunion with those whom you left such a few years ago.

Signed on behalf of your friends,

BERTHA JAYNE.

ROD AND GUN IN CANADA

Featured in the May issue of Rod and Gun in Canada, the Special Quebec Tourist Number, are the delights and possibilities of this province for the tourist and sportsman. An editorial message from the Hon. A. E. Perrault, Minister of Colonization, Mines and Fisheries, introduces the province to the tourist and points out the many charms it holds for him. In "Remember the time?" Harwood Steele recalls in the account of one fishing trip the good times enjoyed in many such and which may be enjoyed by any fisherman who so wishes this summer. "Idylls of the Spring", by Mason B. Woollard, reveals the delights of canoeing and "Daylight and—Ducks" by A. E. Douglas is an entertaining story of a duck hunt in the early hours of the morning. William MacMillan, in his usual interesting and masterly manner recounts the story of a pair of eagles on "The storm swept crags of the Jacques Cartier," in "The Eagles of the Pine". "The Wicked Fleet" by Harry M. Moore and "The Greenhead" by Frank Young complete the list of interesting stories with a Quebec setting. The regular contributors are also represented in this number. The stories from Bonnycastle Dale and Martin Hunter and the various departments, Fishing Notes, Outdoor Talk, Guns and Ammunition, Kennel and The Trap, all come up to their usual mark of excellence. Published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

KEEPING TURKEYS

(Experimental Farms Note)

Turkey raising is not the difficult matter that many believe it to be, writes Mr. A. G. Taylor, of the Poultry Division, Dominion Experimental Farms, who itemizes the essentials to success in this line of poultry keeping as follows:—Well-drained soil, free range, well-developed, healthy, unrelated breeding stock, and palatable foods properly and regularly fed.

The birds are not confined to houses and for winter nights require only the shelter of a straw-barn or closed-in shed. Nor is the feeding an expensive matter. Turkeys, especially the Bronze which is our largest and most popular breed, are great foragers and gather much of their food from the fields. Altogether there is little labour required in keeping a flock; a small initial investment to provide a suitable start; and the market for dressed turkeys is good both at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

A bulletin written by Mr. Taylor entitled "Turkeys—Their Care and Management", (No. 46, New Series), is now in the press. In it are to be found a discussion of breeds; practical directions for successfully managing a flock; and notes on the prevention and cure of disease. Copies will be sent free on application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

The mother was getting her small sort ready for school when she noticed a lump on his head. "Freddy !" she said sternly, "have you been fighting again?" "Fightin'," he echoed, "not me." "But somebody struck you?" said his mother. "Nobody struck me," he answered stoutly; "I wasn't fightin' at all. It was an accident." "An accident?" she queried. "Yes," he replied; "I was sitting on Tommy Jones, and I forgot to hold his feet."

She Now Enjoys Good Health

Quebec Lady Sends Message of Hope to all Sick Women

Dame E. Ouellet Used Dodd's Kidney Pills for Kidney Trouble, Headaches and Indigestion With Great Success.

St. Joseph de Kamouraska, Que., April 20th, (Special)—"I must tell you that a treatment of six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me a great deal of good", says Dame E. Ouellet, a well known resident of this place. "I was suffering from kidney trouble, headaches and indigestion. I am now in good health. Kindly publish my testimonial for the benefit of other sick women."

It is noticeable that people who have used Dodd's Kidney Pills are enthusiastic in recommending them to others. That is how Dodd's Kidney Pills have made and maintained their reputation.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a Kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys so they can do their full work of straining the impurities out of the blood.

Pure blood coursing through the body carries to the different organs the nourishment they need to keep them sound and healthy.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of my dear father, John A. Tyner, who departed this life April 27th, 1922. Gone but not forgotten.

Two years ago we laid him low
In a grave so dark and cold;
But I know that in Heaven he is waiting for us,
In a land where we never grow old.
But how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from sorrow and pain;
With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands,
To meet our dear father again.
—His lonely daughter,
Mrs. John Morrison.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear grandmother, Mrs. John Card, who passed away on April 24th, 1924.

Some day, some time, my eyes shall see,
The face I've kept in memory;
Some day thy hand shall clasp my hand,
Just over in the morning land.
—Granddaughter,
Beatrice Sager.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear boy, Pte. John Roy Sedore, killed in Action April 23rd, 1917.

Two years have passed since that sad day,
In perfect health he left his home,
Not knowing that his time had come;
A sudden change upon him fell,
Not time to bid his friends farewell.

Sister Freda.

MASONIC FUNERAL FOR LATE MARK HUFF

The funeral of the late Mark Huff was held on Saturday afternoon from the Union (Methodist) Church, the services being conducted by the Masonic Order, District Deputy Grand Master J. F. Semple, in the absence of the Master, Mr. R. McCammon, and Chaplain, Rev. R. M. Thompson, officiating, in the beautiful service of the order. There was a very large attendance of the brethren in a body, as well as large numbers of friends of the deceased, particularly older residents of the district, to pay their respects to the memory of one who had been associated with them for some forty-five years. The pall bearers were G. B. Reade, G. H. Raine, Geo. Bradley, A. H. Gillanders, F. C. Kickbush and Isaac Johnson.

Mr. Huff was born at Napanee, and came to British Columbia during the construction of the C. P. R., but before that road reached the coast, and was in his sixty-fifth year. After working for some time with local farmers he took up land on what is now the R. W. Prowse property at Sardis. Disposing of this he moved to the farm now occupied by Mr. Watson on the Cranksha road. Later he purchased a part of the Reeves farm east of the city, where he resided until six years ago when he retired and purchased the Chadsey home on Mary street. Mr. Huff had no relatives in the west and on the last member of the original family. He adhered to the Methodist Church, and was a life time member of the Masonic Order, in which he had attained to the degree of Shrine, being one of four resident in Chilliwack. Mr. Huff was a man who was particularly well liked by many friends both here and at the Coast who speak of him in the highest terms, and who greatly regret his passing. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Ina, Mrs. Stuart Brannick, of Anglin, Sask. Mrs. Huff is a sister of Ald. C. B. Reeves, Mrs. S. A. Cawley, Mrs. W. E. Reeves, Mrs. Mabel Edmindson, of Chilliwack.

The floral tributes from branches of the Masonic Order and friends were many and very beautiful. The Chilliwack Progress, April 15th, 1925.

Memorial Service.

The evening service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening last took the form of a memorial to the late Mr. Mark Wilson, of Buffalo, brother of the Rev. A. J. Wilson, whose death occurred on Thursday last. The Rev. Dr. McFayden preached on the text from the 7th chapter of Revelation and 13th verse. REV. T. F. DOWDELL DEAD IN BROCKVILLE.

Passed Away Following an Operation.—Was Rector of Elizabethtown Since November, 1923.

At the General Hospital, Brockville, shortly after midnight Monday morning there entered into rest the soul of the Rev. Thomas Falconer Dowdell, B.A., Rector of Elizabethtown. The reverend gentleman had not been sick very long entering the hospital last Tuesday, April 14th, and was operated on the next day suffering from an ulcerated stomach. His condition became very grave indeed, and after a brave fight the struggle ended, just after Sunday midnight, entering into that rest which remains for the people of God. His death is deeply lamented by all, including not only his own family but also his former parishioners and the Clergy of the Diocese. The Brockville Clergy attended to his every want administering the consolation and blessings of the Holy Communion and the Bishop also visited him Sunday, in the afternoon and again shortly before his death.

The Rev. Thomas Falconer Dowdell was an Englishman by birth, and early education. He came out to this country in his youth and afterwards entered Lennoxville University, graduating in Arts, ahd Theology in 1888. He was ordained on May 1st, 1898, in St. George's Cathedral by Archbishop Lewis, who appointed him to the mission of Shannonville. At Shannonville he married Miss Bertha Davidson, and leaves a son and two daughters to honor his memory with their mother. He was ordered priest by the Bishop of Ottawa, acting for Archbishop Lewis, on 25th January, 1899. June 1st, 1901, he was transferred to Selby doing excellent work. In 1908 he was appointed incumbant of Loughboro, where he experienced much hard work—the new C. N. R. railway track needed his old church at Sydenham, which he sold and used the money, with as much more which he collected or arranged for, to build the handsome church edifice in the village. This hard work wore him down somewhat and Bishop Bidwell, in 1915, appointed him to Merrickville and Burritt's Rapids. Here he inherited a heavy church debt which he nobly faced during the war period. He gradually reduced it while he did not neglect the never ending pastoral duties. In November, 1923, Bishop Bidwell appointed him to the important parish of Elizabethtown. Here, as elsewhere in his ministry, he won his parishioners by his individual care and love, encouraged by his devoted wife. He unostentatiously did his duty caring for the flock over which he had been appointed overseer. He was a faithful parish priest winning and keeping the esteem of his people. As a mark and appreciation of his sterling worth the clergy elected him as a member of the Executive Committee at the last Synod which greatly pleased him, and his mature advice was listened to when he attended the Committee in Kingston, last February. Now his sudden death is deeply regretted by all.

The funeral took place at Lyn Church, on Wednesday, at 1 p.m., and thence by train to Cataraqui for interment.

Potassium Iodide and its Significance in the Feeding of Live Stock

(Experimental Farms Note)

It has been well proven that potassium iodide is one of the most useful drugs in connection with the treatment of many animal diseases. As a preventive to several common ailments with different classes of stock, it has a peculiar significance.

1. For the prevention of hairless litters the following procedure may give good results where trouble of such nature is common or where it may be anticipated.—Dissolve 1 ounce potassium iodide in 1 gallon of water. In the feed of each pregnant sow mix one tablespoonful of this solution per day.

2. For the prevention of goitre in lambs in districts where this affection is prevalent, the drug has given wonderfully certain results. The following plan is suggested:—Spread 100 pounds of thoroughly dry salt evenly and in a thin layer on a clean floor. Dissolve 6 to 8 ounces of potassium iodide in warm water, using the minimum amount of water required to dissolve the drug. Sprinkle or spray this solution over the layer of salt which, if it is thoroughly dry, will take up the liquid; then mix thoroughly. Place this iodized salt before the ewes where they may have access to it during the winter months and up until lambing. Another plan not so practicable is to apply some 20 drops of tincture of iodine to the skin of the ewe every 2 weeks during pregnancy. The wool should be carefully parted so that the fluid may be certain to reach the skin and thus be absorbed and a different part of the body should be treated each time.

3. For pregnant mares potassium iodide apparently gives good results as a preventive to joint ill in foals and seemingly has an effect on foal weaknesses generally. Dissolve half a teaspoonful of potassium iodide in a small quantity of water and administer this in the drinking water weekly. Another plan is to use similarly one level teaspoonful of the former twice monthly, say on the first and fifteenth. The former method is probably the safer. This treatment should be applied during the winter months of pregnancy, beginning with say November. Good results may be anticipated.

4. For pregnant cows, potassium iodide is recommended and may be fed with the salt as per directions given for the feeding of this drug to ewes. While potassium iodide used in this way should not be considered as a preventive of abortion, results would indicate that it has a desirable effect on the system from the standpoint of normal calving later on. In cases where trouble is prevalent in the herd, the adoption of this treatment is to be recommended, although results might not be apparent for a year or two.

Where stockmen have experienced difficulty during this season particularly with hairless litters and goitred lambs, the use of potassium iodide should be kept in mind for another season.

G. B. ROTHWELL,
Dominion Animal Husbandman.

Two men sat on a pier fishing. One had a bite, and in the excitement fell into the water. The other man rescued his struggles, but did nothing to help him.

"I can't swim!" shouted the man in the water. He went under, and when he came up he shouted again: "I can't swim!"

The man on the pier watched him with languid interest.

The man in the water sank again. When he came up he gasped: "I can't swim!"

"Well, my friend," commented the man on the pier, "this is a queer time to be boasting about it!"

Sores Heal Quickly. — Have you a persistent sore that refuses to heal? Then, try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the dressing. It will stop sloughing, carry away the proud flesh, draw out the pus and prepare a clean way for the new skin. It is a recognized healer among old and numbers of people can certify that it healed where properly applied.

Mrs. Twiggs (after ten minutes' conversation)—Well, I must be getting along to the plumber's, Mrs. Brown, 'cos me 'usband's at 'ome with 'is thumb on a busted pipe, waiting till 'e comes.

For Sprains and Bruises.—There is nothing better for sprains and contusions than Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It will reduce the swelling that follows a sprain, will cool the inflamed flesh and draw the pain. It will take the ache out of a bruise by counteracting the inflammation. A trial will convince any who doubt its power.

Judge—Have you anything to say, prisoner, before sentence is passed upon you?

Prisoner—No, your lordship, except that it takes very little to please me.

An excellent protection against worms can be got in Miller's Worm Powders. They render the stomach and intestines untenable to them. They heal the surfaces that have become inflamed by the attacks of the parasites and serve to restore the strength of the child that has been undermined by the draughts that the worms have made upon it, and that their operation is altogether healthgiving.

The Lady—I'm very sorry to hear your wife is so ill, Tom. It's too bad. Is it dangerous, I hope?

Old Tom—Thanker, miss. But she be too weak now to be dangerous.

The Last Asthma Attack may be the last one if prompt measures are taken. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy will safeguard you. It will penetrate to the smallest bronchial passage and bring about a healthy condition. It always relieves and its continued use often has a permanent effect. Why not get this long famous remedy to-day and have done its use? Inhaled as smoke or vapor it is equally effective.

"Most people are not what they used to be."

"How's that? What used they to be?"

"Children."

A party of tourists found themselves compelled to stay at a Northern village over Sunday, and inquired what religious facilities were available. The guide said there was no church, but at the residence services for the different denominations were held. In the morning the Church of England held a service at nine o'clock, and the Roman Catholics at ten. The Presbyterians held a meeting at three and were followed by Wesleyans and Methodists. And what about my people? asked a Jew in the party. "Oh, that's all right, "replied the guide, "they hold the mortgage!"

Horses Provide Blood.

Two horses, "Charlie" and "Jim" have great snaps in the equine world. They belong to the United States Government and have helped in saving the lives of thousands of babies. They are supported by the taxpayers, do not work and live in idle luxury. Once every four months workers of the Public Health Service come with a needle and take away a small quantity of their blood. This is used to set the standard required for all diphtheria antitoxin made in the United States. The operation causes the horses no discomfort, and they do not seem to miss the blood. They never miss a meal or lose a chance to frolic in their pasture on the bank of the Potomac river. They have been giving their blood to save lives for six years.

Knew the Place.

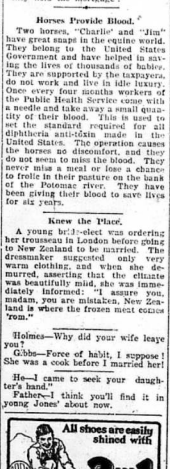
A young bride-elect was ordering her trousseau in London before going to New Zealand to be married. The dressmaker suggested only very warm clothing, and when she demurred, assuring her that the climate was beautifully mild, she was immediately informed: "I assure you, madam, you are mistaken. New Zealand is where the frozen meat comes from."

Holmes—Why did your wife leave you?

Gibbs—Force of habit, I suppose! She was a cook before I married her!

He—I came to seek your daughter's hand."

Father—I think you'll find it in young Jones' about now.



Treaty Will Be Hand-Written.

News dispatches from Paris say that the old tradition that treaties shall be written by hand survives, and that Joseph Carlo of the French ministry of foreign affairs, official epigraphist and painter, is writing the new peace treaty.

For about 40 years the post of official illuminator in the French ministry of foreign affairs was held by M. Garapin. He had one love in life—"the pen," to quote his own words, "this simple and marvelous instrument through which human thought is transcribed and forever preserved"; one hate—"the vulgar and unaesthetic typewriter, which prints without art pages that time will not respect."

The official calligraphist not only writes treaties and conventions, but also all the official documents conferring orders of decorations on sovereigns, and all the letters which are sent to them and signed either by the president of the republic or ministers.

Pretty Smart Chickens.

A recent morning a Missouri farmer placed three crates of chickens and five bushels of potatoes in his trailer, hitched the trailer to his automobile and started for town. He was almost there when he discovered he had no trailer. He found he had parted company with it a quarter of a mile from home, and when he got back to it the crates were empty and the potatoes frozen.

He presumed, of course, the chickens had been stolen, and was greatly surprised when he went to the henhouse early next day after breakfast to find every one of the chickens there. Not one was missing. They had all returned home, but how they got out of the crates probably will always remain a mystery.

Army Discipline.

The cistern had sprung a leak, and the master plumber and his demobilized men came to investigate, says a writer in London Evening News. The hole was found, and the master said to his mate: "Put a patch on here, Jim," indicating the place with his finger. The patch was put on, but the cistern still leaked, and the master found that the patch had been put on at the side of the hole. "I put it just where you pointed, guvnor," said Jim. "I've been two years in the army, and now I always do exactly as I am told."

Letters.

"Do you get any letters about the league of nations?"

"Letters?" exclaimed Senator Sorghum. "I'm keepin' the post office busier than the village queen on St. Valentine's day!"

"Women often ask me — says Mrs. Experience — how I get my table linen so immaculate"

"I take it as a real compliment, because most women do try to excel in their table linen.

"Of course, I tell them the way I've found easiest and best is with Sunlight — just rubbing the linen lightly with Sunlight, rolling it up and putting it to soak. After soaking, perhaps a light rubbing here and there may be called for, then just rinse, and the linen is spotlessly clean. Fine linens should be protected and never come into contact with anything but the purest soap.

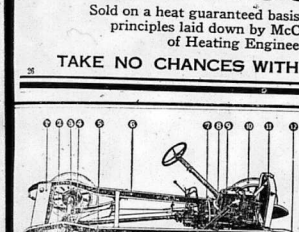
TAKE NO CHANCES WITH YOUR HOME



No other small car has so many big car features as the NEW Chevrolet

1. The Frame is Pressed Steel, rigidly braced by the inner of the steel channel type, and adds to its appearance.
2. Internal Brakes—eleven inches in diameter brake surface—are applied through strong rods and levers by the brake pedal and provide an easy way to regulate and control the car.
3. New steering control of semi-reversible type worm and gear construction with fore-and-aft linkage to front wheels.
4. The Chevrolet Motor—Refined—has unusual power at all speeds, under every driving condition—quick get-away in traffic—and fuel consumption. Practically all moving parts are completely enclosed.
5. New automatic brake equalizing device correctly distributes the load to the several brakes.
6. New semi-elliptic Rear Springs are strong for better road-holding.
7. The Frame is strong and rigid. It has five heavy cross members, one more than was previously used.
8. New Disc Clutch—completely enclosed. Four friction surfaces instead of two; it has no internal adjustments; it requires no lubrication. Simple yet delivers all the power to the rear axle without slippage.
9. New steering control of semi-reversible type worm and gear construction with fore-and-aft linkage to front wheels.
10. Cord tires on open models; 29-4.40 Low Pressure tires on closed models.
11. New, Remyconi Radiator. With a new, more beautiful nickelled radiator shell.
12. New, semi-elliptic front springs of chrome vanadium steel.

Automobile Accidents

Almost every newspaper you read has an account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed. In every case some person is responsible and must pay the damages. Many drivers say, "Oh, I am insured and I will never report an accident". It may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damages.

Why not insure? We can give you a policy which includes personal liability insurance for you in your own car and pays all damages to every large amount. No matter who is to blame, you are protected and the cost, for one month, is less than one dollar. Let us give you particulars.

COULD NOT SLEEP NIGHTS

Pains and Headaches Relieved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dublin, Ontario.—"I was weak and irregular, with pains and headaches, and could not sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by reading the letters in the newspapers and tried it because I wanted to get better. I have got good results from it as I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others."—Mrs. JAMES RACHO, Box 12, Dublin, Ontario.

Halifax Nurse Recommends

Halifax, N. S.—"I am a maternity nurse and have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women who were childless, also to women who need a good tonic. I am English and my husband is American, and he told me of Lydia E. Pinkham while in England. I would appreciate a copy or two of your little books on women's ailments. I have one which I keep to lend. I will willingly answer letters from any woman asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. S. E. COLEMAN, 24 Uniacke Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

The Brooder that Raises Dollars

Ask your county agent or agricultural college what part brooding plays in making poultry profits. And what part hatching plays, too.

They'll tell you they're the first steps toward success. And they'll very probably recommend Buckeye Incubators and Buckeye Coal-Burning or Oil-Burning Brooders. They'll tell you that they hatch more eggs, raise more chicks, insure bigger poultry profits for you.

Then ask us for the new Buckeye Catalog—a most complete and valuable book on poultry raising. Tells how to feed, cull, get more eggs in winter and market for high prices.

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 4

The Two Types of Tea

There are two distinct types of tea, namely Black Tea and Green Tea. Both are made from the same bush and both are equally pure. The difference is in the process of manufacture which gives each a different flavour. Black Tea after it is plucked is withered and partially 'fired' or dried, then allowed to oxidize by being exposed to the air. This gives Black Tea its dark reddish colour when drawn. Green tea is immediately steamed after plucking, which prevents oxidization. There are delicious blends of "SALADA" in both of these types and also a unique blend of Black and Green Tea Mixed. All are sold in four qualities.

Correction.

In the Yarker correspondence last week an item appeared that Van-Luvens had bought the Benjamin garage and had M. Foster employed to run it. This was a mistake as VanLuvens are in no way connected with it, and Mr. M. Foster is the owner and will conduct the business himself.

Swastika Club Dance.

The girls of the Swastika Club gave a very jolly dance in the Masonic Hall, on Monday evening, April 13th. The hall was gay with many softly shaded lights, balloons and Swastika emblems, the predominating tones being blue, grey and red, the Club colours. Most alluring music was furnished by the five piece Song Shop Orchestra. The novelty dances, the Swastika Dance and the Club Special added much to the merriment and entertainment of the two hundred guests. Refreshments were served by the Club members at twelve. Many out-of-town guests were present, and on the whole the dance was one of the gayest and most successful ever given in Napanee.

Piano Recital

A very pleasant evening was spent on Tuesday, April 21st, at the home of Miss Elizabeth Mellow, Enterprise, when the pupils of Miss Mellow held a recital, consisting of the following numbers: "Etude", Bertisi, Kathleen Wagar; "Leola Waltz", Krogmann, Mae Merriam; "Reading" selected, Marguerite Wagar; "Little Prince" Krogmann, Madeline Spratt; "Pink", Lickner, Mona Thompson; "Vocal Solo", selected, Lillie Wilson; "Merry Peasant", Schumann, Donald Jackson; "Sketch", selected, Miss Blair; "A Curious Story", Heller, Alfreda Clancy; "Snowdrop", Sartorio, Stanley Spratt; "Etude", Haberbier, Elizabeth Mellow; "Robin's Lullaby", Krogmann, Lillie Wilson; "The Mill", Jensen, Ronald Jackson; "Reading" selected, Mona Thompson; "Mill Wheel", Krogmann, Marguerite Wagar; "At Evening", Sartorio, Pauline Thompson; "Prelude C Minor", Rachmaninoff, Elizabeth Mellow.

SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR.

A very pleasant, unique and exceptionally successful Children's Bazaar was held at the home of Miss Leamy, on Wednesday of last week. The Bazaar was prepared and arranged by the Sunday School Class of St. Patrick's Church, at the suggestion and under the direction of Miss Josephine Leamy.

Since last December, dispensing with the usual Christmas Tree entertainment, the young people have been enthusiastically busy making articles and arranging in other ways, to have a fancy sale and profitable entertainment after Easter.

From the viewpoint of an entertainment and financially, the Bazaar surpassed all expectations.

The home of Miss Leamy was beautifully arranged, and the tables were well supplied with useful articles, and the walls decorated with well made dresses, aprons, candies and handsome drapes.

The Fish Pond and Wheel of Fortune created quite an interest and enjoyment for young and old. The afternoon was given over to the children, who greatly enjoyed the amusements, and particularly the refreshments, generously provided by families of the congregation.

In the evening the house was filled to capacity with older people and their outside friends, and after the articles were nearly all disposed of, progressive euchre, music and dancing occupied the remaining time.

Miss Leamy feels deeply grateful for the assistance so kindly given by the ladies of the congregation and others, whose kind help made possible the great success of the Children's Bazaar. The proceeds amounted to over seventy dollars.

GRANDMOTHERS' DAY

The Women's Institute held a special meeting in the Town Hall, on Tuesday afternoon, from three to six o'clock. It was not merely for the members, but the public were made cordially welcome, a silver collection being taken at the door. This was "Grandmothers' Day", and one had but to look at the quaint costumes, the tables of wonderful relics and the stage setting to feel transported fifty years. The program was as follows:

President's Address—Mrs. Alpine Woods.

Duett—"Silver Threads Among the Gold"—Mrs. Askelstine and Miss Shorey.

Paper on Current Events of Fifty Years Ago—Mrs. Wagar.

Solo, "Grandfather's Clock"—Mrs. Seymour.

Reading, "My Old Scotch Grannie" —Mrs. Laughland.

Duett, "Old Black Joe"—Mrs. Creighton and Mrs. Shannon.

Piano Solo, "Medley of Old Airs"—Mrs. Joyner.

Duett, "Sweet Bella Malone" and "Darling Nellie Gray"—Mrs. Burritt and Mrs. Herrington.

Sketch, "A Eulogy of Grandmothers"—Mrs. MacGregor.

Dance, "Irish Jig"—Miss Nina McKim.

Solo, "When You and I Were Young, Maggie"—Miss Dwyer.

Chorus, "Auld Lang Syne"—By the ladies in costume.

Tea was served during the afternoon much as our grandmothers would have done it, with gingerbread, Johnny cake, large cookies with currants, and big doughnuts, and it is to be honed our forbears enjoyed such good things as much as the audience on this occasion.

"THE STORY OF JOB"

Under the auspices of the Pastor's Class of Grace Sunday School, and before a highly appreciative audience the "Story of Job" in drama, was presented in the auditorium of the church, on Wednesday night. The cast of characters was as follows:

The Prologue—Mr. J. L. Murray.
Reader—Mr. O. S. Beddick.
Contending Spirits—A. E. Paul and A. Miller.
Job—H. C. Garrett.
Job's Wife—Ward Sexsmith.
Elephaz—C. N. Loucks.
Bildad—Russell Dennis.
Zophar—Harold Thompson.
Elihu—Grant Paul.
Messengers, Friends, Brothers, Sisters, Musicians—Messrs. C. Allcombrack, F. B. Elliott, H. Holder, Ray Huffman, W. Judson, Geo. Oblman, Harry Putman, Fred Smith, E. Wilson, and Jas. VanKoughnet.

Special costumes had been secured, and the several scenes presented a most picturesque effect.

It would be hard to choose any outstanding member of the class, as each character was portrayed in a most creditable manner.

The young men of the class are to be congratulated on the excellent portrayal of this wonderful Biblical story, and although the attendance was fairly good, it was deserving of a capacity audience.

At the conclusion of the drama the audience demonstrated its appreciation by a hearty hand clap.

WEDDING BELLS.

Houle—McNeill.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, in St. Vincent de Paul Church, Desoronto, occurred a very interesting and happy event, when Miss Loretto Houle, the beautiful and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Houle, Brant Street, became the bride of Mr. Harry McNeill. Mr. McNeill is the son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Richard McNeill, Napanee. Miss McNeill, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, and Hubert Houle, brother, attended the groom.

Following the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Rev. Father Mahar, the happy couple, together with their attendants, repaired to the home of the bride, where the wedding breakfast was served and a reception tendered, which lasted till eleven o'clock, at that time the usual ceremonies were performed by the many friends of the couple in confetti showering, rice, old boots, etc., before their departure on the train for Toronto and Hamilton, where the honeymoon is to be spent. After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. McNeill will make their home in Belleville, where Mr. McNeill is employed in the freight department of the C. N. R.

WOMAN'S INSTITUTE

The regular meeting of the Conway Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Hoselton, on Tuesday, April 14th. Mrs. Sprague occupied the chair, and a goodly number were in attendance. After the opening exercises it was moved by Mrs. Harry Phippen, seconded by Mrs. Haight, that Miss Sloan and Mrs. Gurren accompany the President and Secretary to the District Meeting at Napanee, as representatives, on April 23rd. Mrs. Gurren and Miss Sloan were appointed a committee to purchase material for aprons and $20.00 was laid aside for same.

Misses Eleanor Ham, Grace Moon and Hattie Rawlinson were appointed as lunch committee for the June meeting. The Book committee, Mrs. Harry Phippen, handed in her report, also the new library books. The committee gave a report concerning the School Fair prizes. Mrs. John Young read the current events concerning one of the late authors, Jane Austen-Porter, which was very interesting.

Mrs. D. Brown donated $1.00 to the Institute for institute work. The piano selections by Miss Sloan were much appreciated.

The meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem, after which the hostess served a dainty lunch.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Spearing.

WE'VE GOT OUR HEAT FOLKS IN THE BIN WE'RE SET FOR WINTERTIME

NATURE teaches that in the time of plenty we should lay in a store for the lean months. The thrifty housewife "puts up" fruit and berries in the Summer when they are cheap so as to have regal fare for Winter months. In the Fall, you save by laying in potatoes and apples for coming months, discounting the certain rise in price. In APRIL, lay in your Winter's supply of coal. Coal is always cheapest in April. "Well, do you swear that it doesn't resemble your handwriting?" "I do, indeed." "What?" thundered the bullying counsel. "You take your oath that that writing doesn't resemble yours in a single letter?" "Yes", persisted Giles, somewhat nervously. "How do you know it doesn't?" asked the lawyer, with a cunning smile.

"Well", replied Giles, with a smile, "I expect it is because I can't write."

PROF. EARLE AT THE HISTORICAL

The final meeting of the Historical Society for the present season was held on Friday last at the Historical Rooms, with the President in the chair. The speaker of the evening was Prof. R. O. Earle, of the Department of Biology at Queen's University. His subject was "The Trend of the Human Race". With many charts and photographic slides, the lecturer indicated the development of life, from the first section of all. He showed that all life depends finally on the amount of food which the land can produce and with the present rate of developement, unless some other source of food supply was available it was his contention that a time must come when there could be no further development of the human race. The lecturer did not attempt to solve the problem he presented. But the problems themselves were shown in such a vivid, convincing and scientific manner that they left the audience wondering as to where the race was finally heading.

The Historical Society in finishing the present series of public meetings feels that it has served the community with a diversified intellectual diet and records with pleasure the sustained interest in these great problems which the attendance at these meetings has indicated.

The Provincial Government has seen fit to withdraw the grant which has enabled the Society in the past to publish a paper each year. So this could not be done for the present season. Before a new season starts new methods of financing will have to be devised.

OBITUARY

John Aylesworth Bell.

On Sunday morning, April 19th, 1925, Merven was called upon to mourn the death of another of its native-born citizens, in the person of the late John Aylesworth Bell, aged seventy years, son of the late Wm. E. and Mary Bell. His death took place at his home where he has lived since his marriage with Miss Sarah Rose, 56 years ago. Those well versed in sketch was early converted, and has since been a very active member of Bethel Church. For many years he held religious services be loved to attend. Being extremely fond of children, he made an excellent Sabbath School Superintendent, and presided in such capacity for fifteen years. The late Mr. Bell has acted on all the various boards of his township, and was a class leader at the time of his death. Having a splendid memory, there were few who knew or could remember the Bible better than he. Always thinking of his work as the Master's work, and not seeking personal honor is going to make his place hard to fill. His splendid wife will long be remembered, not on account of his personal worth, but on account of her absolute faith and confidence in an All Wise God.

About three months ago the dread disease gangrene developed in his feet and limbs, and so intense was his suffering that it was found necessary to keep him under morphine until the end. There are left to mourn his loss, his widow, an adopted son, W. S. Wood, Amherstburgh; the family of his adopted daughter, the late Mrs. A. A. Miller, Millhaven; two sisters and three brothers.

The funeral service was held in the White Church, and was in charge of his Pastor, Rev. W. R. Merrick, who used as his text the very appropriate words found in Romans 8 : 18. After the service the remains were placed in the family plot by the side of his only child, William John, who died in infancy. Following his burial, there was held to rest his wife's mother, the late S. P. Bell, and his brother-in-law, the late John S. Fralick.

Stronger Beer Sale May Begin May 15th

This is Date Upon Which New Beverage Taxes Come Into Effect. — System of Permits—Location and Equipment of Establishments Must Be Suitable.

The regulations to govern the sale of 4.4 per cent. beer have arrived at the stage of being embodied in skeleton form and rapid progress with them is now expected to be made by the Government. While the date of the new beverage's inaugural is still a matter of uncertainty, it is confidently expected by the Queen's Park authorities that it will be prior to the 24th of May. Speculation is now inclined to fix upon May 15th, the date upon which the Government's new beverage taxes become operative.

In discussing the regulations in general fashion yesterday, Premier Ferguson stated that there would be nothing sensational in their nature, but that they would be as indicated in the debates in the House. There would, he said, be three features to them. Primarily, control would be reserved to the Government of the sale of the beverage by a permit system. Secondly, permits would be given only to those persons who had proper establishments in which to serve the beer. And, thirdly, personal control only be given in those localities in which there was a service to be rendered. Indiscriminate serving of the beer or wholesale issuing of licenses is not to be sanctioned by the Government.

The Premier stated yesterday that by the term, "suitable establishments", would be understood well conducted standard hotels and restaurants. The Government did not intend, he said, that a person could secure a license simply by putting in a small stock of candy or light lunch ingredients, thereby constituting his place into a restaurant.

SALVATION ARMY

WHAT THEY SAY

Canada—Lord Byng, Governor-General :—

"Anything The Salvation Army does interests me. It is always impressed on my mind how widespread is its service. It puts humanity into its religion as well as into its work."

Australia—Lord Forster, Governor-General :—

"Who could withhold admiration from the men and women who devote their whole lives to the Salvation of the body and spirit of their fellowmen?"

New Zealand—Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General :—

"I notice each year the good work done by The Salvation Army. One has only to look at the children to see the great work that is being done for the younger generation. It also carries out its work amongst those of a riper age; indeed I do not know where its work finishes; I think it is in Heaven."

France—"La Grande Revue de Paris"

"As long as there are poor people in this world—whatever changes take place as a result of the inevitable evolution—we will find The Salvation Army will succour and relieve them."

Japan—Hon. San Fujii :—

"The Salvation Army is known all over the world as "The Friend of the Friendless", the helping hand to all the world's poor. At Tokio, in London, New York, or in the Islands of the Sea, The Salvation Army greets all nations as one."

United States—Royal S. Copeland, New York :—

"In my judgement the citizens of this great city can do no finer thing for the citizenship of our great land, and no finer thing for ourselves —than to help The Salvation Army by giving it the means it needs to go out and make its work fifty times as great, because you will have a better City, a better State, and a better Country."

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE.

Mr. Albert Hughes, W.P.,
John W. Bell, R.B.P., No. 723;
Centreville, Ont.

Dear Sir Knight Hughes,—

We, the Sir Knights and Officers of the Royal Black Preceptory, No. 725, desire to express to you our deep and sincere sympathy in the loss you have sustained in the death of your beloved mother.

We feel assured that it is a great comfort to you to remember that in the good providence of God, it was given to her to have the years of a long life, which she gladly used for the welfare and happiness of her family and others, and while in those years there came to her bereavement and care, yet she was able by God's grace so to keep a cheerful and patient spirit, that not only her family, but also many others, will remember with thankfulness the many ways in which she made life brighter for those whose lives were influenced by hers.

It will also be a memory that you will cherish, that the closing days of her life were spent in your home. And as you think of her now, as having gone over that border line that separates our earthly life from the great Home-land, where our Heavenly Father welcomes His children to their eternal rest, we pray that the comfort of our Christian faith in that life beyond the grave, may console you in your loss, until at last you come with the family circle all complete again, where God's people meet in the Eternal morning and go out no more forever.

Signed on behalf of the Preceptory.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of our dear son, Bert Moon, whom God called from us May 2nd, 1924.
The one we loved the best is now at rest.
His true fond heart is still;
The hands that would have helped us best
Now lie in death's cold chill.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, dear, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear Bert,
That we do not think of you.
When the evening shades are falling,
And we are setting all alone,
To our hearts there comes a longing
If dear Bert only could come home.
Oft and oft our hearts do wander,
To a grave not far away;
Where we laid our darling Bert
Just one years ago to-day.
Sadly missed by Mother, Father, Brothers and Sisters.

—Mrs. Robt. Moon,
Deseronto, Ont.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Irvine Allison, who died April 30th, 1924.
No one heard the footsteps of the angels drawing near,
Who took from earth to heaven, my mother I loved so dear;
The pearly gates were opened, a gentle voice said "come",
And with farewells unspoken, she calmly entered home.

—Daughter Winnie,
Mrs. A. S. Raymond.

AIR LANE PATROLS

Britain Already Looking Into the Future.

Necessity of Having Force to Guard Country's Merchant Ships in the Clouds Against Sudden Attack Is Pointed Out.

The Dutch paper Telegraaf reported that on November 15 airplanes dropped bombs on the castle at Swalmen, where the ex-crown prince of Germany is staying.

No suggestion is made as to the nationality of the airplanes, except by the parenthetical remark that Swalmen is only three miles from the German frontier. The report does not mention any casualties, nor does it say how the ex-prince here himself under fire, though it would have been interesting to have known, since, according to popular report, he has had no previous experience during the war of being under fire, having left all that to the German "enemon fodder," which he so recklessly and cynically sacrificed.

The report is vague in the extreme, but whether or not true, it suggests various exciting possibilities in the future. Piracy and smuggling by airplane are possibilities not to be overlooked. Of course, while all Europe is still armed, and the German army resembles a pack of wolves without a pack leader, nothing could be easier than for some German airmen who disapprove of the ex-crown prince's conduct in general and are resolved that no counter-revolution shall ever make him emperor, to paint out the national marks on their machines, fly high above the clouds into Holland, dive upon his residence and release their bombs. In any force still retaining its discipline and the discipline of active service at this such action would be wildly impossible.

In times of peace such raids would be less easy. All airdromes and their airplanes will of course be registered; the movements of aircraft will be even more strictly under observation than those of seagoing ships, for the simple reason that their periods of absence from terra firma are necessarily much briefer.

Moreover, air pirates could never stop a commercial airplane and call on it to "stand and deliver." They could never get away with booty, and therefore their operations could only be destructive and not profitable.

But one must not overlook the possibility that a power as evil disposed and reckless as Germany was in 1914 might suddenly begin a systematic attack on all the aircraft of a rival. The experiences of the past warn us to be cautious in the future.

It will be the task of the royal air force to guard the air merchantmen of Britain. For years their work may be as bloodless as was the work of the navy from Navarino to 1914, but the navy was needed at last, and it would be very rash to declare that the royal air force will never again send a foe down in flames.

We must remain prepared on land, on the sea and, last but not least, in the air.—London Mail.

Wife—It's really time our daughter was thinking of getting married, Jonh."

"The last speaker," said the chairman of the Health Congress, "is a striking example of the efficacy of the doctrines he so eloquently advocates. Hale and hearty at 80 years of age, he could tire out many a man younger than himself."

A voice from the audience : "He did."

OUT OF THE NIGHT

An ancient proverb says, "To the blind it is always night". There are many people to-day who live in a partial and ever deepening night.

The attendance of members was extremely large, there being fully 25 present. After a short time spent in social intercourse the balance of the evening was devoted to music, impromptu speeches, games, guessing contests, etc., after which light refreshments were served. Before leaving for their respective homes the members unanimously tendered the hostess a hearty vote of appreciation for the delightful time and for the use of her home.

—The members of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, together with the Encampment and Queen of Sheba Rebekah Lodge, attended divine service in Grace Methodist Church on Sunday morning. There was an exceptionally large turnout, and a very fine sermon was preached by Rev. A. J. Terrill. In addition to the usual musical programme rendered by the Choir, two additional numbers were given. A mixed quartette composed of Sister Vaulkman, Sister Seymour, Bro. Baughan and Bro. Black, members of the Rebekah Lodge, rendered a beautiful selection entitled "Come Unto Me". The duet by two Oddfellows, Bro. F. Lasalle and Bro. B. Seymour, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee", was rendered in a most creditable manner and was much appreciated by the large audience.

Internal and External Pains are promptly relieved by DR. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL

THAT IT HAS BEEN FOR NEARLY FIFTY YEARS AND IS TO-DAY A GREATER FAVORITE THAN EVER BEFORE IS A TESTIMONIAL THAT SPEAKS FOR ITS NUMEROUS CURATIVE QUALITIES.

"Oh, fairly well. But I wish I had bought a horse. She's always stopping to look at herself in the puddles."

Yalked Navy Slang.

"Now, this striper takes me up in the eyes and shows me a little gadget, where all you had to do was press a doohickey, turn over a gimick, and bloosey—it would sink every tin fish within a mile." So said the tanned and wind-burned young sailor of the U. S. S. Florida. Everyone on the subway platform turned to look at him. What he was talking sounded like English, but it wasn't the English spoken in New York. In the latest form of navy slang the sailor was telling how an ensign had shown him how to work a depth bomb down at Guantanamo bay, Cuba. A "striper" is an ensign, and the "eyes" the front of the ship. "Gadget" and "gimick" are words that fit any contrivance the sailor doesn't know the name of, and "tin fish" is the latest word for submarine.—New York Sun.

Fish With a Long Name.

The sciplopuntidecis is here. But how it ever reached this section of the country is a mystery to fishbiologists. The sciplopuntidecis hasn't anything to do with the jazz, neither is it good to rub on your head or eat. It is nothing more or less than a poor fish. But it is here and how it ever migrated to these waters is what is puzzling the followers of Izaak Walton. It was caught here the other day 8,000 miles away from its sporting grounds. The new immigrant's name is not found in ordinary dictionaries. He has a head like a wolffish, a tapering tail, ground along his sides. This was 20 inches long. Anglers are agreed that the sciplopuntidecis must have accompanied a Brazilian schooner which passed this way last summer.—New York Times.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Wife—How do you like my Easter gown?

Husband—Let me see the bill for it.

One of the commonest complaints of infants is wiufms, and the most effective application for them is Mother Graves' Exterminator.

Hub—My dear, how can you spend money so when you know I'm on the verge of bankruptcy?

Wife—Well, Bob, if you must go into bankruptcy, why not do it on a generous scale?

Corns are caused by the pressure of tight boots, but no one need be troubled with them long when so simple a remedy as Holloway's Corn Remover is available.

"Well, Bobby," said his aunt, "did you sleep with the wedding cake under your pillow and dream of your future wife?"

"No, auntie," he replied, "I ate it, 'cos I want my wife to be a surprise."

For Burns and Scalds. — Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will take the fire out of a burn or scald. It should be at hand in every kitchen so that it may be available at any time. There is no preparation required. Just apply the oil to the burn or scald and the pain will abate and in a short time cease altogether.

Prison Visitor—"Am I right in presuming it was your passion for strong drink that brought you here?"

Prisoner—"I don't think you can know this place, guv'nor. It's the last place on earth I'd come to if I was looking for a drink."

For Frost Bites and Chilblains. — Chilblains come from undue exposure to slush and cold and frost-bite from the icy winds of winter. In the treatment of either an excellent preparation is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, as it counteracts the inflammation and relieves the pain. The action of the oil is prompt and its application is extremely simple.

She (tearfully)Jack, our engagement is at an end, and I wish to return to you everything that you have ever given me.

He—Very well. You may begin with the kisses.

"And you're sure you realize the difference between driving an automobile and driving an ordinary car?"

Applicant — "Sure. When y're drivin an ambulance y' gotts go back an' pick 'em up."

No More Asthma. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy sounds the death knell of this trying trouble. It stops the awful choking and painful breathing. It guards against night attacks and gives renewed ability to sleep and rest the whole night long. Much is claimed for this remedy, but nothing but what can be demonstrated by a trial. If you suffer from asthma try it and convince yourself of its great value.

"Helen's rich uncle gave her $20,000 for a wedding present."

"That was nice."

"And the card he sent with the cheque read: 'With a best wish for the marriage yolk is not so easily broken.'"

A little girl had been on a visit to her auntie. When it was time for her to be going home her auntie said:—

"Well, good-bye, Mary; you must come again soon. We should like to see more of you."

Mary—"But, auntie, there isn't any more of me."

Miller's Worm Powders will clear the stomach and bowels of worms, so that the child will no more be troubled by their ravages. The powders are sweet to the taste and no child will object to taking them. They are non-injurious in their composition, and while in some cases they may cause vomiting, that must not be taken as a sign that they are nauseating, but as an indication of their effective work.

A dinner was given at which a well known actor sat at the guest table. When the hour for starting the feast arrived the toastmaster discovered that no minister was present, though several had been invited. In this emergency he turned to the actor, and asked him to say grace.

The actor rose, bowed his head, and in the midst of a deep hush said fervently: "There being no clergyman present, let us thank Heaven!"

The popularity of Madame Tussaud's is well illustrated by a story which Sir Henry Irving told with great gusto against himself. He employed the same cabman to take him to the theatre each evening. One day "cabby" told him he had never seen him act, and the actor gave him five shillings wherewith to get pit seats for his wife and himself. Next day Irving asked his John what he thought of him on the stage. "Well, didn't go. Seeing as it was my missus's birthday, I sent her which she'd rather see—you or Madame Tussaud's, and she said she'd rather see the waxworks."

Concessions in Russia.

The terms under which concessions are granted by the Soviet Government have not so far tempted the introduction on a large scale of foreign capital into Russia. The principle underlying the grant of these concessions seems to be to confine the activities of foreign groups to the more outlying parts of Russia.

The general basis of all concessions is the leasing of properties for a percentage of the gross output or turnover. A certain amount of capital is usually required to be invested in the concessions. Upon the expiration of the concession the property reverts to the state. The concessionaire is free to dispose of the products of the concession as he wishes, but in some cases the Government retains the right to purchase part of the output at prices mutually agreed upon. Russian labor legislation, social insurance and minimum wage schedules are binding on the concessionaire.

Upon the taking out of a concession a collective agreement has to be concluded with the trade union concerned to govern the conditions under which labor is to be employed on the concession. Concessions often take the form of mixed companies in which a state trust or Government department combines with a foreign group to form a company to operate a concession.

The foreign group supplies all or part of the capital, but the Russian institution retains a 50 per cent. interest in the company and the casting vote is with the chairman, who must be a Russian.—The Statist, London.

Why He Waited.

Bobby asked for a cent's worth of candy, and the proprietress, recognizing him as a neighbor's child, served him, and then handed his penny back. This was repeated for several mornings, the little fellow receiving both candy and penny. At last the proprietress thought it was getting a bit strong, so one morning she kept the penny. The little chap lingered around, and when asked why he waited, he replied: "I want my change."

The Brooder that Raises Dollars

Ask your county agent or agricultural college what part brooding plays in making poultry profits. And what part hatching plays, too.

They'll tell you they're the first steps toward success. And they'll very probably recommend Buckeye Incubators and Buckeye Coal-Burning or Oil-Burning Brooders. They'll tell you that they hatch more eggs, raise more chicks, insure bigger poultry profits for you.

Then ask us for the new Buckeye Catalog—a most complete and valuable book on poultry raising. Tells how to feed, cull, get more eggs in winter and market for high prices.

"It's easy to keep enamel glistening white this way"

—says Mrs. Experience who has long ago made her choice in soap

"My! Sunlight really is wonderful for cleaning these bathroom fixtures. It makes them spotless and shining in almost no time.

"The secret, of course, is the pure, cleansing lather of Sunlight. Sunlight simply dissolves dirt and grease so that they just rinse away.

"I wash the linoleum and paint-work with Sunlight, too, because it's less work the Sunlight way.

"After all, you can't beat a pure, honest soap for economical cleaning, so give me Sunlight — and nothing else — every time. I always use it for the dishes because Sunlight is so easy on the hands. It is made by the largest soap-makers in the world, Lever Brothers Limited."

THERE is only one McCLARY'S Tor-Red (Protected) Element and it does each and every one of these things:

Heats Quickly—By building up and multiplying the heat, instead of dissipating it into the air.

Retains Heat—The Tor-Red (Protected) Element retains heat and once heated will cook on "low" or "off" with stored heat.

Toasts Perfectly—Without risk of short circuit by crumbs getting into, or toaster coming in contact with the wiring.

Cooks After Current Turned Off—The stored heat in Tor-Red (Protected) Elements keeps them at cooking heat long after the current is turned off.

Saves Current—Because of the stored heat.

Reduces Repairs—Because nothing can get into the Elements by pots boiling over or dust or crumbs dropping on to the wiring.

Lasts Longer—Being protected, McClary's Tor-Red Elements need no cleaning or brushing, avoiding burnouts.

Ask your Hydro or electrical dealer to fully demonstrate for you the special features of

McClary's Electric Range

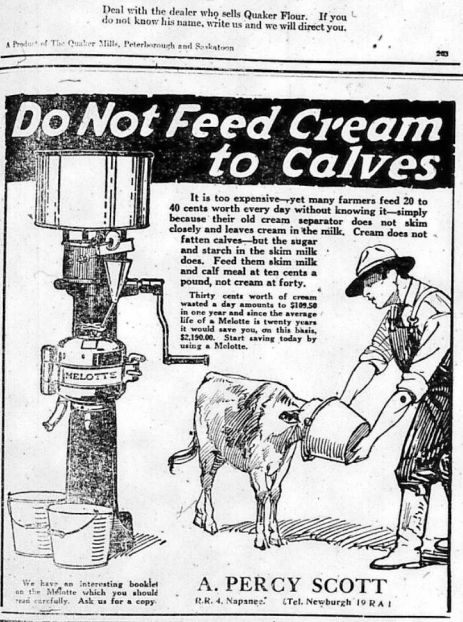
Do Not Feed Cream to Calves

It is too expensive—yet many farmers feed 20 to 40 cents worth every day without knowing it—simply because their old cream separator does not skim closely and leaves cream in the milk. Cream does not fatten calves—but the sugar and starch in the skim milk does. Feed them skim milk and calf meal at ten cents a pound, not cream at forty.

Thirty cents worth of cream wasted a day amounts to $109.50 in one year and since the average life of a Melotte is twenty years it would save you, on this basis, $2,190.00. Start saving today by using a Melotte.



We have an interesting booklet on the Melotte which you should read carefully. Ask us for a copy.

APPLES OF GOOD QUALITY FOR THE HOME GARDEN

(Experimental Farms Note)

A good home fruit garden is a great asset to any family. It provides an abundance of appetizing and healthful food, and often prevents children from yielding to temptation and "trooking" apples from the neighbours. For the home garden the varieties planted should cover the season well, and be of good to very good quality, if such trees are available.

Early Summer.—Two of the hardiest and best early summer apples are Tolofsky and Yellow Transparent. Telofsky is the better in quality for eating, but is rather small and bears only every other year. The Yellow Transparent is the best "for the home garden. Crimson Beauty, a highly coloured variety and hardy, is very early but is inferior in quality.

Summer.—The principal summer apple for commerce is the Duchess of Oldenburgh, and this is a very reliable sort for home use as well, but the quality is not good enough for a dessert apple. For the home garden the Melba, originated at the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, will, it is believed, soon take the place of the Duchess. The Lowland Raspberry is a Russian variety of good quality. In some parts of the Maritime Provinces Williams Favorite does well, and it is good in quality.

Autumn.—The Wealthy is the outstanding autumn variety for the home garden, as it comes into bearing early, the trees bear heavily and the fruit is good both for eating and cooking.

Early Winter.—The Fameuse and McIntosh are the two most desirable varieties for home use of this season, and if only one is planted it should be the McIntosh. Where it will succeed, the Cox Orange Pippin is an excellent sort for home use, but this is not suitable for the colder sections. Grimes Golden is also a good one.

Winter.—Where it will succeed, some of the best winter apples for the home garden are Tompkins King, Northern Spy, and Delicious, but the last variety, on account of its mild flavour, is not very suitable for cooking. For the colder sections there are no good hardy late keeping apples to compare in quality with the above, but Bethel, Scott Winter and Golden Russet will keep well and are among the hardiest.

GROWING "GREEN DUCKS".

(Experimental Farms Note)

Ducklings should remain in the incubator about thirty-six hours after hatching to allow them to harden off, and then be removed to the brooder and fed. The temperature of the brooder should be about 95 degrees F for the first week and then gradually lowered. For the first feed use bread crumbs moistened with water. Squeeze the water out of the bread, moulder it up fine, and feed it on a flat board. Sprinkle fine sand and chick size oyster shell over the bread before feeding. This serves as grit for the baby ducklings. Provide fresh water at each feeding in a self-feeding fountain. Feed the ducklings four times daily for the first few days. Care should be taken not to over-feed for the first three or four days, but there is little danger from overfeeding after that time.

About the fourth day start feeding some mash mixed with the bread crumbs and gradually eliminate the bread during the next few days. The mash should consist of equal parts bran, middlings, and cornmeal to which has been added about five per cent beef scraps and five per cent ground charcoal. Feed the birds five times daily from the fourth day. After the first week green feed should be added. Finely chopped clover makes excellent green food, but any finely chopped green forage could be used. About the eighteenth day the green food should make up about one third of the entire ration. Experimental work at Ottawa would indicate that a large amount of green food is not necessary for the growing of market ducks. We believe, however, that when birds intended for future breeders are being reared with the market ducks, a liberal supply of green food in the growing ration is essential.

When the ducklings are three weeks old the amount of beef scraps should be increased to ten per cent. Fine sand should always be sprinkled over the mash before feeding. Never make the mash sticky or sloppy, but just moist enough to hold together nicely. Continue to feed the birds in this way until they are six weeks old. About this time the cornmeal in the ration should be gradually increased until it makes up half of the ration. Fattening should commence about the sixth week and the birds should be ready for market at about nine to ten weeks of age. When fattening commences the amount of green feed should be gradually reduced.

Make sure that clean drinking water is regularly supplied and that the ducklings are supplied with ample shade if the weather is extremely hot.

"Green ducks" should be dressed for market just as soon as they have completed their first coat of feathers.

Dear Sir Knight Doupe,—

We, the Sir Knights and Officers of the Royal Black Preceptory, No. 725, desire to express to you our deep and sincere sympathy in the loss you have sustained in the death of your sister.

You will always miss her, as another link taken from the family chain, but as days go by and you feel a sadness in your heart, we trust you will be content to say, "Dear Lord, Thy will be done", and may you find comfort and peace in the thought that though you are now separated for a time, we will all meet again in our Father's Heavenly Home, never more to part.

His System Was Absolutely Cleared

So Says Ontario Youth After Taking Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mr. Edward Dupuis Suffered From Kidney Ailments And Found Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Auld, Ontario, April 27th (Special) —"I took one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and it did me so much good that I got a second box and it absolutely cleared my system.

I suffered from rheumatism and back aches. I often had stiffness in my joints and was always tired and nervous. My head also used to ache. I am never bothered now."

This statement comes from Mr. E. Dupuis of this place.

Mr. Dupuis suffered from three of the various ills that accompany any kidney trouble. That's why he got prompt and permanent relief from Dodd's Kidney Pills. They act directly on the kidneys, strengthening them and enabling them to do their full work of straining all the impurities out of the blood. Impurities in the blood are the seeds of disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills make good blood by removing the seeds of disease. Sound kidneys mean pure blood. Pure blood means good health.

PAINS IN LEFT SIDE AND BACK

Other Troubles Women Often Have Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lachine, Quebec.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my left side and back, and with weakness and other troubles women so often have. I was this way about six months. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the 'Montreal Standard' and I have taken four bottles of it. I was a very sick woman and I feel so much better I would not be without it. I also use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and recommend the medicines to my friends and I am willing for you to use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. M. W. Ross, 180 Notre Dame Street, Lachine, Quebec.

Doctor Said an Operation

Provost, Alberta.—"Perhaps you will remember sending me one of your books a year ago. I was in a bad condition and would suffer awful pains at times and could not do anything. The doctor said I could not have children unless I went under an operation. I read testimonials of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and a friend recommended me to take it. After taking three bottles I became much better and now have a bonny baby girl four months old. I do my housework and help a little with the chores. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and am willing for you to use this testimonial letter."—Mrs. A. A. Adams, Box 54, Provost, Alberta. C

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 5

What 'Orange Pekoe' Means

Many buyers of tea have come to ask for 'Orange Pekoe' believing that it signifies fine quality. This is not, however, necessarily the case. In the trade 'Orange Pekoe' is only a name given to the first leaf below the bud or tip on any Indian or Ceylon tea bush. An 'Orange Pekoe' leaf grown at a high elevation usually possesses a very fine flavour. If, however, the plant is grown at a low elevation, it may still be 'Orange Pekoe' but also be of very poor quality. The consumer's only safeguard is to buy a tea of recognized goodness. High grown 'Orange Pekoes' comprise a large part of every blend of "SALADA" and give to "SALADA" its unequalled flavour.

WEDDING BELLS.

Allison—Bradley.

A very pretty and interesting wedding took place on Saturday morning, April 25th, 1925, at 6 o'clock p.m., at the residence of Mrs. Charles W. Bradley, 31 Wesley Avenue, Newton, Mass., when Miss Helena Muriel Prentice Allison, of Calgary, Alberta, was married to Mr. George Calhoun Bradley, of Somerset, Marysville, Ontario.

The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Newton A. Merritt, Pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, Newton, Mass. The only attendant was Miss Betty Lloyd, as flower girl, who preceded the bridal couple to the altar, strewing roses on their pathway, amidst the strains of Mendengrins wedding march. The bride was given away by Alderman Henry Dunlap Lloyd, of Newton, brother-in-law of the groom.

Among those present were Mrs. C. W. Bradley, mother of the groom; Mrs. George Townshend Douglas, of Amherst, N.S.; Mrs. George M. Wells, of Upper Montclair, New Jersey; Mrs. Henry D. Lloyd, of Newton, Mass.; Miss Helen L. Bradley, of Newton, sisters of the groom, and Miss Jean C. Douglas, of Amherst, N.S., a niece.

The bride was very charming, her gown being of blonde georgette crepe and lace. She carried pink roses and maiden hair fern. The house decorations were palms, ferns and carnations, vases of daffodils and snapdragons. The ceremony was performed beneath an archway of white carnations and smilax. Miss Allison has been a very successful young business woman in Montreal and Toronto, previous to her marriage being Credit Manager of the Continental Guaranty Corporation of Montreal. She is the daughter of Mrs. Jonathan Greely Allison, of Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Mr. Bradley is a son of the late Dr. Charles W. Bradley and Mrs. Bradley, of Newton, Mass.

The happy couple left on the New York express at midnight, on a wedding trip, which will include New York, New Jersey, Atlantic City and Washington, and will return via Toronto, to Somerset, Marysville, Ont.

GOLDEN WEDDING

A pleasant event was celebrated at Read, Ont., on Monday, April 27th, 1925, when Mr. and Mrs. Michael Corrigan celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

Fifty years ago this aged couple were united in marriage by the late Rev. George Brophy, and have since resided on their farm at Read.

To this union eleven children were born; seven sons and four daughters. Twin sons, Michael and John, died in infancy, and Vincent, who died eleven years ago at Ottawa while attending University there. The remaining eight children are Thos. of Read; Frank, of Belleville; Denis J., of Frankford, and Michael J., at home; Mrs. P. Donovan and Mrs. M. J. McLaughlin, of Belleville; Mrs. Jos. V. Egan, of Read, and Mrs. Hugh J. Killorin, of Erinsville, who were all able to be present at this happy event; also sixteen grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Corrigan, accompanied by members of their family, attended their Jubilee Mass at 9 o'clock at St. Charles Church, after which all returned to their parents' home, where a happy day was spent, renewing childhood memories. Numerous letters and telegrams were received during the day; also a purse of gold presented by their children. In the evening the neighbors and relatives came to tender their congratulations, and the following address was read by Mr. Jas. V. Walsh:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Corrigan,—Your friends and neighbors have called on you this evening to join with your children and grandchildren, brothers and sisters, in tendering you hearty congratulations on this your Golden Wedding anniversary.

It has always been a pleasure to visit you in your home here and we are particularly delighted to do so, on this, the evening of your Golden Wedding, and to find you surrounded by your loved ones, who are so desirous of your health and happiness. During the years which we have been honoured with your friendship, we have always known a kind mother and father, ever anxious for the welfare of your respected family and the good of the community in which you live, and where you are held in the highest esteem. In your public and social life you were always found diligent, conscientious and capable, ever ready to do your part and lend a helping hand.

We ask you to accept this, our humble gift, in the same spirit with which it is being offered, assuring you at the same time of the very great pleasure it gives us to visit you from time to time, when we hope to find you enjoying robust health for many years to come.

BETHANY

The community of Bethany is well known as a place of peace, concord and fraternity to the people dwelling both within and without her borders. No new neighbor arrives, no old one leaves without a cordial demonstration of the above spirit. April 14th was the occasion of a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walmsley, who are leaving the old home, taking up permanent residence in Napanee.

This was certainly an occasion which the people could not possibly be at loss for. Mr. Walmsley had lived among this people for 69 years, a period worked by comradeship and neighborliness that was never marred by strain or stain. The same can be said of Mrs. Walmsley.

On this night the people came into their home from midst and from far, sang, they played, they ate and drank and before the time of departure arrived, the following presentation was made and address presented:—

Bethany, April 14th, 1925.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Walmsley,—You will most surely feel that no mere empty curiosity has brought so many of your neighbors into your home this evening. Let us hasten to assure you that we are not here simply for pastime or pleasure, as in the past we have so often been, but, we have, therefore, planned, accept this electric drawing room lamp, with our interest and truest love, and in closing we pray that the spirit and principle of Mizpah may ever abide with you and yours.

Signed on behalf of the people.

WM. GOODMAN.
STANLEY EMBURY.

As may be supposed, the reply which was called for from Mr. Walmsley, met only touched him, but his many neighbours also.

The evening throughout was one of profoundest pleasantness and appreciation.

TOWN COUNCIL

Council Chambers,
Napanee, May 4th, 1925.

Council met in regular session on Monday evening, Mayor Ming in the chair.

Members present—Reeve Graham, and Councillors Roy, Dunham, Simpson, Jewell, Howitt, MacGregor.

The minutes of the last regular session were read, and on motion were confirmed.

A communication was received from the Ontario Municipal Electrical Association, advising of the Council that the annual meeting was held in Toronto recently, and asking the town to become a member of that body, the annual fee being $5.00. Ordered filed.

A communication was received from James Poules, asking for a license for a bowling alley in Napanee. Moved by Councillor MacGregor, seconded by Reeve Graham, that this Council is in favor of granting Mr. Poules a license, and that the Printing and By-Laws Committee do consider the question of bringing in a by-law fixing the fee for a bowling alley license at the next meeting. Carried.

Councillor MacGregor, Chairman of Finance, presented a report of the receipts and expenditure up to the present time. The unpaid taxes on the roll amount to $4,468.21, the largest amount outstanding at this date in years. Report adopted.

Moved by Councillor MacGregor, seconded by Reeve Graham, that the Treasurer be instructed to collect the taxes and return the Roll by May 18th, 1925. Carried.

Councillor Simpson, Chairman of Fire, Water and Light, reported that a week ago he was notified that the generator for the fire alarm system has gone up, and the Committee had recommended the purchase of a new one, which Mr. Walters had secured for them for $42.60, and the system is now in good shape.

Another matter dealt with by the Chairman was the purchase of a motor truck for the fire brigade. The present equipment is considered inadequate, and the Committee recommends that the Council go into the matter of the purchase of a progressive truck and equipment for same. The cost will be about $1,200.00, or under. Report adopted.

Moved by Councillor MacGregor, seconded by Councillor Roy, that the Committee be instructed to get further information re truck. Carried.

The Ontario Department of Highways will call the town crushed stone at the quarry for 40c per cube yard, and the small stone on the Deseronto Road at the same price. Two tenders had been received for oiling the streets at 16c. per imperial gallon, and another at 17c. per gallon. Requiring about 21,000 gallons this year. Two tenders had been received for tile, and the contract was awarded to Boyle & Son, they being the lowest. Report adopted.

Moved by Councillor MacGregor, seconded by Councillor Roy, that the Mayor and Clerk be authorized to sign a contract for oiling the streets at 16c. per gallon. Carried.

Ex-Councillor D. B. Wilson was present, and upon request, addressed a few words to the members of the Council.

Mr. S. Wilson, representing the Chamber of Commerce, also addressed the Council, requesting that the Council see that the present signs on roads entering the town, or erected by same, for the purpose of calling the attention of tourists to the fact that Springside Park welcomes them.

Moved by Councillor MacGregor, seconded by Councillor Jewell, that the matter of the signs above referred to be referred to the Printing and By-Laws Committee, to act in conjunction with a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, and report at next meeting. Carried.

Moved by Reeve Graham, seconded by Councillor Roy that the matter of the roof for the Biscuit factory be left in the hands of the Property Committee, with power to act. Carried.

He also reported that work on the new Biscuit factory was proceeding nicely, excavation for the foundation being completed, and the Committee had secured the services of Mr. Cox, A. An Isle of Wight clergyman, returning to his parish after a prolonged absence, astonished a meeting of the Guild of Dear Old Souls by exclaiming cheerfully, "I am delighted to see so many old Cowes faces around me!"

"But surely," urged Jones, "seeing is believing is necessarily," replied Brown. "For instance, I see you every day."

For all washing and cleaning you can't beat this soap —" says Mrs. Experience, who chooses soap for its economy and labour-saving value.

"Sunlight puts the sunshine of cleanliness into the home! For washing clothes, dishes, wood-work, linoleums, in fact, for anything that can be cleaned with soap and water—I call on Sunlight. And Sunlight does its work so well and leaves everything sweet and clean.

"Sunlight really is economical, too! You see, every bit of it is pure, cleansing soap, containing no filling or hardening materials, which are only waste as far as we women are concerned.

"You get greater cleaning value out of a pure laundry soap—and so I say, 'Always keep a good supply of Sunlight on hand'. It really improves with age. And because of its purity, Sunlight is kind to your hands and keeps them smooth and comfortable." Sunlight is made by Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto. B-40

WEDDING BELLS.

Richardson—Boyes.
The bells of St. Paul's Anglican Church rang out merrily at 6.30 o'clock on the evening of Tuesday, April 28th, for the wedding of Miss Yvonne Boyes, daughter of Mrs. A. L. Boyes, Suite 1, Dyke block, and R. S. Richardson, Superintendent of Canadian National Railways, Fort William. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. A. Sims, Rector of St. Paul's, and the bride, given in marriage by her mother, wore a beautiful ensemble costume of silk and wool charmaine, in ashes of roses tone, the long coat, with its small collar of Russian squirrel, opening over a lovely gown of charmaine and floral brocaded satin, her bonnet of sand and ashes of roses tints having a scarf of the sand color falling from the cluster of French roses at the side. One of her wedding gifts, a choker collar of pink pearls, with ruby clasp, was worn with this wedding dress and her bouquet was composed of sweetheart roses and lilies-of-the-valley. As matron of honor Mrs. Garnet Cox, cousin of the bridegroom, wore a smart costume of white kasha cloth, with touches of poppy red, the same bright color repeated in her hat with wings of red and black. She carried roses of red and wore the bridegroom's souvenir gift, a pearl choker. George Hubbard, of Minneapolis, was best man, and the bridal music, played by H. H. Browne, included Wagner's Bridal March from Lohengrin, the Andantino in "D" flat, by Edwin H. Lemare, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

After the ceremony at the church a reception, attended by a large gathering of Port Arthur and Fort William friends, was held at 604 South Syndicate Avenue, by Mrs. A. L. Boyes, who wore a very handsome costume of black satin relieved with buttons of flame colored satin, with the same color echoed in the small French flowers which wreathed her hat of fine black straw and lace, and in the roses of her corsage bouquet. Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Richardson took the midnight Canadian National train for Montreal, en route for England and the continent of Europe, where they will remain two months before returning to take up their residence at Balmoral Cottage, 604 South Syndicate Avenue. The bride travelled in a suit of Scotch tweed, blouse of floral design and Peter Pan hat of shot Ceylonese with narrow, upturned brim and crown appliqued with oak leaves in rich tints of wood brown and crimson. A handsome red fox fur completed this smart going-away costume. The wedding gifts which were numerous and in great variety and beauty, included a handsome set of dining-room furniture and cabinet, from the Canadian National Railway people; H. J. Oliver and W. J. McNabb making the presentation address at the house immediately after the church ceremony; a silver service from a group of members of the Kaministiquia club, special friends of the bridegroom; Col. S. C. Young representing the club and making a congratulatory speech on their behalf during the evening; a silver platter, from the "Fort William coal dock" people, and a wedding gift from the R. S. Richardson Chapter, I.O.D.E., Sioux Lookout.—The Daily Times-Journal, Fort William, April 29th, 1925.

Portable Wireless For Survey Parties

A small portable wireless set has been designed for the use of survey parties by the Canadian Signal Corps, directed by Lieut.-Col. E. Ford, and the set is to be given a thorough test by A. M. Narraway, controller of surveys, in a forthcoming trip of inspection throughout the Northwest. By the use of this set Mr. Narraway expects to be able to keep in touch with the broadcasting stations at Winnipeg, Calgary and Edmonton during all the period of his trip.

If the set proves successful, it is intended to equip all the various survey parties with this instrument. They will by this means be able to receive communications from the main stations when otherwise out of touch with settlements. Instructions will be sent them by wireless by arranging for a definite hour each day when they must listen in. They will receive time signals from Arlington, D.C., and thus check the time of their watches and be able to establish their position exactly. Incidentally, the parties will be able to secure information and entertainment from the general broadcasting stations.

The apparatus is contained in a box 12 inches square. It has a range of from 200 to 21,000 metres wave. It is specially tuned for 400 and 450 metres wave.

WRIGLEY'S

SEED INOCULATION AND ITS LIMITATIONS

(Experimental Farms Note.)

A WARNING.

Especially at this season of the year, when Spring seeding is under way, the question of seed inoculation with cultures of bacteria receives considerable attention. As various cultures are advertised, some with unwarranted claims, it seems desirable that our Canadian farmers and growers should be informed as to what extent the practice of seed inoculation has received sound scientific approval, and just what its limitations are in the light of present day knowledge. With this in view the following statement has been prepared jointly by F. C. Harrison, Principal and Professor of Bacteriology, Macdonald College; D. H. Jones, Professor of Bacteriology, Ontario Agricultural College; G. H. Lee, Professor of Bacteriology, Manitoba Agricultural College, and A. G. Lochhead, Dominion Agricultural Bacteriologist, Ottawa :—

In all agricultural soils bacteria are necessary for the best production of any crop. They play an indispensable part in the preparation of plant food, helping to change it from an unavailable form into a soluble form capable of being used by the growing plant.

It is especially in connection with the work of supplying the nitrogen requirements of the plant that bacteria are important. While certain kinds convert nitrogenous materials in the soil itself into forms which can be taken up by the plant, other bacteria are able to enrich the soil and the plant by gathering nitrogen from the air. Some of those work independently in the soil, others in association with the roots of plants of the leguminous type, in the nodules or swellings on the roots of vigorous plants of this kind.

With the single exception of the legume bacteria there is no indication of a scarcity of useful bacteria in an otherwise good soil. If they are lacking in a soil the soil does not favour their growth, due to some such condition as excessive alkalinity, acidity or some other defect. Only when such a defect is corrected will the useful bacteria flourish. Adding bacteria other than legume bacteria will therefore be superfluous in normal soils and of little or no avail in abnormal soils.

With legume bacteria, however, the case is different. In many instances there may be an actual deficiency of these in a soil, a deficiency which may be remedied by inoculation. With each variety of legume are associated its own special bacteria, the presence of which is necessary if the plant is to benefit from the supply of nitrogen in the air which the bacteria make available, and only in some special cases will one variety of bacteria be of use to another kind of legume.

If a crop has been growing successfully in a field, and shows the presence of well-developed root nodules, the soil contains the proper bacteria for this crop, and inoculation is not so necessary for another similar crop as when the crop is being cultivated for the first time or where previous crops have been unsuccessful. It will then be of distinct advantage to inoculate the seed. Even in such cases inoculation cannot be said to be a sure cure for all ills. Success will be most probable if the other soil conditions are at their best, and inoculation is thus really an aid to, and not a substitute for good farming methods.

Much scientific research has been devoted to the question of soil and seed inoculation, but only with legume cultures has the practice been placed on a sound basis and received unbiassed approval from agricultural scientists. While legume inoculation, then, is to be encouraged, yet in order that this practice may not be brought into disrepute by lack of success with cultures claimed to be of benefit for miscellaneous non-leguminous crops, we consider it important that the public should understand as fully as possible the limitations of bacterial inoculents, and we therefore warn farmers and other growers not to expect results from other cultures which cannot be endorsed.

New Variety of Wheat.

Reward, a new wheat, a cross between Marquis and Prelude, made the best showing in the experimental plots at the Dominion Experimental Farm at Indian Head this summer, according to N. D. MacKenzie, superintendent of the farm.

Reward gave a yield of 43 bushels an acre, which is considered an excellent showing under somewhat adverse conditions of wet weather and disease. Mr. MacKenzie said that the yield of wheat growing under field conditions was materially cut down this year by a new disease Rust Glume rot, an ailment which is attributable to the exceptionally wet weather. Under field conditions, Marquis made the best showing with 32 bushels to the acre, though a number of fields gave very much reduced yields.

Judge—"And what did the prisoner say when you told him that you would have him arrested?"

Complainant—"He answered mechanically, yer honor."

Judge—"Explain."

Complainant—"He hit me on the head with a hammer."

"You did !" he charged.
"I did not !" she denied.
"You did !" he repeated.
"I did not !" she flung back.
"Well," said hubby, "one of us two is a very capable romancer. But there is one thing which prevents me from saying which one."
"Modesty I presume," retorted wife. And he gave up, beaten.

Mr. Boom and Mr. Steddy were business enemies, but chance had placed them on the same board of directors.

One day, after a meeting, Mr. Boom was holding forth.

"There are hundreds of ways of making money," he said provocatively.

"Yes," put in Mr. Steddy, "but only one honest way."

What way's that?" asked Mr. Boom, sharply.

"Ah !" retorted Mr. Steddy, thought you wouldn't know it."

New Deputy Minister of Defence.

George J. Desbarats, C.M.G., who has been named Deputy Minister of National Defence at Ottawa, succeeding Gen. Sir Eugene Fiset, has been forty-five years in the public service of the Dominion.

He was Deputy Minister of the Naval Service when the legislation amalgamating the Militia and Naval departments and Air Board in one department of defence was enacted in 1922. When the amalgamation became operative Mr. Desbarats became comptroller in the department. He was named acting Deputy Minister of Defence when Sir Eugene Fiset was obliged by ill-health to retire from that office, and has now been confirmed in the post of Deputy Minister.

A native of the city of Quebec, Mr. Desbarats was born on January 27, 1861, a son of the late George E. Desbarats and Ludenne Rose. He received his education at Terrebonne College and the Polytechnic School, Montreal, graduating with honors in 1879. He married, in 1898, Lillian, daughter of Sir Richard Scott, of Ottawa. He was appointed a Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George in 1914.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembearance of our dear baby, Donald Martin Jones, who departed this life on May 5th, 1924.
In the graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
Tried so hard, but could not save.
Days of sorrow still come o'er us,
Years of sadness often flow,
When we think of you, dear Donald,
Whom we lost one year ago.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

Variety tests were conducted at the Experimental Station for Southwestern Ontario on the following: Cabbage, celery, head lettuce, onions and tomatoes.

Celery.—Eighteen strains and varieties of celery were listed and fourteen breeding lots transferred from the Ontario Agricultural College. The conclusions reached were that in general the old strains of Paris Golden Self Blanching seem to be better adapted to muck soil conditions than the new strains except where celery is grown for summer market and immediate sale. The new, more vigorous strains seemed to mature quickly, and when well blanched must be sold or they become pithy and therefore inferior.

The strains that proved superior were: Paris Golden Self-Blanching-Eberle; Paris Golden Self-Blanching, Midgeley; Paris Golden Self-Blanching, Jerome B. Rice; Paris Golden Self-Blanching (new type), Vilmorin; East Blanching, Eberle. The last two strains mentioned seemed superior strains of the newer type. The first mentioned was good for summer cropping, the last as an easy blanching main crop celery.

Cabbage.—The new variety of cabbage, namely Golden Acre, was tested against such standard varieties as Copenhagen, Early Express and Early Jersey Wakefield. It was found that the variety is a round head cabbage and cuts at approximately the same season as Jersey Wakefield. The plants mature very uniformly. However, a considerable variation in the strains from different seed firms was shown and the variety seems to have a tendency to split quickly after producing a marketable head. A variety named Eberle's Wonderful did very well under our conditions.

Corn.—Varieties of corn were tested as to season of ripening. Of the important varieties produced White Cory was nine days earlier than Golden Bantam, and Golden Bantam produced marketable ears seventeen days before either Stowell's Evergreen or Bantam Evergreen.

Head Lettuce.—In the head lettuce tests three varieties of the cabbage head type seemed well adapted for the district—namely, Iceberg, Non-pareil and New Yorker or Wonderful. The last mentioned proved to be a later strain of this type of lettuce. In the other head types the May-ahead showed up well.

Onions.—Onions were tested on muck soil. Of the varieties tested Southport Yellow Globe and Yellow Globe Danvers seems best adapted when early maturity and total yield is considered, to the locality. A strain of Spanish onions, Riverside Sweet Spanish, did well for onions of this type. Under test at the Department of Horticulture at the Ontario Agricultural College, a variety of set onions, Ebenezer, proved very successful in the production of good, early, mature onions.

Tomatoes.—Some forty-five strains or varieties of tomatoes were tested out for adaptability for the district. Of the standard varieties good strains of Earliana seem best adapted to the district. However, one newer variety gives some promise and should be tested out extensively. The variety Wayahead produced early fruit of good color and smoothness. For main crop for canning purposes John Baer and Bonney Best showed up well although two varieties, namely, Livers' Seedling and New Red Head, gave excellent promise in this regard. A striking fact was brought out in these tests, varieties showing much variation when procured from different sources. Most particularly in Bonny Best some strains showed much superior to others.

Breeding material was transferred from the College to the Experimental Station and tests of the strains were made. Second generation crosses of cucumbers were grown both of pickling and slicing types and promising form early strains will be found.

The most extensive work was done, however, in tomatoes of the John Baer-Earliana cross, "Canadian." Some seven hundred plants of this variety were grown and individual records of each plant kept. Some thirty-five plant selections were made from the plants of best type. A careful consideration of earliness, yield, color and smoothness was made. These progeny lots will be tested in 1926. As an early variety the "Canadian" did exceedingly well. The earliest plants produced fruit as early as Earliana and the quality and yield were much superior. It is expected that in the new test lots more uniformity in strains will be found.

An experiment was conducted to determine the relative value of manure and commercial fertilizer in cucumber and melon growing and whether or not as good results could be obtained from the use of manure along the row or in the hill, as when manure was broadcasted.

The results indicate that manure is essential in the production of good crops, but that as good results can be obtained when manure is placed along the row or in the hill as where it is broadcasted with a very great saving of manure.

Free access to water or watering cows three times a day will increase the profits from winter dairying.

Many people have an idea that sheep are hard to raise. They require no more care than other classes of stock. If farmers would give sheep the care and attention that they give other stock, few farms would be operating without them.

OBITUARY

Mr. Frank Robertson.

The funeral of the late Mr. Frank Robertson, who passed away in the Kingston General Hospital, on Sunday, took place Tuesday morning at Grace Methodist Church. There was a large attendance of friends present, particularly from Selby, where the deceased was born and had resided for many years. Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, of Selby Church, preached a very appropriate sermon, taking as his subject, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." At the conclusion of this service the cortege proceeded to Hay Bay, interment being made in Hay Bay cemetery. The pall-bearers were as follows: Messrs. D. B. Wilson, B. M. Black and L. A. Scott, of town, and John Grange, James Dudgeon and Elijah McQuaig, of Selby. The deceased was a well-known figure in Napanee and will be missed by a wide circle of friends. He leaves to mourn his loss three sisters, Mrs. Wm. Whittington, of Empey Hill, and two residing in the West.

EARTH IS GROWING COLDER

Old Fashioned Arctic Winters Seem to Be More and More Recognized Institutions.

How do the old-fashioned people account for the fact that this second decade of the twentieth century, now near its close (the decade, not the century) has produced more "old-fashioned winters" than any like recorded period in the past? "The climate is growing milder," some people say. It appears more likely it is growing steadily colder. The oldest inhabitant cannot remember a more Termontish sort of a winter in Boston than the one which has happily come to an end, remarks the Transcript of that city. One would, indeed, rather expect it to be so. Our moribund earth is constantly radiating its heat into the shivery spaces between the planets. The sun is pumping away into regions far beyond the planets, with a positively inconceivable recklessness of wasteful-ness, its stores of heat and energy. We are trying to warm up the milky way and are only chilling ourselves in doing it. The process has been going on for a million years and more. Perhaps it is beginning to tell on the weather at Boston. Year by year the old-fashioned winters will be getting more new fashioned—until at last Guiana and Amazonia will be sending their Arctic expeditions to Massachusetts bay, as we are now sending MacMillan to Baffin's bay.

The Brooder that Raises Dollars

Ask your county agent or agricultural college what part brooding plays in making poultry profits. And what part hatching plays, too.

They'll tell you they're the first steps toward success. And they'll very probably recommend Buckeye Incubators and Buckeye Coal-Burning or Oil-Burning Brooders. They'll tell you that they hatch more eggs, raise more chicks, insure bigger poultry profits for you.

Then ask us for the new Buckeye Catalog—a most complete and valuable book on poultry raising. Tells how to feed, cull, get more eggs in winter and market for high prices.

ABOUT THE LAST ARGUMENT

After That It Was Time for Hubby to Get Busy and Buy Her That Davenport.

What she desired was a new davenport.

She had talked davenport until her husband's soul was tried. She made it her business to be carefully scrutinizing the furniture advertisements every time he caught her reading the newspaper.

She left pictures of davenports lying around on the table. She sent for furniture catalogues and he always found the pages open that contained davenport illustrations.

The other evening he glanced over her shoulder as she was going through her regular evening performance with the newspaper.

"More davenport advertisement, I suppose," he murmured a bit sarcastically.

"No, John, dear," she replied in siuiar vein. "You would buy me this with far less persuasion."

Then he took a second look at the paper. She was reading a coffin company's advertisement.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"I have never had a penny in my life," boasted the profiteer, "that has not been earned honestly."

"By whom?" asked the cynical friend.

Hubby—"I think you ought to call that maid of ours 'Dawn'."

Wife—"Why?"

Hubby—"Because she is always breaking."

Customer—"I'd like a cup of coffee, please—without cream."

Waitress—"Sorry, sir, we haven't any cream. Shall I bring you a cup without milk?"

Soft corns are difficult to eradicate, but Holloway's Corn Remover will draw them out painlessly.

"Last week a shirt was missing. This week you bring me two torn handkerchiefs which are not mine."

"They are not handkerchiefs. They are the shirt you made such a fuss about."

Violette—"I say, what do you think? Jack was held up last night by two men."

Claude—"My hat! Where?"

Violette—"All the way home."

They were discussing a certain society leader who had gone upon the stage.

She—"I do want to see her act, dreadfully."

He—"She always does!"

Unless worms be expelled from the system, no child can be healthy. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is an excellent medicine to destroy worms.

Time Has Tested It.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has been on the market upwards of fifty years and in that time it has proved a blessing to thousands. It is in high favor throughout Canada and its excellence has carried its fame beyond the seas. If it were double the price it would be a cheap liniment.

Mistress—"You say you worked for the Van Twillers. Can you prove that?"

New Maid—"Well, mum, I can show you some spoons an' things with their initials."

Book Agent (entering)—"Madam, I have a work of art to show you. It is a book."

Lady of the House (re-opening the door)—"And I have a work of art to show you; it is a landscape."

For Catarrh.—It is one of the chief recommendations of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil that it can be used internally with as much success as it can outwardly. Sufferers from catarrh will find that the Oil when used according to directions will give prompt relief. Many sufferers from this ailment have found relief in the Oil and have sent testimonials.

Boy (to sister)—"Mrs. Grubbs cent yer four big apples, Milly, for takin' care of 'er baby. I ate two and lost one, and Billy pinched the other. Mind yer thanks 'er when yer see 'er."

Heard in the High Court:—

Witness—"I raised a point with my lawyer."

Counsel—"You raised a point of law?"

"Oh, no! I raised a point of common sense."

Dragged Down by Asthma. The man or woman, who is continually subject to asthma is unfitted for his or her life's work. Strength departs and energy is taken away until life becomes a dreary existence. And yet this is needless. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has brought a great change to an army of sufferers. It relieves the restricted air tubes and guards against future trouble. Try it.

Edith—"Oh, Sephy, what an age since we met! Are you still living at the same place?"

Sephy (loftily)—"No, indeed! I'm married, and have a flat!"

Edith—"You don't say so! What's his name?"

Man (at Shoreditch County Court)—"I bought the piano before the war."

Judge Clues—"Be more precise. There were 1914 years before the war, and probably many millions of years."

Ron—"That young Smith who got married the other day is a mighty nice fellow."

John—"I don't know so much. I saw him treating his wife the other day as I wouldn't treat my dog."

Ron (excitedly)—"Is it possible! And she so lovely. What was he doing to her?"

John (calmly)—"Kissing her".

Worms, however generated, are found in the digestive tracts, where they set up disturbances detrimental to the health of the child. There can be no comfort for the little ones until the hurtful intruders have been expelled. An excellent preparation for this purpose can be had in Miller's Worm Powders. They will immediately destroy the worms and correct the conditions that were favorable to their existence.

Mr. Alfred Gagnon Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills To All Who Suffer.

Moulin Bersimis, Que., May 4th (Special).—"A few words about your Dodd's Kidney Pills. They have done me much good", states Mr. Gagnon, a well known and highly respected resident of this place.

"For pains in the back and kidneys, I have taken Dodd's Kidney Pills and they have done me good immediately. I always keep a box in the house. To-day, thanks to your pills I am quite relieved of my trouble and recommend them to all who suffer. Kindly send me one of your almanacs."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a kidney remedy. They act directly on the kidneys, strengthening them and putting them in condition to do their full work of straining the impurities out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills have been in use in Canada for more than thirty years. They demonstrated their worth in the most serious forms of kidney disease, such as rheumatism, dropsy, diabetes, neuralgia and sciatica.

SWEET CLOVER

(Experimental Farms Note.)

From the status of a weed, legislated against by Governments, to that of a much sought-after, cultivated forage plant has been the history of the development of sweet clover. This transformation has not been the slow development resulting from long and careful consideration but rather an almost instantaneous popularity.

There is always a danger, accompanying the sudden popularizing of any crop, of many people accepting the new production without reservation of any kind. Such acceptance invariably results in disappointments and numerous failures. For this reason it is desirable to indicate some of the limitations and advantages of sweet clover as a forage crop. These refer principally to the biennial white blossom type as it is the only kind as yet of considerable commercial importance throughout Canada.

Advantages.

Sweet clover can be grown successfully on a surprisingly great variety of soils.

Because of its ability to thrive on poor soils it offers an excellent medium for the improvement of worn-out soils or for lightening up heavy soils. At the same time it is a gatherer and storer of nitrogen, and adds to the soil a considerable quantity of this necessary element.

It provides an excellent source of nasture and in most years on the Prairies and in dry years in the East it is possible to produce a fair quality of hay from it. Once cattle become accustomed to the peculiar taste and odour of the sweet clover they appear to relish both the pasture and hay.

Objections.

Sweet clover has a peculiar odour and a bitter taste that renders it unpalatable to cattle until they become used to it.

During years when rainfall is at all frequent during the haying season it is almost impossible to cure sweet clover for hay.

The quality of hay produced even under the best conditions is usually inferior to that produced by alfalfa, red clover or our commonly cultivated grasses.

It is difficult to prevent sweet clover from seeding even when cut for hay or pastured, consequently it often appears in succeeding crops where it is not wanted.

When alfalfa seed production is carried on, the presence of sweet clover is very undesirable because of the difficulty of keeping the alfalfa fields free from it and because its presence in alfalfa seed lowers the market value of the seed in which it is found.

HER NERVES BETTER NOW

Received Much Benefit by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chatham, Ontario.—"I started to get weak after my second child was born, and kept on getting worse until I could not do my own house-work and was so bad with my nerves that I was afraid to stay alone at any time. I had a girl working for me a whole year before I was able to do my washing again. Through a friend I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took four bottles of it. I gave birth to a baby boy the 4th day of September, 1922. I am still doing my own work and washing. Of course I don't feel well every day because I don't get my rest as the baby so cross. But when I get my rest I feel fine. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and am going to keep on with it until cured. My nerves are a lot better since taking it. I can stay alone day or night and not be the least frightened. You can use this letter as a testimonial and I will answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound." —Mrs. CHARLES CLARKE, 27 Forsythe Street, Chatham, Ontario.

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 6

Appearance of Tea No Guide

The only way to test tea is to taste it. Many people have the idea that a finely rolled and tippy tea is superior in flavour to a large rough leaf. In reality this is not of necessity the case. The altitude at which the tea plant grows determines the amount of essential oil and alkaloid theine in the leaf. The essential oil gives tea its flavour; the theine contributes the stimulating value. The only way to insure always receiving a uniform quality is to insist upon a skilfully blended and scientifically sealed tea like "SALADA" whose reliability, goodness and delicious flavour have become a household word.

Pity Ye Poor Ed.

It is reported that one of the fastidious newly married ladies of this town kneads bread with her gloves on. This incident may be somewhat peculiar, but there are others. L. O. B. A. Social.

One of the most successful socials held in Napanee for some time was carried out under the auspices of Eastern Star Lodge, L.O.B.A., on Thursday evening, April 30th. The Orange Hall was filled to capacity, and everybody seemed to enjoy a real good time, with plenty of good music and lots of "eats". The musical part of the programme was furnished by the Orchestra of St. Andrew's Church, under the able leadership of Mr. A. MacGregor, ex-Mayor, and was a pleasure and delight to all. Also the solos given by some of the members of the Orchestra were much enjoyed. Mrs. and Miss Hosey contributed a mandolin and guitar solo; also a baritone solo by Mr. Norris, accompanied by Mrs. Dennis on the piano. Marion Wood-Alyea, of Belleville, reader and impersonator, delighted the audience and kept them interested and in good humor from start to finish. There were, among those present, Brethren and Sisters of L.O.B.A. from Belleville, Kingston and Havelock. Brother Soules, of Belleville, was chairman.

LENNOX AND ADDINGTON BASEBALL

The executive of the Lennox and Addington Baseball League is looking forward to a most successful year. The members would like their desire to get into the larger body, and have joined up with O.A.B.A. The action of the executive will mean that the baseball fans in the Counties of Lennox and Addington will get some pretty classy ball as the teams will be anxious to get into the play-offs. It is almost certain that at least four teams will enter, and probably five. The work of drawing up the schedule will be quite a task, on account of some of the teams making requests to have their games played on certain days. The Tamworth team has been in the habit of having a field day on May 24th, and for that reason the team requested that a schedule game be played there on that day. The games will be played on Wednesday afternoon, it was thought wise to arrange all games for Wednesday on account of Wednesday being observed as a half holiday in most of the villages and towns from which the teams come.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The regular meeting of the Ministerial Association was held on Monday, in St. Andrew's Church, when a paper was given on "The Epistle to the Galations" by Rev. T. H. P. Anderson. An interesting discussion followed the paper.

Reports of the year's work were presented, and the following were the officers elected for the coming year:
President—Rev. W. R. Tanton.
Vice President—Rev. J. H. Coleman.
Secty. Treas.—Rev. W. R. Merrick.

"IOLANTHE"

The opening night of "Iolanthe" on Wednesday, was welcomed with pleasant anticipation by the hundreds who had reserved seats for the occasion. It is not often that Napanee indulges in amateur-theatricals, which is a pity, when so much talent is available in our own little town.

A roomy stage, a fine orchestra, Mr. Marvin Rathbun as musical director, Mr. Gates, of Kingston, as stage manager, costumes from a costumier in Toronto, were several reasons of the finished performance which ensued. Perhaps the most striking feature of the opera was the excellence of its chorus. The individual voices were so perfect that combining fifty or sixty of these, resulted in a volume and harmony seldom equalled outside professional circles.

Although the fairies were exquisite in their dainty costumes of pastel shades, with flower wands to waft them hither and thither, the peers were no less beautiful, and one was tempted to echo Celia, Leila and Fleta's cry of "Aren't they lovely!" Lords Tolloler and Mountararat, (splendidly portrayed by Mr. Jack Caldwell and Mr. Reginald Wiseman) both possessed good voices which brought from repeated encores whenever they sang.

The Lord Chancellor (Mr. Cyril Waite) was a very gorgeous creature, whose dignity and weighty arguments with himself about himself, were marvels of diplomatic genius. His solos were exceedingly well rendered and greatly enjoyed. Too much cannot be said of Mr. Fred Cliff, who played the shepherd-lover to perfection in a manner quite professional. His delightful baritone was one of the chief pleasures of the evening.

As the curtain rose on the second act disclosing Mr. J. G. Daly as Sergeant Willis of the Grenadier Guards, the house rocked with applause, and Mr. Daly was obliged to acknowledge this tribute to his popularity before the audience would be satisfied. Mr. Daly possesses a fine, deep bass and sang his part well.

And now we come to the "leading ladies", who so surpassed all their former triumphs. Mrs. W. E. Powell as the Fairy Queen, was superb in her bearing, and gracious and graceful as a Fairy Queen should be. Mrs. Powell is one of the finest actresses it has ever been our fortune to witness, and she sang her songs and arias in a soft contralto that was very pleasing indeed. Mrs. D'Arcy Sneath as Phyllis, the Shepherdess, was admirable, and throughout more than pour Strephon and the peers with her charming personality, and talking music. The duets with Strephon, and the quartette with her two lordly lovers and the sentry, were encored again and again. Miss Georgie Robinson played the title role of Iolanthe, the fairy, and her beautiful voice was no small part of the charm she held for her audience. Her solo in the second act, "My Lord, a Suppliant at Your Feet", was given with surpassing sweetness. Miss Hazel McGreer, Miss Olive McMillan and Miss Helen Davy were the three fairy leaders, and played and sang their parts well. We might mention that fairies are quite as pretty as the fairy books tell us.

The Musical and Literary Club are to be congratulated on the closing event of the season, and Mrs. Sneath as the President, by whose talent and energy the production was made possible, is deserving of unstinted praise. Mrs. Marven Rathbun, of Deseronto, has been untiring in his efforts to bring the chorus to a stage of perfection and his success was only too evident on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

TRINITY C. G. I. T. BANQUET

The Trinity C. G. I. T. Girls' Banquet held in Trinity Schoolroom on Tuesday evening, was an unqualified success. About eighty-five girls sat down to the splendid repast provided by the girls' committee, under the leadership of Miss Marie Paul. The tables were prettily decorated in blue and white—the C. G. I. T. colors—with candles and tulips to liven up the scene.

The Newburgh C. G. I. T. group, under the leadership of Mrs. (Rev.) Merrick, were the invited guests of the Trinity girls.

Miss Leapha Woods, in a very able and gracious way, acted as Toast Mistress. The following toasts were given:—

"The King"—Miss Leapha Woods.
"Our Guests"—Misses Eileen McCormick and Maude Wagar.
"The C. G. I. T."—Misses Thelma Hart and Leah Aylesworth.

The speaker of the evening was Miss Mary Allison, Superintendent of Girls' Work Board of Canada, who in an inspiring and challenging address placed before the girls the aims of the C. G. I. T. movement, which now numbers over 30,000 Canadian Tom Tare Girls.

After the Toast List, the Initiation ceremony was carried out under the direction of Miss Allison. Songs and group yells enlivened a very enjoyable evening.

The attendance was 44 members and visitors present, a number of whom came dressed in old time costume, which added much to the interest and amusement of the occasion. The weather being favorable a number of grandmothers were present.

Memories of old times and of the times of our grandmothers were renewed by the interesting display of relics, some of which were over one hundred years old and by the tallow candles and lantern which burned during the afternoon.

The programme was as follows — Opening Ode, President's address, Chorus—"When You and I Were Young, Maggie".

Roll Call—Responded to by one of the following:—"An item peculiar to our grandmothers"; "The first time I used the telephone"; "Medicinal herbs granny used to gather".

ARDEN

Ploughing and seeding are the order of the day in this vicinity. The Ladies' Aid held their monthly tea on Monday evening of this week in the Town Hall.—Mr. Everet Scott had the misfortune, one day last week, to run in a pile of sand along the road and have his car overturned. Mr. Scott was lucky in escaping with only a sore wrist. The car was in quite bad condition. — Mr. Stewart Gendron, of Sydenham, is spending a few days recently at his home here. — Mr. R. M. Barr, of Toronto, spent the week-end at J. J. Johnston's.—Sunday School in the Methodist Church was well attended on Mother's Day. A good programme was rendered and a pretty stork flew over here on May 9th and left a baby girl at Harry Johnston's and Archie Hughes'. — A variety shower was held on May 8th in the Methodist parsonage, in honor of the bride and groom, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. H. Fair. They received many presents, which shows the high esteem in which they are held around here. — Mr. Burt Church, of Toronto, spent the week-end at his cottage here. — Miss Hazel Scott has returned home, after spending a few days with her friends in Deseronto.

Napanee's Dollar Days

Big Carnival of Bargains Being Arranged by Leading Business Men—Night Before, Store Window Parade

Dollar Day has become an institution in cities and towns all over the North American continent, and at least once each year this great bargain carnival is held, to the great satisfaction of everyone concerned, the storekeeper because this annual sale gives him needed ready cash and clears out odds and ends of lines, odd sizes, etc., and is really a good means of cleaning of the stock. The storekeeper also realizes the value of Dollar Day as an advertisement for his place of business, depending in importance upon the bargains offered and the satisfaction given. Dollar Day is talked about for months after and it is always a needed tonic for the whole business. The Dollar Day customer gets splendid value and for once does is the guest of the various business men taking part, and is treated as well as they know how.

WATCH THE WINDOWS

Dollar Days in Napanee are coming next Wednesday and Thursday. Get ready for them; watch for them; now watch the store windows. Dollar Day Stores will be effectively designated by Dollar Day Pennants, with each of the windows will be framed. Watch the windows for attractions, each Dollar Day merchant tryies to make the finest window display possible.

THE NIGHT BEFORE

The night before Dollar Days there will be a Style Parade, in which all folks turn out to inspect the bargains in the windows and get first choosing bargains for the morrow. This is one of the brightest nights of Dollar Days, the night before, when the folks move a merry, social time meeting before the brilliantly lighted and handsomely decorated windows, admiring the bargains offered and comparing notes, besides indulging in the usual social chat of what's what and who's who.

An energetic committee of business men is arranging details of the biggest event ever held in the business district.

C. O. F. CONCERT

Under the auspices of Court Lennox Canadian Order of Foresters, a highclass concert was given Monday night in the Court Rooms, Tustin Block. The program, which was mostly musical and literary, was an exceptionally good one, the applause being so generous that the encores were frequent. The meeting was favored with the presence of Mr. Joseph Halpenny, Organizer for Eastern Ontario, who is not only a splendid musician but an entertainer of rare ability, and also Mr. Alan Ker, of Belleville, Scotch comedian.

Promptly at eight o'clock the meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Bro. G. T. Walters, who in a brief speech expressed the thanks of Court Lennox to all present, particularly to those who were to assist in the program. The opening number on the program was also of the paper by Miss Balenquel, which showed much thought and careful preparation. It was much appreciated by all and the sentiments of it were re-echoed by those present.

Refreshments were served, consisting of green tea, sandwiches, cucumber pickles, water-melon cake, pound cake, doughnuts, and old fashioned cookies.

Everyone left, voting Grandmother's Day a success.

Miss Frances Dwyer then delighted the assemblage with a beautiful soprano solo which received a most generous encore to which Miss Dwyer responded.

Bro. J. A. Halpenny then favored the audience with a cornet solo, "The Rosary", which was enthusiastically received. This was followed by a comic song by Mr. Chas. Papineau, who responded to a most generous encore. Mr. Reg. Wiseman then favored the audience with a baritone solo, "The Floral Dance" and responded by singing "Heaps of Liek- ness". Mr. Allan Ker, of Belleville, was then introduced to the audience, and gave a rousing Scotch solo in which he received an ovation. A well-rendered male quartette, "The Sea", was then given by Messrs. Black, Seymour, Seymour and Brethour. The short intermission was then held after which the concluding numbers on the program were given, the first being a selection by the orchestra. Bro. Jos. Halpenny then rendered in his own inimitable way a comic song and for an encore gave a splendid recitation, "The Statute of Liberty". Miss Olive McMillan then favored the audience with a well rendered soprano solo and received tumultuous applause. The next number was a comic solo by Mr. Chas. Papineau. Mr. Fred LaSalle, Napanee's lyric tenor, then sang very sweetly "Island of Dreams". The concluding numbers on the program were a song by Miss Mildred Loucks, and a solo by Mr. Halpenny. A hearty vote of thanks was then tendered the artists and unanimously carried, after which the meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

NEWBURGH

Miss Marguerite Wallroth was a bright guest with Miss Kathleen Wesse, of Wesley, over the week end.

Mrs. (Rev.) Nickle is in Toronto on a visit to her daughter.

A number of the citizens of Newburgh and Brother Masons of the late George Deare, of Yarker, attended his funeral on Wednesday, May 13th.

The Pageant, which was presented by the women of Kingston, in the Queen Street Church, on Tuesday evening, was a very enjoyable affair, and the Ladies' Aid, under whose auspices it was given, will be the better to the amount of nearly $30.00.

Mr. T. A. Dunkerley is having a new walk of cement laid on his premises. A new front door has been built, and is otherwise improving the appearance of his property.

Mr. and Mrs. Conroy have moved into part of Mrs. Hopple house. Mr. Conway is engaged for the summer at the cheese factory.

Rev. and Mrs. Lee, of Frankfort, were in the village on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Maud Welbanks is at present in Hotel Dieu, Kingston, having been removed to that institution by Dr. Maurice, on Sunday last. The friends of Miss Welbanks regret to learn that she has had to suffer the amputation of her foot as the result of a fall she had a few weeks ago. At time of writing she is resting as well as could be expected.

The pupils of Odessa Continuation School played a ball game here with Newburgh boys, on Saturday afternoon, resulting in a score of 11 to 7, in favor of Newburgh.

YARKER.

George Deare, one of our oldest and best respected residents, passed away last Friday, after an illness extending over a period of about six months. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Spencer, after which the Order of Masons performed the last rite over the body of their late brother. The many wreaths which covered the casket testified to the large number of friends who mourn the loss of a father and husband. THE new Chevrolet has a new, improved dry-plate disc clutch that needs no lubrication. It has no internal adjustment. It has a positive, smooth action that makes gear shifting easy. A light pedal pressure operates it, yet it has more than a thousand pounds pressure action delivering all the power to the rear axle without slippage. It is fully enclosed.

This is but one of the many quality features of the new Chevrolet that are daily making thousands of people ask: "How can they produce such fine cars to sell at such low prices?"

Dear Sir and Brother,—We, the officers and members of L.O.L. No. 2281, desire to express to you our deep and sincere sympathy in the recent loss you have sustained in the death of your brother, Robert Tate, of New York City.

Another link has gone from your family chain, but in your grief and sadness take comfort in our Christian Faith and in the thought that we shall all meet again in our Father's Heavenly Home.

Hush blessed are the dead
In Jesus' arms who rest,
And lean their weary head
Forever on his breast.
But soon at break of day,
His calm Almighty voice,
Stronger than death shall say,
Awake ! Arise ! Rejoice !

A DOLLAR SAVED!

On Dollar Days will enable you to take advantage of many real bargains in Napanee. This is the place to save dollars on Wallpaper to-day and every day in the year. Several reasons are given for our ability to sell so cheaply such remarkably fine Wallpapers. One is rapid turnover. We have already turned over our stock three times in three months. One is low overhead. Our overhead is, we believe, the lowest in the town. One is experience—twenty-five years in the business has taught us things about Wallpaper which can be learned in no other way, and which cannot be mastered in a short time. And our connection with the manufacturers, as their read representative gives us the first chance at their real bargains.

Let us show you the savings we can make possible for you.

Young Mother Regains Health

And Now Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills To All Similar Sufferers

Mrs. Wm. Maddix Suffered From a Weak Back

St. Gilbert, P.E.I., May 11th, (Special)—"I am the mother of three children and after the birth of the eldest my back was very weak" states Mrs. Maddix, a well known resident of this place. "Later it became very painful, until last winter it got so bad that I could hardly stand. I then took four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills which completely relieved me. I have great confidence in them and recommend them to all my friends."

Mrs. Maddix's trouble came from the Kidneys as is evidenced by the relief she got from Dodd's Kidney Pills. When the Kidneys become clogged or out of order, the circulation becomes sluggish, the impurities are not strained out of the blood and the result is weariness and lack of energy all over the body. This condition is not only disagreeable but dangerous as well. The impurities in the blood are the seeds of disease.

ONTARIO SHEEPMEN BRING HONOR TO THE PROVINCE.

Remarkable Winnings at the Great International Show at Chicago—Some Points on the Production of High Quality Sheep.

Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

Someone said "The proof of the pudding is the eating of it," and so the proof of Ontario being the breeding ground for sheep to supply the other provinces in the Dominion as well as the United States, was proven beyond all doubt by the winnings made by Ontario's Sheepmen at the International Show held in Chicago, Ill., in December, 1924. This show is the common battle-ground for breeders throughout the length and breadth of United States and Canada. All the best flocks in the United States are represented, and in order that the Ontario sheepmen might try conclusions with American breeders, the Ontario Department of Agriculture has been assisting these provincial exhibits by financial assistance in the form of payment of freight charges. This was necessary in view of the fact that the prize money offered at the show is relatively small. The greatest reward comes from the honor of winning. The following summary shows the remarkable winnings made by Ontario breeders, in the eight breed classes in which they competed:

BREEDING CLASSES.
TOTAL ONTARIO WON.

Breed.	Total Number of Prizes Offered.	Total 1st Prizes Offered.	1st.	2nd.	3rd.	4th.	5th.	Other Prizes.	Champions.	Res. Champ.

Leicester	1	8	4	2	2	2	1	0	0
Totals	12	67	42	21	20	29	18	4	0	10

It is worthy of note that while Ontario did not have more than perhaps twenty-five per cent. of the exhibitors in these classes, Ontario Breeders won sixty-three per cent. of the possible first prizes, fifty-five per cent. of the total Championships, and sixty-two per cent. of all Reserve Championships.

Grades and Crosses Long Wool.	4	4	1	2	2		1	1
Totals	32	19	12	6	4	1	5	6

This summary shows Ontario winning fifty-nine per cent. of all the first prizes in those "fat" classes in which they competed and also winning fifty per cent. of all championships, and sixty per cent. of all reserve championships.

In addition, Col. Robt. McEwen & Sons, London, Ont., succeeded in winning for the third time in succession, the Grand Championship for the best car load of not less than fifty lambs. Detroit Stock Farm stood fourth in this competition.

These results were accomplished by years of wise mating, careful selection and good feeding on the part of the breeders. The policy of breeding the best to the best which has been generally followed brought results. By the use of the best rams and ewes obtainable at home supplemented with very high-class stock imported from Great Britain, Ontario's sheep have attained a very high standard. Time and money has been spent by the sheepmen in obtaining this envi- able position in the sheep-breeding fraternity of North America, but their efforts are being repaid by the demand which is now experienced for Ontario bred sheep.

Points for the Lambing Season.

Just at this season of the year it may not be out of place to mention some important considerations which must be given at the lambing season because after all the success or failure of the lamb crop depends largely the profit for the year.

It is absolutely necessary for the attendant to be on hand frequently both day and night. The loss of not a few lambs, and in some cases both mother and lambs, can be avoided by prompt action on the part of the one in charge. A week or two before the ewes are due to lamb all the dung locks and dirty, straggling wool on the hindquarters of the sheep should be cut away with the ordinary sheep shears. It will be necessary to handle them carefully at this time otherwise considerable injury might result to the heavy in-lamb ewe. The removal of this superfluous wool will mean that the young lamb will be able to nurse with less difficulty, it will lessen the danger of wool balls in the stomach of the nursing lamb, and the ewe will be much cleaner at lambing time. The ewe about to lamb can be properly cared for to much better advantage when separated from the main flock. Provision should be made for a few small pens on the warmest side of the sheep house for this purpose.

No one has ever been able to develop a system whereby poultry could be made profitable by keeping the flock in a mite-infested house.

"They asked me to their reception, but it wasn't because they liked me; it was only because I can sing."

"Oh, I'm sure you're mistaken !"

The Proven Asthma Remedy. Since asthma exists there has been no lack of much heralded remedies, but they have proved short lived and worthless. The ever-growing reputation of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has given it a place in the field of medicine which no other can approach. It has never been pushed by sensational methods, but has simply gone on effecting relief and making new converts.

DISEASES KILL PROFITS

HOW TO GET THEM STOPPED BEFORE THEY START.

How to Treat Oats, Potatoes, and Apple Trees for Prevention of Diseases.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

Anything that reduces the yield of the farm crop reduces the money return to the man growing the crop. When charges against the production of any crop are figured out it is usual to find that seed costs are always high irrespective of the yield. The lower the yield the less there is to pay the production charges and profits. Production charges must be paid first. What money remains, if any, is your profit. Plant diseases and insects are always waiting ready to take your share. They frequently succeed. Finding the careless, neglectful type of farmer the easiest to prey on, eating up his potatoes, his apples, his onions, his grain, and small fruit crops. There is no escape except through prevention. Plant diseases like oat-smut, onion rot, potato blight, potato scab and apple scab can be controlled.

Dry Formaldehyde Treatment for the Prevention of Oat Smut.

This method has been tested for five successive years by the O. A. College Department of Botany co-operating with farmers in various parts of the province. The results have been uniformly satisfactory. No injury to the grain has resulted and the smut control has been almost perfect. Well worth while when the fields that were sown with untreated seed showed a loss at harvest of six per cent. of the crop. The advantages of the Dry Formaldehyde Method of treating oats are its simplicity, rapidity and ease of application when compared with the dipping methods. One hundred bushels of oats may be treated in less than one hour; the seed is dry enough to sow; there is no danger of sprouting, moulding or swelling of the seed. There is one disadvantage and it may be overcome by holding the sprayer close to the grain and providing free circulation of air to move the formaldehyde fumes quickly away. A small hand sprayer, a supply of formaldehyde and a scoop shovel comprise the equipment, and their use gives full assurance against loss of crop from oat smut.

Treat the Seed Potatoes and Prevent Scab and Black Scurf.

In each of ten years an experiment was conducted at the College to determine the control of Potato Scab. The potatoes for one plot were left untreated and those for other plots were treated with corrosive sublimate, or with formaldehyde. With corrosive sublimate 2¼ ounces were used to each 13 gallons of water. With the formaldehyde pickle, one pint of formaldin was used to each thirty gallons of water. The yields were the same from treated and untreated plots showing that the chemicals did not injure the seed in any way. The quality of the crop was greatly improved by treatment, giving clean marketable potatoes. Barked seed potatoes immersed for two hours in the formalin solution gave a little better results than those treated with the corrosive sublimate solution. Late Blight is considered to be the most destructive potato disease that we have to contend with,—always bad in wet seasons and on low-lying areas. The successful grower does not wait for evidence of disease to appear and sweep over his field during a night; he takes time by the forelock and applies a protective spray to the potato foliage along with the bug destroying dose. Bordeaux mixture is effective as a preventative against late blight, tip burn and in repelling flea beetles and also if used in conjunction with paris green or lead arsenate in killing Colorado potato beetle larvae. Early, frequent, and thorough sprayings are necessary. The sprayings had an influence not only in keeping down the yield of marketable and total crop per acre, but also in prolonging the growth of the plants and increasing the size of the potatoes. The results of the experiment show the highest yields per acre from the plots which received three sprayings, both above and below the leaves.

Apple Scab Control.

The experiments carried on by the Department of Entomology for the control of apple scab fungus, in the apple-growing sections have demonstrated that thorough spraying with Bordeaux mixture will effectively control the scab and give us fine, clean fruit. Arsenate added to the Bordeaux spray prevents efficiently the ravages commonly due to insects.

Many Ontario farmers are losing on crops that would be profitable if proper attention were given to disease control at the right time. Too many trust to luck, wait to see the damage done before making an attempt to control the evil forces that are ready to prey on the crops. The man that prepares to produce a crop with the expectation of an attack from all sides fires the first and also the last shot, routing the fungus-enemy with chemicals that are easily obtainable and easily applied.—L. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O. A. College.

Lice on Cattle.

The method of controlling lice suggested by the South Dakota Agricultural College, is to dip the cattle during the fall and spring. Dipping of cattle is not advisable, however, during the winter months on account of pneumonia. Hand treatment in many cases may relieve the animals until spring when they may be dipped. Three different treatments are commonly used. Equal parts of ground sabadilla seed and flowers of sulphur in the form of a dusting powder is a good treatment.

GROW MORE ALFALFA

IT BUILDS UP THE SOIL AND MAINTAINS FERTILITY.

Eradicates the Worst of Weeds and Furnishes Great Abundance of Rich Hay For the Live Stock.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

In a survey covering an investigation on 900 farms, those that were growing alfalfa showed an average net profit of $1,200 per farm against $728 per farm profit for those that were not growing alfalfa. This difference of nearly $500 in profit was due to the alfalfa and farm practice that goes with it.

Use Hardy Strains.

Ontario Variegated and the Grimm varieties are more winter proof than the common or southern grown. These alone should be used in Ontario. The seed may cost a little more, but when everything is at stake against King Winter, the additional cost of good seed is your insurance for a return in crop. Hardy varieties last longer, and when once established and given rational treatment, remain vigorous and profitable for many years.

Alfalfa's Greatest Need Is Lime.

Alfalfa is a lime hungry plant; it cannot succeed where lime does not exist in abundance. Each ton of hay produced requires approximately 100 pounds of lime. So the attempted growing of alfalfa on soils that are sour or lacking in lime, is time, money and labor thrown away. Correct the lime deficiency first, if the soil needs it apply up to two tons per acre every five years. Most Ontario soils do not require more than a ton per acre every five years. With a yield of four tons of alfalfa hay per acre over a period of five years a ton of lime will be removed from the soil. So you see the need of returning lime to the medium in which the plant grows.

How to Apply Lime.

Apply lime to the surface of ploughed land. Do not plough it under; work it in with the harrow. Lime may be spread over the surface of the land by using a lime distributor, the manure spreader, or shovelling from the waggon box by hand. Autumn is the best time, after the fall ploughing has been done.

Vigorous Growth Follows Inoculation.

Areas on which alfalfa has not been grown should be treated through the application of 200 pounds of bacteria carrying soil per acre. Soil obtained from successful fields fulfils this requirement. Seed may be inoculated to accomplish the same result. This is generally the easiest way, unless soil is close at hand. The Bacteriology Department at the O. A. C., Guelph, will supply for 50 cents sufficient culture to treat a bushel of seed, the requirement for three acres.

Seed Bed Should Be Well Prepared.

Select reasonably rich soil and prepare it well. Do not waste time on worn out land unless you realize the necessity of applying lime and manure to feed the crop to a point of vigorous establishment. Land that has both good surface and under drainage is best. Avoid heavy, flat areas, with hardpan or tight clay subsoils. Alfalfa is a deep-rooted plant and must have root room. Prepare for the seeding by working up a fine surface on a firm seed bed. Autumn ploughing worked down in the spring with cultivator, harrow, and corrugated roller will give the desired condition providing that the weather is right for work on the land.

Use Plenty of Seed.

On land in good condition and adapted to alfalfa growing 15 pounds of good Canadian grown Ontario variegated seed is sufficient. Timothy may be mixed with the alfalfa seed as an agent of security to hold the blue grass in check until the alfalfa is well established. Its presence ensures a hay crop should the alfalfa winter kill the first year. It is a good practice to use three or four pounds of alfalfa seed in the general hay mixture over the farm. Such a practice will bring the entire farm into condition for successful alfalfa growing without very much effort or cost.

Alfalfa needs a protective covering over winter. Eight inches or more of growth to hold the snow is provided by the alfalfa plant in its September growth. Those that cut or graze alfalfa after September 15th kill all chances of future profits from alfalfa growing. Two good crops taken at the right time should satisfy, then give the plant a chance to recover for winter.

Early cutting weakens the plant, late cutting gives a coarse, poorer quality hay. Cut when the crop has nearly reached the full bloom condition. Cut but twice a year, leaving the third growth for winter protection.—L. Stevenson, Director of Extension, O. A. College.

Rotation of Crops.

It is highly important that the soil be given a rest, oats following oats, or corn following corn is not good farming, it is soil mining. If the soil is rich the evil day will be delayed, but the time will surely come when those who do not give the soil a chance must pay the price and suffer in reduced crops, plant diseases, insect injury, and weeds.

No one rotation is the best under all conditions, but to all accepted crop rotations, certain principles can be applied, so that each particular farm can be fitted with a definite plan suited to its peculiarities. Give the matter of crop rotation some consideration, it will pay you. The staff of the Ontario Agricultural College will be glad to help you with any farm problem.—L. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O. A. College.

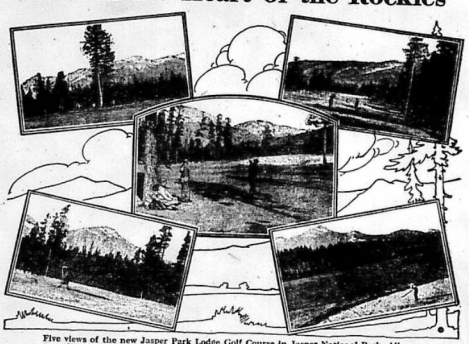
Golf in the Heart of the Rockies



Five views of the new Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course in Jasper National Park, Alberta. This course will rank among the best playing courses on the continent and it has the added feature of an incomparable scenic setting.

WHEN it was decided to add golf to the attractions of Jasper National Park the policy adopted from the outset was that the golf should be good enough to be appreciated for itself, the beauty of the scenery being merely an added attraction. Since the course has been cleared and is revealed to the visitor he concludes that the Canadian National Railways were fortunate to have such a great extent of golfing terrain so immediately available to the Lodge. A year ago, when most of it was Rocky Mountain forest, the golfing possibilities were not so apparent. Work was commenced early in the summer of 1924 and was rushed forward with such success that nine holes will be available for play during the summer of 1925.

Fortunately there is no clay at Jasper. This should delight the golfer's heart. The underlying strata is generally gravel like all the Athabaska River basin in which Jasper is situated, so that the fairways have under them that gravelly subsoil essential to the production of good golfing turf. Sand was also found on the property in sufficient quantity and quality to fill all requirements. The fairways are clear of actual outcroppings of rock, but these show up around tees and greens, giving a pleasing rugged setting but never interfering with the play.

The route selected encloses a great heart shaped area with the first hole starting, and the last hole finishing, at the lower point of the heart. At the top there is a double back and further along a loop of three holes which are on a peninsula running out into Lac Beauvert. This route is quite an exceptional one and there is a complete absence of paralleling in the ordinary sense of the term, although the 10th has the 6th immediately to the right of it.

The ups and downs of holes and the undulations of fairways are only those to be desired on a first class course located in a good golfing country, although on every side of the course great snow capped peaks rise to a height of from eight to eleven thousand feet. With such magnificent surroundings it naturally added much to the scenic attractions of the course to have such a route selected that gives different views at almost every hole.

Most of the holes, as can be seen from the score card, take their names from the mountains and the lakes which provide for the course one of the finest settings of any golf course in the world.

Autumn Leaves.

The infant school is out, and a crowd of tiny children come chasing each other down the road, laughing and calling, running in the wind, their cheeks rosy, their eyes dancing and their hair flying. Just as they reach me a big gust of wind shakes the trees above their heads, and quantities of yellow, brown and golden leaves come swirling down over and around them —and children and leaves all whirl away together. Whereupon I paint a mental picture, all russet and amber and little laughing faces, and call it "Autumn Leaves," for not all our loveliest pictures get placed on canvas.—Christian Science Monitor.

Buenos Aires' Rapid Growth.

Buenos Aires is one of the fastest growing cities of the world. The census of 1914 showed 1,575,800 inhabitants, and the population is now estimated to be more than 2,000,000, since immigrants are arriving at the rate of more than 10,000 a week. Until recently the city has retained most of the characteristics of the small Latin-American city.

DEVELOP BACON TRADE

DISTRIBUTION OF BOARS IS PROVING A POPULAR POLICY.

Good Progress Is Being Made In Ontario and This Article Contains Some Information Necessary for Success.

Agriculture, Toronto.) (Contributed by the Department of

One hundred and fifty pure-bred boars of bacon type have been doing their share to push Ontario over the top as a bacon producing province. These boars have bred during the past year over 7,500 sows, and the progeny are now being marketed. Loaned by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, they have been placed with farmers clubs in twenty-eight counties of the province.

This work which was started a little over two years ago has gone ahead by leaps and bounds. In order that a community may obtain the use of one of these boars, at least ten farmers owning twenty or more breeding sows must organize themselves into a club. They then appoint a caretaker for the boar at a salary agreeable to all parties, and set a service fee to be charged out of which the caretaker receives his pay. Upon making application to the Ontario Live Stock Branch, and with the approval of the Minister of Agriculture, a bacon type boar of the breed desired by the club, is supplied free of charge.

Age of Boar for Service.

The age at which a young boar may be first used depends largely upon his development. Some boars may be used to a few sows when not more than seven months old without apparent injury. As a rule, it is safer not to use a boar before he is eight months old, and to use him as sparingly as possible until he is a year old. No hard and fast rule can be laid down, and the owner must use his judgment in the matter. Excessive use when young is likely to shorten the period of a boar's usefulness and since a boar will usually leave the best pigs after he reaches maturity, the importance of saving him while he is young, will be readily appreciated. Some good breeders will not allow more than one service a day with intervals of one or two days a week without being used in the case of valuable boars. This is a matter which can be regulated better in large herds, where several stock boars are kept, than it can where only one boar is kept and where outside sows are admitted. The owner of a boar under the last-named conditions will require to exercise all his ingenuity to prevent his boar from being used too freely during certain seasons of the year. In no case should more than one service to a sow be permitted, and the boar should not be allowed to run with sows to which he is to be bred. Excessive use is likely to result in small, weak litters, and the aim should be to save the boar as much as possible. It is not good to use a boar immediately after he has been fed.

If the boar is shipped some distance and arrives excited and tired, he should be fed very lightly at first, and not used for several weeks after his arrival.

Importance of Exercise.

Probably nothing is more essential to the health and vigor of an animal than exercise. In summer it is usually a comparatively simply matter to provide exercise in a paddock or pasture lot, but in winter it is more difficult. A roomy pen should be provided with a sheltered outside yard. When practicable, it is a good plan to feed the boar outdoors at some distance from his sleeping quarters, thus compelling him to take exercise in walking back and forth between his pen and feeding place. Icy ground is the greatest drawback to this method, but this can be overcome by littering the walk with some straw, horse manure. Sometimes the boar can be fed in a well-littered barnyard, which makes a very good arrangement when practicable.

Feeding the Service Boar.

It requires good judgment to keep a boar in the best possible condition. Extremes are to be avoided. The over-fat boar does not make a satisfactory sire as a rule, and a half-starved boar cannot transmit vigor and constitution to his progeny, to the same degree that he would if properly fnanced. To get the best results the boar should be in fair flesh. A reasonable amount of fat on his bones will do him no harm if he gets sufficient exercise.

An exclusive meat ration will not give good results, especially if the ration is made up of corn. It is true that corn can be fed to a boar without injuring him, but it must be fed in the right way. Corn is fattening, but its exclusive use is debilitating, and the feeder must combine something with it to get good results. Equal parts ground oats and wheat middlings make a first-class meal ration when corn is not used. It gives sufficient bulk, and is nutritious without being fattening or too fattening. Ground oats, sandfinge, or bran may be used singly to dilute corn or other heavy meal; in fact, a very great variety of grains may be fed so long as the feeder used judgment.

Supplemental Feeds.

But a boar needs something besides grain and meal to be in his best condition. Skim milk and buttermilk are excellent, and will give good results with meal even if nothing else is used. In winter roots of any kind are much relished. They have a cooling, laxative effect, promote digestion and keeping the animal thrifty and vigorous. If roots are not available, alfalfa hay of fine quality or even red clover may be used to give bulk to the ration. Some feed the alfalfa hay dry in racks, and others prefer to cut it.

SAVE THE GIRDLED TREES

MICE DO DESTRUCTIVE WORK UNDER THE SNOW.

Bridge Graft to Save the Tree—Also a Word or Two About the Rotation of Crops.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

The field mouse is the most destructive rodent orchard pest that we have to contend with in Ontario. With the passing of the snow each spring the girdling work of Mr. Mouse is brought to light, and many a tree owner gets quite a shock when he sees destruction, where everything promised so well at the beginning of the winter. Hundreds of trees die each year, many of which might be saved if a little timely work was done to enable the tree to make repair and carry on.

The effect of mouse injury in girdling is to destroy or restrict the downward circulation of elaborated foodstuffs to the roots. The problem is therefore to re-establish the bark connection immediately, either by means of bridge grafting or inarching. Earliness in treatment is without doubt the most important factor in determining success or failure.

Bark Regeneration.

Trees injured by mice will sometimes make recovery without treatment, providing that the injury is limited and does not completely encircle the tree. These minor cases can be assisted by coating the injured are with warm grafting wax or asphaltum paint, these protect the wound and encourage the regeneration of bark.

Bridge Grafting.

Where the injury completely encircles the trunk the problem is to re-establish the bark connection by bridge grafting. This can be accomplished successfully providing that the bark both above and below the injury is sound. Shoots or scions ¼ to ½-inch in diameter should be selected and cut slightly longer than the distance to bridge. These shoots or scions should be bevelled at each end with both bevelled surfaces on the same side. The bevelling should be long to give a wedge-shaped end that is thin enough to insert easily. The action is set by making an inverted T-shaped cut above the injury at the point where it is desired to insert, and a similar T-shaped cut is made below. The ends of the scion are slipped into the incisions and it forms a slight arch. It is held in place with a small brad driven through and into the wood at the tree. If the wood of the scion is brittle drill a small hole in each end of the scion to avoid splitting. The scions are set 1½ to 2 inches apart, according to size of tree. After insertion all surfaces of scions, stock and the body of the scions should be coated with warm grafting wax to prevent drying. Further protection against extremes or temperature can be provided by mounding up soil around the tree to cover the bridged area, until union takes place. Remove the soil covering in six weeks. Burlap, or old sacking can be wrapped loosely over the bridging for the same protective service.

Shoot Bridging.

Should strong shoots of suitable size exist, situated below the injured area, such may be shortened and the free end inserted above the injury.

The subject of grafting is fully treated in the bulletin on Orchard Grafting published by the Ontario Department of Agriculture. If interested a postcard will bring it to you. Try and save all injured trees—there is a way to do it. Don't let the field mouse beat you out. Repair your injured trees by the practice of tree surgery this time, but next time provide protection. The mouse can not eat wire netting.—L. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O. A. College.

Mustard Is a Rubber Bold.

Iron sulphate or copperas can be successfully used to destroy mustard in standing grain without injury to the crop, so says Prof. J. E. Howitt of the O. A. College.

Preparation of Solution.

A 20 per cent. solution should be applied. This can be prepared by dissolving 80 pounds of iron sulphate in 40 gallons of water, or 10 pounds of copper sulphate to 40 gallons of water.

The solution should be strained through a cheesecloth as it is put into the spray pump tank. This will remove the dirt and small particles that are apt to clog the nozzles.

Time to Apply.

Apply on a calm day just as soon as the first few plants in the fields show flowers. It is very important to spray early. If the plants are left too long the treatment is not nearly so effective. If a heavy rain comes within 24 hours after the solution is applied it will be necessary to spray again.

How to Apply the Solution.

An ordinary hand pump barrel sprayer, such as is employed to spray fruit trees, may be used, or a power sprayer can be used to do the work. Care must be taken to see that each nozzle is delivering a fine spray. The solution in the form of a fine spray, so as to thoroughly done and at the right time.

Chickweed.

Chickweed is a very troublesome weed in moist or sandy places. Some seasons it is much worse than others as climatic conditions favor its growth or otherwise. Constant hoeing will keep it in check, and hand weeding is also often necessary.

Sweet Peas and Pansies.

If well-rotted manure is thoroughly mixed with the soil sweet peas and pansies may be planted in same place each year.

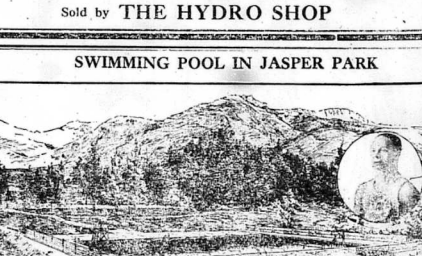
SWIMMING POOL IN JASPER PARK



An open-air heated swimming pool will be an added attraction at Jasper Park Lodge, the summer mountain hotel of the Canadian National Railways in Jasper National Park, according to an announcement made by Walter Pratt, general manager of the hotel department of the National System. The construction of the pool has been under way for some time, and work has progressed so well that the pool will be ready for the opening of the season in the latter part of May.

The pool, which has been built directly in front of the main lodge on the shore of Lac Beauvert and within sight of some of the highest mountain peaks in the park, was designed and constructed entirely by engineers of the Company. It is built of reinforced concrete on concrete piers and is 100 feet long by 40 feet wide. Fifteen feet at the shallow end have been railed off as a wading pool for children and this end will vary in depth from one foot nine inches to two feet six inches. The rest of the pool will vary in depth from three to nine feet. At the deep end spring boards and a diving tower are provided. The most modern heating and filtering methods have been employed and the water is drawn from a spring in the mountains behind the lodge.

The lighting features are unique. In addition to overhead lighting, electric bulbs have been concealed below the surface of the water and it is thought that the effect of this submarine illumination will be very striking.

The pool is built on sloping ground. Adjoining it on the lake side, and appearing to be part of the pool itself, is a boathouse, where are accommodated the boats and canoes for those who want to use Lac Beauvert.

Sufficient space is provided above the water level for the accommodation of spectators in the event of racing or diving competitions or other aquatic sports. In addition to a five-foot runway close to the water for the use of the swimmers, there is a platform ranging in width from 11 feet on three sides to 34 feet on the boat-house side. Benches are arranged on these platforms for spectators. Dressing rooms and shower baths are provided in a cabin near the pool.

Supervision of the pool will be under the direction of George O. Stafford, an employee of the hotel department of the Canadian National Railways in Montreal, who is being transferred to Jasper for the summer. Mr. Stafford is one of the best known swimmers and divers in Canada. He was born in England, where he won the Junior Championship of the Southern Counties in swimming and diving in 1912. He came to Montreal in 1920, and in 1921 he was the Province of Quebec fancy diving championship and held the honors during 1923 and last year he was runner-up for the Canadian fancy diving championship in 1922 and was the Canadian indoor fancy diving championship this year.

The photograph shows the pool and inset George O. Stafford, the Supervisor.

Automobile Accidents

Almost every newspaper you read has an account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed, in every case some person is held responsible and must pay the damages for. Many drivers say, "Oh, I am a careful driver, and I will never cause an accident," but you may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damage.

Why take the risk? We can sell you a Policy that protects you against liability imposed by Law, defends you in every lawsuit and pays all damage up to a very large amount. No inconvenience for you, no anxiety, and the cost, in most cases, is not more than $1.50 per month. Let us give you the exact cost for Policy on your Car.

Never Met Its Equal For Healing!

Writing from Saulnierville, Digby Co., N.S., Mr. John M. Theriault says:—"We find Zam-Buk a splendid household healer for cuts, burns and other accidents and skin ailments of common occurrence.

"One of my sons tried Zam-Buk for his boils and it did him such a lot of good, that I decided to give the balm a trial for piles, from which I had been troubled for over two years.

"Before one box of Zam-Buk was finished, I had observed a change for the better and comfort that I announced with the statement 'In a comparatively short time I had gained permanent relief from the piles.' Zam-Buk proved equally good for chapped hands, cracked lips, etc.

"I've never met its equal for healing."

About thirty-five young people took part in the tableau of Canada, and the large audience was delighted with each act. The excellent music furnished by their own five-piece orchestra, was a rare treat. The receipts at the door amounted to fifty-five dollars in aid of the Church Choir. After the entertainment the actors were all invited to the Methodist Church dining hall, where the tables were daintily decorated and laden with delicious eatables furnished by the Odessa ladies, whose reputation for such repasts supreme. The new cement walk from the corner of Edmund Drive and Main St., extending one block West, has been completed.—The remains of the late Miss Annie Mohan, who passed away at her brother's home, Arthur Mohan, Ellenburg, and whose funeral was held in Fairfield, were interred in the family plot of the Catholic cemetery, here, last Wednesday. PAINS ACROSS THE BACK
Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mitchell, Ontario.—"I have taken your medicine for a number of years, about it, too. Every time I take it, it makes me feel better and I always recommend it to my friends. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about this medicine and you may use this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. F. J. WESTACOTT, Mitchell, Ontario.

The merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is told by women to each other. Many women know by experience what this medicine will do and they are anxious for others to know.

Such testimony should cross any woman suffering from the troubles so common to her sex to give this well-known medicine a fair trial.

Do you know that in a recent canvass among women users of the Vegetable Compound over 200,000 replies were received. To the question, "Have you received benefit by taking this medicine?" 98 per cent. replied "Yes."

This means that 98 out of every 100 women are in better health because they have given this medicine a fair trial.

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 7

The Advent of Tea to England

Tea was not used to any extent in England till about the middle of the seventeenth century, although knowledge of the wonderful qualities of the beverage had reached Europe as early as 1517. During the seventeenth century, all tea was imported from China and cost from $25.00 to $50.00 per pound. Not until 1836 did any tea reach England from India. In that year the first shipment was made from the now famous tea growing district of Assam. India today supplies fully half the world's tea requirements and provides some of the finest teas grown. The rich body of "SALADA" is due to the select India teas used in the blend.

The Breeder that Raises Dollars

Ask your county agent or agricultural college what part brooding plays in making poultry profits. And what part hatching plays, too.

They'll tell you they're the first steps toward success. And they'll very probably recommend Buckeye Incubators and Buckeye Coal-Burning or Oil-Burning Brooders. They'll tell you that they hatch more eggs, raise more chicks, insure bigger poultry profits for you.

Then ask us for the new Buckeye Catalog—a most complete and valuable book on poultry raising. Tells how to feed, cull, get more eggs in winter and market for high prices.

Offers County Use of House of Refuge
A dentalists from the County of Prince Edward, consisting of Warden Hubbs, County Councillors Morden, Walbridge and Lacevere, County Treasurer Wright and County Clerk Walmsley and Superintendent House of Refuge, Stewart, were in Napanee on Friday last in consultation with Warden Smith, County Councillor Johnston and County Clerk Wilson, of this County's Committee in reference to union of the Counties in maintenance of a Home for the aged. The matter was gone into very fully and several alternative propositions were made to our committee, which will be considered at the June session of the County Council. It is contended that the Home at Picton is equipped for double its average number of inmates and would be quite sufficient for both Counties.

BASEBALL

On Wednesday, May 13th, the N. C. I. won their second game to the tune of 19-10. Newburgh were the victims and they fought hard for six innings, but the N.C.I. broke loose and put 10 runs across in the 6th and 8th. The N.C.I. sluggers were at their best, Daverne clouting out a four-bagger, and Parrott, Deline, Vanalstine and Fraser each connected for triples. The N.C.I. infield worked well, while the outfielders were unlucky in having only short flies to handle. Newburgh led till the last of the sixth, then Napanee took the lead in a strong rally.

However, while they were in the running, Newburgh played sparkling ball, retiring the N.C.I. in order for several innings. The second baseman hit two triples, while the rest of the team leaned against Davern's twisters, and for 9 runs in 6 innings. They only got one after that.

Daverne did mound duty for the N.C.I. for 6 innings, but he had to retire owing to a sore arm. Wartman replaced him and the Newburgh boys found it hard to connect with his slants. Birnes for Newburgh, pitched in fine style, but lost heart when his team-mates failed to support him.

The N.C.I. base-stealers were also active, Fraser and Vanalstine each pilfering four sacks, while Parrott, MacDonald and Deline each walked off with a couple of bags.

The game was witnessed by some 200 wildly-excited students and about a hundred citizens from the town.

Mr. Jack Adams, of St. Pat's Hockey Team, of Toronto, and Mr. Detlor, of the Newburgh Seniors, officiated, and gave the teams the best bit of umpiring they have had in a long time. There were no kicks from either team, so fair were the decisions.

The teams were :—
N.C.I.—Hoffman, c.; Daverne, p. and 2b.; C. Fraser, 1b.; C. McDonald, 2b.; M. Vanalstine, s.s.; L. Wartman, 3b. and p.; A. Parrott, c.f.; H. Deline, l.f.; R. Northmore and P. Allison, r.f.

Newburgh—McNeilly, c.; Byram, p.; Fisher, 1b.; Brooks, 2b.; Cook; 3b.; Breene, s.s.; Scott, c.f.; Judge, r.f.; Birnes, l.f.

Score by innings.—

There passed peacefully away on April 21st, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Craig, Switzerville, Mrs. Mary Ann Yeomans, at the age of 77 years, after an illness of short duration. Mrs. Yeomans was the eldest daughter of Nathaniel and Eliza Dopking, and was born at Enterprise, on March 20th, 1848. She was one of a family of twelve children. She was married early in life to David Yeomans, who predeceased her some years ago. She was of a very quiet and loveable disposition and always looked on the bright side, and was beloved by all who knew her. She spent the last reclining years of her life among her children. All were glad to welcome mother and always sorry to have her go again. In religion she was a Methodist, and her funeral sermon was preached by her Pastor, Rev. Mr. Merrick, who preached a very impressive sermon from the 90th Psalm, 12th verse. The pall bearers were her grandsons.

Many beautiful floral tributes were sent by friends, also one from the Adult Bible Class of Switzerville Sunday School. Her son, Charles, was unable to be with her on account of his own illness.

A NEW PORTRAIT STUDIO

McKenzie, Portrait Photographer, of Kingston, Plans to Open Branch in Napanee.

I wish to announce to the citizens of Napanee and the vicinity, that I have arranged for rooms in the Harshaw Block, in which I intend to open a portrait studio in the near future. The light from the large side windows is excellent for portrait work, and a fully as good as that from the windows I use in Kingston.

Watch for the window display of my display work. I can do work of this class in Napanee. When you want a good portrait made you will not have to go out of town to get it after I get started, and I hope you take advantage of this convenience to an extent which will make this branch studio a paying bbusiness proposition.

Copalline your floors, linoleums and furniture ! It dries hard with a brilliant gloss; will not chip and won't darken hardwood floors. Wallace's, sole agents for Napanee.

It's only fair that the public should know that the cost of delivering coal could be cut. But the only way to do it is for everybody to order early. It is simply this : If coal was ordered evenly the year 'round, coal men could cut their delivery equipment in half. We print this for the public good. If it helps in that direction, we will feel amply repaid.

TRINITY ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

A splendid congregation filled the schoolroom of Trinity Church on Wednesday evening for the annual congregational meeting. The program was divided into three parts, I Devotional, II Business, 3 Social and refreshments.

Mr. C. L. Graham, assisted by Mr. C. D. Black, led in the devotional part of the gathering.

The business session, which was presided over by the Pastor, Rev. W. J. Tanton, was taken up with the presentation of the reports of the work in the various department of the Church. The following presented the reports :—Finance, Mr. F. Henderson; Woman's Missionary Society, Mrs. G. Switzer; Ladies' Aid, Miss Alma Thompson; Ready Helpers, Mrs. McCormack; C. G. I. T. Groups, Miss Lepha Woods; Missionary, Mr. C. D. Black, and Sunday School, Mr. C. L. Graham.

The reports showed very satisfactory progress in every department. Over $10,000 was raised during the year, and the missionary givings were the highest in the history of Trinity.

Musical items were rendered by Miss Nina McKim, Mr. F. LaSalle, and a splendid Orchestra, under the leadership of Professor Baird.

Following the business session, the following message of love and goodwill was sent to Rev. Dr. Shorey, in Picton :—

Napanee, May 21st, 1925.

Rev. S. J. Shorey, D.D.,
Picton, Ontario.

Dear Dr. Shorey,—Last night we held a Congregational Meeting of Trinity Church, when the Sunday School room was filled, and reports of the year's work of the different organizations were presented.

Among items raised for the General Missionary Fund $1394.00 and an extra for Pivena Mission of $100.00. The total amount raised for all purposes was a little over $10,000.00. God has indeed blessed our efforts, and crowned our year with success, thirty-two people having joined the Church.

During the meeting last evening reference was made by the Chairman (Rev. Mr. Tanton) to your faithful leadership as Pastor of Trinity Church, and also to your noble service to the Bay of Quinte Conference and to the Methodist Church of the Dominion.

By a standing vote we three whose signatures are hereto affixed, were asked to write and tell you of Trinity Congregation's continued affection, love and esteem for you, and to assure you that we will continue to pray that Almighty God may pour His spirit on you, and that you may continue happy and peaceful in His love.

Yours truly,

J. E. ROBINSON.
M. C. HOGART.

After the resolution had been passed by a standing vote, the congregation joined in singing "Blest be the tie that binds".

LACK OF FAMILIARITY WITH SAFETY REQUIREMENTS FOR CLOSED CARS IS CAUSE OF MANY FATALITIES ONTARIO MOTOR LEAGUE FINDS

Misuse of closed cars and unfamiliarity with the rules of safety for the new "closed car era" are declared to be an unrecognized cause of many automobile accidents, according to a bulletin just issued by the Ontario Motor League.

In the opinion of Ontario Motor League Officials, accidents will decrease as soon as the motoring public learns to operate closed cars more safely and at the same time revises its ideas of caution to fit the new conditions.

Coming at a time when the auto industry is preparing to meet an unprecedented Spring demand for closed cars, which are becoming more and more popular, the Ontario Motor League bulletin is expected to be the subject of considerable thought and discussion among safety advocates who are said to have overlooked the significance of the public change-over from the open car to that of the inclosed type.

"A leading cause of the high automobile accident rate", the Ontario Motor League paper states, "is the failure of the average driver to recognize the new type of caution necessary with the new type of motoring.

"Accidents will be on the decrease as soon as the public learns to operate closed cars more safely. At present, hundreds of thousands of drivers are mis-using their closed cars and ignoring the new rules of safety that go with the new type of motoring. As a matter of fact, they do not appreciate the fact that the new rules are necessary.

"They have gone suddenly from their open models to their closed cars without appreciating the new type of danger that is always associated with anything one is not familiar with. They feel that what they have learned with regard to safety in its connection with open car driving will suffice for their new type of motoring. They allow this ignorance to win for them the reputation of being careless.

"Visibility in closed cars is actually better than in curtained open cars, but the closed car's shortcomings are of a different kind. The problem is for each driver to discover this difference and act accordingly.

"By taking undue liberties with the carelessness of the closed car much of its inherent safety has been nullified. Drivers have felt that because they were shielded against the elements they were immune from danger. Thus we have found thousands of motorists venturing forth in storms that would not take so great a toll of human life if motordom were still on an open car basis.

"Motorists have taken great liberties with the speed which closed cars make possible by reason of their extra weight and their ability to ride against the wind. Many persons are driving far faster than they imagine and are thus unprepared for the dangers which invariably accompany one's ignorance of speed. The Motor League agrees with engineers that highway speeds will be materially higher within a very few years, but such increased speed cannot be safe until drivers are prepared to handle it.

"The landslide to closed cars is in full swing, but accidents will not be materially lessened until the average motorist becomes familiar with his new surroundings."

With a view to familiarize the motorist with these changing conditions and to emphasize the point that it is ignorance more than carelessness that occasions the present high rate of accidents and fatalities, the Ontario Motor League outlines the following suggestions for the average driver who buys a closed car :

"Learn that you may be travelling at a higher rate of speed without realizing it, particularly where the grade is slightly downward. Speed is always a hazard when you are not aware of your actual speed.

"Learn that physical comforts offered by the closed body in adverse weather do not alter the inherent hazards. Your hands may be warm but there may be just as much ice on the road as when you formerly shivered in your open car, or stayed at home.

"Learn that though you can see out better in your closed car than you could through rain curtains the few obstructions to vision, such as the body posts, are at points you are not accustomed to.

"Learn that other drivers in closed cars are usually as unfamiliar with the new conditions as you are, and that the safest plan is always to give a bit to the 'other fellow'."

OBITUARY

Mrs. George Wright.

During the past week and Monday, May 11th, there entered into the Paradise of God Matilda Neilson, beloved wife of Mr. George Wright, Sandhurst. Mrs. Wright was the last member of the elder branch of the Neilson family—a family whose sterling worth is well known. Her passing, at the ripened age of eighty-four years, is not without poignant sorrow to her many friends, who will long cherish the memory of a life which so well illustrated the good, the true, and the beautiful. She was a Life Member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Ontario, and the last of its charter members of the Sandhurst Branch. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held in St. Paul's Church, Tuesday afternoon, and was conducted by the Rector of the Parish. Interment was made in the family plot in St. Paul's churchyard.

OBITUARY

L. F. Bogart.

A large circle of friends in Napanee and district, were shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. L. F. Bogart on Saturday last. Mr. Bogart was attending his business all the week before, and was present as usual on the Sunday in Trinity Church. Pneumonia and heart trouble were the cause of the passing of one who had a large circle of friends both in Napanee and Adolphustown.

The funeral service was held at the home on Bridge Street, on Monday, thus conducted by the Rev. W. J. Tanton, assisted by Rev. J. H. H. Coleman and Rev. H. B. Neal. In the course of his address Mr. Tanton referred to the fact that Mr. Bogart was a loyal member of the church, a member of the Official Board, and President of the Men's Bible Class.

Besides his widow, he leaves one son, Arthur, in Adolphustown, and one daughter, Mrs. Roblin, also of Adolphustown. Mrs. Stewart Daly is a sister of the deceased. The sympathy of a host of friends has gone out to the bereaved circle.

Mrs. S. O. D. Shea.

Mrs. S. O. D. Shea, who lived alone at her home on Lower Bagot street, Kingston, was found dead on Wednesday morning of last week, about 9.30 o'clock, by Detective Thomas Mullinger. The late Mrs. Shea, who was about seventy years of age, had not been noticed about the home for the past few days and newspapers were allowed to remain on the door step. The neighbors became alarmed and notified the police. When Detective Mullinger arrived at the home he found the back door unlocked. Upon going into the dining room he found the body of Mrs. Shea lying on the sofa. The hands were crossed as though she had fallen asleep. Coroner Daniel Phalen was called and upon examining the body he said that he was satisfied that Mrs. Shea died from heart disease and had likely been dead for at least twenty-four hours. John Cornelius, undertaker, was called and the body was prepared for burial. Deceased was a daughter of the late James Armitage, of Ernestown Township, and wife of Daniel Shea, Odessa. Mr. Shea used to be known as a driver and owner of the Odessa-Kingston stage. Mrs. Shea had been a resident of Kingston for some time.

OBITUARY

L. F. Bogart.

A large circle of friends in Napanee and district, were shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. L. F. Bogart on Saturday last. Mr. Bogart was attending his business all the week before, and was present as usual on the Sunday in Trinity Church. Pneumonia and heart trouble were the cause of the passing of one who had a large circle of friends both in Napanee and Adolphustown.

The funeral service was held at the home on Bridge Street, on Monday, thus conducted by the Rev. W. J. Tanton, assisted by Rev. J. H. H. Coleman and Rev. H. B. Neal. In the course of his address Mr. Tanton referred to the fact that Mr. Bogart was a loyal member of the church, a member of the Official Board, and President of the Men's Bible Class.

Besides his widow, he leaves one son, Arthur, in Adolphustown, and one daughter, Mrs. Roblin, also of Adolphustown. Mrs. Stewart Daly is a sister of the deceased. The sympathy of a host of friends has gone out to the bereaved circle.

Mrs. S. O. D. Shea.

Mrs. S. O. D. Shea, who lived alone at her home on Lower Bagot street, Kingston, was found dead on Wednesday morning of last week, about 9.30 o'clock, by Detective Thomas Mullinger. The late Mrs. Shea, who was about seventy years of age, had not been noticed about the home for the past few days and newspapers were allowed to remain on the door step. The neighbors became alarmed and notified the police. When Detective Mullinger arrived at the home he found the back door unlocked. Upon going into the dining room he found the body of Mrs. Shea lying on the sofa. The hands were crossed as though she had fallen asleep. Coroner Daniel Phalen was called and upon examining the body he said that he was satisfied that Mrs. Shea died from heart disease and had likely been dead for at least twenty-four hours. John Cornelius, undertaker, was called and the body was prepared for burial. Deceased was a daughter of the late James Armitage, of Ernestown Township, and wife of Daniel Shea, Odessa. Mr. Shea used to be known as a driver and owner of the Odessa-Kingston stage. Mrs. Shea had been a resident of Kingston for some time.

SOLDIER'S FUNERAL

Held at Yarker on Sunday, When the Remains of Private Keith Walker Were Laid to Rest. — Members of "B" Company, Frontenac Regiment Composed the Firing Party.

Private Keith Walker, who died at the Mowat Memorial Hospital, Kingston, on Friday, May 15th, 1925, was probably the youngest of the Canadian Contingent to enlist in the 37th Battalion, for service in the Great War. He was 19 years of age at the time of his enlistment at Napanee, with the 146th Battalion, March 9th, 1916. His height was then 6 feet. On his first enlistment he passed himself off as 18 years old, but his real age being later discovered he was discharged from the service. The young lad was determined to "do his bit" and later on he passed and was accepted in the 235th Battalion.

Owing to illness which developed when in England he was prevented from seeing service in France and Belgium. He never recovered from this illness and was sent back to Kingston and had been an inmate of the Mowat Hospital from October 14th, 1921 , continuously until the time of his death on Friday last—the cause of death being tubercular consumption.

The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walker, now resident in Oshawa.

He was born in Yarker but spent most of his time with his uncle and aunt in Colebrook. Before he died he desired that he should be buried beside his aunt in Yarker cemetery. His wish was respected and he was given a military funeral. The firing party was composed of men of "B" Company, Frontenac Regiment, under command of Captain Harry Babcock and Sgt.-Major McGillivray. The Band of the Argyle Highlanders of Belleville, thirty strong, including eight pipers, accompanied the firing party.

The remains of Private Keith Walker were conveyed to the Methodist Church, Yarker, from the hospital by James Reid's ambulance.

A short service was held at the church conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Mr. McKenzie, after which the cortege proceeded to the cemetery.

The coffin was draped with the Union Jack and placed on it were the sword, cap and belt of the deceased. It was borne to the cemetery on the shoulders of the bearers—all veterans of the Great War. Company Quartermaster Sgt. P. Robinson, Sgt. H. Delaney, Sgt. H. Allan, Sgt. R. Howie, Sgt. Albert Smith, Corp. Ed. Smith, Private O. Schulthorpe and Private H. Plumley.

The honorary mourners were Lieut. Mills and Lieut. Murray.

The firing party took up position at the grave, a prayer was said, a volley fired and the pipers played "The Lament". Bayonets were fixed, the firing party presented arms, and thus the last honors were paid to a departed comrade whose warfare was o'er. Requiescat in Pace.

"B" COMPANY PARADE

"B" Company, Frontenac Regiment, paraded to the Church of St. Mary Magdalene Sunday morning last, and the church was filled to overflowing. The service was a bright and hearty one and was conducted by the Vicar, Rural Dean J. H. H. Coleman, M.A., and the sermon was preached by Canon J. W. Jones, of Kingston, regimental chaplain. After the church service the parade was re-formed and headed by the Athletic Band of Belleville, with eight pipers, proceeded down Bridge, Main to Dundas St. and thence to the soldiers' monument in front of the Court House, where a handsome wreath was placed on the base, the band playing "The Lament". Prayer was made by Captain Canon Jones. The "Last Post" was sounded by the buglers. The parade then returned to the armouries and was dismissed.

The people of Napanee are pretty proud of their "soldier laddies" and of their soldierly appearance they made on parade.

YARKER.

The funeral of the late Keith Walker was held last Sunday in the Methodist Church. On account of the popularity of the deceased, and also the military funeral, there was a tremendous crowd, the church only holding about half the people, who wished to pay their last respects to the deceased. This young man enlisted in the late war at the age of fourteen, he being large of his age, and was taken over to England, and there contracted that terrible disease, tuberculosis, which finally claimed its victim at the age of twenty-three. He leaves to mourn a loving father and placed on the casket both sick at the time and unable to attend the funeral, also two brothers and one sister, all of Oshawa. His remains were laid to rest in the family plot in Yarder cemetery. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. McKenzie, who spoke very feelingly of the deceased.

The district meeting of the Bay of Quinte Conference was held on Tuesday in the Church, Napanee. Those attending from here were Rev. Mr. McKenzie, E. Purcell and S. Hart.—Mrs. W. W. S. held their meeting one week, and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. F. S. Martin; Vice President, Mrs. A. Bird; recording Secretary, Mrs. S. Hart; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. A. Martin; Treasurer, Mrs. A. Bird.—The ladies of Moscow, Gilebrook and Yarker met the Official Board of the Methodist Church, and organized a Ladies' Aid. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. A. Baker; Vice President, Mrs. I. Salsbury; Secretary, Mrs. B. Hart; Treasurer, Mrs. W. Benn. The purpose of this society is to look after the repairing of the church and is a step in the right direction.

GRADUAL INCREASE IN DAIRY PRODUCTION

Substantial Gain in Output of Creamery Butter in Canada — Cheese Slightly Lower.

The total dairy production in Canada during 1924 showed increases in keeping with the gradual upward trend which has been in progress for a number of years. From year to year there have been fluctuations in the relative amounts of the different products manufactured, due to variations in market values of these commodities, but on the whole the steady increase has been maintained. Naturally milk, to a certain extent, goes into that line of manufacturing most profitable to producers.

A preliminary report of cheese and butter production during 1924 compiled by the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch, Dominion Department of Agriculture, shows cheese production during that year to have been 150,245,131 pounds as compared with 151,824,276 pounds during 1923, a decrease of less than one per cent. This slight falling off was due to decreases in the Provinces of Quebec and Alberta, all the other provinces showing increases.

With reference to creamery butter, the preliminary report shows the 1924 production to have been 182,161,347 pounds as compared with 162,834,608 pounds in 1923, an increase of 11.2 per cent. All the provinces with the exception of New Brunswick had increased outputs. The greatest rate of increase was in the Prairie Provinces, Saskatchewan coming first with a 25 per cent. increase; Alberta, second with 20.3 per cent, and Manitoba, third with 17.7 per cent. Nova Scotia had 15.3 per cent rise and Quebec, 10.7 per cent. No report is yet available as to production of condensed and evaporated milk and milk powder.

During 1924 there was an increase in the quantity of fresh milk and cream exported as compared with 1923. In the last calendar year exports of fresh milk amounted to 2,890,279 gallons as compared with 2,132,765 gallons in the previous year. Shipments of cream out of Canada during 1924 totalled 3,288,822 gallons as compared with 2,668,747 gallons in 1923. Exports of condensed and evaporated milk during the calendar year just closed were 40,250,600 pounds as against 41,092,200 pounds in 1923, a decrease of 2.1 per cent. Milk powder exports reached 7,264,947 pounds in 1924 as compared with 4,975,838 pounds in the previous year.

YOUNG BOY SHOT AT ODESSA

A full charge of buckshot, accidentally discharged from one barrel of a double-barrelled shotgun struck William Cain, of Caintown, fifteen years of age, in the hip Saturday afternoon, at Odessa, and caused a very serious injury, which necessitated his immediate removal to the Kingston General Hospital. An X-Ray examination showed that fifteen shots had lodged in the lad's body, and seven of these were removed at once. His condition is reported to be quite satisfactory considering the bad wound he received.

The unfortunate lad is a native of Caintown, a son of Mr. Nelson Cain. He was visiting with his uncle, Mr. Ross Pennell, of Odessa, and went out for a tramp with him Saturday. On the farm of Mr. Ebar Sagar, about half a mile from the Violet Methodist Church, they were lying on the ground resting, and when the boy got up he picked up the shot gun, which he had been carrying, and it was accidentally discharged. He very narrowly escaped much more serious injury. Had both barrels of the gun been discharged, and both were loaded, he might have lost his life. Dr. J. M. Munro, of Odessa, was summoned at once, and after rendering what aid he could at the scene of the accident he rushed the boy to the Kingston General Hospital. There, assisted by Dr. R. J. Gardiner, the operation of removing some of the shots was performed.

T. H. THOMPSON, M.P., IS DEAD AT MADOC

Represented East Hastings in the Commons Since 1917

Thomas H. Thompson, M.P. for East Hastings, one of the leading public men in this part of the Province, died at his home in the Village of Madoc, Sunday morning, of acute indigestion, heart trouble and congestion of the lungs. Mr. Thompson was stricken on Saturday morning as he was cranking his motor car whereby he overstrained his heart. Medical assistance was called and it was thought he had recovered, but later he was again stricken with fatal results.

The late Mr. Thompson was 58 years of age and had spent his life in Hastings County. Years ago he was elected to the Village Council and served as Reeve. He was Warden of the County of Hastings and in 1917 was first elected to the House of Commons for East Hastings. He ran again in 1921 and defeated the Liberal and Progressive candidates by large majorities. He was one of the best known public men in these parts. He was a Past Grand Master of the Black Knights of Ireland. Early in life he was a cheesemaker and later instructor. He was for years interested in an undertaking and furniture business in Madoc. He was an Anglican. He leaves his widow and one daughter, Mrs. J. N. Bentley, of Belleville.

CANADA A LEADING GOLD PRODUCER

Ranks Third Among World's Producing Countries. — Greatest Annual Output Reached in 1924.

Gold has been found in every province of Canada except Prince Edward Island. The first recorded discovery was made in 1824 on the Gilbert river, 50 miles south of Quebec city. Placer mining commenced here in 1847 and intermittent operations have been carried on here ever since. Placer discoveries were made in Ontario, in British Columbia, and in Yukon at much later dates. Lode mining began at Tangier river, Nova Scotia, in 1858. Records of the production of precious metals in Canada prior to 1887 are scattered and irregular; since that date complete data are available. These records show that between 1858 and 1923 Canada produced 24,774,684 ounces of gold, valued at $512,137,838. During the last few years, owing to the discovery of the new gold fields in northern Ontario, there has been a steady increase in Canadian gold production; more than enough to offset the decline of the Yukon placers. Last year (1924), according to preliminary figures, the total production was the greatest yet recorded being 1,316,369 ounces, valued at $31,345,941. More than 80 per cent. of this production was obtained from the mines of Porcupine and Kirkland Lake, in northern Ontario and 15.6 per cent from British Columbia.

The world's total production of gold has been declining since 1912, but Canada's rate of production is still on the increase. In 1922 she stood third among the countries of the world as a producer of this metal. At present production is at the rate of about $100,000 per day, and this rate will probably continue to rise for some years.

The discoveries made in the Porcupine district during the period 1905-1920 have disclosed the most important new gold producing area found anywhere in the world during the last quarter century. More recent discoveries in the Ronyn district of northwestern Quebec, east of Porcupine, promise well for the future. Canada still possesses immense areas of unprospected territory underlain by similar ancient crystalline rocks and there is an excellent chance of future discoveries surpassing any that are now known.

For three strenuous hours the auctioneer had tried to work his listeners up to the proper pitch of enthusiasm.

Something evidently was wrong, for they simply wouldn't be roused. The sale was one of horses, and lot after lot went for very poor prices. At last the high-water mark was reached when a sad and sorry animal on four legs was led into the ring.

"Now, gentlemen," shouted the auctioneer, "what offers for this lot? Will somebody start the bidding?"

There was a pause. Then a voice came slowly from somewhere in the middle of the crowd—

"Ten shillings !"

"Gentlemen, gentlemen !" protested the auctioneer tearfully, "The horse is alive !"

WHALING OFF THE PACIFIC COAST

Industry Still Ranks Important Among Fisheries of British Columbia.

Whale hunting off the coast of British Columbia is of very considerable importance. Notwithstanding the fact that there has been a gradual diminishing in the supply of whales on the Pacific Coast, the value of the products of the year's catch ranks high and in 1923 the 455 whales taken yielded an income of $332,781. The industry has been carried on by different companies, each in turn taking over the plant of the previous one. The whole industry on the Pacific coast in both Canada and the United States is now under the control of the Consolidated Whaling Corporation. The following figures show the number of whales taken during the fourteen years up to 1923 :

The Brooder that Raises Dollars

Ask your county agent or agricultural college what part brooding plays in making poultry profits. And what part hatching plays, too.

They'll tell you they're the first steps toward success. And they'll very probably recommend Buckeye Incubators and Buckeye Coal-Burning or Oil-Burning Brooders. They'll tell you that they hatch more eggs, raise more chicks, insure bigger poultry profits for you.

Then ask us for the new Buckeye Catalog—a most complete and valuable book on poultry raising. Tells how to feed, cull, get more eggs in winter and market for high prices.

KINGSFORD

A reception was held at the Rectory, Shannonville, last week, at which the congregation of St. Jude's Church, Kingsford, attended. The occasion was the presentation of furniture and household effects to the Rector of Shannonville and Kingsford, the Rev. James Hutton.

Mr. Horace Wright, of Shannonville, on behalf of the two congregations, presented the goods, and Mr. Hutton, in reply, thanked the congregations for their warm-hearted-ness and generosity. The presents included a dining room suite in dark oak; a full kitchen suite, chairs and writing table for the study, a bed complete with mattress, springs and bed clothes, kitchen utensils, towels and other household effects.

The Rev. F. Pashe, of St. Bartholomeus Church, Toronto, also sent Rev. Mr. Hutten a beautiful green stole to mark his being appointed to the Incumbency of Shannonville and Kingsford Parish.

A large number of people attended the reception, and games were indulged in. Refreshments were served, and after midnight the party broke up, after all had spent a very enjoyable evening.

She Was Obliged To Take to Her Bed

Then Mrs. J. Derocher Used Dodd's Kidney Pills

Quebec Lady Suffered From Kidney Trouble and Found Complete Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

South Stukely, Que., May 18th, (Special)—That relief can be obtained from all kinds of kidney disorders by using Dodd's Kidney Pills is again evidenced by the testimonial received from Mrs. J. Derocher, a well known and highly respected resident of this place. She writes:

"I was attacked with a malady that at first I did not think was serious until about the beginning of last March, when it became evident that I would do nothing. I consulted a doctor and he told me I was suffering from kidney trouble.

"I was obliged to take to my bed. I had a Dodd's Almanac in the house and read a few of the testimonials, then bought 3 boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and a box of Diamond Dinner Pills.

"I can assure you that they have made me well, and the pain in my back between the shoulders is gone. I am completely relieved of my trouble."

There are many humorous stories told about the play of "Hamlet" than any other stage work. This little yarn concerns a certain bombastic actor who essayed the part of the tragic Dane with so little success that the gallery showered its time-honored verdict upon the actor in the form of eggs. Going home after the performance, two dramatic critics were chatting. One said, "Well, in all my experience I never saw a worse show."

"True," remarked the other; "he was a rotten 'Hamlet,' but a perfectly wonderful 'Omelette.'"

INDIANS OF PACIFIC COAST ARE PROGRESSING

Wards of Canadian Government in British Columbia Are Engaged in Many Occupations.

Recent reports on the economic condition of the Indians of British Columbia indicate that like the tribes of the other western provinces of Canada they are rapidly adapting themselves to the ways of the white man and gradually becoming self-supporting and independent. The diverse geographical nature of the province and the varying character of its resources create a natural variance in the lives and occupations of the Indians, and it is a matter of gratification that in the majority of instances these wards of the Government are successful in their undertakings.

The total Indian population in the Province of British Columbia, according to a census published last year by the Department of Indian Affairs, numbers 25,782. They are divided into no less than eight distinct linguistic stocks of entirely different racial origin. In British Columbia, as in the other provinces, the Indians are located on reserves under the supervision of the Department of Indian Affairs. Schools are maintained for them by that department and their health is cared for by a staff of departmental physicians. In the more settled parts of the province the residential Indian schools are of a most efficient and up-to-date character. In these institutions the young Indians receive special training designed to fit them for occupations that will enable them to take their place in life as self-supporting members of the community.

In the southern interior of the province, in the Lytton, Kamloops, Okanagan, and Kootenay districts, the Indians are largely engaged in stock raising and fruit-farming. In the latter industry they are instructed in the care of their orchards by a member of the staff of the Department of Agriculture and excellent progress is being made. In the cattle raising industry the Indians of the Okanagan and Kamloops agencies have been remarkably successful.

The Indians who dwell along the coast earn their livelihood principally by fishing. In many instances they own their own motor-boats, nets, and gear. The Haidas of Queen Charlotte Island are particularly progressive. They own and operate a plant for extracting oil from the oulachan fish. The coast Indians of British Columbia are an important factor in the fishing industry. The Indian women are predominant as employees in many of the larger canneries and they are very competent in their work.

Indians of the southern part of Vancouver Island are particularly successful in raising and disposing of strawberries, raspberries, and loganberries. The Indians also find profitable employment in the logging camps and in the hop fields. The older Indians still derive considerable revenue from the manufacture of baskets and Indian wares.

In the remote northern interior the Indians are still largely dependent upon hunting and trapping for their livelihood. In more settled parts of the province, for the most part, they now have comfortable frame houses of modern construction and the old log shacks are rapidly disappearing.

The following figures taken from the latest report of the Department of Indian Affairs show the value of the income derived from different resources by the Indians of British Columbia. They give a good idea of the progress being made by the wards of the Government on the Pacific coast.

Farm Products	$ 786,137 00

Phillip Plotz has been appointed Fire Ranger for this district this season, and Chief Ranger G. J. Hass has made his headquarters here for the season, and both have been very busy from the beginning, for there have been numerous bushfires in various directions, which by early discovery and prompt attention and help to fight them, so far have been put out without endangering other property.—Mrs. Margaret Sallans, for many years one of our most respected citizens, after paying a visit to relatives, friends and former neighbors here, has returned to Charlton, her present home.—Messrs. Wm. and John Both, of Northbrook, were for a few days welcome guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Both.—Mr. M. R. Reid, of Sharbot Lake, I.P.S. made a visit of inspection to our Public Schools.—Mr. Wm. Wager made a motor trip to Ottawa, after his mother, who had for some time been a patient in one of the hospitals there, and H. Warlick made a business trip to Tweed.

Excellent for Croupy Children. — When a child is suffering with croup it is a good plan to use Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It reduces the inflammation and loosens the phlegm giving speedy relief to the little sufferer. It is equally reliable for sore throat and chest, earache, rheumatic pains, cuts, bruises and sprains. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is regarded by many thousands as an indispensable of the family medicine chest.

An old New York farmer attended a big picnic at Binghampton and stayed over to watch the dancing at night, says Trolleer Topics. He hadn't been out in the world much, and he was deeply impressed with the girls' clothes at that dance.

"Some of the ladies' clothes I see here," he said, "puts me in mind of a' barbwire fence."

Somebody asked him why.

"Well," said he, "it's this way—they appear to protect the property without obstructing the view."

ABLE TO DO HOUSEWORK NOW

Sick a Year. Got Great Benefit from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bloomington, N. S.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for pains and backache, also for nervousness, sick headaches and sleeplessness. I was troubled in this way for over a year, and a friend told me about the Vegetable Compound and induced me to take it. I must say I have received great benefit from it and am able to do my housework now. I recommend the Vegetable Compound myself and am willing for you to use this letter as a testimonal."—Mrs. William Morse, Bloomington, Annapolis County, N. S.

Do you know that in a recent canvass among women users of the Vegetable Compound over 230,000 replies were received. To the question, "Have you received benefit by taking this medicine?" 98 per cent. replied "Yes."

This means that 98 out of every 100 women are in better health because they have given this medicine a fair trial.

Mrs. Morse is simply another case of a woman receiving "great benefit." Women suffering from the troubles so common to their sex should listen to what other women say who have experienced the same sufferings and found relief. Give this dependable medicine a chance—and at once. It is sold at all drug stores. C

A man with a bad reputation was crowing about ways of spelling.
"I'll tell all wrong," he said, "to leave out the 'u' in words like harbour, neighbour, candour, honour."
"Well," said a listener, "I'm not sure about the first two, but when it comes to candour and honour, I certainly leave you out."

ROD AND GUN IN CANADA.

The June issue of Rod and Gun in Canada takes the form of a special Ontario Tourist number which includes the attractive features of a personal message to tourists from the Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, Premier of Ontario, and a special section setting forth the attractions of Ontario to the tourist.

The month's articles are specially selected to be appropriate to the number and provide a wealth of interesting and seasonable reading for all-field sportsmen. Dick the Bunnser is a story of canoe travel in Northern Ontario; Dependable Penage of small mouth bass. The regular features stories are of their usual high quality and include Caravanning, Photographing and Trouting on Nova Scotia's Brawling Rivers by Bonnycastle Dale, The Young Mail Carriers by Martin Hunter. In the departments, W. C. Motley's Outdoor Talk is full of new wrinkles for the outdoor man; Angling Talk and Speculation is the theme for this month's Fishing Notes by Robert Page Lincoln and deals among other things with steel rods and casting. Guns and Ammunition, The Trap and The Kennel are also of great interest to their devotees and others.

Rod and Gun in Canada is printed monthly by W. J. Taylor, Ltd., at Woodstock, Ont.

Every careful and observant mother knows when her child suffers from worms. She also knows that if some remedy be not speedily applied much harm will result to the infant. An excellent preparation for this purpose is Miller's Worm Powders. They drive worms from the system and set up a stimulating and soothing effects, so that the child's progress thereafter is painless and satisfying.

There are bright moments in the life of a Baddeck schoolmaster. In a recent examination in General Knowledge a pupil defined a volcano as follows:

"A mountain with a hole in the top, and if you look down the hole you can see the creator smoking."

Another child, when asked why the days are longer in Summer than Winter, explained it by the fact that heat expanded everything.

The Important Thing About a Man's Hat Isn't the Sum it Costs — It's the Something You Get — "A Biltmore"!

A cheap hat fools nobody but the wearer. It doesn't look like a fine hat to begin with, and even if it did, it couldn't keep up. Put at least $3.50 into a Biltmore made "Regent" hat this spring, or better style, put $5.00 into the "Biltmore" Special.

Know the style and thrill of wearing a hat that styles the whole appearance, for your hat is the only article of dress that is on the observer's direct line of vision. A "Biltmore" Hat is cheaper than a cheap hat.

To Pick Up Insect's Call.

An electrical adviser of the Westinghouse Electrical Company has invented a new microphone which will make audible sound waves that have never been heard before, in somewhat the same way that electro-magnetic light waves, which the eye never sees, are detected.

Some light waves are too short to be seen by the eye, and some sound waves are too short—and make too shrill a sound—to be heard by the ear. The squeak of a bat, though it can be heard by young people, can seldom be heard by people over forty because it is too shrill for them; but there are many other sounds, sounds made by insects, which are too shrill for anyone to hear.

The Westinghouse microphone, made by Dr. Phillips Thomas, is said to be able to make these very short sound waves audible.

The human ear cannot take in anything above 24,000 vibrations a second. Dogs can hear much higher notes than that. Sir Francis Galton had whistles made producing 84,000 vibrations a second, and used to walk through the streets of a town sounding his inaudible whistle to make the dogs turn round.

But there are other sounds besides these high sounds made by insects which are at present, perhaps, audible to insects alone. All our muscles—the muscles of the veins, the skin, the heart—are quietly thrilling or vibrating, and they do not cease when we sleep. But they are all thrilling at the very slow rate of only ten or twelve vibrations a second. The new microphone may help us to hear this curious hum of life.

CONDITIONS NOW AND IN 1865

According to General Sherman's Memoirs, History Seems to Be Merely Repeating Itself.

A single page in the story of the Civil war, the Memoirs of General Sherman, carries observations by two Ohio men prominent in that war, General Sherman himself and Secretary of War Stanton, that have a strangely familiar sound now amid the distressing conditions that have followed the World war here.

General Sherman has arrived with his story at the opening of the year 1865, and he is dealing with the closing events of the Civil war. He is at Savannah and the secretary of war is there, partly on an official visit and partly for recreation. The policy of enlisting slaves is under discussion and the order giving the freed slaves the right to occupy seized lands is agreed on.

"He professed to have come from Washington for rest and recreation," writes General Sherman, "and he spoke unreservedly of the bickerings and jealousies at the national capital, of the interminable quarrels of the state governors about their quotas and more particularly of the very existence of the government itself.

"He said that the price of everything had so risen in comparison with the depreciated money that there was a danger of national bankruptcy, and he appealed to me, as a soldier and patriot, to hurry up matters so as to bring the war to a close.

"I was quite impatient to get off, myself, for city life had become dull and tame, and we were all anxious to get into the pine woods again, free from the importunities of Southern women asking for protection, and of civilians from the North who were coming to Savannah for cotton and all sorts of profit."

"High prices, weariness of the war conditions, eagerness on all sides for the return of peace, swarms of people at Washington—official and private citizens, with axes to grind, and speculators from the North pushing right down to the hostile lines in promoting their profiteering enterprises. But we came through it.—Columbus Dispatch.

Cured by Gold Injections.

The very latest post-war discovery is the curing of certain ailments by means of injections of diluted gold. This very expensive method of restoring lost health was discovered by a French doctor, who has completely cured a wealthy Parisian of a complaint similar to shell-shock. Although gold is very scarce at present, a limited supply is available for medicinal purposes. The price for one injection of good quality gold sometimes reaches the fifty-pound mark, while in one or two exceptional cases gold injections have cost over a hundred pounds each. Consequently, only very rich persons can at present undergo this gold treatment, which has been successful in rescuing several cases of complete nervous breakdown. It should be remembered, however, that the gold itself is of no great value as a tonic. The idea in making the injections is to liven up the patient and prevent him or her from brooding too seriously. This done, doctors believe that half the battle is won. Strange to say, the injections are not made through the usual type of syringe, but generally through a conical-shaped tube of pure platinum costing over twelve hundred dollars.

Money.

After having studied the careers of many of our richest men, and after having obtained from many of them an outpouring of their inmost thoughts, my conclusion about money is this, says a writer in Forbes Magazine:

"Money is a very desirable thing, even a lot of it. Its possession enables one to do a great many things which are impossible if one lacks it. There is no such potent material instrument for enabling one to do worthy deeds in large numbers and on a large scale. Money, indeed, is so desirable, so useful, so rich in possibilities for worthy accomplishment, that one should exercise every honorable effort to acquire every dollar of it that one can earn, but there is not enough money in the world to compensate one for turning even one sharp corner, for never have I known an instance of ill-gotten money to have yielded true happiness to possessor and his offspring."

Bird Protection Important.

Preserving birds as game is only one part of the duty of the government. They are even more valuable as enemies of noxious weeds and insects. They are the farmer's best friends, though he is too often oblivious of the fact, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. Those who care nothing for their beauty of plumage and song must recognize the circumstance. Yet the birds have been too long the prey of their human hunters. Some species have been wellnigh exterminated in consequence. To protect them in the United States and Canada will accomplish much, though to make the protection of many of the migrants complete Mexico and Central American countries should join in the work.

Seal Herds Increasing.

The protective measure adopted by the government for the benefit of the seals in our waters has been entirely successful, as indicated by the great number of animals seen to be migrating to the Arctic sea. The migration was three weeks earlier than usual, and an unusually large amount of animals were noted on their way to the north.

Everything You Can Desire in a Roof With

Toronto Asphalt Slates

They Will Not Curl — They Do Not Split — They Cannot Break

Quality — Durability — Beauty — Cleanliness — Economy — Fire Resistance

The Perfect Roof

Durability, economy, beauty—these are the outstanding features of a perfect roof and these, too, are the qualities which are scientifically "built into" Toronto Asphalt Slates.

The asphalt used is highly refined and contains no volatile oils that would evaporate when the roofing is exposed to the weather. This gives a solid waterproof roofing that will not curl, crack, check or decay even under the most extreme weather conditions. No artificial paints or stains are used in making Toronto Asphalt Slates and none are required to maintain their serviceability.

The fire-resisting qualities of Toronto Asphalt Slates are fully recognized by fire insurance companies and secure low rates, because sparks and flaming embers falling on a Toronto Asphalt Slate roof die out without igniting the roof or doing serious damage. Toronto Asphalt Slates have even withstood such a severe test as a shovelful of red-hot coals without fire starting either in the roofing or rafters beneath.

Toronto Asphalt Slates being uniform in size, can be laid with the utmost ease and rapidity and without waste. Toronto Four-in-One Asphalt Slates offer even greater saving in time and labor, besides insuring perfect uniformity in appearance.

The cost is quite moderate. Indeed, considering the total absence of upkeep, the splendid protection and the long life of Toronto Asphalt Slates, their economy is unapproached by any other type of roofing material. You can depend upon Toronto Asphalt Slates for maximum service at rock-bottom cost.

Then there is the fadeless beauty of Toronto Asphalt Slates. Their natural and permanent colors, their simple lines and the exact evenness of the finished roof is a source of pride to architects, builders and property owners alike. Such a roof blends harmoniously with any style of architecture.

Toronto Asphalt Slates will give you full roofing satisfaction. They are the "last word" in roofing perfection. So let's all be proud together of your next roof. Specify Toronto Asphalt Slates by name and if you have any difficulty in securing them locally please write direct to us.

ROBT. LIGHT DEALER NAPANEE

A New Outfit.

The man next door to four-year-old Allen has a new car and little Allen is much given to accompanying him to the garage to keep him company while he tinkers with it. On some times seems to get as much pleasure out of it as does its actual owner. Only the other day something happened which threatened for a time to dim his enjoyment. The owner of the car came home with a jumper suit in which he appeared the next time he went out to work on his car.

The next time he started out to the garage he whistled for Allen but no boy came. Then he went over to Allen's house and hunted up the little fellow. "Come on out to the garage with me, son," he said.

Allen looked at him sorrowfully. "I can't," he said sadly. "I haven't any garage underwear like yours."

Chinese Girls Fight the Boys.

According to the Pekin Japao the experiment of mixed education has not been a brilliant success in the capital as it resulted in a stand up fight between girl and boy students in the government university. It appears that during school hours some of the boys attempted to "cut out" the souls of some of the girls, and these, becoming jealous, tried to vent their vengeance. The government has dismissed all the participants in the scrap and has decided that the present measure is inopportune for mixed education and will drop the scheme.

Our experience with the Relief-giving remedy shows how actual and positive is the succor it gives. There are bright moments in the life of a Battersea schoolmaster. At a recent examination in General Knowledge a pupil defined a volcano as follows :

"You've heard what the last witness said," persisted the counsel, "and yet your evidence is to the contrary. Am I to infer that you doubt her veracity?"

The polite young man waved a deprecating hand.

"Not at all," he replied. "I merely wish to make it clear what a liar I am if she's speaking the truth."

Set Aim in Life.

A definitely fixed goal is a challenge to ingenuity. That is especially true for the trail blazer. Haphazard goals are apt to be the avenue to the way of least resistance. Attaining them is merely a matter of finding the easiest short-cut to them. With a ruling purpose it's different. Every possible motive and means is marshaled to gain the end. Oldtime methods are seen to fail when most needed. So the youthful dreamer puts his wits to work to discover new methods to gain the point. And it's surprising what an amount of unrated genius there is waiting to be called forth by a great occasion.—Exchange.

Yellowstone Park Rangers With Roosevelt to a Man.

Colonel's Characteristic Greeting of Down-and-Outer, Whom He Had Known in Happier Days, is Still Remembered.

Of the few out-of-season visits paid to the Yellowstone, that of Colonel Roosevelt, who, when president, spent 24 days of the late winter of 1903 there, has the most prominent page in the annals of the Spread-Eagle rangers. He found the scouts, then serving as chaperons for luckless cavalry troopers and doing their own work besides, to be men after his own heart, and did not hesitate to say so. Before he had been in the park a week every ranger was swearing by him.

"Anybody know the whereabouts of one William Jones?" was one of the colonel's early inquiries.

Jim McBride, the present chief ranger, who was then assistant chief of the park scouts under the late Buffalo Jones, knew a Bill Jones, wood chopper and all-'round-'er-do-well, chiefly remarkable for an insatiable thirst and a knack of ministering to it in a boneDry park. He was about the last man in the Rockies for whom a president of the United States would be expected to inquire.

"Bill put me into office once," said Roosevelt. "I want to see him, drunk or sober."

He further explained that the derelict had been sheriff during his own days as a ranchman and had made him a deputy in a horsethief posse.

"It took three days to find that old horned toad and bring him in," said McBride, in recalling the incident. "But just to listen in on the colonel's hearty greeting of that down-and-out-er was pay in full.

"Well, Ted, you got a right swell job since I seen you last,' Jones remarked when they had exchanged how'd-ye-do's; 'but that needn't stand between friends—I got something on my hip.'

"Colonel Roosevelt didn't partake, but he did spend the best part of an hour swapping yarns of the days when Bill was a 'white man' and sheriff of his county. The woodchopper tried to buck up after his talk with the president, but it wasn't to be done. The next winter we found him dead in the brush over on Bear creek.

"The colonel was enthusiastic over the sport of ski running, and was something of a performer on the slats himself, for a novice. He strapped his feet into them as often as opportunity offered. One morning on a slide near the Canon hotel he broke one ski and came a heavy cropper.

"The government has fallen at last!' he cried with a molar showing grin, as I ran down to help untangle a living president and a pair of dead sticks.

"He was looking at the wreck he had made of the hickory slabs when Capt. John Pitcher of the First cavalry then in command of the park, arrived.

"'Have you plenty of these?' Teddy said.

"'Only a few pairs, and they are the property of the interior department,' replied the officer.

"'In less than three weeks there came a rush shipment of a hundred pairs.

"Next afternoon the president challenged me to a race on snow shoes from Canyon to Mammoth, a distance of thirty-one miles. Those with him decided that the trip would be no snowwise strain upon him, and began to argue against his attempting it. He got me to one side after a while and whispered:

"'We'll let them talk, McBride. Just you stick around until midnight. They'll be asleep then, and we'll hit the trail!'

"It took Harry W. Child and Captain Pitcher two hours to talk him out of that. He wasn't at all pleased at having to veto his own plan for a secret departure."—Ethel and James Dorrance in Munsey's Magazine.

Bird Study of Interest.

A novel opportunity for studying the influence of extremes of climate on birds is offered by the English sparrow. This bird was introduced into New York city soon after 1850, did not reach California until 1871 or 1872, but has recently been found by Dr. Joseph Grinnell of the University of California to have settled in the heart of Death valley at Greenland ranch. This location is 178 feet below sea level, with a temperature at times exceeding 130 degrees F, and great dryness. How development will be affected is a matter of much interest.

Navy Dirigibles World's Largest.

Two superdirigibles, the largest in the world, are planned by the navy, and one of them now being built in England, will attempt a transatlantic flight next fall, Captain Craven, director of naval aviation, recently told the house naval committee. American naval officers and enlisted men who will fly the British-built ship to America are in England training. In asking $2,700,000 for construction of a second superdirigible, Captain Craven said it would be 50 feet longer than the British-built craft, which is 644 feet.—Scientific American.

How carefully you select your toilet soap! but you expose your hands to harsh kitchen soap in the dishpan an hour and a half every day

IT must be mild and pleasant—your toilet soap—even though your hands are in contact with it only ten minutes a day at the most. You can't bear to use a harsh, drying soap for washing your hands. So, naturally, you select it carefully.

Then you undo it all! By using strong, coarse kitchen soap in your dishpan. When you do the dishes—your hands are in these drying, coarsening suds a half hour and a half.

Your skin can't help getting drawn and rough—your finger-tips all scratchy.

Don't wash your dishes with just "any" soap. Use Lux in your dishpan. Lux has that softness and mildness that make it as easy on your hands as fine toilet soap. But of course you know that. Think of the things you just wouldn't trust to anything but Lux.

Your hands deserve as kind treatment as your chiffons—your fine woollens. Use Lux whenever you have to have your hands in soap and water for any length of time.

For breakfast or lunch dishes a single teaspoonful

A level teaspoonful of Lux lasts through one entire dishwashing. That is, for breakfast or lunch dishes. When you've a lot of dinner dishes you sometimes need two teaspoonfuls.

Get the big new package of Lux—flip a teaspoonful of flakes into your dishpan. Then see how sparkling those quick suds make your plates and silver—how speedily they wash all the dishes.

Remains of Huron Warriors Unearthed at Orillia.

Scores of Orillia citizens visited the scene of discovery of the Indian skeletons, unearthed on the property of Bert Milne. As many as thirty skeletons were discovered, several of these, especially the sauls, were remarkably well preserved, the light sandy soil acting as a preservative.

The scene of the disinterment is in the western suburbs of the town known as Mount Slaven and from the time of the first settlement was known as an ancient battle ground. It was, in fact, the scene of the massacre of many thousand Hurons by the invading Iroquois in March, 1649, when a large Huron village known to historians as Ossaingue, occupied this spot. Wagon loads of relics of aboriginal days have been unearthed at various times to be placed on exhibition in museums in various towns and cities in the Dominion and also in the United States.

Orillia has always been a mecca of summer excursionists and many of the visitors in years went away loaded with relics picked up on the old battleground within a few inches of the surface, such as tomahawks, skinning stones, arrow heads, beads and wampum.

When the property was subdivided about 1857, by John McCosh and W. M. Harvey, both since deceased, the trees were cleared away and settlement began. At that time many skeletons were unearthed as well as implements of warfare and at odd times since other traces of Indian occupation have been reported. On the very lot where these thirty skeletons were found about twenty-five years ago, a man named Harry Wiley, while digging a cellar, came upon eight complete skeletons and several fine specimens of Indian pottery, one of large size. This later found its way to the Normal School Museum at Toronto, through the medium of the late Dr. David Boyle.

There is no evidence that this spot was ever used as a burying ground within the past century and the remains just discovered are without a doubt those of Huron warriors who perished in the great massacre. It is expected that several more pieces of other skeletons and relics may be brought to light. The Indian agent at Rama, the Ojibway Reserve, across the lake from Orillia, has been notified, and it is expected that the remains will be given decent sepulture.

WILTING IS DESIRABLE BEFORE ENSILING LEGUMES

(Experimental Farms Note).

Silage from legume crops or mixtures of legumes and cereals appears to be of a much more desirable quality if these crops are wilted for several hours before ensiling. The wilting of alfalfa, in particular, seems to be essential, if good silage is to be made.

Alfalfa, sweet clover and a mixture of oats, peas and vetches were stored at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, in small wooden silos during the summer of 1924. Each silo was 6 feet high, 3 feet in diameter, and held approximately half a ton. The various trials with these crops, which occupied 21 silos, included cutting at different stages of maturity, ensiling before and after wilting and storing for periods of three, six and nine months. The silos were opened during the winter of 1924-25 and the silage was in every respect comparable to that which is produced in large farm silos.

The results of one year's work, though not conclusive, indicate that the stage of maturity and the amount of moisture in these crops at the time of ensiling have an important bearing on the silage produced, the reduction of the original moisture content of the crops by wilting showing the greatest benefit.

There seems to be a greater likelihood of securing a desirable silage from full bloom alfalfa than from this crop cut at an earlier stage of maturity. There is an advantage in cutting sweet clover when the flower buds are well formed but before the crop blooms because there is a greater probability of securing a second cutting if the crop is mowed at this stage than if let go until the full bloom stage, although the silage from full bloom sweet clover was just as good as that from the crop cut in the bud stage. Silage of good quality was secured from oats, peas and vetches ensiled when the oats were in the milk and in the dough stages, but the later stage or just when the oats show the first signs of turning appears to be the most desirable time to cut this crop.

From alfalfa which had been mowed when one-tenth in bloom and wilted in the sun for at least five hours or for a relatively longer period if the sun was not shining, a fairly good silage was secured, while full bloom alfalfa wilted in a similar manner gave a silage of better quality and of considerably greater palatability. Alfalfa ensiled immediately after cutting, no matter what was the stage of maturity, gave an undesirable and unpalatable silage. The wilting of sweet clover, and oats, peas and vetches for several hours resulted too, in the production of a type of silage which was somewhat more palatable than that produced by the unwilted material.

The length of the period of storage appeared to have little effect upon the silage which was produced.

MAKING RECORDS OF THE LONG DROPS

From a military point of view it is important to know how far a man can fall through the air before he loses consciousness. It is known that he can fall at least 1,500 feet, for Staff-Sergt. Randle L. Bose, of the United States aviation service, performed this feat recently after having made a preliminary drop of 1,000 feet before opening his parachute. The military significance of the tests applies to men in dirigible and captive balloons which may be set afire by the enemy. These men are always provided with parachutes, and many have escaped by dropping to earth after the balloons were punctured or set blazing. But a parachute descent is not swift. Many a man jumping from a balloon has been shot by enemy snippers or riddled by the machine gun of a circling enemy plane. Indeed, when a balloon is attacked by planes and destroyed the crew descending by parachute can be picked off one by one. It costs more money and trouble to train a crew than to build another balloon and this is one of the reasons the experts have been trying to find some means whereby the casualties would be lessened. They believe now they have it.

Dead Before Reaching Ground

If when a balloon bursts into flames, the pilot can hurl himself into space and drop with all the speed that the force of gravity exerts for a thousand or fifteen hundred feet before opening his parachute, it is obvious that he will have a good chance of escape. He forms a difficult target. Before Sergt. Bose made his recent drop, the record was 500 feet, established in Texas. But this drop lacked scientific value because the man who made it was escaping from a burning plane and was not trying to make a record. He was merely trying to save his life, and opened his parachute as soon as he could get it open. However, his fall seemed to dispel the old idea that when people fall from a great height to the ground beneath they are dead before they reach it. At least these drops dispel the notion that one loses consciousness automatically and inevitably. They do not prove that people who fall out of tall buildings to the pavement do not die of fright before they strike. The probability seems to be that they do. But if they know that they have a chance of saving their lives, they do not necessarily succumb.

The Art of the Parachute.

As Sergt. Bose explains things, there is a good deal more to a parachute jump than the non-initiated would guess. The tendency is to fall head forward, and this has to be overcome by using the head and shoulders like a rudder, just as the diver does. Then there is a tendency to spin around. The beautiful, straight, plummet-like drops that one sees the professional balloonists making are only accomplished by long training. When Bose dropped from the bombing plane over Mitchel Field, he was sent spinning by the sudden starting of the engine, and he had fallen a few hundred feet before he could get straightened out. He was most impressed by the tremendous pressure of the wind, and the whistling in his ears, but he felt no distress at the pressure, no fainting feeling from the drop. He began to feel slightly contemptuous as he continued to fall, when suddenly he received what appeared to be a blow, almost a stunning blow. As a boxer he had received many a hard punch, but he says that this blow was worse than any he had received in the ring. He had hit an air pocket, a layer of wind probably blowing up at a slant.

Senses Begin To Go.

His story given to the New York World proceeds :—

"I was spinning, spinning like a top. It had set me going like a fly-wheel, head over heels, at a most tremendous rate.

"The thought came of taking the parachute jar while revolving thus and dropping at an astounding rate. I would never do that, and I struggled crazily. No use.

"I tried to right myself but couldn't get my body under control. I continued to try. I would have to stop spinning some time. Before I hit the ground, I hoped. But I knew I could stop spinning long before I fell the 2,500 feet to the ground.

"But now I realized, with a ghastly feeling, that my senses were beginning to go.

"It wasn't the pressure. It was the spinning. I was very dizzy, and I was getting dizzier. My mind began to blur. I didn't want to take the jerk on my shoulders, but neither did I want to take a chance of going unconscious for the spinning.

"For seconds that seemed an age I was poised between the two evils.

Drop of 1,500 Feet.

"A decision had to come, and it came when I felt my mind rapidly getting blank. A pang of desperate fear shot through me. My hand went to my shoulder. I tried, and felt with a sickening sensation that I could not control my body the slightest.

"My fingers were around the cord on my shoulder.

"A convulsive pull.

"A terrific crack as the cords tightened suddenly, and I felt as though my soul were being jerked out of me. The opening caught me in a position slanting somewhat from upright, and by shoulders were violently wrenched up.

"I was out for some seconds, and then I came to and found myself floating gently downward. I felt my shoulders. They were wrenched enough to lay me up for a day or so, but otherwise I was all right, and my head was clear. I was swinging quite a bit, but I easily got the parachute under control and made a good landing."

Not satisfied with this exploit, Sergt. Bose went up again, shortly after, and tried a still longer drop. As he "knew exactly what he was up against, and encountered no mishaps," it "was no thrill at all." Coolly he reports :—

"I fell 1,500 feet before my parachute opened, and then went to a motion-picture show to get a little excitement."

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 8

The Consumption of Tea

Tea as a beverage is used in nearly every country in the world. It is estimated over 200 billion cups are consumed annually. Australia leads in tea drinking with an annual per capita consumption of about nine pounds, which means that every Australian consumes from six to eight cups of tea every day. The consumption per capita in England is 8¼ lbs., and in Canada nearly 5 lbs. In the United States, it is less than 1 lb., but this is largely because Americans have not been able to get fine teas until comparatively recently. "SALADA" is considered one of the choicest blends on the market, and is the largest selling tea in either United States or Canada.

They Had No Banks

IN pioneer days the general merchant often kept the money of his customers for them—there were no banks. Buying and selling were largely by barter only.

The coming of the branch bank filled an important need in every community, and today the wise farmer, business man or private individual keeps his money in the bank and makes full use of the many services it has to offer.

OBITUARY

Winnipeg Free Press and Tribune, October 11th, 1923. — Mrs. H. J. Eberts, of this city, has received intelligence of the sudden death of her youngest brother, Mr. Leon Omar Hooper, of Kikuyu Kenya Colony. Mr. Hooper enlisted in 1914 in the 1st King Edward V's Horse, England, serving in Ireland and later in France. At the conclusion of the war, he went to Nairobi, British East Africa, where he engaged in mining and engineering. With his "conferred" of the pen in Africa, Mr. Hooper was popular, while he will long be remembered by his professional associates for his genial disposition and varied talents. The native Africans gave him a name in their own tongue, significant of his humanity. Mr. Hooper leaves a widow, two sons and a daughter, resident in Vancouver, B.C. He was the youngest son of the late Mr. W. H. Hooper, of Brandon, a Manitoban and western pioneer of early days, and brother of M. H. Hooper, the well-known barrister, of Carberry, Manitoba.

Winnipeg Free Press and Tribune, March 21st, 1925.—Received details of death of Winnipeg man in Africa: —Late in 1923 the Free Press reported the death of L. O. Hooper, a former Manitoban and later resident in Vancouver, at Kenya Colony. It has just been ascertained from the Administrator-General of that territory that the date of Mr. Hooper's death was June 14th, 1923, at the age of forty-five years; and that the cause was heart affection consequent upon a chill contracted from living in a tent during the terrible rains at that period. Mr. Hooper had been Waterworks-Overseer and he was taken to Nairobi for medical treatment; but the delay in procuring aid had been too great, and he expired. During a winter's residence in Winnipeg, Mr. Hooper had been engaged in the office of J. Hillyard, K.C. Mr. Hooper was buried in the beautiful Forest cemetery at Nairobi. Mr. H. R. Hooper, of Carberry, is the eldest brother of the deceased.

STUDEBAKER

TWO MAY DAY RECORDS SHOW PROSPERITY

Walkerville, Ontario, May Day was observed in by Studebaker employees with two records, indicative of the continuing prosperity of steadily increasing business.

In one day, the Studebaker Corporation shipped from its combined factories 760 completed motor cars, largest single day's shipment in the history of the Corporation save one. On May 29th, 1923, the shipments were 780.

Studebaker operates the largest grey iron foundry in the world. As a record one-day record to greet May Day, the foundry poured 307 tons of grey iron castings, an achievement never before equalled in any one foundry of its kind in the world.

The 760 cars shipped were practically all in response to the most urgent telegrams from dealers all over the world, demanding immediate shipment on orders already delayed.

Though running at maximum capacity, the plants have been unable to catch up with the demands for shipments of cars already sold, for more than two months. Although the present daily production is in excess of 500 cars per day, this output is still 25 per cent below the actual current sales, and the number of cars on hand in the hands of dealers is at the lowest point in years.

WILTON CHURCH VOTE WAS AGAINST UNION

Majority Decides to Remain Presbyterian — Sunbury Also Against Union

Intense interest was taken in the vote in Wilton Presbyterian Church regarding Church Union. Voting has been taking place during the last two weeks and Monday evening, May the 17th, the result of the vote was made known. The historic little church was well filled. The Rev. Mr. McKenzie presided. The meeting then carried a motion to have the ballots counted in the church and that Mr. Harvey Mills and Mr. Harry Mills be the scrutineers. Mrs. Guy Simmons, who has been a very efficient Returning Officer, brought the ballot box to the church and in the presence of the scrutineers they were counted.

The balloting was unique it being decided that both signing and marking take place on each ballot. The names of those eligible to vote were handed to the Returning Officer the Sunday before the voting took place. One member came from Brockville and another from Rochester, N.Y., to vote. Singularly 34 were on the voters' list and 32 voted, the only one not voting being a resident now of Chicago and a nurse. This vote was available and the voter would have come but it was felt it would have been decisive without her.

The result was :—

Total available vote	34
Votes polled	32
Non-concurring votes	18
Votes for Union	14
Spoiled ballot	1
Majority against Union	4

The Minister, before the Secretary read the result, stated that all present had feelings, and preferred that no demonstration take place on the part of either side. When the vote was announced he remarked that he would announce to the Congregation on Sunday evening next his intentions for the future. The Minister was in favor of Union.

Sunbury Against Union.

Sunbury Church, which concluded voting last night, made the following division :

Total votes	29
For Union	3
Against Union	25
Spoiled ballot	1

Let's go. Where? Why to Picton's Big Victoria Day celebration, of course, for they are going to have the biggest time ever in that pretty little burgh on Monday, May 24th, as there will be a big program of Races with $1400.00 in purses. A good Ball Game between Napanee and Picton, Picton Collegiate Cadets in Exhibition Drills, Pony Riders in competition for prizes in front of Grand Stand, and a good Band Concert by the Hastings and Prince Edward Regimental Band. And think what a delightful trip up the Bay awaits us per Steamer "Brockville", and the fare is only 75c. return. The boat leaves Napanee at 9 a.m., returning leaves Picton at 5.30 p.m. 21a

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

Selby, May 20th, 1925.

To Mr. John C. Hudgin,

We wish to take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of your faithful leadership given so freely and generously during the past many years, as Superintendent of our Sunday School. We are very proud of our School, which under your very able direction has been increasing in attendance and efficiency. Under your Superintendency it has become a one-hundred-per-cent. school, full filling all the requirements by which the school is entitled to hold the International certificate. The attaining of this has required constant care, heavy responsibilities and splendid tact on your part. We are sure that the early Christian training of your very splendid services rendered for so many years by your father had considerable to do with your ability to lead and direct so successfully. We recognize, too, the devoted, loyal and true help with which you have been supported by your wife, Mrs. Hudgin. We sincerely regret that you have considered it to be impossible to continue as Superintendent, but we recognize you have justifiable reasons for resigning at this time. But we cannot feel content to let you cease from your work without in some very tangible way showing our sincere appreciation. We therefore ask you kindly to accept this purse, and with it our sincere best wishes and highest regards. We know your deepest interests will always be continued in the Sunday School. We look forward to having your co-operation and counsel for yet many years to come.

Signed on behalf of the School,
Rev. T. H. P. Anderson.

DESMOND

A gloom was cast over this neighborhood on Friday last, when it was learned that Marion, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Shane, had passed away after an illness of only a day's duration. The deceased was 30 years of age, and an Anglican in religion. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor Rev. Mr. Spencer, in St. Luke's Church, Camden East, on Sunday, May 17th, at 12.30 noon. Besides her sorrowing parents she leaves two sisters to mourn her loss, Mrs. Okel Drew and Mrs. Richard Quinn. Interment was made in St. Luke's churchyard in the family plot. The sympathy of a large circle of friends goes out to the bereaved relatives.—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. ST. ANDREW'S ORCHESTRA VISITS SELBY

On the evening of Friday last the St. Andrew's Church Orchestra, Napanee, and other talent visited Selby, and for two hours, under the leadership of Mr. Alex. MacGregor, gave a most delightful concert in the Methodist Church. The full Orchestral selections; the cornet duets by Messrs. MacGregor and Coutts; also cornet solo by Mr. Coutts; the mandolin and guitar trios by Mrs. and Miss Clow, Georgie Hosey and Mr. Howitt; the violin duets by Masters Robson and MacGregor; the violin selections by Miss Lindsay, after an illness, with excellent technique. Mesdames Dennis and Reid proved themselves sympathetic and capable interpreters as accompanists. The vocal selections by Mesdames Valkman and Dennis were greatly enjoyed, and the hearty encores given them manifested the delight of the audience. Mrs. MacGregor's readings were greatly enjoyed, and her encore selection of the sorrow of the mother, "took" the ten-minute address by the Rev. A. J. Wilson, B.A., Ph.D., on "Two things he was not going to talk about" kept the audience guessing, and was interesting and humorous. The whole program was presided over by Mr. Wilson as chairman. A token of hearty appreciation was given to all who had furnished so splendid an entertainment. Mr. Andrew Church is to be congratulated on their talent and on having such a leader as Mr. MacGregor of consecrated talent and enthusiasm, who is willing to devote time to the training of the young people for the training is both invaluable to the young people themselves and attractive to the church. The unanimous opinion of those who enjoyed the entertainment is that a splendid future is in store for such talent, and the generally expressed wish is that they may soon return, and the Selby folk assure them of a most hearty and appreciative welcome.

GOLF CLUB OPENING

Friday last was a gala day, when the Napanee Golf Course was formally opened for this season. Despite the unfavorable weather this spring, the course is in excellent shape, bright new flags over every green, giving the finishing touch. Fortunately, Friday was a nice day and about sixty members were early, all reporting a very pleasant afternoon, which augers well for the success of the Club this year.

The first event was a nine hole match, which resulted in a tie, between teams chosen by the President, Mr. W. A. Daly, and the Vice President, Mr. M. P. Graham. The teams played as follows :—

During the afternoon tea was served by the ladies of the entertainment Committee. A beautiful basket of spring flowers, from the President's garden, centred the table, at which Mrs. W. A. Daly poured tea, while Mrs. Herb Daly, Mrs. Walbridge, Mrs. J. W. Robinson, Mrs. J. J. Adams and Mrs. J. D. Morse assisted in serving.

The committee in charge were well pleased with the success of this affair and will arrange for others during the season.

TAMWORTH

What might have proved a serious fire occurred at Mr. Thornton's store when someone smelled the smell of coal oil and then set fire to it, causing a big blaze. Miss Thornton, who was sleeping downstairs, saw the fire and rushed upstairs to tell her father and Mr. Wright, who were sleeping upstairs. They came down in a hurry and just in time to save a big fire, but as it was a few pails of water put it out. No one seems to have any idea who would do such an act. Mr. Percy York has his bake shop in the west half, and Miss Thornton occupies the east half, as sitting room and bed room. — W. J. Mr. Charlie Jamieson, of Wolfe Island, is visiting friends in town. — The Queen's birthday was celebrated here on Monday last on the athletic grounds. There were about 2000 on the grounds. Games of all kinds were indulged in. Among them were the basketball game played between Strathcona and Tamworth, score 10-15, in favor of Strathcona; baseball game between Newburgh High School and Tamworth High School, score 7-11, in favor of Newburgh; baseball played between Odessa and Tamworth, score 8-17, in favor of Tamworth; girls' baseball game between Tweed and Tamworth High Schools, score 25-2 in favor of Tweed. The dance held in the Town Hall in the evening was well attended. Proceeds were over $100.00. — Mrs. Lloyd, of Tweed, was in town on Monday last.—Mrs. Gerald Clark and her sister-in-law, of Peterboro, were in town visiting at Rev. Mr. Clark's, over Sunday.—Percy York has moved into the south half of Dave Branden's house.—Smith Gilmour is moving into Mrs. South's house. — The United Church of Canada voted 10 to 18 in favor of going to the Methodist Church for all Sunday services, and the Presbyterian Church for all week-night services. Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Roblin, will preach in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening next. — A. B. Carscallen and family, Shannonville, family and Mr. Whaley, wife and child visited Bon Echo camp on Saturday last, staying over the 24th, and report very good fishing. — Call at Floyd's and get your new suit made to order, $17.00 up to $30.00. — Dr. Nash, the Kingston dentist, seems to be very busy every Monday night and Tuesday, at the Queen's Hotel, Tamworth.

BETHANY

The cool weather is keeping the gardens and everything back. A number from here attended the races at Picton on Monday.—Miss Foote, of Peterboro', is visiting at her cousin's, Mrs. E. Bartley.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith, Napanee, spent Sunday at E. Joyce's.—Mr. Percy Davy has purchased a—Mrs. Andrew Dempsey is visiting friends at Picton. — The pastor was unable to take his work on Sunday last. — Mrs. Thomson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wilfred Miller.—Miss Bernadette Moran spent over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Vincent Walsh. — Mr. and Mrs. W. Conger visited their son, Charles, River Road, on Sunday last. — The Ladies' Aid will meet at Mrs. W. Goodman's, jr., on Wednesday, June 3rd.

THE POOR FISH

"What are we going to do about it?" — Probably nothing. But it is a well known fact that the waters of our beautiful Bay of Quinte are being rapidly depleted of fish, and the good old days when we could catch a mess of fish either by troll or still fishing are gone forever.

We do not know which one of our governments controls our fisheries, but we do know that the "poor fish" have been made a football of by our politicians, and nobody seems to care. The gill net fishermen were promised wide open operations in exchange for their votes, and I guess they got it; while the hoopers, of which there used to be allowed only a very limited number, are now tied to nearly every water-fence from one end of Hay Bay to the other, and many can be seen stretched across our river, reported to be of illegal mesh and design.

There does not appear to be any inspector in this district, but it is said that one ventures up and down our Bay and St. Lawrence River. This evidently does not prevent large quantities of game fish being taken in hoopnets and disposed of locally and otherwise. We are not blaming the fishermen, they are simply trying to make all the money possible from their labor the same as the farmer or manufacturer, and they earn every dollar they get, but of course their present methods are suicidal for the future; and to make matters worse, the government drops in three or four big pound-nets both spring and fall seasons, taking the lion's share of the fish for spawning purposes, and incidentally sell the fish from these waters by the tons and tens of tons. A full report on just how this business is conducted would be interesting reading, but no matter by whom operated "pound-nets" will clear our Bay of all fish, as they did the south shores of Lake Ontario years ago.

These government fishermen also take our best game fish, "lunge" and black bass, alive and ship them to other waters. Is this a square deal for our Bay, and these most destructive of all nets are operated principally in the mouth of Hay Bay, one of the best fishing grounds in fresh water. Towns and cities of Ontario are organizing associations to devise means to attract tourists, and here we are throwing away the best card Canada holds, our good fishing.

Possibly this may be a good subject for our live Chamber of Commerce to take up in co-operation with the net fishermen and sportsmen.

It is a big commercial proposition that may soon become extinct for the want of miles of gill nets being fished and the most destructive of all, pound-nets, the poor fish stands about the same chance "as an icicle in h—" (this means hades).

Thanking you,

Respectfully,

THE PRODIGAL.

DR. J. P. I. CLANCY'S SUDDEN DEMISE

The tragic suddenness of the passing away of Dr. J. P. I. Clancy, who came to this district in the early homestead days (in 1908) and has continued his ministry of healing here ever since, becoming a revered and universally beloved personality among the people, has cast a profound gloom over the entire district.

Although the cause of death was clearly known, in view of its suddenness, Coroner Sandwith, of Nokomis, with the concurrent wish of the doctor's family, decided to hold an inquest, which took place on Monday afternoon. After hearing the evidence of several witnesses the jury unanimously returned a verdict of accidental death through formalin poisoning. It appeared from the evidence that Dr. Clancy, who had been in indifferent health for some time and had recently undergone an operation in a Saskatoon hospital, was in the habit of taking periodical doses of medicine in his own drug store and diluting these from a bottle containing distilled water. On Saturday evening, whilst doing so, he inadvertently, in a dim light, mistook a bottle containing a strong solution of formaldehyde for the other, with fatal results.

He immediately gave an alarm to the Almagrist in charge, Mr. McKim, and medical assistance in the person of Dr. Gordon Clancy was quickly forthcoming, but the deadly poison had already performed its fatal work and every effort to save him proved unavailing, as he succumbed in less than an hour after, having in the meantime been arrested to his home.

The most in ensive sympathy of a sorrowing community is manifested by the deepest in the widow and children of the deceased in what is in the eyes of all an irreparable calamity.

The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, the service being conducted in the United Church by Rev. A. C. Burley. A very large concourse of friends and neighbors attended, to show a last mark of respect to a departed friend. A profusion of floral tributes from societies, other organizations and private friends attested to the popularity of the deceased. The pall-bearers were A. Saul, E. A. James, Wm. Lewis, Thos Lewis, J. H. Devine and Thomas Marshall. The burial service of the Masonic Order was held at the grave by members of the Seamans Lodge of that Order.

School was dismissed for the afternoon (deceased having been chairman of the School Board and the school children marched to the cemetery in a body. The flags in town were placed at half-mast, and business places were closed during the time of the funeral.—Seamans, (Sask.), Gazette.

EGG PRESERVATIVES.

(Experimental Farms Note)

Cheap Eggs in Winter. — Many families, even of farmers and other poultry keepers, have very few eggs to use from October to February, when prices are high. It would be easy for them to preserve and store as many as required, if they would but take the trouble to do so.

Experiment at Cap Rouge.—In order to secure information regarding the best methods of preserving eggs, an experiment was started in 1916 at the Cap Rouge Experimental Station. Eight methods were tested :—1, wrapping in paper and leaving undisturbed; 2, wrapping in paper and turning daily; 3, packing in oats; 4, packing in sawdust; 5,Compose Gaulin; 6, Armstrong paste; 7, lime water; 8, waterglass.

Results.—It was soon found that the two best methods, by far, were the lime water and the waterglass. These have been continued to date and very little difference has been found, though different lots of eggs are tested each year by the Dominion Chemist and the Dominion Poultry Husbandman, at Ottawa, and by the Superintendent of the Cap Rouge Experimental Station.

Best Methods.—Use one pound of good, freshly burnt quicklime to five gallons of water. Slake the lime with a small quantity of water, just about enough to cover it, and then stir the milk thus formed into the water. Keep well stirred for a few hours, allow to settle, and pour the saturated water over the eggs. With waterglass, use about four pounds in ten gallons of water.

General Advice. — All eggs used should be perfectly fresh, and, if possible, from flocks having no male birds. The eggs should be completely immersed during the whole period of preservation, and the vessel should be kept covered. The best temperature, though not absolutely necessary, is from 40 to 45 degrees F.

Said Ikey : "Let's send them to Aberdeen."

"What's the good of that?" asked his partner. "If we can't sell them, Aberdeen can't."

"That'll be all right !" said Ikey. "Send them thirteen pairs and invoice them as a dozen."

They did so. A few days later a reply came from Aberdeen. Twelve pairs of trousers were returned, with a note saying, "Sorry, can't sell them."

$125,000 OF PUBLIC MONEY SPENT FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES

A striking example of the King Government's method of carrying out its pledges of honesty and economy in public expenditure was brought to the attention of the country during the past week by W. A. Boys, M.P., Conservative Whip.

In the General Election of 1921, the Liberal Party carried the constituency of North Essex by a majority of 7195. The seat was rendered vacant by the death of the Honourable W. C. Kennedy and, on March 1, 1923, an election was held to fill the vacancy. The Government of the Right Honourable Mackenzie King had lost the confidence of the electors of that constituency to such an extent that desperate devices were found necessary to secure the election of a Government supporter. The construction of a wharf at Belle River was one of the inducements held out to the electors. After a campaign in which the Prime Minister, members of his Government and many other members of parliament and special election workers took part, A. P. Healy was elected by a majority of 1072 or 6123 less than the Liberal majority of a year and four months previous.

In the session of parliament of 1923, $30,000 was placed in the estimates for the construction of a wharf at Belle River. The vote was vigorously opposed by the Conservatives on the ground that the expenditure was unjustifiable, not only because there is little business at Belle River, but owing to the unsuitability of the place for the creation of a harbour and the shallowness of the water.

Belle River is a village 17 miles east of Windsor on Lake St. Clair. It has a population, according to the census of 1921, of 608. The water is exceedingly shallow, varying in depth from 2 feet 3 inches to 5 feet for a distance out into the lake of 1500 feet and to get 12 feet of water one has to go 4000 feet from the shore.

In order to have the facts fully presented, Mr. Boys asked for an investigation by the Public Accounts Committee. A number of witnesses were examined under oath. The investigation did not proceed very far until there was found that the $300.00 was merely for the erection of a pier and that extensive dredging was undertaken under a general item in the estimates, which information had not been disclosed to the House. A careful perusal of the files and examination of the witnesses also brought out the fact that to make the work permanent, a further wall has to be constructed at a cost of $50,000.00.

The east wall and the esplanade improvements have cost to date $32,-000.25, dredging to date cost over $40,000.00 and Engineer Craig admitted it would take at least $10,000.00 more to finish the dredging and replaced the cost of the West Pier which has to be constructed at $30,-000.00, making a total of $112,360.25 without any extras and the Engineer admitted it would take at least $125,-000.00 to complete the work.

The engineer also admitted that since the work was completed last fall, the channel has already filled in to the extent of from four to five feet and that it will fill in to that extent this year owing to the fact that the west wall has not been completed. That will mean that the channel will have to be re-dredged at an additional cost of $30,000.00 or $40,000.00.

It is contended by the Conservative Party that the expenditure of $125,-000.00 is an outrage and cannot be justified from any standpoint except politically for the benefit of the sitting member, A. F. Healy.

There are numerous parts on various lakes of importance in which there are now good harbours and these have to go without needed improvements while the large sum above mentioned is wasted in Belle River.

Such are Mackenzie King's methods.

Everything You Can Desire in a Roof With

Toronto Asphalt Slates

They Will Not Curl — They Do Not Split — They Cannot Break

Quality — Durability — Beauty — Cleanliness — Economy — Fire Resistance

The Perfect Roof

Durability, economy, beauty—these are the outstanding features of a perfect roof and these, too, are the qualities which are scientifically "built into" Toronto Asphalt Slates.

The asphalt used is highly refined and contains no volatile oils that would evaporate when the roofing is exposed to the weather. This gives a sound waterproof roofing that will not curl, crack, check or decay even under the most extreme weather conditions. No artificial paints or stains are used in making Toronto Asphalt Slates and none are required to maintain their serviceability.

The fire-resisting qualities of Toronto Asphalt Slates are fully recognized by fire insurance companies and secure low rates, because sparks and flaming embers falling on a Toronto Asphalt Slate roof die out without igniting the roof or doing serious damage. Toronto Asphalt Slates have even withstood such a severe test as a shovelful of red-hot coals without fire starting either in the roofing or rafters beneath.

Toronto Asphalt Slates being uniform in size, can be laid with the utmost ease and rapidity and without waste. Toronto Four-in-One Asphalt Slates offer even greater saving in time and labor, besides insuring perfect uniformity in appearance.

The cost is quite moderate. Indeed, considering the total absence of upkeep, the splendid protection and the long life of Toronto Asphalt Slates, their economy is unapproached by any other type of roofing material. You can depend upon Toronto Asphalt Slates for maximum service at rock-bottom cost.

Then there is the fadeless beauty of Toronto Asphalt Slates. Their natural and permanent colors, their simple lines and the exact evenness of the finished roof is a source of pride to architects, builders and property owners alike. Such a roof blends harmoniously with any style of architecture.

Toronto Asphalt Slates will give you full roofing satisfaction. They are the "last word" in roofing perfection. So let's all be proud together of your next roof. Specify Toronto Asphalt Slates by name and if you have any difficulty in securing them locally please write direct to us.

FOREST EXPLOITATION MADNESS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—One reads in the public press that impending developments in the newsprint industry involve an additional 3000 tons a day of Canada's output of paper, an increase of 64%. Roughly, this means a further demand upon our pulpwood supplies of 1,350,000 cords a year, added to our present consumption of close upon 4,000,000 cords.

Where is all this wood to come from?

Shipments of unmanufactured pulpwood out of the country are increasing. Fires and other destructive agencies continue to take an almost incalculable toll. Restriction of pulpwood exports, the most practical and efficacious means of effecting an appreciable and immediate saving of our wood supply, continues to be a subject for academic discussion with our government. Nothing is being done.

One wonders whether thinking has not become a lost art with our public men. Is it possible that those responsible for the maintenance of our pulp and paper industry can have given a thought to what these enormous inroads on their raw material will mean? Do they realize whither their industry, with its enormous capital investment, now approaching three hundred millions of dollars, is heading? Do the Canadian people realize how rapidly Canada is approaching conditions that now exist in China, the most blighted country in the world? How long are the people going to remain deaf, dumb and blind in respect to what is happening to the small remnant remaining of our once enormous forest wealth.

Instead of making additional inroads into our forests for the production of paper of which there is even now an over-supply in the world's markets, we should be reducing the cut of publicly-owned timber by at least 50 per cent. and thereby creating a market for all wood cut by bona fide settlers. Instead of shipping upwards of 1,250,000 cords of wood a year out of the country we should insist upon every stick of it being kept here. Instead of allowing vast areas to be devastated every year by forest fires, we should provide the adequate means for fire protection. Radiographing finely-phrased speeches once a year during save-the-forest week is not enough.

My advice to every holder of standing pulpwood at present is to reduce his cut to his lowest minimum requirements. He will be serving his own interests, as well as conserving those of his country, by so doing, since values are bound to increase as exhaustion of supply becomes more and more imminent. This is the reason why the American exploiters of our forests, through their Canadian agencies and associates, are to-day spending large sums of money in the Canadian press and in other ways in an attempt to lull to sleep the Canadian people so as to permit their continued access to our forests, while across the line they are carefully conserving their own supplies to serve them when we have foolishly co-operated with them to exhaust our own. If, as they say in their propaganda, the quantity of wood exported is of insignificant proportions, why are they spending so much money to keep it from being reduced and, incidentally, to make Chinese out of the Canadian people?

The situation calls for an immediate and complete embargo upon pulpwood exports, restriction in cutting on Crown lands by 50%, and at least four times the present expenditure for fire protection and forest upkeep. An ounce of conservation is worth a pound of reforestation. Example: In the Province of Quebec in 1921 1000 acres were replanted, while over six million acres were burned over, while not less than thirty-five million trees were shipped out of the country to furnish raw material for American manufacturers. What incentive is there for either private or public capital to apply itself to reforestation while these conditions are allowed to continue unchecked?

One of the specious arguments put out by the Americans in their self-appointed task of advising Canada what we ought to do with our forest resources is that we might better ship them our pulpwood than to burn it up. There might be something in this if it were not for the fact that the wood exported is taken from our most accessible and—therefore our most easily protected stands. Fire, as a rule, takes its toll from the more remote areas. Thus, we have two great destructive agencies—fire and needless exploitation—both working to reduce our wood supply to a mere memory.

It is not so much education on the forest situation that Canada needs but ACTION. Let no one be deceived with the suggestion that this is a one-man idea. It is the sober, solemn judgment of the best foresters and lumber operators in Canada. The public are already thoroughly educated. They are aware of the crisis facing our country. Both through the press and from the platform the demand for action is loud and insistent. But it brings no response from those who should be the guardians of the public interests and who alone have the power at present to act. We are still cutting, burning and exporting our wood as if the main object was to get rid of our last tree as rapidly as possible. An immediate reduction in the amount of the annual cut would not only help to conserve our small remaining supply but would put an end to the mad exploitation, shown in the building of new and unnecessary mills, and furnish an immediate market for all settlers' wood.

The question is not one of protection or of imposing additional restraints upon trade. It is simply one involving the saving of Canada from national bankruptcy and from a fate such as that which has befallen all lands that have suffered the destruction of their forests.

HAVE HIGH VALUE

Four South American Animals of Great Utility.

The Llama in Particular, Well Called "Ship of the Desert," is Prized—Alpaca is Bred for Its Splendid Fleece.

When first seeing a llama, an alpaca, a vicuna or a guanaco, in their native habitat your first comment would be: "Too big for a sheep, too small for a camel, yet looks like both," while you might add mentally, as did the yokel when he saw the giraffe at the circus; "There ain't no such animal." These extraordinary creatures, little known outside of the southern Andean region of South America, have their range from southern Ecuador through the elevated plateaus of Peru and Bolivia southward along the high Andes to the plains of Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego. All are of the very high-est utility for men's needs for food and clothing.

The four are merely different breeds of the same race, varying only as they have been bred in domesticity for certain specialized purposes, or modified by their environment when left unhampered in their native wilds. Possessing a head like a sheep, a long, curved neck like a camel, without the camel's hump but drawn in at the withers like the camel and with the camel's "wobbly" look, apparently insecurely braced upon its tall, slender legs, with the camel's cushion-like splay feet, the llamas undoubtedly belong to the camel family. They have the camel's nature, for though more vigilant than the camel, they possess the same dull imperturbability, and their idealized stubborn, morose disposition, and seem to consider man their hereditary foe, only to be obeyed by compulsion and with spiteful spittings and groans.

The llama family in prehistoric times had a much wider range than at present, their fossil remains being found from the republic of Colombia northward to Central America and even as far north as central Colorado. The llama and alpaca are domesticated, the guanaco and vicuna are still in the wild state, and this is one of the instances where domesticated animals range co-extensively with their wild congeners. Of the four kinds the guanaco is the most numerous, and is found in bands of 2 to 500, while confined to the high table lands elsewhere in Patagonia their range is over the plains and hills as well.

Both the guanaco and vicuna are easily tamed and readily take to captivity, and from the wild guanaco and vicuna have sprung the domesticated llama and alpaca. The alpaca is kept upon the wild uplands near the eternal snows and is only driven in to be shorn of its beautiful fleece of black or brown wool, which is so long that it often falls over its sides nearly back like a curling cascade reaching to the ground.

When Pizarro and his fellow conquistadores conquered the aboriginal Peruvians they found the llama the only domesticated beast of burden. Under Spanish domination more than 250,000 llamas were used to carry silver from the mines to the seacoast, but the coming of the horse, the burro, and more than all else, the railway is gradually ruining it out, as it is timid and slow, and can travel with its 100-pound pack only 12 to 15 miles a day; yet it retains a certain advantage, as it is never fed on the trail, but forages its own living.

Baboons and an Airplane.

Writing of the passing of an Avro biplane over Uitenhage en route to Port Elizabeth, a South African newspaper has the following to say: "Mr. Norman Chase relates a peculiar experience he had in connection with the plane. He was bathing at Kamachs, when he noticed a number of baboons which were in the vicinity showing unmistakable signs of fear. They crowded together and whimpered, giving every indication that something unusual had disturbed them. Mr. Chase's dog, a well-trained Airedale, and known to be plucky and fearless also became uneasy, and appeared to be in dread of something. On looking round for the cause of all the excitement Mr. Chase observed the airplane flying overhead at a comparatively low altitude. The sound of the engine and the huge birdlike appearance of the plane no doubt upset the equilibrium of the baboons."—Scientific American.

Danger in Improper Cooking.

In the Italian experiments indicating that much of our food is uncooked, or at least not cooked enough to destroy bacteria, a large joist of corned beef that had been boiled three and a half hours showed a temperature in the center of less than 160 degrees Fahrenheit. This is harmless to most disease germs, including tubercle bacilli, but this latter bug is believed to be especially liable to be infected. Rare meat pie eaten by a number of people caused two deaths, and while this appeared to be well baked outside, the middle gave evidence that it had not been heated above 105 degrees Fahrenheit.

A Politician.

A woman hater I knew was quite a politician and once while running for a much coveted office, was desirous of getting the women's votes. He accordingly became courteous to all women of voting age and not only was successful in getting their votes but married one.—Chicago Tribune.

A little girl saw a cat carrying her kitten by the nape of the neck. The sight made her very angry.

"You ain't fit to be a mother," she cried, scathingly. "You ain't hardly fit to be a father."

A WOMAN'S SUFFERING

Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Verdun, Montreal, Quebec.—"I am one of thousands who have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have great faith in it. I can safely say it has relieved my troubles and I shall never be without a bottle of it in my house. Since my last baby was born I suffered from pains and backache and would feel so tired I could not do anything in my home. Since I have been taking the Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine I feel so different. I recommend it to all my friends and hope it will cure other women who are suffering from the troubles I had."—Mrs. Thos. H. Gatzoyen, 823 Evelyn Street, Verdun, Montreal, Quebec.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for the new mother. It is prepared from roots and herbs, contains no harmful drugs and can be taken by the nursing mother.

Its worth in restoring the mother to normal health and strength is told again and again in just such letters as Mrs. Gardner writes.

A recent canvass of women users of the Vegetable Compound shows that 98 out of every 100 women taking the medicine are benefited by it. They write and tell us so. Such evidence entitles us to call it a dependable medicine for women. It is for sale by druggists everywhere.

TRAGIC RIVERS.

Some Have Caused the Death of Thousands.

The recent floods in France have brought to mind the ravages which, even in modern times, and in highly developed countries, can be wrought when a great river overflows its banks.

But the damage done by the Seine and other great French rivers on such occasions is not very considerable as compared with the havoc caused by other streams in similar circumstances.

The most tragical river in the world is the Hoang-ho, or Yellow river, which is known throughout the Celestial Empire as China's sorrow. Earthquakes and eruptions claim their victims in tens of thousands occasionally, but this river thinks nothing of drowning several millions of human beings in one fell flood.

Not many years ago, when the Hoang-ho devastated an area as large as England, its victims were estimated at ten millions. In historic times it has changed its mouth eleven times, and its present outlet is three hundred miles away from its former one.

Another river of tragedy is the Mississippi, which also has a tendency to alter its course and run among acres of land and farm and city. Its great plain is very flat, and when it overflows it overpeers a long way, carrying stock in vast numbers to feed the sharks in the Gulf of Mexico. As time goes on, its banks are being more and more streamed, but when a big river takes matters into its own hands, human devices are apt to look foolish!

The Nile is a river of blessing, and a river of blight. If it comes up to scratch and does its duty it is worth tens of millions to Egypt and mankind; but if fails—as it has many times done in history—that failure means famine. Since Britain has come to the rescue, however, and built the Assuan Dam to conserve and regulate the water, so that the river does not wash the land away one year and leave it barren the next, the Nile has done nothing to justify its former sinister reputation. But in the past its failure to function normally has cost millions of lives.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. F. E. Mellow, who passed away May 26th, 1923.

Deep in our hearts lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest;
In memory's frame we will keep it,
Because she was one of the best.
Friends may think we have forgotten
When at times they see us smile;
But they little know the heartache
That the smile hides all the while.

Sadly missed by husband and little daughters.

WEATHER F...KS

Oddities of Atmosphere, Clouds, Fogs and Lightning.

THIRSTY WINDS OF THE ALPS.

They Drink Up All Moisture So Quickly That Everything Becomes as Dry as Tinder—Andes Lightning and the Fire Ship of the Bay of Chaleur.

Cloud caps form on mountain tops when a current of moist air ascends the slope of the mountain, for the air cools as it rises and the moisture in it condenses.

On the flat top of Table mountain, near Cape Town, a strong southeast wind produces a horizontal sheet of cloud known as the "tablecloth." This cloud often appears to pour over the steep leeward side of the mountain like a mighty cataract. The "spreading of the tablecloth" is a sign of bad weather. At a little distance from the mountain a second cloud often forms.

A similar pair of clouds often seen near Cross fell, in England, are known as the "helm and bar." The helm, or helmet, forms over the mountain when a violent wind known as the "helm wind" is blowing. The bar appears a mile or two to leeward.

At Callao, on the coast of Peru, sailors often encounter a foul smelling fog that deposits a brown slimy coating on white paint and metal and hence is called the "pulsier."

Another remarkable fog on the Peruvian coast is known as the "garua." It occurs in a region where rain is unknown and supplies sufficient moisture to support vegetation.

Red fogs frequently occur off the northwest coast of Africa, between the Canaries and the Cape Verde islands. They are sometimes so dense as to make navigation difficult. The color is owing to dust that the trade wind brings from the Sahara desert.

Certain valleys in the Alps are often visited by a very warm and dry wind known as the "fohn." The effects of this wind are particularly striking in winter. The snow melts and evaporates as if by magic; woodwork becomes as dry as tinder, and great precautions are necessary to prevent the occurrence of the disastrous fires known as "fohn fires" that often destroy whole towns and villages. No cooking is permitted while the fohn is blowing, and not even a pipe or a cigarette may be lighted. Many persons suffer with "fohn sickness" whenever this wind prevails. The chinook of the western United States is similar in character and origin to the fohn.

Over the waters of the bay of Chaleur, in Canada, a mysterious phenomenon known as the "fire ship" is sometimes seen by night. It is a roughly hemispherical mass of luminosity, with its flat side to the water, but sometimes it rises in slender moving columns that resemble the flaming rigging of a ship. It is supposed to foretell a storm. No satisfactory explanation of this phenomenon has ever been given.

"Andes lightning" is the name given to a very striking luminous discharge of electricity seen over the crest of the Andes, in Chile, in a region where ordinary thunderstorms are almost unknown. The mountains appear to act as gigantic lightning rods, between which and the clouds silent discharges take place on a vast scale. A continuous glow is seen about the summits, with occasional outbursts like the beams of a great searchlight. These displays have been seen by vessels 300 miles from the coast.

Among the snow clad Alps a curious and beautiful phenomenon is sometimes observed at the close of the day. The rosy illumination of the mountain summits passes away, from below upward, as the sun sinks below the opposite horizon, and for a few minutes the peaks, with their rocks and snows, have a livid appearance; then gradually they are, lighted up with a second rosy glow, and this may last for as much as an hour after sunset. This is called the "recoloration of the Alps," or, in the case of the ghost of the group, the "resurrection of Mont Blanc." The whole series of phenomena is called the "alpenglow."—Youth's Companion.

FIRE EATERS.

The Trick of Breathing Flames and Sparks From the Mouth.

The first known fire breather was a Syrian slave named Eunus, a leader in the Servile war in Sicily, 130 B. C. He pretended to have immediate communication with the gods. When desirous of inspiring his followers with courage he breathed flames and sparks from his mouth.

In order to accomplish this feat Eunus pierced a nutshell at both ends, and, having filled it with some burning substance, he put it in his mouth and breathed through it. The same trick is performed today in a more approved manner. The performer rolls some flax or hemp into a ball about the size of a walnut, which he lets burn until it is nearly consumed. Then he rolls around it more flax while it is still burning. By this means the fire is retained in the ball for a long time. He stops this ball into his mouth unperceived and breathes through it. His breath revives the fire, and he sustains no injury so long as he inhales only through his nostrils.

Various theories have been advanced to account for other feats of this sort performed by the ancients. An old ordeal was the holding of a redhot iron by the accused, who was not burned if he were innocent. Probably some protective paste was used on the hands. The peculiar property of mineral salts, such as alum, in protecting articles of dress from fire has long been known. An old Milanese devised a costume consisting of a cloth covering for the body which had been steeped in alum A metallic dress of wire mesh was added to this, and thus protected a man might walk on hot iron.

TRAINING FOR LONGEVITY.

The Mental Attitude is as Important as Bodily Vigor.

A few years ago a young man "died of old age" in a New York hospital. After an autopsy the surgeons said that while the youth was in reality only twenty-three years old he was internally eighty.

It is the aged mind that frequently makes the body old. "Keep growing or die" is nature's motto, a motto written all over everything in the universe. There must be a constant activity in the mind that would use, not age, and the body is but the expression of the mind.

There is no doubt that as a race we shorten our lives very materially through our false thinking, our bad living and our old age convictions. Dr. Metchnikoff of the Pasteur Institute in Paris says that men should live at least 120 years. Yet it is only in rare instance today that a man reaches even the century mark.

Making a business of prolonging life and still retaining as much as possible of its vigor, freshness and buoyancy ought to be a prime object, especially after one has passed fifty. While proper care of the body is absolutely essential for the attainment of this object, the mental influence far transcends all others. The attitude of the mind has everything to do with growing or retarding the degenerative processes incident to one's declining years. It is an established fact that the body follows the thought, is shaped by the mental convictions, emotions, moods.—Orison Swett Marden in Nautilus.

Submarine Mines.

Wet gunpowder in submarine mines is, of course, a very potent explosive, but in many respects it is quite outclassed by the compound used in German mines and known as trinitrotoluene, but abbreviated to "T. N. T." in Great Britain and to "trotyl" in Germany. A shell, torpedo or mine loaded with "T. N. T." (which requires to be detonated by means of mercuric fulminate) bursts with great violence into large fragments, whereas if loaded with picric acid the splinters are fewer in small and cannot therefore do as much damage. Although wet gunpowder is more powerful if exploded in close proximity to the target, the effect of "T. N. T." is much greater when the explosion takes place some distance away.—London Telegraph.

The Steamer Duck.

Around the southern extremity of South America is to be found a very large duck, which bears the common name of "steamer duck" or "race horse," owing to a peculiar habit it has of rowing itself along the surface of the water at great speed. This is said to be due to the remarkable fact that the bird loses the power of flight when it reaches maturity. These ducks are very common.—Chicago Herald.

Artistic Excuse.

"There!" said Mr. Nagg after a complicated explanation of why he had stayed out so late; "I hope this is satisfactory."

"It is more than satisfactory," Mrs. Nagg told him. "It is simply beautiful."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Her State of Mind.

Attorney—You can sue him for breach of promise, madam, but it seems to me that it's preposterous to claim $250,000 damages. Fair Client—I want to get so heavy a judgment against him that he'll just have to marry me—the scoundrel!—Chicago Tribune.

Simple Arithmetic.

"How do you account for the passing of the after dinner speech?"

"On business principles. A good talker can get enough money for a lecture to buy his own dinner and then have some cash left over."—Washington Star.

It is a mistake to set up our own standard of right and wrong and expect everybody to conform to it.

Copalline your floors, woodwork and linoleums! Copalline Varnish dries with a good rich gloss, gives a hard wearing surface, and won't darken hardwood floors. For sale at Wallace's, Sole Agents for Napanee.

Honorable.

Marjorie, aged four, was in the library with her father while her mother was superintending the preparation of dinner. The attention of the head of the house was attracted by a scratching sound, and he looked up to find his daughter at work with a pair of scissors on the top of a polished table.

"Marjorie," he said sternly, "go tell your mother what you've been doing."

"I won't do it, papa!" she said. "Do you think I'm a tattletale?"—Judge.

Siamese Royal Etiquette.

By a remarkable law of royal etiquette which has existed for a number of years at the court of Siam no person is permitted to sleep in the apartment situated above that occupied by the king. A deliberate breach of this rule has on more than one occasion been punished by death.

Homemade Paste.

An inexpensive paste is made of one small potato grated fine. Add boiling water enough to make it clear and boil five minutes. This is much better than flour or cornstarch paste for all kinds of pasting.—Woman's Home Companion.

I believe in laughter, in love, in faith, in all distant hope that lures us on.—Geeves.

A little girl saw a cat carrying her kitten by the nape of the neck. The sight made her very angry.

MILITARY ARCHERS.

Bows and Arrows Were Used in Battle Up to a Century Ago.

We think of the bow and arrow as medieval weapons of war abandoned by the nations of Europe four or five centuries ago. The bowmen of Crecy are the last of any prominence in English history. Yet it is only about 100 years since soldiers fought with bows and arrows in European wars, and that, too, on the fields of southern Belgium.

It was in 1812, when all Europe was armed against Napoleon. Every one of the allied nations brought every possible resource of men and means to further this end. Among them was Prussia. To the war she sent soldiers from the newly conquered tribes that dwelt upon the steppes of Asia—Bokharans and Turkomans and Tartars and other half savage peoples. Many of these regiments were armed with bows and arrows.

Jomini, the military historian, speaks of a great number of these that fought side by side with the Prussians in eastern Germany and in Belgium, and he says that these bowmen held their own against the French infantry. Their aim, he says, was surprisingly good, and they could shoot an arrow with effect almost as far as a musket ball was effective, but in those days that was not much more than 100 yards.—Exchange.

THE ART OF MUSIC.

One Must Thoroughly Understand It to Really Enjoy It.

Berlioz says: "Music is the art of moving, by a systematic combination of sounds, the affections of intelligent, receptive and cultivated beings."

Weber states: "Music is to the arts what love is to man. In truth, it is love itself; the purest, loftiest language of passion, portraying it in a thousand shades of color and feeling."

Ruskin declares: "Music is the first, the simplest, the most effective of all instruments of moral instruction."

Have you ever thought what a desolate place the world would be without music? Have you ever realized that the entire civilized world now looks upon music as one of the great essentials in the education of the cultured man and woman?

Few persons know that the greatest delight of music comes through the understanding of it. The highest in music is not revealed to the student until the student has earned the right to enjoy it. With the right once earned the student has a wonderful power at his command, a power with which he can carry his listeners to the height of joy or to the depth of sadness. With music it is possible to exercise control over all the emotions of man.—Alfred Edward Freckelton, Jr., in New York Tribune.

How He Looked.

One summer when William M Evarts was at his country home in Windsor, Vt., a farmer stopped to talk with his political career in the newspapers for many years was extremely anxious to see him in the flesh and drove fifteen miles into town in order to catch a glimpse of the idol.

Senator Evarts at that time was being entertained constantly, dining out almost every night, and as he drove out of his grounds to an appointment one evening the farmer was lying in wait for him in the road. The latter, seeing the pale, ascetic face and meager form of the famous statesman, was disappointed.

"Well, I declare," he exclaimed, "looks as if he'd always boarded!"

—It may be remembered that an alleged robbery of $2,000 was said to have taken place in the grocery store of C. H. Chase, Napanee, between Saturday night, Jan. 17th, and Monday morning, Jan. 19th, 1925. Investigation was made by the local, county and provincial police, but without solving the mystery of the robbery. Since that time C. H. Chase has become bankrupt, the store is closed and the stock and fixtures are being offered for sale. It is now alleged that the money has been recovered by Mr. Chase, who is said to have found it at his own house early in May. We are informed that the money was turned over to the assignee of the bankrupt estate.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

He who marries a shrew isn't shrewd.

Corns cannot exist when Holloway's Corn Remover is applied to them, because it goes to the root and kills the growth.

"Some of the good people who dine here," said the hotel manager sadly, "seem to think that spoons are a sort of medicine—to be taken after meals."

No child should be allowed to suffer an hour from worms when prompt relief can be got in a simple but strong medicine — Mother (Graves') Worm Exterminator.

Doctor—Have you taken every precaution to prevent spread of contagion in the family?

Rastus—Ah-lutely, doctah, we've even bought a sanitary cup an' we all drink from it.

Don't Submit to Asthma. If you suffer without hope of breaking the chains which bind you do not put off another day the purchase of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Remedy. A trial will drive away all doubt as to its efficiency. The sure relief that comes will convince you more than anything that we can write. When help is so sure, why suffer? This matchless remedy is sold by dealers everywhere.

"George, dear, if you marry me people will think you did it for my money."

"What do I care what the people say?"

"Yes, dear, but to keep you from getting a bad name, I have given all my fortune to the missionaries. Why, Georrie, where are you going?"

"Why, to be a missionary," was the sad reply.

The Family Physician. — The good doctor is always worth his fee. But it is not always possible to get a doctor just when you want him. In such cases, common sense suggests the use of reliable home remedies, such as Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil, which is wonderfully effective in easing inflammatory pains and healing cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. The presence of this remedy in the family medicine chest saves many a fee.

A western governor had lost one of his colonels, and there was an unseemly scramble for the office, despite the fact that the colonel's body was awaiting burial. One of the ambitious candidates went so far as to call upon the executive and ask "Governor, have you any objections to my taking Colonel Smith's place?"

"No," the governor replied complacently. "I have no objections if the undertaker is willing."

A couple were touring in Sicily. At a distance from one of the large towns, the wife said:

"Think, Albert, if the brigands should come now and take me from you!"

"Impossible, my dear."

"But supposing they did come and carry me away, what would you say?"

"I should say," replied the husband, "that the brigands were new at the business—that's all."

At Lambing Time.

Cleanliness and gentle treatment are two important things to keep in mind at this particular time. The hand and arm of the attendant should be first washed adding a little disinfectant such as carbolic acid or one of the coal tar dips to the water, then smeared with vaseline or linseed oil, and the hand gently inserted into the vagina. The object should be to ascertain whether or not the lamb is coming in the proper position, that is head and front feet first. If the presentations appear normal then it is a question of aiding delivery by gently pulling on the front feet of the lamb. At appearance the inside passage or the ewe should be well lubricated with linseed oil which tends to soften the tissues and allow it to stretch. Unless the case is a very severe one it will usually yield to the treatment. Under conditions where the lamb is not coming in the proper position, then the case is a much more difficult one to handle. The lamb may be coming front feet first with the head turned back, or again the hind end may come first, in any case it will be necessary to correct the position of the lamb; it requires considerable patience and very gentle handling to do this in order to prevent injury to both lamb and mother. When the lamb has been put in the right position ,the ewe may be able to deliver it herself, but if weak and unable to do so help may be given. A lump of pure hog's lard inserted into the vagina of the ewe after difficult parturition will be very beneficial in healing it in case it has been injured in any way. If the ewe is weak and exhausted give a stimulant to revive her. If the case has been a severe one it might be advisable to flush the ewe for two or three days by means of a rubber tube attached to a funnel using some cool for disinfectant or boracic acid in warm water.

Use of Marl.

Marl is a good form of lime for the soil that needs lime. Two to three tons per acre of air-dried marl will not be too much. Broadcast on the ploughed land and harrow in. It is always best, however, to have marl sampled and analyzed before using. Marl, on air-drying it, readily crumbles, falling into a more or less fine powder which is easily distributed on the land.

Wonderful Finds In Holy Lands

As a repository of ancient secrets the Holy Land is challenging Egypt for a share of world attention, for excavations at Beth Shean, fifty miles north of Jerusalem, have exposed five layers of earth, each of which contains traces of a separate civilization. Five civilizations, one upon the other, have been laid bare to the eyes of the archaeologists as a result of the work done in the last two years by the University of Pennsylvania unit, under the direction of Dr. Clarence S. Fisher.

"There is every reason to believe that we shall be able to go back as far as the Stone Age," says Dr. Fisher, who has just returned to America from Palestine. "Layer by layer we shall trace each civilization. The hill where we have been digging occupies a peculiar position; it overlooks the whole surrounding country, and from earliest times was used as a habitation and a stronghold. Conqueror after conqueror planted his armies there. Past the hill runs the road where went all the travel from Syria and Mesopotamia to Egypt, following the River Jordan south toward Suez and the Nile. There is no other place that I know of where so many peoples, so many civilizations, passed at one time or another has passed through this Palestine gateway."

Commanding the Valley of Armageddon, the hill-site now giving up its hidden relics of Arabic, Byzantine, Roman, Greek and Egyptian occupation has long been a position against which hammered the forces of east and west. Here the Pharaohs of Egypt three thousand years ago parcelled the fruits of their tolling Syrian vassals; here a thousand years later, David, the psalm singer vanquished the armies of Saul, and here, in 1918, Allenby's Britons routed the Turkish forces.

The site of Beth Shean or Beisan as the modern village is called, once formed part of the private property of the Sultan. Under the Law of Antiquities, passed in 1920, this region was opened up by the British administration to archaeological units, and it was at this time that the University of Pennsylvania sent out its staff of workers under Dr. Fisher to explore it.

Dr. Fisher brought back, with other relics to be placed in the new wing of the Philadelphia Museum, a stele of Rameses the Great, found in one of the towers of the Egyptian fortress just unearthed at Beth Shean. This, in his opinion, is a most important find, as the writing on the eight-foot stone gives new data concerning the journeys of Rameses and his son Meremptah from Egypt to their Syrian possessions. On the Rameses stele are the words, "I used the Asiatics on the building of my city."

"These words," says Dr. Fisher, "refer to the city this Pharaoh built in Egypt, and are, I believe, the first reference to the Israelites found on any Egyptian document.

"Two statues, one of Seti I., the other of Rameses, were found side by side on heavy stone foundations in the Egyptian fortress that we are now excavating. The shape of the room had been changed to make a place for the Rameseun monument, which was evidently erected at a much later date. Both steles were about eight feet high and lay on their sides when found. The writing on the Seti stele was the usual laudatory eulogy to the great king, without reference to specific achievement, and the stone was similar to the other Seti ones found in Syria last year. These monuments were only placed to mark successful conquest or brave deeds, and where they are found it is certain some important event took place.

"The fortress shows marks of heavy fighting. Great conflict went on there. It is quite likely that here Saul and his army were defeated by David, although we have not yet found definite proof of it. It was the logical place for the armies to meet."

Work was before 1918 that Dr. Fisher, studying the ground, through the Near East for an excavating site that might throw the most light on early civilization, was attracted by the hill north of Jerusalem.

"We were unable to start work until 1921, when Great Britain received a mandate over Palestine. The whole region had been owned by the Turks. In our six years of work we have found on this one site the remains of Arabic, Byzantine, Roman, Greek and Egyptian influences. A shaft sunk thirty-five feet the first year gives us some idea of what the hill will yield as it is leveled off. At the bottom of the shaft we found a Canaanite grave, containing the skeleton of a young woman. Since the Egyptians drove this people out of Egypt and up into Syria as early as 2,000 B.C., there should be other historical data about this period.

Crime in Washington.

Prohibition has failed to put an end to crime in Washington, it is shown by statistics compiled by police officials.

The compilation of arrests on all charges from 1910 to 1922 shows that, although Washington's population has increased only 32.17 per cent. since 1910, arrests in 1922 for serious crimes showed an increase of 147.47 per cent. over those in 1910. Crimes against morality increased as did murder, manslaughter and thievery.

Arrests for violation of the prohibition laws themselves last year totalled 13,040. For statistical purposes, which dropped considerably in 1918, have since steadily upward since then, and last year reached 8,868, an increase of 121.20 per cent. over the arrests made in 1910.

ELDERLY CAN "COME BACK"

Physician Tells How He Succeeded in Throwing Off the Troubles of Advancing Years.

Dr. I. Leo Nascher tells how he made himself over into a young man, in an article in People's Magazine for May, 1st. "something any elderly person can do," he says. "Here is the simple proposition. A man ages many years in the course of a severe illness lasting several weeks. After a few weeks' vacation he looks and feels many, but to a certain extent the cause he was taken ill. Having in mind hundreds of cases in which this has proved true, it is logical to ask if we cannot rejuvenate the aged, take them down young again, just as we made the prematurely aged invalid become young. And, through several experiments, that can now be answered in the affirmative. I speak from personal experience.

"It is a fact that there is not a single one of the objective manifestations of senility, those that give the appearance of old age, which cannot be removed, suppressed, or hidden, or at least a youthful substitute found for it.

"To restore the spirit and buoyancy of youth is more difficult. This requires the will, not only the desire, but the determination and the energy to be young, to feel young and look young. Most old persons have the desire, some have the determination, but few have the energy to carry out the measures necessary for rejuvenation. In many cases the old man or woman who would like to do so is afraid of ridicule, of being called giddy and foolish if he or she suddenly appeared in youthful attire and adorned with the artifices of the beauty parlor. Yet under some special stimulus, usually the desire to attract some particular individual of the opposite sex, both men and women have gone beyond the limit of propriety to look younger than they are and feel younger than they look. And if they went about it the right way they usually succeeded.

"I tried it a couple of years ago, not to attract any particular individual, but to see if it could be done, and how it felt to grow young.

"In one year the change in my appearance and actions and feelings was so complete that persons who had not seen me since the earlier days, when I was aged, did not recognize me."

Yields to March of Progress.

One of the oldest banks in Wall street has finally yielded to the march of progress—and installed a telephone. It will only have one phone at first, for it is difficult to uproot prejudices of many years. They have never had a telephone because they believed that confidential business could not be conducted over a telephone and their atmosphere of the old bank, the oldest in the city, is that of a staid institution in some old town settled in Colonial times. Absolute quiet prevails. The employees retain the old-fashioned good manners. Instead of a lively laughing creature who tells the world that the bus is busy in thrilling soprano, the bank will select for their first telephone operator a person with a beard and a bass voice, able to endow his lightest utterances with a certain profundity.

It was in a breach of promise case, and the rustic defendant was under cross-examination.

"Now tell me please," said the counsel, sternly, "on the evening of the 16th when you bade her good-bye, did she suffer you to kiss her?"

"Well," said the witness, slowly, "I reckon now I did give her a kiss or two; but there won't much sufferin' about it as I could see—she rather liked 'em!"

And even the learned judge condescended to smile.

A WELL AND A POET.

And an Unanswerable Argument In a Suit at Law.

Among the many anecdotes told of Joseph Viktor von Scheffel, the German poet and novelist, the following from Englische Rundschau is one of the most amusing:

In a place where Scheffel once lived there was a lack of good drinking water. One day a well driver in the neighborhood proposed that the poet allow him to drive a deep well for him. Scheffel accepted his offer, but only on the condition that after the water had been driven it be found drinkable. The well driver completed his work, but all that the pump would deliver was a thick yellow liquid, so the poet refused to pay for the work.

Finally the matter was brought before the court, and the poet and well driver stood side by side before the judge to present their respective cases. Both argued their sides so well that the magistrate was plainly puzzled to know which was actually right in the matter.

At length, weary of the affair, Scheffel said: "Well, I'll give in and pay for the well and the court expenses, too, but on one condition. My opponent shall, before our eyes, take a drink of the water from the well in question." The poet then drew from his big pocket a flask of dirty yellow water and, after extracting the cork, passed it over to the well driver. One glance was enough. He thrust the bottle aside with a disgusted look and strode out of the courtroom with an angry growl.

HORSEBACK RIDING.

It Is a Sport and an Exercise In a Class by Itself.

When Oliver Wendell Holmes proclaimed the trotter the coming horse and the steed of democratic usefulness, he did not foresee the invention of the automobile. Small blame to him. No one else dreamed of it for some scores of years thereafter, but the motor driven carriage has caused the learned doctor's planetic prophecy to go askew. By all present signs the coming horse, or, rather, the lasting horse, the one which will survive any amount of mechanical aids to locomotion, is the good saddle animal.

Horseback riding is at once a sport and an exercise, which is without a relative or a competitor. It is like nothing else, and for one who loves it, it can be replaced by nothing else. It is one of the finest aids to digestion ever known. The dictum of the old English physicin, "The outside of a horse is the best thing for the insides of a man," remains good.

With all these advantages the saddle horse is likely to last till we degenerate into a race of weaklings. Where that degradation is accomplished it won't matter greatly whether we have any fashionable companionship or not.—Chicago Journal.

The Musical Gamut.

Guido, a monk of Arezzo, in Tuscany, in 1009 A. D. was the inventor of the gamut. He named the six notes "ut," "re," "mi," "fa," "sol, "la." These syllables were taken from the first three verses of the hymn of St. John the Baptist. "Ut queant laxis," etc. Without the use of the gamut a person could not in a little time become perfect master of plain song. Guido says in a letter which he wrote, "I hope they who come after us will not forget to pray for us, for we make a perfect master of singing in a year or two, whereas till now a person could scarce attain this science, even imperfectly, in ten years." The gamut is the first note, but others' takes as signifying the whole scale of music or series of sounds, rising or falling toward acuteness or gravity from any given pitch or tone.

Home of the Huns.

The Huns have probably their nearest actual European descendants in the Bulgarians. It is a mistake to look for them in Hungary. The Ogre or Ungri, better known as the Magyars have very little to do with the Huns. But one conjectured derivation of the word "ogre" is from the Huns, the exhumation of them with the Huns." It seems more probable, however, that "ogre" should be traced through Spanish and Italian to the Latin Orcus—at first the god of the dead, and afterward in Romanesque folklore a shaggy, man eating monster of the woods.—London Chronicle.

Smokeless Breakfast Bacon.

Try cooking your breakfast bacon on a pie tin in the oven. This does away with all smoke and burnt grease smell in the kitchen, and the bacon is uniformly crisp. It may be cooked two layers deep if you will turn it once while cooking. One layer needs no turning. The fat from this is white and can be used for all baking. With half the amount of butter it is good even for cakes.—Washington Herald.

Highly Flattered.

"Your glasses," she said, "have made a great difference in your appearance."

"Do you think so?" he asked.

"Yes. You look so intelligent with them on."—Chicago Herald.

"No – I've not boiled any garments since"

"A friend suggested that I stop boiling the clothes I washed and try Rinso, which I did, with such delightful results that I have not boiled any garments since then.

"I found that Rinso is excellent for removing finger prints from white paint and for washing all woodwork.

"It has cut my house cleaning troubles in half and consequently I felt that it was only your due to know that Rinso has a much bigger work to do in our house than just to clean the dirt from our laundry."

The makers of Rinso receive many such letters as this. For Rinso not only does the family wash merely by soaking—it is also excellent for many household duties, such as cleaning woodwork, scrubbing floors, etc. Order Rinso today.

Dub Golfer but Star Casuist.

The latest yarn from the links concerns a golfer who took 10 in making the third hole, and said to his opponent, who had a 6: "I'll take 8 here; 10 is too many. I don't like double figures."

"Why not say 9, instead of 3?" suggested the other.

"Well, you see, 9 is a bad number," was the reply. "You can cheat with 9; turn it upside down and its 6, but 8 is 8, no matter how you look at it."—Boston Transcript.

LIGHT NOW PLACED ON MAP

Uncle Sam Officially Recognizes Beacon Designed to Commemorate the Titanic Disaster.

After seven years the "tute" light in the lighthouse on the roof of the Seamen's church institute has obtained official recognition on the government charts of New York harbor. For years this green beacon was ignored. Later it was recorded as a "fixed point." Now it is marked with a star on maps.

The lighthouse was erected to commemorate the loss of the greatest marine disaster in the modern world, the sinking of the steamship Titanic off Newfoundland April 15, 1912. The lighthouse was dedicated on the first anniversary of the disaster as a memorial created by public subscription and the work of prominent women. The light called "tute" by seamen, soon was guiding pilots who, as they "turned the Hook" 15 miles or more away, might make out the green and brilliant star supplied by the 7,500 candle power of three Cooper Hewitt quartz electric lamps 271 feet above the city streets. This green light on the starboard especially provided an excellent range for vessels making their way to the East river.

The lighthouse also has carried since November 1, 1913, a time ball 4 feet in diameter which drops each day at "standard noon" noon, when, as 'Arry remarks to Bill down in "the slip," "she's 'es 5 er'clock in Lunjin."

WERE BURIED IN PYRAMIDS

Aztec Dignitaries Had Imposing Tombs in the Little Village of San Juan Teotihuacan.

The little village of San Juan Teotihuacan, which in the Aztec language means "City of the Gods," was in the early days of Aztec history the scene of extraordinary religious ceremonies. The two pyramids, one dedicated to the sun, the other to the moon, are known to have been the tombs in which hundreds of tribal dignitaries were buried and excavators have exhumed wrought stone containing human bones, obsidian knives terra cotta heads with broad faces and flat noses, fragments of rare pottery and great numbers of arrowheads. One of the most recent and most valuable discoveries was a jadeite mask of some rare monarch, with the brow covered with the diadem known in early Mexican history. The pyramid to the sun and the one to the moon both contain chambers and their several stories are complete temples in themselves, but connected by winding stairs.

The inscriptions having Chinese characteristics were discovered through excavating in the ruins of what has generally been known as La Ciudadela (The Citadel), but which, according to recent reports of investigators, are what is left of a pyramid larger and, perhaps, older than the two pyramids to the sun and the moon.

Whence Comes Turpentine.

Most people know that turpentine is a product of the pine-tree, but are not acquainted with the means by which it is obtained.

Beneath the bark of the tree are resin-secreting cells, whose output is meant by nature for healing wounds.

If the skin of the tree be wounded severely, many more of these cells, much larger in size, develop and pour out great quantities of resin.

Hence, to procure the resin, the bark is well scarred with axe (generally if made in a series of parallel V's), and a receptacle is placed beneath to catch the fluid as it exudes.

The fluid is then distilled and the volatile part of it, which passes over, is turpentine. The residue is what we call "rosin" and is used for many purposes, one of its employments being in the manufacture of explosives.—Kansas City Star.

America's Telephone Industry.

According to the report by the bureau of the census showing the results of the census of telephones covering the year 1917, there are 53,234 separate telephone systems and lines. These lines and systems operated 56,257,188 miles of wire in the United States—enough to girdle the earth at the equator 1,153 times—and connected 11,716,520 telephones and 21,175 public exchanges.

The messages or "talks" sent over these wires aggregated the stupendous total of nearly 22,000,000,000, or, to be exact, 21,945,722,355. Figured on the estimated population of the country in 1917, this gives 211 messages per annum to every man, woman and child.

Heart Expels Bullets.

During the war surgeons did some extraordinary operations on the heart. An account of these and of the technique is given by Sir Charles Ballance consulting surgeon of St. Thomas' hospital, London, in the Lancet. An interesting fact related by him is that bullets that penetrate the heart were often expelled through the aorta with the blood and were found at remote parts of the body where they had stuck in an artery.

"Bump the Bumps" for Electric Iron.

In one of the largest electric manufacturing companies which is among other things engaged in the manufacture of electric irons, a spokesman from each hundred or so is taken and subjected to a severe test by a series of bumps on a hard surface, producing as far as possible the shocks which it receives while in use on the ironing board. A well-built iron will stand the treatment from 16 to 24 hours before it fails.

HAVE ANIMALS SIXTH SENSE?

Hard Otherwise to Explain How Wild Beasts Knew That the Great War Was Over.

Frightened by the noises of battle the wild beasts of East, Central and West Central Africa went scurrying north and south, traveling sometimes hundreds of miles in their fright and taking refuge in localities entirely new to them.

But just as the ruins of northern France have drawn human beings back to them—men and women who dwelt there before the German occupation, home has claimed the wild animals and most of them are now back in their native haunts.

How did the wild beast know that the war was over?

The elephant, gorilla, giraffe, antelope, buffalo, rhinoceros, lion, leopard and porcupine are certainly all perfectly aware of the fact.

Human beings have their various avenues of sending news, chief among these the newspapers, the post and the telegraph.

Whatever the method of communication, the wild animals certainly got the news quickly.

Peace was no sooner accomplished than the African natives began to see the homeward migration of whole companies of wild beasts through their territories, animals never familiar in these particular communities and obviously passing through.

Four years previously they had come crashing through the undergrowth, bound in an opposite direction. They were in great haste then and possessed of fear; and pachyderms and carnivora traveled together, the age-old war of the jungle forgotten in a common plight.

Birds may become accustomed to the sound of firing, but wild animals loathe it. Fear of strange noises is instinctive with them. Animals born in captivity invariably show this instinctive dread. And it is a well-known fact in zoological parks that apes can be controlled instantly by the display of a musket, even when as far as is known they have never seen one spit fire.

Women's Rights in China.

A paternal government in the province of Hupeh, China, is endeavoring by official action to bring the women of that province to the matter of clothes. "Women and girls are not permitted to wear extraordinary clothes," runs the official order which the police have been instructed to enforce. "The women's dresses, which were generally adopted by the Chinese gentle sex previous to the first revolution in 1911, are better suited to young women because they are not too short or too narrow, and they should be used again." The official order gives further particulars of the abuses which it alleges have taken place by which, in the matter of clothes, it is not possible to distinguish the Chinese women of "respectable and good families from those who are not." But the significance of this solicitude on the part of the military governor of Hupeh is found in the part, of the order which states that the importance of bearing and clothes is to be recognized, "in view of the fact that women are playing an important part in modern politics in western countries, and there is sufficient reason to believe that this awakening of the gentle sex will soon be extended to the far East."

Gruesome Find.

An extraordinary story comes from Shanghai, (China) of a find by some railway men at Harbin. A box car addressed to Colonel Ballioff, who is the Russian representative at Harbin, was opened and found to contain apparently bags of flour and firewood. Underneath these were found eight caskets. In each one duly labeled, six bearing the names of grand dukes and duchesses and the other two the name of a prince and a valet of one of the grand dukes. To make sure there was no ruse, one casket was opened and a body revenled. In addition to the names of the dead there was also written who had killed them and where. The question is being asked who had forwarded these bodies and for what reason, and where they were ultimately destined to be sent. In these days when railwaymen expect to find hidden away gold, jewels and other precious metals, to be confronted with caskets containing murdered persons is indeed a gruesome and unwelcome find.

If She Doesn't Talk Too Much.

The worst woman hater I know is my husband's brother. He is a bachelor M. D. and although busy with his patients, never forgets himself. He seems to dislike women through jealousy of them. As he is only forty-three, we intend starting a campaign at once to convert him. I have invited him to dinner Friday evening. I have also invited an amiable and beautiful young woman, who is a practitioner at the bar of justice. She has my cue to hold the floor for and in favor of women everywhere. She may win him over. If this interests you I will send you the next chapter.—Exchange.

Relieved of Rheumatism and Lumbago

Now Quebec Man Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mr. George Tremblay Was Unable To Work, But Is Now In Good Health.

St. Marie, Que., May 25th (Special).—"Your Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me a lot of good," states Mr. G. Tremblay, who is well known and highly respected here.

"When I sent for them I was unable to work. I took ten boxes and to-day I can do my work and am without pain. I recommend them to all who suffer with backache, rheumatism and pains in the kidneys."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are not put forward as a cure-all, but for the specific maladies for which they are recommended, namely, rheumatism, backaches, diabetes, dropsy, lumbago, urinary troubles and heart disease.

Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly and promptly at the seat of the trouble. They do not cause any derangements in the natural functions of any organs.

Dodd's Kidney Pills relieve after every other means have failed.

The old countrywoman wended her way slowly along the departure platform of the station in the direction of a solitary seat.

Reaching her objective, she sat down and, with a sigh of relief, disposed of her various parcels and an umbrella.

Then she noticed a nurse who occupied the other end of the seat.

"Ah!" she said, eyeing the uniform, "I don't know what we'd do without the likes o' you."

"Oh," smiled the nurse, "now you are too kind. There's no doubt you do things equally as well."

"Not me, miss," responded the old lady. "I can kill a duck or a chicken wi' the best—that I admit; but when it comes to 'uman beings, my 'eart fails me!"

Automobile Accidents

Almost every newspaper you read has an account of one or more Auto accidents. People are killed or injured and property destroyed. In every case some person is held responsible and must pay the damages.

Many drivers say, "Oh, I am a careful driver, and I will never cause an accident". It may not be YOUR fault but it will be YOUR car and YOU will pay the damage.

Why take the risk? We can sell you a policy which indemnifies you against liability imposed by Law, defends you in every law-suit and pays all damage up to a very large amount. No inconvenience for you, no anxiety, and the cost, in most cases, is not more than $1.50 per month. Let us give you the exact cost for Policy on your Car.

Somewhat Humorous "Ad."

Bill Nye, known in his day as a humorist, owned a cow which he wanted to sell, and put an advertisement in the paper which read like this: "Owing to ill-health, I will sell at my residence, in township 19, range 18, according to the government survey, one plush raspberry cow, aged eight years. She is of undoubted courage and gives milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her present home with a stay chain, but she will be sold to any one who will agree to treat her right. She is one-fourth short-horn and three-fourths hyena. I will also throw a double-barrel shotgun, which goes with her. Her name is Rose. I would rather sell her to a non-resident."

They'll tell you they're the first steps toward success. And they'll very probably recommend Buckeye Incubators and Buckeye Coal-Burning or Oil-Burning Brooders. They'll tell you that they hatch more eggs, raise more chicks, insure bigger poultry profits for you.

Then ask us for the new Buckeye Catalog—a most complete and valuable book on poultry raising. Tells how to feed, cull, get more eggs in winter and market for high prices.

NAPANEE MAN STRUCK BY AN AUTO

Robert Woodcock, aged 22, while riding a bicycle, was struck by an auto owned by a resident of Brighton, at the corner of Robert and Dundas streets, shortly after six o'clock Monday evening, and received a badly crushed right ankle and limb, a large wound on the left temple, a cut on his right ear which nearly severed it from his head, and was badly shaken when he was forced from the pavement and finally dumped on a lawn adjoining the street. The unfortunate youth was immediately picked up and rushed to the surgery of Dr. Willoughby, and Dr. Stratton was summoned also. Medical aid was given and he was then taken to the Kingston General Hospital.

At the hospital he was attended by Dr. I. G. Bogart, who found his injuries as described above. Mr. Woodcock had a good night and was reported to be much easier Tuesday morning.

Mr. Woodcock is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Woodcock, Mount Pleasant, and is an employee of the Farmers' Dairy, at Napanee. He was bicycling home from work when the accident happened.

DR. D. B. DOWLING DEAD FROM HEART TROUBLE

Explorer and Geologist Expires Suddenly at Ottawa

Dr. Donaldson Bogart Dowling, 67, explorer and geologist, with an international reputation and responsible for the discovery of many coal and oil fields in Western Canada, died suddenly at his home, in Ottawa, on Tuesday night, from heart trouble.

His death was very sudden, as he had attended to his duties at the Geological Department last Saturday Tuesday he felt unwell and died suddenly at night.

Born in Camden Township, Addington County, Ontario, in 1858, he was educated at Napanee, and later graduated from McGill University, and entered the Geological Survey of Canada in 1884.

During his earlier years he was engaged in exploration work in the then little-known regions of Northern Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Later he turned his attention to the study of coal and petroleum deposits of Western Canada, and was an international authority on this subject.

His knowledge and advice was responsible for the discovery of an artesian water supply in Southern Alberta, making irrigation possible. As late as 1921 he made an examination of the petroleum discoveries at Fort Norman.

Dr. Dowling was a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, and the Geological Society of America, and of several other scientific bodies. He was President of the Canadian Mining Institute in 1917. He also was a member of the Geographical Board of Canada and the Dominion Fuel Board.

Mrs. Walter Davidson, of Montreal, is a daughter.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR.

Dear Sir,—

I certainly take exception to the "reader-ad." by Mr. McKenzie, of Kingston, as published in the issue of The Napanee Beaver under date of May 15th, for in it he reflects very untruthfully upon the work of the late Mr. F. S. Richardson, as well as myself. There has never been a time in my recollection when the citizens of Napanee or Lennox County have had to go elsewhere to obtain good portraits.

Mr. Richardson's work speaks for itself, having spent a large part of his life here there is scarcely a home in the town or county in which there are not many samples of his work. His work was always good honest photography.

As for myself I can refer to many well pleased customers for whom I have made portraits since I have been in Napanee. And to anyone not familiar with my work, I would be glad to show certificates of award and honor won by my pictures in numerous exhibitions.

If Mr. McKenzie is coming to Napanee, he may praise his own work all he wishes; but let him act like part of a gentleman in his references regarding fellow photographers.

EARLY EDUCATION INFLUENCE IN LIFE OF A GREAT PREMIER

Sir John A. Macdonald's Schooldays in Adolphustown a Century Ago — An Important Period in the Life of One Who Has Made His Mark Deep in Canada's Vigorous History.

On Saturday, June 6th, flowers will be placed on the grave of Sir John A. Macdonald at Cataraqui cemetery, near Kingston, to commemorate the 34th anniversary of the death soon after the strenuous campaign of the general elections of 1891.

Sir John was born in Glasgow, Scotland, on January 11th, 1815. His father, Hugh, who emigrated to Canada with his family, moved from Kingston up the Bay of Quinte in 1823, and settled on Hay Bay, in Adolphustown. Just a century ago, therefore, John A. was a school boy in that historic U. E. Loyalist settlement, learning valuable lessons in self-control.

There was a store already at the village at the front, so Hugh Macdonald chose a location at the rear, on the south shore of Hay Bay. He obtained a small frame house near the shore on the farm of Paul Huff, one of the original U. E. Loyalist settlers of 1784. Here the Macdonald family dwelt with one small room devoted to the stock of a general store.

The Paul Huff farm was the second place of importance in the settlement when the Macdonalds first lived there. In 1792 the Methodists had built a frame church on the opposite side of a little cove from where stood the Macdonald home. Here crowds gathered on the Sabbath, including the denominations and a sprinkling of Indians.

The Macdonalds, of course, were devout Presbyterians, but John A. always in later years liked to tell about his habit of walking over to the Methodist Church every Sunday to worship, led by his beloved mother, and of listening to wonderful sermons while seated by her side. He always declared those to have been his happiest boyhood days, when he and his sisters walked every day to and fro to the village school.

These polite, refined children were a great acquisition to that rural school. The tall, black-haired, longnosed Macdonald lad was not only full of fertile fun, but bright, keen and clever. Rough discipline of the school yard proved troublesome, however, and John A. learned that silence in those early days amongst a lot of strong-willed, but strong-willed, sons of a virile people that he must control himself in order to win their respect and to become a leader.

Hugh Macdonald did not succeed in business any better there than in Kingston, and after a few years' trial moved his family across the Bay of Quinte to Stone Mills, at the foot of the Lake-on-the-Mountain, in the County of Prince Edward. That afforded John A. the opportunity to return to friends in Kingston, where he had the privileges of the Grammar School till 1830, when at the age of 15 years he became articled to his father's friend, George MacKenzie, and began earning his living in Mowlatter's law office. Six years later, in 1836, John A. was called to the bar, in the same year that Abraham Lincoln, his senior by six years, was admitted at Springfield, Illinois.

During his apprenticeship John A. looked after a part of the law office in Napanee for his chief, and later one in Picton for his uncle, MacPherson, who had lost his health. Becoming a full-fledged lawyer, John A. opened an office in Kingston, and was in association with Sir Oliver Mowat, had a clientele extending westerly to Napanee, Adolphustown and Picton. In the meantime the family returned from Stone Mills to Kingston, where the father soon after died. One sister married Professor Williamson, of Queen's, while John A. married Miss Isabella Clark in 1843, and at once established his own home. The living issue from that marriage is Sir Hugh John Macdonald, of Winnipeg, ex-Premier of Manitoba, and now nearing the octogenarian borderhood.

All Sir John Macdonald's biographers refer to the family life in Adolphustown only to point out their wanderings, and then to establish a foothold. None of them, apparently, have been sufficiently impressed with the importance of those three or four years of John A.'s early school days amongst the hard U. E. Loyalists of Adolphustown. He there heard the Loyalist grandfathers and grandmothers tell their stories of standing firm for Great Britain in the midst of crushing sufferings and sorrows for years, until they safely reached Canada. He lived over again with them the hardships and struggles they experienced in pioneering in the forests along the Bay of Quinte. He heard of their glorious defence of their country during the War of 1812-14, and saw the old guns and swords hanging on the walls.

Those experiences and friendships and examples at that impressionable age went deep into the mind and soul of this awakened Scotch lad. They developed then and there to be true to those loyalist people. In due time John A. entered politics, and always maintained the respect and loyal support of that great constituency bordering on the Bay of Quinte, the centre of which to Sir John Macdonald to his dying day, was that favored spot, still guarded by the old Methodist Church where he spent his happiest boyhood days.

The house has long since gone, but the stone foundation and massive Lombardy populars of the half-acre plot still mark the place which some day may be adorned with some suitable memorial.

TOWN COUNCIL

Council Chambers,
Napanee, June 1st, 1925.

Council met in regular session on Monday evening, Mayor Ming in the chair.

Members present—Reeve Graham, and Councillors Roy, Dunbar, Simpson, Jewell, Howitt and MacGregor.

The minutes of the last regular and special sessions were read, and on motion were confirmed.

A communication was received from F. W. Knapp, Secretary of the Napanee Band, asking for the annual grant of $250.00, and if the Council could increase the amount it would be appreciated.

Referred to the Finance Committee to consider when striking the estimates.

A communication was received from the Board of Health, asking that a sewer be built on Isabella St., between East and John streets. Referred to the Streets Committee to report.

Councillor MacGregor, Chairman of Finance, asked that the time for the return of the Collector's Roll be extended until June 15th. Granted.

Reeve Graham, Chairman of Streets, reported that considerable work is completed in his department, and they expect to commence oiling the streets the last of this week or the first of next week.

Councillor Simpson, Chairman of Fire, Water and Light, reported that Mr. Bickle, of Bickle Fire Engines, Limited, Woodstock, was present, and had a second hand Ford ton fire truck taken in exchange, which they will guarantee as in first-class condition, the price being $1,200.00. Mr. Simpson was in favor of purchasing a 1½-ton truck, and asked for an expression of opinion from the Council as to whether they were willing to expend $1,200.00 for a truck.

Mr. Bickle, upon request, addressed the Council in reference to the Ford truck above referred to. He said this truck carries practically the same equipment as the higher priced car. It could be considered the best to be an excellent buy at $1,200.00. Upon questioned, Mr. Bickle said the 40-gallon chemical tank could be taken off and two 30-gallon tanks installed in an addition, at a cost of $200.00. Further, the company would at any time during the next three years agree to take this truck back on the purchase price of a heavier truck and allow the town the full price paid for same less $100.00 per year. The company would guarantee the truck and equipment to be in first-class mechanical condition.

Moved by Councillor Simpson, seconded by Councillor Howitt, that this Council purchase from Bickle Fire Engines, Limited, the second-hand Ford ton Fire Truck above referred to, with the exception that the truck be mounted with two new 30-gallon chemical tanks instead of one 40-gallon tank, at a cost of $1,400.00, and that the Mayor and Clerk be authorized to sign a contract for the purchase of same. Carried.

Moved by Councillor MacGregor, seconded by Reeve Graham, that the Clerk be instructed to draw up a debenture by-law covering the cost of the fire truck, for a four-year period at 5 per cent. Carried.

Moved by Councillor Roy, seconded by Councillor Jewell, that the matter of signs at the entrance of roads leading into the town, and also at Springside Park, be left in the hands of the Printing and By-Laws Committee, with power to act. Carried.

Councillor Jewell, Chairman of Town Property, reported that the work at the new biscuit factory was progressing favorably. A few minor changes had been made, such as changing the roof to the north instead of to the east, which would make a much better looking building.

Moved by Councillor Simpson, seconded by Councillor Roy, that the Town Property Committee confer with the officers of the Horticultural Society in reference to beautifying Queen's Park, under the Bridge at the bridge at the east end of the town, and also at the signs on the roads leading into the town. Carried.

Councillor Simpson informed the Council that Mr. A. R. Davis, of Toronto, was in town and had interviewed him in respect to the celebration to be held at Adolphustown, on Saturday, June 6th, 1925, in commemoration of the birth of Sir John A. Macdonald, and asked that a deputation be sent from this Council.

Moved by Councillor Simpson, seconded by Councillor Jewell, that the Mayor form a deputation from this Council to attend the celebration above referred to, and that the deputation be given arrangements with Saturday, June 6th, 1925, in commemoration of the birth of Sir John A. Macdonald, and asked that a deputation be sent from this Council.

Moved by Councillor Simpson, seconded by Councillor Jewell, that the Mayor form a deputation from this Council to attend the celebration above referred to, and that the deputation be given arrangements with Saturday, June 6th, 1925, in commemoration of the birth of Sir John A. Macdonald, and asked that a deputation be sent from this Council.

Moved by Councillor Simpson, seconded by Councillor Jewell, that the Mayor form a deputation from this Council to attend the celebration above referred to, and that the deputation be given arrangements with Saturday, June 6th, 1925, in commemoration of the birth of Sir John A. Macdonald, and asked that a deputation be sent from this Council.

Moved by Reeve Graham, seconded by Councillor Howitt, that the Streets Committee be authorized to carry out the scheme of improving and having street intersections marked with safety strips. Carried.

Moved by Reeve Graham, seconded by Councillor Jewell, that the Streets Committee be a committee to meet a committee from the County Council of the County of Lennox and Addington, and enter into an agreement on behalf of the corporation to properly mark, in the town are connecting links with the County Road system. CONSERVATIVE ORGANIZATION MEETING

Liberal-Conservative Association Is Formed for the New Federal Riding of Prince Edward-Lennox.

An enthusiastic meeting of about three hundred Conservative representatives from every municipality in Prince Edward and Lennox was held in Picton on Saturday afternoon, May 30th. A constitution was adopted for the Liberal-Conservative Association representing the new Federal Riding, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—President, J. C. Hepburn; Vice President, Albert Reid; Secretary-Treasurer, Edw. Boulter; Assistant Secretary, W. S. Wilson. It was also arranged to give the ladies representation on the Executive. The annual meetings of the Association will be held alternately at Napanee and Picton. The meeting next year will be at Napanee.

Resolutions were passed amid great enthusiasm endorsing the policies of the Conservative Leaders, Hon. Arthur Meighen and Premier Howard Ferguson, and pledging united support to these gentlemen in their effort to give the people of this country honest, economical and responsible government.

Addresses were addressed by Mr. Hubbs, M.P., Mr. C. W. Hambly, M.L.A., and Mr. H. S. Colliver, M.L.A. Mr. Hubbs took up the question of the lavish expenditures on the part of the King Government at a time when the country required a policy of drastic economy to bring it again to a satisfactory financial condition. He cited case after case where appropriations had been made for political purposes, to build wharves in Quebec where the present equipment was sufficient to handle twice the present actual volume of shipping, and to dredge rivers and harbors in places in Ontario where there was practically no shipping carried on. He showed where millions of dollars were being spent on irrigation work practically to no results. He pointed out the muddle in which the King Government was placed in subsidizing the Petersen shipping interests to compete against the government's own ships in the Canadian Merchant Marine. He stated that if Home Bank depositors were to have money refunded by the Government, why not the depositors of the Farmers' Bank, or other Trust Companies which had failed in recent years.

Mr. Hambly and Mr. Colliver both spoke of the efficient and economical administration being given this Province by the Ferguson Government, and pointed out that at the next Federal election the people of Canada would rise up against the weak and vacillating King administration and place the government of the country in the hands of the Conservative Party to carry out the traditional National Policy of stability, economy and protection.

W. S. HERRINGTON, K.C., ADDRESSED KINGSTON KIWANIS CLUB

The greatest peace conference for the increasing of the goodfellowship and better relations between Britain and the United States ever held, was the term given to the visit of the Canadian bar to England last summer, by W. S. Herrington, K.C., of Napanee, one of the Canadian delegates, at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Frontenac Hotel, Kingston, last week, during the course of an admirably delivered address. Not only was it productive of such good fellowship, but it also showed the members of the American bar, according to their own statements, how law is administered in England, and demonstrated to them that while Britain is the most lawabiding nation in the world, the United States is productive of many times more than utter disregard for the law.

Mr. Herrington, in telling of the visit, stated that the American Bar Association was established after the meeting of the American Bar in Montreal in 1911. Sir James Aiken, Lieutenant-Governor of, Manitoba, was elected the first President, and has been in that position ever since. Today much of the newest legislation in Canada is due to the Canadian Bar, notably the Insurance Act, and amendments to the Banking Act. For years the Canadian Bar has been doing excellent work, and each year a celebrated jurist from England visits Canada, and addresses the Association, notable among these being Lord Haldane, Viscount Grey and others.

Last year an invitation came to the American Bar to hold their meeting in England, and the invitation also came to the Canadian Bar, asking the latter to act as joint hosts to the Americans with the British. The Canadian delegation, consisting of 36 lawyers, 75 K.C.'s, and 150 other lawyers, embarked on the Mountaineer and arrived in England three days before the Americans. Arriving at Southampton, and being greeted by the Lord Mayor, the delegation went immediately to London, and were headquartered in the Hotel Cecil. Entertainments were held, notable among them being the entertainment at Grey's Inn, one of the Inns of Court in London, through which a student must pass before being called to the English Bar.

"The beauty of such a visit", said Mr. Herrington, "is that one meets everywhere conditions, which are near and dear to the hearts of the Englishmen. On the arrival of the 2,000 members of the American Bar, receptions and entertainments were held, the keynote of the speeches in these gatherings being the good fellowship and better relationship which exists between the two nations."

At Buckingham Palace.

Mr. Herrington stated that one of the most brilliant affairs was the reception at Buckingham Palace. Through a misunderstanding 500 Americans arrived at the reception, and the King, on learning of this, immediately had 500 extra invitations issued for the same. The lawyers were gathered on the huge lawn in front of the Palace. On one side of the lawn was a large marquee where refreshments were prepared, while on the other side was another marquee, arranged for the King and Queen and their retinue. From the Palace to the marquee there was a distance of about 200 yards, and it took the royal party three-quarters of an hour to reach the spot, the time being occupied by receiving the visitors.

"It was indeed very amusing" said Mr. Herrington, "that the Americans, who, while they may not have disliked for royalty, believe that they are useless appendages, were failing over themselves to either meet the King or get a better look at him.

"I must confess that my visit there caused me rather to re-construct my idea of Queen Mary, and I cannot recall seeing a more handsome woman in my life. Perhaps it was her pleasing manner, and her utter lack of anything which might seem like boredom, together with her natural beauty, which gave me this impression. The Prince of Wales was there, and as usual wandered about in his usual care-free manner. The Americans were especially loud in their praises of the gracious manner by the Royal family."

Mr. Herrington referred to other receptions and entertainments held, the Lord Mayor's banquet, the unveiling of the statute of Beckenham, receptions by the Archbishop of Canterbury, visits to Oxford and Cambridge, and concluding functions in Westminster Hall, which, barring the presence of royalty, was said to be the most brilliant affair ever held in London.

The visitors separated, some going to Edinburgh, some to Dublin, and the most to Paris, where receptions were also held on a large scale such as accorded in England, but with more frills. The civic reception was a splendid event, the presiding officer speaking to the delegates in French, Chas. E. Hughes replying in English, and Wickersham, of the American delegation also speaking in French. But the speech of the day was given by a Quebec man, who, without a note of any kind, made a most glorious address and was cheered to the echo. There were receptions by the President of France, and other such events.

"I am convinced," said Mr. Herrington, "that the visit of the American and Canadian Bar was of international importance. It was the greatest peace conference for the making of better relations between Britain and the United States that has ever been held, and this opinion was voiced by twenty-six American judges who returned on the same boat as I did.

What Lawyers Thought.

"Following the visit an American publishing house offered a prize of $500 for the best essay on the visit. Eleven of the best essays were printed, and sent to every lawyer in the United States, so the extent of the opinions of these men is going a long way. Let me read an extract from the essay of a Chicago lawyer, who won first prize, judge for yourselves the effect the conference had:

"When America entered the war we were unprepared to render any immediate assistance, except in the way of money and supplies. But for the Allied fleets and our Allied blockade, our declaration of war would have resulted most disastrously for unprepared America. Their ability to hold the battle lines in France and to maintain the blockade which kept the German fleet in harbor, protected our coasts from attack until we could throw our manpower in the scale and end the war. Truly the lines held by our Allies constituted our battlefront and our protection during those years. Some day, inevitably, the American people will recognize these facts, will realize that the moneys advanced by us to hold Germany back were necessary for our protection, and when the time comes we must cancel those debts, realizing how little the war touched us and how little the cancellation of debts means compared with the loss of manhood, to say nothing of the loss of treasury, by our Allies'.

"Last summer in Chicago there was the trial of those two boys, the result of which was a disgrace to the justice of any country. At the time we were on the way to England, there was a dastardly murder in England. The man was tried, appealed, the appeal was thrown out, and the murderer hanged before we got back home. With this trial in mind, one of the writers of one of the prize essays, said:

"Criminal trials in England are prompt and speedy, and conviction of the guilty swift and sure. The spectacle seen in American courts of days and weeks being consumed in the selection of a jury at great expense to the public, is never witnessed there. Crime has been reduced to a minimum. Where twenty murders are chronicled in the United States, one is noted in England."

Another lawyer, from Columbia, S.C., commenting on crime conditions, wrote:

"In 1923 in England and Wales with a combined population of 50,000,000 there were only two hundred homicides. During the same year in the United States there were 10,000 homicides. In 1921 in England and Wales there were 95 robberies; in 1922 in New York there were 1,445 robberies, and in Chicago there were 2,416 robberies. It is probably safer to walk the streets of London than any other great city in the world."

"One of the lawyers from Chicago, wrote:

"We know that those who went, as they did, from all parts of America, will at least carry a message of better friendliness and understanding of the great neighbouring commonwealth of Great Britain."

"The representative from Savannah, Georgia, in his essay said:

"The outstanding impression upon the mind of every American was the spirit of brotherly love displayed by the English. It was the spirit to regard their guests, not as foreign citizens from a foreign shore but as members of their own big family of self-governing nations. They exhibited a feeling of pride in the fact that American law and American institutions had sprung from the common law and civilization of England. This feeling was reciprocated by every visiting American lawyer, who, from the bottom of his heart, gloried in the fact that his ancestors were of the same blood and sinew as the men who made England such an influential and powerful nation."

Mr. Herrington was introduced by his son, Kiwanian W. H. Herrington, who, in a jocular manner, stated that he had very often heard Mr. Herrington speak and on any subject that he chose.

At the conclusion of his address Mr. Herrington was accorded most hearty applause, and Kiwanian Frank Anglin, in moving a vote of thanks, stated that the feeling of better relations, as displayed by the bar, was the keynote of International Kiwanis. The motion was seconded by Kiwanian John Boyd, and unanimously carried.

An "eating competition" was organized in a mining town in the north of England. One competitor, a giant collier, six feet in height and broad in proportion, succeeded in disposing of a leg of mutton, a plentiful supply of vegetables, and a plum pudding, washed down with copious drafts of ale. He was unanimously declared the winner, and was being triumphantly escorted home when he turned to his admirers, and said:

"Eh, lads, don't 've say nowt of this to my old woman, or she won't gi'e me no dinner."

NERVOUS BREAK-DOWN

Pains in Back and Legs Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ford, Ontario.—"I had a nervous break-down, as it is called, with severe pains in my back and legs, and with fainting spells which left me very weak. I was nervous and could not sleep nor eat as I should and spent much time in bed. I was in this state, more or less, for over two years before Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me by my neighbors. Before I had taken five doses I was sitting up in bed, and when the first bottle was taken I was able to get up and able to walk around the house. During my sickness I had been obliged to get some one to look after my home for me, but thanks to your Vegetable Compound I am now able to look after it myself. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine in turn with the Vegetable Compound, and I certainly recommend these medicines to any one who is not enjoying good health. I am quite willing for you to use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. J. SCHNEIDER, 130 Joe Janisse Avenue, Ford, Ontario.

Nervousness, irritability, painful times, run-down feelings and weakness are symptoms to be noted. Women suffering from these troubles, which they so often have, should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. All druggists sell this medicine.

Everything You Can Desire in a Roof With

Toronto Asphalt Slates

They Will Not Curl — They Do Not Split — They Cannot Break

Quality — Durability — Beauty — Cleanliness — Economy — Fire Resistance

The Perfect Roof

Durability, economy, beauty—these are the out-standing features of a perfect roof and these, too, are the qualities which are scientifically "built into" Toronto Asphalt Slates.

The asphalt used is highly refined and contains no volatile oils that would evaporate when the roofing is exposed to the weather. This gives a solid waterproof roofing that will not curl, crack, check or decay even under the most extreme weather conditions. No artificial paints or stains are used in making Toronto Asphalt Slates and none are required to maintain their serviceability.

The fire-resisting qualities of Toronto Asphalt Slates are fully recognized by fire insurance companies and secure low rates, because sparks and flaming embers falling on a Toronto Asphalt Slate roof die out without igniting the roof or doing serious damage. Toronto Asphalt Slates have even withstood such a severe test as a shovelful of red-hot coals without fire starting either in the roofing or rafters beneath.

Toronto Asphalt Slates being uniform in size, can be laid with the utmost ease and rapidity and without waste. Toronto Four-in-One Asphalt Slates offer even greater saving in time and labor, besides insuring perfect uniformity in appearance.

The cost is quite moderate. Indeed, considering the total absence of upkeep, the splendid protection and the long life of Toronto Asphalt Slates, their economy is unapproached by any other type of roofing material. You can depend upon Toronto Asphalt Slates for maximum service at rock-bottom cost.

Then there is the fadeless beauty of Toronto Asphalt Slates. Their natural and permanent colors, their simple lines and the exact evenness of the finished roof is a source of pride to architects, builders and property owners alike. Such a roof blends harmoniously with any style of architecture.

Toronto Asphalt Slates will give you full roofing satisfaction. They are the "last word" in roofing perfection. So let's all be proud together of your next roof. Specify Toronto Asphalt Slates by name and if you have any difficulty in securing them locally please write direct to us.

PETRIE, WANTED IN DESERONTO FOR FRAUD, IS CAUGHT

Charles M. Petrie, Hamilton, wanted in Deseronto, Guelph and Toronto, on a charge of obtaining amounts of money aggregating more than $125,000 in connection with an alleged fraudulent promotion scheme for the manufacture of cream separators at Deseronto, was arrested Friday in Rochester, N.Y., and turned over to the Canadian police at Buffalo, on Saturday morning.

The news reaching Deseronto indicates that Petrie's arrest followed a tip given the Toronto police more than a week ago by an unknown woman over the phone. According to the tip the name and address of the man who conducted Petrie to Niagara Falls, where he escorted him across the border and left him in a house on Rome street in Rochester was given the police. That man was located and after eleven hours of questioning he finally broke down and told of Petrie approaching him, while on bail, pending his trial at Guelph, and asking him to take him across the border, Petrie paid him $200 for his trouble, and for the purpose also produced a motorcycle and side car which he gave the man. At the last moment though all plans for the flight were changed and it was decided to utilize a taxi cab. A Toronto taxi cab driver was hired and the trip made to Suspension Bridge. Half way across the bridge the taxi was dismissed and the two went across on foot. At the bridge they are alleged to have given their names as Smith and that they were brothers.

Proceeded to Rochester.

Arriving on the other side they proceeded to Rochester where the Toronto man left Petrie at a rooming house on Rome street, where he was located and arrested on Friday.

Mrs. Agnes Petrie, wife of the man arrested, is already under bail, awaiting trial on charges of fraud in connection with the company. Johnson and Smith, said to have been promoters in the alleged fraudulent concern, after a preliminary hearing at Deseronto, were later convicted at Belleville. A Miss Snyder, Toronto, also alleged to have been a member of the concern was dismissed at a preliminary hearing at Deseronto. It is thought that she is the lady who telephoned the Toronto police of the whereabouts of the man who escorted Petrie in his flight to Rochester.

Trial at Deseronto.

Petrie will be brought to Deseronto on a warrant that is out for him from Magistrate Bedford's court and will be given a preliminary hearing on the charges of fraud in that court.

The case is of unusual interest to Deseronto and district as it was here that the alleged fraudulent company secured from the residents nearby $75,000 of the $125,000 total received by the various members of the concern upon the representations that the company was using the money to build and equip a plant to manufacture cream separators at Deseronto.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Monday evening, May 18th, the Three C's Bible Class of Selby Methodist Church met at the parsonage, and presented their teacher, Mrs. (Rev.) Anderson, with a beautiful kitchen cabinet, and the following address:

To Mrs. (Rev.) Anderson.

As time goes sweeping to its close and realizing that you are about to leave our church, after four years of faithful and devoted service to the worship of God in Selby, we, the members of your class, feel that we cannot let you slip from our midst without at least spending one more social evening in your home, where we have often met before and received such warm welcome.

While we shall miss you as a member of the Choir, President of the Mission Band, and all the various branches of the Church, we particularly mourn you as our teacher of the "Three C's" Bible Class, where you have presided for almost four years, and to which you have given your time and talents ungrudgingly, faithfully and well. We can easily say without fear of contradiction, that you have been second to none. Although at times discouraged and depressed through no fault of your own, you have always persevered in the duty in which Providence has placed you, and you have discharged those duties and becometh the Christian.

Again we shall miss you, Mrs. Anderson, not only in your capacity as our Sunday School teacher, but as a friend. Your kind personality and Christian influence have been far-reaching in both the class and community. As a token to you as teacher, we ask you on behalf of the "Three C's" Class to accept this gift, not as a financial reward, but an a monument of the kind thoughts and appreciation of your class, and in the future it can be truthfully said the the good wishes of this class will follow you wherever duty calls you.

We know and feel that which is our loss will be others gain.

A. F. McKnight,
President.

H. A. Wood,
Geo. W. Price,
Stanley Sexsmith,
Committee.

Selby, May 18th, 1925.

Mrs. Anderson, although taken entirely by surprise, (having retired for the night), thanked the class for their kind expression of appreciation. After which three hearty cheers were given by all present. After the reply to the address, the entire evening was given over to amusements and social intercourse. After lunch was served, all joined in community singing, and at a late hour all departed to their various homes.

NAPANEE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Napanee Branch of the Women's Institute has held 10 regular meetings the past year. During the time 144 members have been enrolled and the average attendance was 39.7. The meetings have been very interesting and instructive. Five lectures have been given covering a variety of subjects. They were as follows:

"The Institute as a Factor in the Community" by Miss Iva Langton.

"Keeping Fit", by Miss Iva Langton.

"The Apple — History, Romance and Value" by Mr. Laughlond.

"Foods and Their Values", by Dr. Morden.

"The British Empire", by Mr. W. S. Herrington.

One demonstration lecture was given upon Homemade Rugs.

Miss Eva Herrington, who was a delegate to the Annual Convention at Ottawa, brought back a very splendid report.

A three weeks' Domestic Science Course, conducted by Miss Edith Hopkins, brought forth a large attendance of members, who felt well repaid for the time spent.

The first Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet held in the Town of Napanee was undertaken by the Institute on January 21st, when nearly two hundred mothers and daughters sat down to a sumptuous repast. Miss Chapman, of the Department, addressed the audience upon Girls' Work.

The Institute have placed five containers in suitable places upon the streets as receptacles for waste paper, etc.

Grandmothers' Day, which was held in the Town Hall, on Tuesday afternoon, April 21st, attracted over two hundred ladies to hear the old songs and mingle and view the relics of more than one hundred years ago. Old fashioned cooking was served at lunch hour by ladies attired in ancient costume.

The Superintendent of Current Events, Mrs. Ella Wagar, has indeed kept the Institute posted on doings from every corner of the globe. This Department of the work is much appreciated.

Hall, one of the best known men in this section, and a resident of Essex for about fifty-seven years, passed away at his home, on Maidstone avenue, in town, at 1 o'clock on Friday morning, May 15th, in his 82nd year. Deceased had been in poor health for the past couple of years, but was up and around and made his garden this spring. On Thursday afternoon he was stricken with paralysis and passed away as stated above. Mr. Hall was born at Ramsey, Huntingdonshire, England, on May 27th, 1843, and was married there on Feb. 1st, 1864, to Mary Ann Dring. They left England on a sailing boat early in 1868, landing at New York, after a nine weeks' trip, thence by train to Buffalo and boat to Detroit. After spending the day in Windsor, they came on the 5th of June, 1868, to the home of James Robinson, situated near the corner of Maidstone town line and Talbot street, where R. S. Robinson's new residence is located. The couple have resided in the same section ever since. When the late Thos. Rush opened a store and the first post office in Essex Centre, on Feb. 1st, 1873, Mr. Hall started to work for him, and not only sold the first postage stamp in the new Essex Centre post office but handled the first mail from same. Mr. Hall continued as Mr. Rush's assistant up until his death in 1911, and also continued with Postmaster Park for five years, when he retired from active work. To Mr. and Mrs. Hall were born three children, one of whom died in infancy; William H., now of Bath, Ont., and Esther (Mrs. A. A. Bennett) deceased. One brother, John, of Colchester North, and a sister, Mrs. Sabey Shelton, of Ramsey, England, also survive. Mr. Hall was a member of the Methodist Church in England, and one of the most regular attendants at the Methodist Church since coming to Essex. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, services being conducted at the family residence on Maidstone avenue, by Rev. J. H. Johnston, with interment in North Ridge cemetery. The pall bearers were E. L. Park, Thos. Harper, W. G. Wyman, R. Perkins, Wm. Thompson, and T. Weyburn. Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were M. H. Robinson and wife, of Ruthven; Wm. Dring and H. O. Daykin and wife, of Leamington; Wm. Dring and wife and Willis Bennett, of Detroit; Harry Skelton and wife, J. K. Robinson and wife, Mrs. Stratton, Henry Green, Enos McCausland, and Geo. Rose and wife, of Windsor." — W. H. Hall returned to Sunday, after spending nearly two weeks in Essex, Ont., on account of the illness and death of his father.

WEDDING BELLS

Thompson—Naylor.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Naylor, Main Street, Deseronto, on Monday afternoon, June 1st, 1925, when her daughter, Vera May, was united in marriage to Mr. Clarence Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Green Street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. E. S. Radcliffe, B.C.L., Rector of St. Mark's Church. The bride entered the drawing room to the strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" played by Miss Mylde, with her brother, Mr. T. W. Naylor, by whom she was given away. The bridal party took their place before a bank of white lilacs with tall vases of white flowers either side. The bride, unattended, looked charming in a draped gown of honey dew georgette crepe over white satin and wore a white hat, and satin shoes and stockings to match the gown. She carried a bouquet of cream roses and maiden hair fern. The bride also wore the groom's gift, a beautiful string of pearls with clasp of white gold and diamonds. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining room, where a very dainty luncheon was served on the tables, and throughout the room were cut glass baskets of lily of the valley and pansies. The bride's toast was proposed by Mr. Radcliffe and responded to by the groom. Amid showers of confetti the happy couple, accompanied by several of their friends, motored to Napanee, where they took the 5 o'clock train for Rochester and other American points. The numerous and handsome gifts testify to the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will reside in Deseronto. Some of the out-of-town guests were the Misses Ruth and May Wylde and Mrs. Leverton.

The minutes were read and approved, after which the election of officers took place.

The Convenor of Plan of Work brought in the following resolutions:

1. Each Union will plan to work up an L. T. L. and in that L. T. L. concert or at least try to do some work to promote Medal Contest work.

2. To encourage Scientific Temperance to be taught in every way in the day schools.

3. To arrange for a Superintendent in each Union to look after Little White Ribboners.

4. Recommended that women become more informed on civics, that they may be more capable of selecting their members of Council and School Boards, also representatives to Parliament.

5. The papers read by Miss Way and Mrs. Parks be passed from Union to Union as a circular letter.

6. The work of each Department be brought before the Unions and endorsed at least once a year.

Mrs. (Dr.) Baker then gave a very helpful address.

PLEADS GUILTY TO FRAUD

Charles Petrie, who was arrested in Rochester and brought to Guelph on Saturday by Inspector Hammond, of Toronto, pleaded guilty before Magistrate Watt on Monday, to a charge of obtaining $1,000 under false pretences from Mrs. Nellie Small, formerly of Erin, and now of Toronto, and was sentenced to the Ontario Reformatory for a twelve to twenty-four month term.

Petrie was apprehended after a three months' search, and is accused of obtaining money aggregating $125,000 fraudulently. Three separate charges have been preferred against him in Toronto; one of false pretences, another for conspiracy to defraud, and the third for being a fugitive from justice.

The entire performance of Sparks Circus, including interesting incidents, concert by the 50 piece band, music from the side-show, popular songs by Vera Earle Prima-Donna and Carl Mosher Concert Tenor, assisted by the Sparks Circus Chorus, the sweet music of the calliope, growls and snarls from the animals in the menagerie, as well as other sounds from the circus lot, will be broadcast from the above station, (W.G.Y.) starting promptly at 7.30 p.m. Eastern Standard Daylight Saving Time, and continuing until the circus is all over about 10.30 p.m., night of Monday, June 15th, 1925.

The new inventions that will be used for the first time by W.G.Y. promises some wonderful results, and the broadcasting of the Sparks Circus should be heard distinctly in the most distant sections of Western Hemisphere.

This will undoubtedly be one of the most interesting programmes ever put on the air by any broadcasting station and W.G.Y. will be very much interested in knowing how the radio fans like to attend a circus broadcast by Radio.

"Indeed," replied his neighbor, "I hope you'll drop in some day."

The Friend of All Sufferers.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a valuable remedy to all those who suffer pain. It holds out hope to everyone and realizes it by stilling suffering everywhere. It is a liniment that has the blessing of half a continent. It is on sale everywhere and can be found wherever enquired for.

Mrs. Brand—So you let your husband carry a latchkey?

Mrs. Cute—Oh, just to humour him. He likes to show it to his friends to let them see how independent he is —but I see that it doesn't fit the door!"

Miller's Worm Powders not only exterminate intestinal and other worms, but they are a remedy for many other ailments of children. They strengthen the young stomach against biliousness and are tonical in their effects where the child suffers from loss of appetite. In feverish conditions they will be found useful and they will serve to allay pain and griping in the stomach, from which children so often suffer.

The Client—"I don't like these photographs at all. I look just like a monkey."

Photographer—"You should have thought about that before you had them taken."

Awful Asthma Attacks. Is there a member of your family who is in the power of this distressing trouble? No service you can render him will equal the bringing to his attention of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. This remarkable remedy rests its reputation upon what it has done for others. It has a truly wonderful record, covering years and years of success in almost every part of this continent, and even beyond the seas.

Thomson, who lived in the country, invited a neighbor to dine and spend the evening with him. The night was dark, and when it was time to go the guest, who had done himself very well, begged to be allowed to borrow a large lantern from the hall to light him on his way.

The next day Thomson sent a maid round with the following note:

"Dear old chap, I shall be glad to have back my parrot and care if you have finished with them."

Fresh Supplies in Demand. — Wherever Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has been introduced increased supplies have been ordered, showing that wherever it goes this excellent Oil impresses its power on the people. No matter in what latitude it may be found its potency is never impaired. It is put up in most portable shape in, bottles and can be carried without fear of breakage.

It was a pitiful mistake, an error sad and grim. I waited for the railway train; the light was low and dim. It came at last, and from a car there stepped a dainty dame, and looking up and down the place, she straight unto me came.

"Oh, Jack!" she cried, "oh, dear old Jack!" and kissed me as she spake, then looked again, and frightened, cried:

"Oh, what a bad mistake!"

I said, "Forgive me, madam fair, for I am not your Jack, and as regards the kiss you gave, I'll straightway give it back."

And since that night I've often stood upon that platform dim, but only once in a man's whole life do such things come to him.

AINU BEAR FEAST

Festival That Is Really a Communion Service.

Ceremonial One of a Number of Similar Celebrations That Have Religious Significance Among Peoples of Lowest Culture.

The most important object of the Ainu chase is the bear. At certain seasons of the year it is the ambition of the hunters of every village to capture a wee bear cub. It is taken home and treated with affection. If, as is often the case, the little creature is too young to have been properly taken from its mother, it is turned over to the young women of the village, who suckle it at their own breasts. A special pen made of logs is erected for the cub, and here it is reared, the pet of the entire village, until fairly grown. When the day of the feast comes the invited guests assemble from all quarters; food and drink in plenty have been prepared. The signal given, the bear is led out from its wooden pen; it is tethered by a rope to a post and everyone teases and irritates the unfortunate creature; it is set upon, struck, prodded, beaten. When the scene has become one of wild excitement, and the tormented creature snarls and turns and runs in every way to escape from his tormentors, young men come forward with two poles, one of which is placed upon the ground. They then throw themselves upon the stunned creature, and, seizing him by the legs, place his head upon the pole in such a way that the lower jaw rests on it. The second pole is now laid across the back of the head, above. A group of the young men now throw themselves with all their might upon the upper pole. The head of the animal caught between the two poles is subjected to the pressure of the whole mass of struggling humans. Leaning over the dying creature, one of the old men strokes both sides of his head and prays, at the same time catching and inhaling the creature's dying breath. When the bear has breathed his last gasps—and he must be killed without the shedding of blood—the corpse with the head is skinned, and the rest of the body is taken inside and prepared for cooking. The skin and head are now carefully laid out upon a handsome mat. When the flesh is cooked a bowl of soup is first brought out. This is offered with prayer to the skin and head of the animal. He is begged to take a portion of the soup; he is reminded of the kindness which the village has shown him; he is begged to carry their petitions and regards to his parents and to send favor and prosperity to them in return for their respect, attention and kind treatment. Pieces of the flesh of the animal are then brought out and offered to him. After these acts of prayer, thanksgiving and worship, the people themselves begin to feast. Abundance of millet beer has been provided, in addition to the food, and the celebration ends in a scene of wild intoxication.

The bear feast is really an interesting communion service. To kill the god, to eat his flesh and drink his blood is a commonplace in many religions of lower culture. The bear feast is the most startling ceremonial of the Ainu, but it is only one of a considerable number of similar celebrations. Thus they capture and rear hawks and other birds of prey, eagle-owls, rooks and foxes. All are treated with kindness. All ultimately are sacrificed with prayer and offerings, to secure from the creatures of their kind blessings and favor for the people.—Asia Magazine.

Old Lady (visiting State's prison) —I suppose, my poor man, it was poverty brought you to this.

Counterfeiter—On the contrary, mum, I was just coining money.

"Did you get any good marks at school this term, William?" asked the polite visitor.

"Yessir," said William, promptly, "but not where I can show 'em."

GROW CORN FOR SILAGE

POINTS ON SELECTION OF SEED AND PROPER CULTIVATION.

Testing for Germination Is Recommended for Good Results Cannot Be Expected from Poor Seed.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

There is much difference in opinion as to the best variety to grow, and the selection generally hinges on two points, viz.,—the value of the land and the cost of labor.

If you have to pay high for labor and your land is high priced, then grow the heaviest yielding variety that you can find, taking a chance on its reaching maturity. Production per acre you must have.

If you are on low-priced land, then select a good yielding variety that you know will mature early and also make high-class ensilage.

Big heavy corn, full of juice is hard to handle,—it costs money to make silage out of it,—while the lighter yielding, early maturing corn is easier to handle, costs less for labor and makes a richer silage. True, it will not produce as much milk per acre as the large heavy yielding variety, but what it does produce is produced at less cost of less supplementary grain. So if you have abundant land, the early maturing, high quality varieties will be most suited to your need. On the other hand if you have few acres and must get the most out of the area irrespective of labor cost, then you had best select the heavy yielder variety.

Test the Seed Corn.

Test for germination every ear of corn that is used for seed. It does not take very much time to do it. Testing seed is the only insurance you have for a perfect stand. Why take a chance and loose by spending your labor on a field with only half as many plants as there should be. Better test the seed, and get started right. Two weeks before you figure on planting corn prepare a seed box with moist sawdust or sand, plant a representative sample, give it care and watch for the sprouts. Be guided by the performance of the sample tested. Good seed corn is not abundant this year, so be careful in your purchase. Soft or molded corn will never produced a strong plant. Don't forget that, first of all, your crop depends upon the vigor of the seed that you plant.

Preparing for Corn.

Clover Sod ploughed in September and surface worked until late October, and then ridged up and left exposed to the frost action, until time enough to harrow down in the spring is a successful method for corn. The application of rotted manure, 15 tons of good stable manure should be made in early May, and the land ploughed and worked down to the fine tilth of a good seed-bed.

Planting.

When the White Oak leaf is as large as a black squirrel's foot (last week in May) plant the seed in check rows 3 feet apart, using the machine planter or drill, cover two inches deep and firm.

Cultivation.

Start cultivation by going over the area with a weeder just before the corn comes up. Follow each week with machine cultivation to keep a dust mulch and prevent weed growth, until such time as the corn has grown too large to permit of further tillage. Corn tillage should always be shallow, much damage is done by cutting the roots of the plant.

Testing Chickens for Bacillary White Diarrhoea.

This disease has played havoc in many poultry yards during the past few years, and, like tuberculosis, it has been spread around largely through the exchange of breeding stock. Chicks and eggs for hatching, from infected breeding stock, have carried the bacillus pullorum from one end of the country to the other; so the disease is now wide spread and causes large financial loss to many poultry owners.

The bacteria responsible for the trouble (bacillus pulorum) centralize in the ovary of the mature hen, causing lesions in that organ; and its inability to properly function and produce normal eggs. The bacteria pass with the ova and are contained within the shell of the egg. When the egg hatches the chick is already Infected.

Chicks less than a week old have the following post mortem lesions:—

(1) Enlarged liver with red spots or streaks.

(2) Congested lungs.

Chicks over one week old show:—

(1) Enlarged liver with greyish spots.

(2) Friable nodules in the lungs, occasionally ih the heart and lungs.

Diarrhoea does not always have time to develop, so if the chicks die look for the lesions.

The only really successful way to combat white diarrhoea is to eliminate the breeding stock infected with bacillus pullorum. Poultry and producers may be found out by applying the agglutination test to every bird on the premises. Send samples of reactors to this blood test and be careful in the purchases of eggs, chicks, or breeding stock. The disease will stay with you as long as you harbor infected birds.—Dr. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O. A. C.

TAENIASIS IS THE NAME

DISEASE WHICH AFFECTS MANY FARM ANIMALS.

Sheep, Poultry and Dogs Are All Subject to Attacks From the Tapeworm.—How to Deal With This Parasite.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

The effect of tapeworm infestation upon the host animal is not marked unless the parasites are present in numbers.

The following disease conditions may result from tapeworm infestation: (1) Partial or complete blocking of the lumen of the intestine, this may cause toxic or inflammatory disturbances; (2) Irritation and disease of the liver due to the passage of worms through the bile ducts into the liver; (3) Irritation of the mucous membrane of the intestine by the hooks of the armed species; (4) Anaemia due to taking of nourishment from the injesta in the intestine; (5) General debility of the animal due to the absorption of toxic matter that has been excreted by the parasite; (6) The cystic form of tapeworm causes the condition known as measly pork and measly beef. The foregoing remarks will indicate how serious a pest this seldom seen internal parasite is to certain of our domestic animals.

Life History of Tapeworm.

Most of the taenia undergo a series of complex metamorphic changes involving larval and sexually mature parasitism in hosts of different species. When an egg is swallowed by a suitable host the shell is digested and the embryo liberated. The embryo pierces the intestinal wall, and by way of the blood and lymph is carried to the particular organ of the body, specific for its further development, where it become incited. This forms a bladder cyst, the stage that gives the measly pork and measly beef condition well known to meat eaters.

The next stage is the formation of the cephalo-cyst, which is done by a budding from the bladder cyst wall. It is the development of the scalex or head. If at this time the bladder cyst is swallowed by a suitable host, the head becomes separated from the bladder-like cyst and attaches itself to the mucous membrane of the intestine where it develops into an adult tapeworm. A sexual pore is present on either one or both margins of each segment. The segment is virtually an egg sack, and usually contains many eggs, it breaks away and passes from the body of its host on becoming fully developed. The head or scalex with developing segments remaining in the intestine until expelled by drug treatment. The tapeworm has no alimentary or intestinal system, the food that it takes passes directly through the surface of the body. In most species there are two drainage canals extending from the head to the posterior segment. These worms are of great interest because of their remarkable process of development. In early stages the immature worm exists as a bladder worm, living in the body tissue of an intermediate host. In the second stage the mature form is found in the intestine of the definite host.

Sheep.—These animals are quite frequently affected with either one of two species. If lambs show such symptoms as emaciation, arrested development, loss of appetite, lassitude and diarrhoea the sheepman should be suspicious of the presence of tapeworms.

Poultry.—Few or many birds in a flock may show signs of infection. Early symptoms are a ravenous appetite, excessive thirst, and later food may be entirely refused. There is a general unthriftiness and wasting until the birds become weak and emaciated. A yellowish-white diarrhoea may be present, the comb and wattles become yellowish or pink. The most seriously infested birds will mope around with drooped wings, separating themselves from the flock.

The Farm Dog.—Dogs are more frequently infested with tapeworm than any other farm animal. Mature dogs may harbor many tapeworms without receiving apparent injury. Young dogs are much more susceptible, and if showing the following symptoms you should be suspicious of the presence of tapeworms. The symptoms are those of gastro intestinal catarrh, hungry at times, and at times refusing food, pendulous abdomen, retarded development, emaciation, and restlessness. Convulsions sometimes occur. An interesting point in connection with the tapeworm that infests the dog is that its intermediate host is the dog flea. It works like this,—the flea eats the fecal matter from the dog containing the tapeworm eggs. These eggs hatch within the flea, forming the bladder-like cysts or second stage in the tapeworm's life history. The dog then eats the flea, and the tapeworm head or scalex is liberated in the dog's intestine, where it becomes attached, to start the life cycle again.

Horses are rarely infested with tapeworm, cattle and swine sometimes are, but fortunately not very frequently.—L. Stevenson, Dept. of Extension, O. A. College.

Rats.

The estimated cost of supporting the rats that prey on our food products on the farms and in the homes is $6,000,000 per annum. This is a very heavy burden to carry, and we would be better off without the rat, which is entirely harmful.

A lady was seated with her little girl in a railway carriage when a frowzy-looking individual entered the compartment. A few minutes before the train started the lady perceiving that she would have to travel with an undesirable companion, thought of an excuse to rid herself of him.

Leaning forward she said, "I ought to tell you my little girl is just getting over an attack of scarlet fever."

"Oh, don't worry about me, madam," interrupted the man; "I'm committing suicide when we get to the first tunnel."

Council Purchases Fire Truck.

At the regular meeting of the Town Council, held on Monday evening, the members completed arrangements for the purchase of a Ford ton Fire Truck, which will certainly fill a long felt want in the fire department and place the members thereof in a much better condition to fight fires in Napanee. The truck will carry one thousand feet of hose, two thirty-gallon twin chemical tanks with two hundred feet of hose for same, as well as ladders, axes, lanterns, and such other small equipment as is required at a fire. It is fully expected that with this rapid means of getting to the scene of a fire, and with the large chemical tanks and hose, that most fires will be caught in their incipiency and much loss thus averted.

Knight MacGregor at St. Andrew's Church.

On Sunday last at St. Andrew's Church, Mr. Knight MacGregor, the well known baritone and evangelist singer, rendered three selections at the morning service. Mr. MacGregor, who was passing through Napanee and spending a day with his brother, Mr. Alex. MacGregor, was kind enough to consent to sing for his many admirers during his short stay in town. The congregation was a very large one, and in the awed hush of the Sabbath morning, the rich, beautiful tones of the singer's voice were most inspiring. Mr. MacGregor sang first "Open the Gates of the Temple" by Knapp, and as an offertory number, "The Blind Plowman" by Clark. At the close of the service he sang a negro spiritual, so soft and melodious as to touch the heart. Mr. MacGregor's generosity in performing this little act of kindness and courtesy was rewarded by the gratitude and keen appreciation of those who heard him Sunday morning. Mrs. J. E. Madden took the place of Mrs. Dennis, who was indisposed, and played for the services, accompanying the soloist in her usual sympathetic manner.

An Exciting Experience.

Mr. T. D. Scrimshaw experienced an exciting time on Wednesday morning about two o'clock, when he awakened to find a man in his bedroom with the evident intention of robbery. Mr. Scrimshaw was awakened by the creaking of the floor, as though some person was walking in the house. He turned over in bed and saw the form of a man standing in the bedroom door. In accordance with plans that he had formed months ago, Mr. Scrimshaw rolled out of the back part of the bed to the floor and caught up an army pistol which he keeps there for such emergency. Upon regaining an upright posture he brought the weapon to bear upon the intruder, the muzzle not being over four feet from the latter's person, and asked him what he wanted. The robber turned and ran downstairs, without uttering a word, lighting his way by a flash-light held high over his head. Mr. Scrimshaw immediately went out on the upstairs verandah and fired the gun twice to attract attention. Neighbors, upon being aroused, telephoned the police department, and Night-watchman Cook was soon on the scene, and upon examination of the premises Mr. Cook found all of the downstairs doors unlocked, presumably, for the flight of the marauder. He was never seen by any person in his escape, as he must have gone by the backdoor and thus avoided detection. Mr. Scrimshaw had a considerable sum of money in his possession, and was fortunate in having the presence of mind to carry out his plan of action, thus saving the money and avoiding any harm to Mrs. Scrimshaw or himself.

PRIZES FOR BEST KEPT LAWNS

At a recent meeting of the Napanee Chamber of Commerce a grant was made for prizes to be given for the best kept lawns and gardens in the town.

The competition will be open to every citizen, and the owner of a small lot and garden will be just as likely to win a prize as one with large grounds.

Two judges will be formed, one for those who do practically all of their own work, and one for those who keep a gardener or hire most of their work done.

Points will be awarded for walks (or drives), how located and kept; lawns, condition and care; plantings; arrangement, material and condition; also for general care and neatness.

The committee in charge was chosen from the Board of Commerce and the Napanee Horticultural Society, and the judging will be done first by local judges and finally by a Departmental Judge, if it is possible to secure one at the proper time. The final judging will probably take place during the Lennox County Fair. The local judges will make their inspections two or three times during the season.

Everything in connection with garden and lawn will be taken into consideration by the judges, so that the smaller places which have been kept in the best condition and show most improvement are just as liable to win a prize as the larger places. The reduction of water rates for lawns made this year by the Utilities Commission renders the problem of water for lawn and garden an easy matter to solve.

VICTORIAN ORDER OF NURSES.

The regular Executive meeting of the Napanee Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada, was held in the Public Library, Tuesday evening, June 2nd.

After the business meeting, the President, Mrs. F. F. Miller, who was a delegate to Ottawa, to the Annual Meeting of the Board of Governors of the Order, gave a delightful synopsis of the different sessions.

The Annual Report of the Chief Superintendent, Miss Smellie, showed that the Nurses of the Order paid 561,567 visits last year. 280 nurses are engaged in the work.

The work of the Order was carried on most successfully in every centre where it had been operated during the year. Thirteen Scholarships were awarded to enable nurses, otherwise unable to do so, to take advantage of the University Courses offered in Public Health Nursing.

Dr. Emerson, of the Department of Public Health, Columbia University, outlined the development in Public Health Nursing, and advised periodical examination for all ages, from the child in the home before it goes to school, to the adult person of all ages. He also advised the examination of all school children, as 65% on entering school have well developed physical defects, which could have been prevented if cared for in time.

Funds are raised in many ways, and in many towns the Town Council gives a grant, the Town of Renfrew getting $800 from their Council.

The Nurse's Report for May for the Napanee Branch showed :—

Nursing Visits 66, Non-nursing Visits 113, total hours on duty 160.

School—Hours spent on school work 33, No. children inspected 230, No. children weighed 136, No. home school visits 27.

Child Welfare—No. of Clinics held 4; total attendance 24; fees received $22.75.

The Order wishes to acknowledge with thanks, the donation of thirty dollars from the Board of Education.

We are this week printing a reproduction of the picture of the Macdonald home in Adolphustown, with the old Hay Bay Church in the distance, taken from Canniff Haight's "Fifty Years Ago in Canada," published in 1885. Everyone in the Bay of Quinte district will be glad to see this picture.

SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD'S BOYHOOD HOME AT ADOLPHUSTOWN A CENTURY AGO

SITE MARKED ON 54th ANNIVERSARY OF HIS DEATH

Last week the Council of Adolphustown at the suggestion of Allan R. Davis, of Toronto, a native of the township and former resident of Napanee, erected a simple signboard, two feet by three feet, on a cedar pole, twelve feet above the ground, on the site of the old Macdonald home. This was done at a cost of ten dollars for the sign and one dollar for the pole—the first expense ever incurred by the township on this historic property. The latter was purchased fifteen years ago by Mr. Davis from the Platt farm at a cost of fifty dollars. At the time he collected $1500 to buy the Hay Bay Church and 1½ acres and restore it to the Methodist Church. Walter Platt was then paid $400 for the latter property, which still stands.

The resolution of the Council consisting of Mr. Jesse Johnson, Reeve; Mr. Mara Mallory, Mr. Arthur Bogart, Mr. Stephen Mack and Mr. J. E. Robertson, fixed the date for Saturday, June 6th—the 34th anniversary of Sir John Macdonald's death.

On that day a deputation from the Council of Napanee, consisting of Mayor Ming, councillors J. M. Simpson, Town Clerk W. A. Grange, and part of the Town Band, joined the Adolphustown Council, and a number of interested citizens in the afternoon ceremony. This was presided over by Mr. Fred Allison, ex-Reeve of Adolphustown, who, after reviewing briefly its past history, said he thought it was well for this generation to make a start in a public way in recognizing the boyhood home in their midst, of Canada's first Premier, Sir John Macdonald, whose great services were appreciated by all to-day, irrespective of party.

The chairman expressed the regrets of all present, owing to the absence of Reeve Johnson, through illness, and called upon Mr. James Dorland, about the last of one of the pioneer families in Adolphustown, to read the Reeve's address. The latter expressed the unanimity of his Council in the marking of the Macdonald home, which should have been done long ago. This small beginning he hoped would lead to the clearing up and fencing of this celebrated half-acre plot. The Council had already notified the owner of the fish-shack thereon, to remove same within thirty days. The Council of Adolphustown would urge the citizens to take a more lively interest in the Macdonald home and he hoped to see something done with the site of the great statesman. Macdonald, erected soon to take the place of the plain marker they were now unveiling.

The following is the inscription of "Bayfield Home, a century ago, of Sir John Macdonald, Prime Minister of Canada 1867-1874 and 1878-1891. This sign erected by the Council of Adolphustown on June 6th, 1925, marks the site of the boyhood home of John Alexander Macdonald; also the 34th anniversary of his death."

A quotation from the women's and girls of that community, all of whom had now passed away.

Mayor Ming, of Napanee, referred to the roads of Adolphustown, and all the adjoining townships pointing towards the County-town of Lennox, which he had the honor to represent on this important occasion. He was glad to be identified with the Adolphustown movement of marking the site of the boyhood home of Sir John Macdonald—a name every Canadian held in highest esteem to-day. Many of Sir John's greatest speeches had been delivered in Napanee. As a law-clerk in Kingston he had charge of a branch office for lawyer Mackenzie in Napanee, which he visited two or three days a week, and therefore could be counted as a frequent visitor, if not an actual citizen of Napanee, as he previously was of Adolphustown. Napanee, too, will hope to see some permanent memorial in Adolphustown soon. A start had been made now in a public way and every one in the district would take some interest in the building of a monument or cairn on that beautiful site so near the historic Methodist Church, now about to pass over to the United Church.

A. R. Davis died of his own boyhood days in Adolphustown, on the old U. E. Loyalist farm, almost abutting the Macdonald home farm at one very end and the chairman's ancestral farm at the other. He reviewed some of the incidents of the past, and thanked the Council for their hearty and unanimous support of the suggestion for placing a marker on the Macdonald plot. He passed around a picture of the Macdonald house taken from a volume published by Canniff Haight, born and reared in Adolphustown. Some citizens present, who can well remember that Macdonald home, long since burned down.

Mr. Davis nailed on the cedar pole a photo of the type of stone cairns, the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, are building here and there in Canada. He read a letter from the chairman, Mr. J. B. Harkin, in reference to the Macdonald home site, as follows :

Ottawa, 29th May, 1925.

Dear Mr. Davis,—

In reference to our conversation of to-day, with respect to the marking of the site at Adolphustown, where Sir John Macdonald spent his boyhood years, I beg to say I am very much interested in your proposals, but as I explained to you, a final decision as to marking of historic sites rests not with me, but with the Historic Sites and Monuments Board. Should, however, the Board decide that in this letter I am only speaking for myself.

One matter that naturally arises in my mind is as to whether the people in the Adolphustown district would not be glad to co-operate in connection with any memorial that might be erected in the event of the Historic Sites and Monument Board being disposed to consider the site one that might properly be given recognition. I have no doubt that the people of the district feel a special pride in the fact that Sir John spent his boyhood years there.

I understand you propose to discuss the matter locally and I shall be very much interested in learning the result.

Yours faithfully,
(Sgd. J. B. HARKIN.

Mr. W. A. Grange made a few remarks about the propriety of the Adolphustown district's pleasure in being present.

The Chairman voiced the opinion that the celebration hereafter should be an annual affair, with an invitation to everyone.

The Band having interspersed National airs throughout all the proceedings were then tendered a hearty vote of thanks, and closed with "God Save the King", in which all heartily joined with singing. Some snapshots were then taken of the signboard and audience, after which the latter dispersed, each feeling a pleasure in having assisted at the event in honor of one of the greatest statesmen of the world—Sir John Macdonald.

You will miss one of the treats of the theatrical season if you fail to see Grant Paul as Ezekiel Morse, in "Blind Love". 24a

NEWBURGH

June 3rd at Newburgh.

"Of all the glad New Year, mother; The maddest; merriest days".

Fair weather, a lovely breeze, good crowd, keen interest, a praiseworthy booth service, and excellent sports with good, clean, keen competition, made field day a good one. The only cloud was the loss of the league game to Tamworth, the latter playing good ball throughout. Newburgh took the loss in good British spirit. Following is a list of the prize-winners:

50-yard race (girls under 12)—1st, Francis Shier; 2nd, Junita Wartman.

Three-legged race—Bob Ramsay and Fred Lucas.

Boot race—1st, John Cook; 2nd, Dorothy Breeze.

Mr. J. R. Lucas and family spent the week-end at Queensboro.

Judging from the plans and activities of the Orangemen, all who attend the celebration here on July 10th are assured of a good time at a minimum expense. Family parties need not hesitate to come, as all children under twelve, also vehicles, are admitted to grounds free.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wales spent Tuesday with Chas. A. Ackerman.

Mrs. T. Wilson is in Switzerville with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Wales.

Percy Gerow has returned from Kingston General Hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Wm Scott, of Kingston, was in the village over Sunday with his son, Roscoe, at his poultry farm.

Mrs. Warren, of Kingston, Sundayed with Mrs. T. I. Winter.

Mrs. C. Carter and son, Mitchell, spent Sunday with Mr. George Thompson, Sharp's Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbert and family spent Sunday at Sillsville.

Mrs. Anson Aylesworth is in Toronto for a few weeks' visit with her sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Madden and son, and Miss Lapum, of Black River, N. Y., motored over and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wartman and family, and Mrs. Madden.

Miss Helen Card, of Odessa, spent the week-end with Miss Myrtle Card.

Breeze's mill is running full time this week, having the contract for grinding a large quantity of hay for Mr. A. E. Caton.

The cheese factory is turning out a lot of cheese, making on Saturday nights as well as every day in the week. On Monday forty cheese were turned out.

The village was practically deserted on Wednesday afternoon, with the business places closed and the ball players in Odessa to face the Odessa team.

BUCKWHEAT AS A FARM CROP

Buckwheat is a valuable addition to the general run of farm crops. It often serves as a means of making extra money, by rounding out the farm business rather than replacing some other important crop. Undoubtedly more buckwheat would be grown if its advantages were better known and understood.

Buckwheat has sturdy traits which make it valuable in many ways. It is one of the most successful poor-land crops that can be grown. It has the added advantage of generally being sown in early summer when the usual rush of spring seeding is over, and at the same time requires about as little labour to handle as any crop worth growing. It is practically immune to insect and plant-disease pests.

On account of its rapid growing habits, buckwheat makes an excellent green manure and for the same reason is valuable in checking the growth of weeds. The Cereal Division has found that by growing two crops of buckwheat in succession and ploughing each under as soon as the first flowers bloom, we can control couchgrass almost invariably.

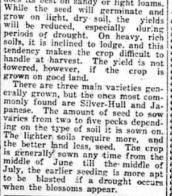
Buckwheat is a real money crop to the bee-keeper and a few acres of this crop will mean a considerable source of nectar for the bees.

The average yield of buckwheat runs from fifteen to twenty bushels per acre but yields of thirty-five and fifty bushels have been recorded under very favourable conditions. The prices paid for seed do not vary much and the demand is usually comparatively steady.

Buckwheat requires a cool moist climate and under average weather conditions a crop will mature in from eight to eleven weeks.

As far as soil is concerned, buckwheat will do well on almost any soil, as long as it is well drained, but it does its best on sandy or light loams. While the seed will germinate and grow on light, dry soil, the yields will be reduced, especially during periods of drought. On heavy, rich soils, it is inclined to lodge, and this tendency makes the crop difficult to handle at harvest. The yield is not lowered, however, if the crop is grown on good land.

There are three main varieties generally grown, but the ones most commonly found are Silver-Hull and Japanese. The amount of seed to sow varies from two to five pecks depending on the type of soil it is sown on. The lighter kinds require more, and the better land less, seed. The crop is generally sown any time from the middle of June till the middle of July, the earlier seeding is more apt to be blasted if a drought occurs when the blossoms appear.



"HANDLING NATURAL SWARM"

(Experimental Farms Note).

"There is a swarm of bees clustering in one of my trees—what shall I do?" comes the telephone message.

If you have no beekeeping equipment, invert a box over the cluster and smoke or crowd the bees up into it; then place them where they will be undisturbed and secure a hive as soon as possible.

A beekeeper would use a complete hive containing frames of full sheets of foundation or drawn comb and would have a smoker going in case of need.

To prevent the swarm from deserting, open brood is often used, if procurable, or an excluder is placed between bottom board and hive body.

If the branch on which the swarm is clustered is unimportant, it should be cut without disturbing the bees, carried to the hive and the bees shaken from it in front of the entrance. Direct bees into hive by a few puffs of smoke.

Should the cluster support be immovable, brush, jar, crowd or smoke bees into a box from which they are dumped in front of the hive entrance.

In case of a queen with clipped wings, procedure is more simple. While the swarm is in air, the clipped queen should be found on grass a few feet from the hive entrance, and caged. Next, move the old hive to a new location, substituting in its place a complete hive, already described, and stack the partly-filled supers, removed from the old hive, above. The caged queen is placed in the entrance and all is ready for the swarm which soon returns and enters the hive in search of the queen. When a goodly number of bees have entered the hive, the queen is released and enters too; then all again start work with renewed vigour.

Some time ago I was travelling from Calais en route for Paris, and being curious to know what progress the train was making I asked my travelling companion, an Englishman, whether he had noticed the name of the station we had just passed.

"Yes", he replied, "Sortie".

"Ah," thought I, it's some insignificant place I've never heard of. The train rattled merrily on for half an hour when I was startled by the exclamation, "Well, I'm blessed! We're back at Sortie".

SPARKS CIRCUS TO BE IN KINGSTON

MONDAY, JUNE 15th

Monday, June 15th, afternoon and evening, under huge masses of canvas, the finest circus ever made by the ingenuity and courage of men, will parade and show in Kingston, to make the young folks happy and the old folks young. The great parade is on Monday morning at 11 o'clock. First of all, a real wild animal circus is a 1925 acquisition. It has been imported from the world's greatest wild animal training quarters at Stellingchasn, Germany. Included in these displays will be found lions, tigers, leopards, polar and grizzly bears—even trained ostriches will be seen in addition to the Sparks group of sixteen "Rotation" horses, the two elephant herds, fancy gaited and posing horses, the Bibb County Pigs' Circus, Captain Trebor's seals, and hosts of others of a novel nature. The circus proper opens with an elaborately staged spectacle, "L'Ora, The Jungle Queen," in which all of the animals, performers, premier dancers, and a large chorus participate. As a fitting finish to the all-feature performance, a genuine English Fox Hunt, introducing real Irish-bred high jumpers, broad jumpers and perfectly schooled fox-hounds, will replace the old-time and very dangerous chariot races usually to be found with other circuses. Sparks Circus has been tripled in size this season and is to-day one of the largest in the world. Excursions on all railroads. Don't forget the date.—Kingston, Monday, June 15th. 24a

NERVES AND FAINTING SPELLS

Sent Woman to Bed. Great Change After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sarnia, Ontario.—"After my girlie was born I was a wreck. My nerves were too terrible for words and I simply could not stand or walk without pains. I suffered with fainting spells until I was no longer any good for my household duties and had to take to my bed. The doctor said I should have an operation, but I was not in a fit condition at that time. My neighbor said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' I am sure it will do you good and will save those doctor's bills.' So I was advised by my husband to try it after I told him about it. I am very thankful to say that I was soon able to take a few boarders for a while as rooms were scarce at that time. My baby is 17 months old now and I have not yet had an operation, thanks to your medicine. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to a few people I know and have told them the good it has done me. I know I feel and look a different woman these last few months and I certainly would not be without a bottle of your medicine in the house. You can use this letter as you see fit, as I should be only too glad for those suffering as I have to know what it has done for me."—Mrs. ROBERT G. MACGREGOR, R. R. No. 2, Sarnia, Ontario.

A recent canvass of women users of the Vegetable Compound report 98 out of 100 received beneficial results. This is a remarkable proof of its merit. C

In the past year economic conditions have changed, and people are asking for goods at a medium price. In order to meet this demand, we find we shall have to change our whole policy of doing business. We feel that by doing business in this way we can sell goods at a popular price and still maintain a high standard of quality.

38! WHAT IS IT?

It's the 38th Anniversary of The Robinson Co. Store

Thursday, June 18th, begins the celebration of our 38th Anniversary. We will mark it with nine days of store-wide events, that will leave their record as the most important Napanee has seen.

From the little store of 1887, to this, one of the largest stores between Toronto and Montreal, is a long step. (Very few of the stores doing business in Napanee at that time, are left). Here is romance to stir the imagination—the story of foresight, faith, courage. The foundation and continuance of this business through all these years has called for a real faith in the stability of this community.

We have served the public faithfully for 38 years. We will continue to do so. The One Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Dollars of new wanted things are all ready, and are up to the unfailing standard of Robinson Co. quality, and priced at extraordinary saving that will be a fitting observance of this 38th Anniversary.

We clearly understand that it is the hearty support of the people of Napanee and surrounding district that has made possible the success of this great, helpful institution. We know that the future will bring us a greater and still greater task. We are ready.

This Celebration and Sale begins June 18th and ends Saturday night, June 27th. Only a few of the hundreds of items can be advertised. Our Bulletin goes into thousands of homes, but it cannot tell you half nor a quarter of the news. Things to wear, things for your home, the things you need, your necessities as well as your luxuries, here they are. Plan to come each day, if possible.

PRIZES FOR BALLOONS NUMBERED 38

On Thursday, June 18th, on Monday, June 22nd, and every morning of that week at 10 o'clock, we will fly from the roof of our store 38 Balloons, numbered from 1 to 38, and dated. The party finding the Balloon numbered 38 each day, and bringing the same to our office, will be presented with a bright new Dollar Bill.

This Sale marks the culmination of months of intense interest and effort by our entire organization. All of our sources of supply have contributed their quota. Manufacturers have ignored their costs. We have priced the offerings almost on a cost basis. Everything is new, fresh, desirable, backed by the guarantee of an organization that has served the Napanee public for 38 years.

Convention of South Addington District Women's Institute

The first Annual Convention of the South Addington District of the Women's Institute met at Tamworth, on Wednesday, June 10th, 1925, at 9.30 a.m. The President, Mrs. Piper, of Tamworth, presided at both sessions.

Morning session opened with the Opening Ode, followed by Community Singing, "O Canada" and "The Long, Long Trail". The address of welcome was given by Miss Hattie Reid, in which she emphasized many good qualities and great benefits derived from attending the meetings of the Women's Institute.

Mrs. Mellow, of Enterprise, very fittingly replied to this address, and thanked the ladies of Tamworth for the invitation to hold the convention in their town. Mrs. Piper, the District President, then made some very appropriate remarks.

A few minutes was again spent in community singing, "The Maple Leaf" and "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia", after which the reading of the minutes of last meeting, and reports from different branch secretaries were very interesting and encouraging.

The report of the President for the year's work was so satisfactory that she was again elected for another year.

The election of officers was the next order of business, as follows —
President—Mrs. Piper, Tamworth.
1st Vice President—Mrs. W. Jackson, Colebrooke.
2nd Vice President—Mrs. Teskey, Croydon.
Secty.-Treas.—Mrs. C. W. Amey, Moscow.
Auditors—Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. Carscallen, Enterprise.
Press Reporter—Mrs. A. E. Huffman, Tamworth.

Following the election of officers the meeting adjourned for dinner, served by the ladies of Tamworth, which received full justice.

The meeting was opened at 1.30 p.m., and the following programme was carried out:—

1.30 p.m.—Opening Chorus, a song for all the Britons, by Enterprise Women's Institute.
Duet, "A Promise", by Mr. and Mrs. McCallum, Tamworth.
Duet, "Lullaby", by Mrs. W. Shangraw and Miss Dora Asselstine, Moscow.
Demonstration "Making an Apron" Mrs. McCallum.
Paper, "Hygiene of Cheerfulness", Mrs. S. Bell, Enterprise.
Violin Solo, Miss Helen York, Tamworth.
Demonstration, "Footing Stockings", by Mrs. S. Close, Croydon.
Address by Mr. Geo. A. Putman, Toronto.

Mr. Putman arrived a little late, and he attributed it to the fact that he was a very busy man, having 33,000 women to please. He gave a brief survey of the work of Women's Institutes, and advised each branch to consider the work and needs of their own community. He referred to the Institute as a School for grown-ups, where women exchange ideas, passing to each other any valuable information for the benefit of homemakers. The Institute should be an educational force, never getting above the discussion of home problems and the mechanical invention for lightening labor, also devote their time to food and health problems and social activities. Mr. Putman closed by saying it was a delight for him to attend this convention, it being the first held in this district.

Mr. Laughland, our local representative, from Napanee, made a few interesting remarks and offered advice on agricultural subjects at any time.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Putman and Miss Close, who furnished the music for the splendid way in which they entertained their guests.

Short skirts are already going out of favor. In fact, a fashion expert declares that they are on their last legs.

Jack—"So your father demurred at first because he didn't want to lose you?"

May—"Yes; but I won his consent, I told him that he need not lose me. We could live with him, and so he would not only have me but a son-in-law to boot."

"Ha! I don't like that last expression."

JUNE WEDDING.

McGreer—Hawley.

On Monday, June 10th, the marriage took place of Miss Jean McGreer, the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McGreer, of Riverside, to Mr. Bertran Hawley, of Napanee, in the Church of St. Mary Magdalene. The ceremony was performed by the Vicar of the Parish, the Rev. J. H. H. Coleman, M.A., assisted by the brother of the bride, the Rev. A. H. McGreer, M.A., D.D., Principal of Bishop's University, Lennoxville, Que.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in a gown of blonde canton crepe, with a hat of the same shade, and carried a beautiful bouquet of sunburst roses. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Hilda McGreer, who wore a dainty frock of peach color. Her hat was effectively trimmed with rainbow shades, and she carried a bouquet of mauve sweet peas, lily of the valley and maiden hair fern. Mr. Gustave Berndt was groomsman. Prof. Baird played the wedding music.

After the ceremony a reception was held at "Riverside", which was attended by the bride's immediate family. A pleasant feature of the occasion was the reading of messages of congratulation and good wishes, which included cablegrams from Oxford, England, and Paris. The list of the bride's presents was a varied and most interesting one.

The happy couple left late in the afternoon for Ottawa, amid showers of confetti and good wishes. After a brief honeymoon they will return and make their home in Napanee.

NEW RULES ABOUT MARRIAGE LICENSES

Become Effective June 15th.—Birth Certificate of Bride Must Be Produced.

Prospective brides and grooms are warned that, after June 15th, new marriage license regulations go into force.

One of these requires that the birth certificate of the bride be produced, at the time the prospective groom applies for a marriage license, in case the bride-to-be does not accompany her future husband when he makes his application to the issuer. Of course if the bride-to-be also goes to the office of the local issuer of licenses a birth certificate will not be necessary as the issuer can satisfy himself that she is over 18 years of age and take her oath to that effect.

This regulation was placed on the statute books of the province at the last session of the Ontario Legislature, because a girl in Toronto married who was under 18 years of age, without having her parents' consent.

Another new regulation is that after a marriage license is issued, three days must elapse before the ceremony parties can be wed, and a penalty is provided for any clergyman breaking this law unless special authority is obtained from the Registrar-General, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

As June is the month of weddings, all prospective brides and grooms should heed the new regulations and when the groom visits the local issuer of marriage licenses alone, he should be armed with his future bride's birth certificate.

Theodore H. Bird will play Joe Peyton, in "Blind Love". Napanee Armouries, Wednesday and Thursday, June 17th and 18th. 24a

WEDDING BELLS.

Thomas—Stevens.

A wedding unique in the annals of Napanee was solemnized in the auditorium of Grace Church on Wednesday night when Capt. Nellie Thomas, the popular officer in command of the local corps of the Salvation Army, was united in marriage to Capt. Eugene A. Stevens, well known in Napanee, whose father lives on the River Road. The beautiful wedding ceremony was performed by Col. Walton, Divisional Commander, of Montreal. The spacious choir platform was occupied by the Salvation Army Band of Belleville, who preceding the ceremony rendered with splendid effect a number of sacred songs and marches.

The local corps of the Salvation Army was well represented in the auditorium, there being also a fairly large attendance of townspeople present. The meeting was opened with a rousing song by the congregation, led by the band. After a brief prayer by Capt. Love, of Belleville, Mrs. Brown, of Earlscourt, favored the audience with a beautiful soprano solo, after which the wedding ceremony of the Salvation Army was performed by Col. Walton. Capt. Church was then called to the pulpit and read a number of congratulatory telegrams from Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, and other points including one from Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton which were loudly applauded by the audience.

Before concluding the meeting Capt. Stevens and his bride addressed a few words to the audience in which they expressed their many thanks and appreciation shown by their friends in Napanee.

At the conclusion of the service a banquet was held in the school room of the church, which was largely attended.

BASEBALL

The Kingston Intermediates defeated Napanee in Kingston on Monday last by a score of 10 to 9.

In Napanee on Wednesday Kingston again defeated Napanee by a score of 13 to 5.

The Kingston Standard has the following to say of the Napanee team :

"Napanee only needs a little shaking up in the infield and they will cut a dash in the Big Ontario League. Jack Adams has worked hard with the team, and intends to shift the players around for the next game."

In the Lennox and Addington League Odessa defeated Newburgh in Odessa on Wednesday in an overtime inning by 5 to 4.

WHEN THE LEOPARD APPEARED.

Boy of Fifteen Shot Animal and Then Fainted.

The following is an incident in the early life of Mr. J. Z. de Villiers, the first Burgomaster of Johannesburg, who held that position up to the time of the Anglo-Boer war. Later he was magistrate in the Free State, Swaziland and the Transvaal for many years. "Oraviana," who tells the story, vouches for its truth:

"It's dangerous going out alone," said my mother. "Why don't you ask one of your friends to accompany you?"

"I'm fifteen and no longer a baby," replied. I can look after myself and prefer to go alone."

My mother said nothing further and I proceeded with the cleaning of my shotgun. It was a Friday evening and as there would be no school on Saturday, I had made up my mind to go out hunting.

I rose early next morning with the intention of taking my departure, while the rest of the family were still in bed, but my mother was up before me.

"Take care of yourself," said she with some show of anxiety, on seeing me.

"Oh, mother!" I replied sharply, "birds and hares won't eat me!"

"But leopards will," she added quietly. I laughed as I left the house, for the idea of meeting a lion or leopard seemed absurd. These animals had not been seen for many years and were believed to be extinct in that part of the country where we were living. Besides, I was armed with my shotgun and the cleaning of it had convinced me that it was a most effective weapon.

Not far from the house where I lived, towered a lofty mountain which I reached and began to ascend after a few minutes' walk, heading for a spot where, I knew, I would find a great variety of birds; so absorbed was I in the anticipated destruction of the poor feathered creatures, that I did not notice that a heavy mist had gathered, which came into violent contact with stunted trees.

The shock brought me back to realities and it was with a feeling of dismay that I realized I had lost my bearings and, on account of the density of the mist, could not tell where I was, but knowing that it would soon disperse, as it usually does in South Africa, I proceeded a little further and sat down to wait for it to clear.

I had scarcely done so, however, when I heard a sound behind me. I turned my head and saw something lying on a rock a little higher up on the mountain side. I could not discern what it was, but came to the conclusion that it was some animal which was watching me closely.

For a moment I was at a loss as to what I should do, but decided to cautiously, scarce daring to breathe, I rose to my feet and faced it; but I confess that my knees were standing on end and cold shivers were running down my spine.

Whatever the thing was, it began to move and, scenting danger, I raised my gun and discharged it full at the creature just as it sprang towards me. I ducked instinctively and the hairy body of the animal just grazed my hat, knocking it off.

Terror stricken, I turned, flung away the gun and fled down the mountain side as fast as my legs could carry me, never once glancing back or stopping until, pale and breathless, I reached the shelter of my home.

Complete in itself, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator does not require the assistance of any other medicine to make it effective. It does not fail to do its work.

"This bootleg licker is goin' to compel us to put up a new building in Crimson Gulch."

"How soon?"

"Just as quick as we can decide whether to make it a jail or a hospital."

It Testifies for Itself.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil needs no testimonial of its powers other than itself. Whoever tries it for coughs or colds, for cuts or contusions, for sprains or burns, for pains in the limbs or body, will know that the medicine proves itself and needs no guarantee. This shows why this Oil is in general use.

In all infantile complaints that are the result of the depredations of worms in the stomach and intestines Miller's Worm Powders will be found an effective remedy. They attack the cause of these troubles, and by expelling the worms from the organs insure an orderly working of the system, without which the child cannot maintain its strength or thrive. These powders mean health and improvement.

Prospective Buyer—"Well, as soon as it has done that you can have it delivered at my garage."

Mothers Value This Oil.—Mothers who know how suddenly croup may seize their children and how necessary prompt action is in applying relief, always keep at hand a supply of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, because experience has taught them that this is an excellent preparation for the treatment of this ailment. And they are wise, for its various uses render it a valuable medicine.

"Look," said the despairing mother of the dirty boy, "wouldn't you like to be as neat and clean as those two children in white sailor suits?"

"No," said the dirty boy. "They're not children; they're pets."

"I thought, Sam," said Jones, upon meeting his colored friend outside the courtroom, "that you were going to settle your dispute out of court."

"We did, sah," declared Sam. "Dis yere am jest de suit for 'sault an' battery what happened durin' de settlement."

Help for Asthma. Neglect gives asthma a great advantage. The trouble, once it has secured a foothold, fastens its grip on the bronchial passages tenaciously. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy is daily benefiting cases of asthma of long standing. Years of suffering, however, might have been prevented had the remedy been used when the trouble was in its first stages. Do not neglect asthma, but use this preparation at once.

"I certainly got a bargain when I bought my radio set," remarked young Stubbs.

"Are you quite sure of that?" questioned Jones.

"There's no doubt about it" was the answer. "After I had assembled the set I had sixty-seven parts left over!"

Mrs. Nuwed: "Don't try to soothe me, sir. You have doubted my word!"

Mr. Nuwed: "But, my darling, you must have spent the money or lost it. Only last Monday, I see by my cheque-book, I gave you ten pounds."

Mrs. Nuwed: "There! You would rather believe an old cheque-book than me."

Henry, who married in New York, brought his wife home to his father's farm. It was her first experience of country life.

"Would you like to try it?" she was asked.

The bride was doubtful. "I think I could start the milk, but I— I'm afraid I couldn't stop it."

A man of the yokel type was troubled whether it was his duty to marry an old sweetheart or a kitchen-maid named Maria who had recently captured his affections.

"Ah," said the yokel, "there weren't no need, for there 'twas writ up for me in golden letters: 'Ave Maria'!"

The Perfect Roof

Durability, economy, beauty—these are the outstanding features of a perfect roof and these, too, are the qualities which are scientifically "built into" Toronto Asphalt Slates.

The asphalt used is highly refined and contains no volatile oils that would evaporate when the roofing is exposed to the weather. This gives a solid waterproof roofing that will not curl, crack, check or decay even under the most extreme weather conditions. No artificial paints or stains are used in making Toronto Asphalt Slates and none are required to maintain their serviceability.

The fire-resisting qualities of Toronto Asphalt Slates are fully recognized by fire insurance companies and secure low rates, because sparks and flaming embers falling on a Toronto Asphalt Slate roof die out without igniting the roof or doing serious damage. Toronto Asphalt Slates have even withstood such a severe test as a shovelful of red-hot coals without fire starting either in the roofing or rafters beneath.

Toronto Asphalt Slates being uniform in size, can be laid with the utmost ease and rapidity and without waste. Toronto Four-in-One Asphalt Slates offer even greater saving in time and labor, besides insuring perfect uniformity in appearance.

The cost is quite moderate. Indeed, considering the total absence of upkeep, the splendid protection and the long life of Toronto Asphalt Slates, their economy is unapproached by any other type of roofing material. You can depend upon Toronto Asphalt Slates for maximum service at rock-bottom cost.

Then there is the fadeless beauty of Toronto Asphalt Slates. Their natural and permanent colors, their simple lines and the exact evenness of the finished roof is a source of pride to architects, builders and property owners alike. Such a roof blends harmoniously with any style of architecture.

Toronto Asphalt Slates will give you full roofing satisfaction. They are the "last word" in roofing perfection. So let's all be proud together of your next roof. Specify Toronto Asphalt Slates by name and if you have any difficulty in securing them locally please write direct to us.

GREAT BRITAIN CONTROLS THE WORLD'S RUBBER

Winston Churchill hopes that rubber may pay the British debt to the United States, and the Department of Commerce in Washington said the other day that it was quite possible that this would be done. More than two-thirds of the rubber annually consumed in the United States is produced in British colonies, and in those colonies a system of government control has been established. This is having the effect of raising the price; in round numbers of making the Americans pay enough extra for their rubber as will, in the course of time, cancel the British debt. American manufacturers were somewhat alarmed at the prospect when the policy of limiting production was announced, and the United States Government set aside half a million dollars to be used in experiments to determine whether eventually rubber might not be grown in the United States. But it does not appear that for a long time to come the United States will be able to escape the necessity of buying British-controlled rubber. American manufacturers are willing that the price should be advanced. "They were not glad when rubber was selling for nine cents a pound. But they will not be glad either if rubber should rise to a dollar a pound.

Extraordinary Fluctuations.

It was due to British control of the rubber industry that the price of rubber did not accompany that of meat other commodities in their upward flight when the war was raging; and it was this same control that imposed so serious a handicap upon Germany, which was obliged to smuggle her rubber and use it over and over again and seek substitutes and eventually to admit that without an adequate supply of rubber war could not be carried on. The great days of the rubber boom were in 1910, when the demand for automobile tires so far outstripped the supply that prices soared above $3 a pound and many English speculators became millionaires overnight. The low price was reached in the depression of 1920-21, when rubber sold for nine cents. Due to the restrictions placed on the manufacture and export of rubber, the price advanced from seventeen cents to sixty cents last year. Now the American manufacturers fear that it may go to a dollar. They did not like nine cent rubber because they knew that at this price they were paying little more than half what it cost to produce. They knew that many plantations were being neglected and that they would sadly deteriorate and become jungles if not constantly attended. So they feared that there would be a great advance if a price yielding a fair profit was not paid steadily.

The Story of Rubber.

The story of rubber is a curious one. The tree is indigenous to Brazil, and for many years was produced exclusively there. For many centuries its peculiar properties had been known to the natives, and Columbus was greatly interested in it. But not much attention was paid to it by European travellers until in the eighteenth century a Frenchman gathered some of it in Ecuador and took it home. Then Frenchmen and Englishmen began experimenting with it, and in 1770 an English chemist discovered that the stuff could be used to erase pencil marks from paper. Thus it got its name, though its great potentialities were not then suspected. Indeed, because of its stickiness its uses were limited until somebody else found out that this stickiness could be got rid of by adding a little turpentine in sulphur. In 1839 Charles Goodyear happened to drop some of it on a red-hot stove when conducting some experiments, and thus by accident vulcanized rubber was discovered. Though he fought many lawsuits to protect patents Goodyear profited little financially by his discovery, but he is now regarded as having been an extraordinary benefactor to industry.

The Patriotic Smuggler.

Since Goodyear's time, as Silas Bent writes in the New York Times, the United States has taken the lead in the development of rubber for the uses of mankind, and except for the small quantity produced in the Philippines, it is dependent upon foreign nations for its supply. The rubber industry is the sixth in importance in the neighboring republic. It resembles cotton in that the great producer is not the greatest manufacturer. Brazil for a time continued to be the chief source of the rubber supply, and it was through the patriotism of an Englishman named Henry A. Wickham that her monopoly was broken and transferred to Great Britain. Wickham had made a study of the rubber tree and concluded that there were many places under the Union Jack where it could be grown. So he chartered a ship, went to South America and smuggled seeds through Para on the pretence that they were botanical specimens. These seeds were planted in Kew, England, and slips after they had sprouted were shipped to Ceylon. This was half a century ago, and most of the East Indian plantations owe their origin to the smuggled seeds.

The Stevenson Plan.

The vast industry which had volplaned in 1920 was brought to life by the so-called "Stevenson plan". Sir James Stevenson was chairman of a committee appointed at the instance of the Colonial Office to examine the question. This commission prevailed upon Malava, Borneo, Ceylon, Sarawak and other rubber growers to restrict exports by 65 per cent. of the volume in 1920, with a sliding scale of five per cent. for the annual quarters, either receding or advancing the price rose or fell. Negotiations were taken up with the Dutch, the only other important owners of rubber plantations, and an understanding was reached. The restrictions naturally led to smuggling, just as prohibition led to bootlegging, but a stiffening of the penalties suppressed what would have been a most lucrative business, and the prices began steadily to rise. Part of the increased demand was due to the innovation of balloon tires, which require more rubber than the other kind, but even without this discovery it is believed that the Stevenson scheme would have saved the industry from irretrievable ruin.

You are sure to need some handy remedy for Sunburn, Insect Stings, Thorn Scratches, Sore Places. Zam-Buk has been proved to be the best. Take a box with you.

"Tommy," said a young woman visitor at his home, "why not come to our Sunday School? Several of your little friends have joined us lately."

Tommy hesitated a moment. Then suddenly: "Does a red-headed kid by the name of Jimmy Brown go to your school?"

"Yes, indeed," replied the new teacher.

"Well, then," replied Tommy, with an air of interest, "I'll be there next Sunday, you bet. I've been looking for that kid for three weeks, and never knew where to find him."

Amongst a host of good stories told by the veteran T. P. O'Connor is one concerning an old Journalist friend of his in the Press Gallery of the House of Commons.

This gentleman was, it appears, fond of a "glass" in the intervals between work. One evening he was taking his case, and a little refreshment, in a tavern nearly opposite the House, when a messenger hurried in and reminded him that he was overdue in the Gallery to relieve a colleague.

Reluctantly he drained his glass put it down on the bar counter, and remarked: "Ah, well, work is the curse of the drinking classes."

OBITUARY

Mrs. Thomas Penny.

On Monday, May 25th, 1925, after an illness of three weeks, there entered into rest, Margaret Coburn, third eldest child of the late John and Elizabeth Coburn, Hinch Street. She was married in 1875 to the late Thomas Penny, who predeceased her in 1896. Mr. and Mrs. Penny had one daughter, Olive Jane, who was killed by a train at Napanee, in 1917, leaving four small children. From that time until her death, the late Mrs. Penny gave to these children a true mother's loving care and training.

Mrs. Penny was born in 1843. At an early age became a member of Camden Presbyterian Church and continued a faithful Christian through life. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Carrie Lockridge, Hinch, a brother, Mr. John Coburn, Fort Arthur, besides the members of the home, Mr. Amos Hughes, and the four grandchildren.

The funeral service was held in Camden V. Presbyterian Church, when a very large number of friends assembled, showing the loving regard and high esteem in which the late Mrs. Penny was held. Her Pastor, Rev. T. H. P. Anderson preached by request from the 90th Psalm, the same as Dr. Gandier had used for her mother. At her request also was sung "Safe in the Arms of Jesus". Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, of Roblin, sang very sweetly a suitable selection. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the sorrowing ones.

"Till the day breaks and the shadows flee away".

Mrs. John W. Shier, Sr.

Rhoda Shier, wife of John W. Shier, Sr., passed away at her home in the Village of Tamworth, on Sunday, at 2 a.m. She had been a long and patient sufferer. The last three years and four months she was unable to raise her head from the pillow and was attended day and night.

During her active life she devoted herself almost entirely to the duties of her home and family. She was born at Plainfield, Ont., being the daughter of the late Peter Caverly.

The funeral was held on Monday, June 8th, at 2.30 p.m., in Christ Church, Tamworth, the service being conducted by the Rector, the Rev. A. Poston. The text was taken from Acts 12:15.

She leaves besides her husband, her three sons and one daughter, Jas. A. Shier, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Russell Shier, of Bowesman, Man., and J. Wesley Shier and Mrs. D. G. Hinchey, of Tamworth, Ont.

Horse Killed by Lightning.
The lightning on Wednesday morning was so severe in Erresteyn Township that a horse owned by Jr. C. Parrott, who resides on the Provincial Highway, about two miles from Odessa, was instantly killed while standing in the stable. About three o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Parrott were awakened from their slumbers by the heavy storm. Upon leaking out of the bedroom window, Mrs. Parrott saw a reflection in the drive shed. As she could not put on a few shoes she ran to the shed and found that the lightning had struck the well and two umbrellas which had been hanging there were ablaze. With a couple of pails of water the fire in the drive shed was extinguished. Upon going into the stable, about forty feet away, it was found that one of the horses had been killed by the flash, which was seen to strike the chimney by Mrs. Parrott. When making an investigation later it was found that the lightning had gone down a post in the stable and how the building did not catch fire is a mystery. A horse owned by Champ Smith, who resides a short distance from Mr. Parrott, was struck by lightning on Monday evening, but did not take fire.

Many star soloists will appear in the production of "Blind Love", including Mary McGraw, Oliver McHugh, Irene Garrison, Margaret Nolan Fred LaSalle and Reg. Wiseman. They will be assisted by a big Napanee beauty chorus. 24a

Garrett B. Joy

Mr. Garrett B. Joy, one of the oldest residents of Napanee, and a lifelong resident, passed away quite suddenly on Tuesday morning, June 9th. Mr. Joy had been a sufferer from heart trouble for some time, though he was able to be around and was out walking on the street on Monday afternoon. Deceased for a long number of years was in the saw-mill business at Napanee, owning a mill which stood in what is now Springside Park. A few years ago Mr. Joy pulled down the old mill and erected the building in which he conducted a cement brick and tile business. Besides his widow he leaves one daughter, Miss Rose Joy. Mr. Joy was an enthusiastic Oddfellow and one of the most active members of Napanee Lodge No. 86, of which he was treasurer for a long number of years. The funeral took place from his late residence, Dundas Street, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Milton Hughes.

Mrs. Milton Hughes, nee Hannah Maud Haines, died at her home, in Roblin, on June 6th, at the age of 50 years and 4 months. Born at Enterprise, a daughter of the late Thomas and Margaret Haines, her early religious training was received in connection with Reidville Presbyterian Church. Thirty-one years ago she was united in marriage to Mr. Milton Hughes, of Roblin. Twenty-eight years ago she became identified with the Movement Church, under the ministrate of Rev. Mr. Lindsay. The late Mrs. Hughes was a sincere, devoted Christian and a highly esteemed member of the Roblin community. She leaves a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. For many months she battled bravely and patiently against disease, but without avail for the angel of death claimed her at last. Her last days were mercifully brightened with visions of her Saviour. In the spirit of prayer and the confident experience of salvation, she peacefully departed this life to sojourn forever with the Lord. The funeral service was held on June 7th, in Roblin Methodist Church, with Rev. Mr. Lindsay and Rev. C. J. Wilson officiating. The remains were interred in Camden V. cemetery. Besides her bereaved husband, two daughters mourn her loss, Mrs. Fred McConnell, of Roblin, and Laura, at home; one son, Thomas Harold, predeceased her. Other sorrowing relatives are a brother, William Haines, of Erresteyn Station, and two sisters, Mrs. Johnston Cousins, of Enterprise, and Mrs. James Richmond, of Roblin.

Wm. McLaughlin, always a favorite in local talent shows, will have the star part of his career as Col. Bailey, in "Blind Love". 24a

"BLIND LOVE"

All roads lead to the Armouries, next Wednesday and Thursday, June 17th and 18th, when this big spectacular musical comedy-drama entitled "Blind Love" will be presented under the auspices of the B. Company Frontenac Regiment, and under the able direction of Theodore A. Bird, whose superb local amateur theatricals have become the household words of Canada. It will doubtless be interesting to the citizens of Napanee to know that when the curtain rises on "Blind Love" it will be the first time that it has been seen in the Province of Ontario. The same thing applies to Miss Doctor's Private Secretary", "Why She Loved Him", and "Nobody's Baby", which had their first presentation in Ontario in Napanee. It is customary in New York City for producers to "try out" their first efforts in Ontario towns. Considering that if it passes the Board of Censors that it is sure to be a "Broadway Success". Mr. Bird has the same feeling towards Napanee. "The Doctor's Private Secretary", and "Why She Loved Him", proving a great box office winner all over Ontario, and "Nobody's Baby" has broken all records wherever he has produced it. He now offers "Blind Love" for the approval of the Napanee Citizens. If it meets with success Mr. Bird will use it for his 1925 and 1926 engagements. 24a
